2. That the defendant is entitled to have the sole care, custody and control of the minor child of the parties to this action, with the right in the plaintiff to visit said child at reasonable times and occasions.

3. That the plaintiff is entitled to have an order of this Court made and entered approving said property settlement agreement and awarding the defendant the sum of $50.00 per month for the support of the minor child of the parties to this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be and the same are hereby dissolved and the plaintiff is hereby granted an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of extreme cruelty.

2. That the sole care, custody and control of Julie Ann Watson, the minor child of the parties to this action, be and the same is hereby awarded to the defendant, with the right in the plaintiff to visit said child at reasonable times and occasions.

3. That the defendant is hereby awarded and the plaintiff is hereby required to pay unto the defendant the sum of $50.00 per month for the support of the minor child of the parties to this action until said minor child shall have arrived at the age of majority or until such time as a court of competent jurisdiction shall otherwise decree.

4. That the property settlement agreement entered into between the plaintiff and the defendant under date of May 9, 1949, be and the same is hereby approved, ratified and confirmed and represents a fair and equitable settlement of the property rights as between the parties.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause having come on duly and regularly for trial before the Court at Lewiston, Idaho, on June 10, 1949, pursuant to an agreement between counsel for the respective parties to this action, and the plaintiff and cross-defendant appearing by and through his attorney, Earle W. Morgan, and the defendant and cross-plaintiff appearing in person and by and through her attorney of record, Ray E. Durham, and the Court having heard the evidence and being fully advised, both as to the facts and the law, and having made and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law,

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and based upon the evidence introduced and Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED as follows:

1. That the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between Stanley T. Law and Dorothy J. Law, be and the same are hereby dissolved; that Dorothy J. Law, the defendant and cross-plaintiff, be and she is hereby granted an absolute decree of divorce from the plaintiff and cross-defendant upon the grounds of extreme cruelty.

2. That it is for the best interests of Linda Kay Law and Lorraine Rae Law, the two minor children of the parties to this action, that their care, custody and control be awarded to the grandparents of said children, to-wit, Roscoe White and Ethel White, his wife; that the sole care, custody and control of said minor children be and the same is hereby awarded to the said Roscoe White and Ethel White, with the right in the plaintiff and cross-defendant to visit said children at reasonable times and occasions, but not exceeding once a week, at the home where said children are being maintained, so long as the said plaintiff and cross-defendant is not in arrears in any of his payments for the support, care and maintenance of said children.

3. That the said plaintiff and cross-defendant, Stanley T. Law, is able to contribute toward the support and maintenance of said children the sum of $60.00 per month; that the said Stanley T. Law is hereby ordered and required to pay unto Roscoe White and Ethel White, his wife, the sum of $60.00 on June 15, 1949, and a like sum on the 15th day of each and every month thereafter until further order of this Court, for the support, care and maintenance of said children.

4. That the sum of $150.00 is a reasonable sum to be allowed defendant and cross-plaintiff for attorney's fees incurred in the defense of said divorce action instituted by the plaintiff and cross-defendant and for prosecuting her cross-complaint; that the said plaintiff and cross-defendant is hereby required to pay unto the defendant and cross-plaintiff the sum of $150.00 as attorney's fees; that judgment be and the same is hereby entered against the plaintiff and cross-defendant for the sum of $150.00, and that the defendant and cross-plaintiff have execution against the plaintiff and cross-defendant for said judgment.

DONE in Open Court this 10th day of June, 1949.

The above entitled cause came on regularly to be heard on the 13th day of June, 1949, before the Honorable Leo McCarty, Judge of the above entitled court. The plaintiff appeared in person and by his attorney of record herein, Russell S. Randall, and the defendant having heretofore filed an unverified answer through attorneys Clarke & Costello of Cleveland, Ohio, and the said unversified answer was not signed by a resident attorney of the State of Idaho as required by Section 5-701, Idaho Code. Thereafter an appearance in the above entitled action was made by PAUL C. KEETON, a resident attorney of the State of Idaho residing at Lewiston, Idaho, and under date of May 31, 1949, the said Paul C. Keeton withdrew from said action as attorney for defendant and notice of such withdrawal was given to the said defendant and her non-resident attorneys, Clarke & Costello, and thereafter plaintiff by notice as required by law made a demand upon the defendant to employ other local counsel, and no other counsel having appeared in said action, and defendant having failed to appear in person, and the Court having found that the answer of said defendant was required to be verified for the reason that the said complaint was verified, and the said unverified answer tendered no issue, and the Court having heretofore entered a default against the defendant and this matter having been duly and regularly set for trial, and evidence oral and documentary submitted, and the Court having heretofore granted a motion to amend the complaint to conform to the proof by interlineation as the original and said ~~amended complaint~~ amendment having been ~~filed~~ made herein, and the cause having been fully submitted to the Court and the Court having duly considered same, and it appearing to the Court that all of the allegations in the plaintiff's amended complaint as amended are true,

NOW, THEREFORE, based thereon, it is hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed as follows:

I.

That the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be and the same are hereby dissolved and that the plaintiff IRVIN C. LAMON is granted an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant Leone C. Lamon on the grounds of cruelty and the said parties are after the entry of this Decree both restored to the status of a single person.

II.

That the plaintiff be and he is hereby ordered to pay to defendant for the care, support and education of the minor child of plaintiff and defendant, Daryl Lamon, the sum of $50.00 per month on the 1st day of each month, during the minority of said child or until further order of this court, beginning July 1, 1949.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause having come on duly and regularly for hearing before the Court in Chambers at Grangeville, Idaho County, Idaho, on this 17th day of June, 1949, plaintiff appearing in person and by and through her attorney of record, and the defendant having been served with process by publication of summons pursuant to the order of this Court, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant is not in the military service of the United States, and the default of said defendant having been entered by the Clerk of the Court for his failure to appear, answer or demur to plaintiff's complaint within the time allowed by law, or at all, and the Court having heard the evidence introduced by and on behalf of the plaintiff and being fully advised in the premises, FINDS:

That the defendant is not in the military service of the United States in any capacity and is not entitled to the benefits of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended;

That the plaintiff and the defendant intermarried at Asotin, Washington, on March 16, 1948, and ever since have been and now are, husband and wife.

That the plaintiff is now and has been all her life a resident of the State of Idaho.

That no children have been born as issue of said marriage.

That the plaintiff and the defendant have acquired no property during the existence of said marriage, and no property rights need be adjudicated herein.

That the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty toward the plaintiff in the manner following, to-wit:

> That at the time the parties hereto were married the defendant was gainfully employed; that the day after their marriage the defendant quit his job; that the defendant had written a check to purchase the engagement and wedding ring for the plaintiff; that said check was not honored due to lack of funds; that the jeweler requested the return of the rings; that said defendant wrote several bad checks immediately after the marriage of the parties hereto; that said defendant left the plaintiff four days after the marriage and has not contacted the plaintiff since leaving her; that the defendant has been lodged in jail at Lewiston and Orofino for the writing of bad checks; that this conduct on the part of the defendant has caused this plaintiff great humiliation; that the defendant has failed and refused to support this plaintiff; that said plaintiff has been compelled to seek employment in order to provide the necessities of life for herself; that the conduct of the defendant was calculated to cause and did cause this plaintiff grievous mental anguish and suffering.

From the foregoing Findings the Court concludes that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from the defendant.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be and the same are hereby dissolved and the plaintiff is hereby granted an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant.

That the defendant was duly and regularly served by publication in the Lewiston Morning Tribune, by publication of said Another Summons on April 13, April 20, April 27, May 4, and May 11, 1949, and by mailing of a copy of summons and complaint to his last known post office address, being that of Moscow, Idaho, within ten days of the first publication of said Another Summons, as shown herein by Affidavit of Mailing filed on behalf of the plaintiff.

That the allegations contained in Paragraphs I, II, III, IV and V of the plaintiff's complaint are true as alleged and are incorporated in this Decree as Findings of Fact by reference with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein. The Court concludes from the Findings of Fact that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of extreme cruelty.

NOW, THEREFORE, IN CONSIDERATION OF THE PREMISES, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

That the Court has jurisdiction of the parties and the subject matter of this action.

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Vera Bell Jennings, and the Defendant, Donn F. Jennings, be and the same hereby are, wholly and forever dissolved and the parties are released from each other and from all matrimonial obligations; and the plaintiff is granted and given an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant.

That the plaintiff be, and she hereby is, restored her maiden name, that of Vera Bell Revord.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

The above entitled cause came on regularly for trial in open court at Lewiston, Idaho, before the Honorable Leo McCarty on the 27th day of June, 1949, at Ten O'clock A.M. The plaintiff appeared in person and was represented by his attorney, Paul C. Keeton. The defendant did not appear either in person or by attorney, and she having accepted service of Summons and Complaint in this cause within the State of Idaho on the 18th day of May, 1949, and twenty days having expired since said service and she having failed to appear, demur or answer within the time allowed by law, or at all; and she being in default and her default having been entered and a Non-Military Affidavit having been filed by the plaintiff as required by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, and all laws amendatory thereof, the Court proceeded to hear the cause.

Witnesses were sworn and examined on behalf of the plaintiff and testimony and corroborating testimony was admitted; and the Court being advised in the premises makes the following findings and decrees:

That the defendant accepted service of Summons and Complaint in this cause within the State of Idaho at Headquarters in Clearwater County, Idaho, on the 18th day of May, 1949.

That the allegations of the plaintiff's Complaint are as follows, to-wit: 1, that the plaintiff and defendant were married at Pierce, Idaho, on the 16th day of June, 1948; 2, that the plaintiff is a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho; 3, that there have been no children born the issue of said marriage; 4, that the plaintiff and defendant have acquired no community property; and 5, that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty; and said allegations are incorporated in this Decree as Findings of Fact and are found by the Court to be true as alleged in said Complaint.

The Court concludes from the Findings of Fact that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of extreme cruelty.

NOW, THEREFORE, IN CONSIDERATION OF THE PREMISES, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

That the Court has jurisdiction of the parties and the subject matter of this action.

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, William H. Phillips, and the defendant, Loretta J. Phillips, be, and the same hereby are wholly and forever dissolved and the parties are released from each other and from all matrimonial obligations and they are restored to the status of single, unmarried persons; and the plaintiff is granted and given an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

The above entitled cause came on regularly for trial in open court at Lewiston, Idaho, before the Honorable Leo McCarty on the 30th day of June, 1949, at Ten o'clock A.M. The plaintiff appeared in person and was represented by her attorney, Paul C. Keeton. The defendant having been regularly and duly served with Summons and Complaint in this cause outside the State of Idaho at McChord Field, Washington, pursuant to Affidavit and Order for service in a foreign jurisdiction, on the 28th day of May, 1949, and having regularly filed his Appearance in said cause waiving his rights under the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940 and all laws amendatory thereof, consented to the entry of his default by said court in said cause.

The Court proceeded to hear the cause and witnesses were sworn and examined on behalf of the plaintiff and testimony and corroborating testimony was admitted; and the Court being advised in the premises, makes the following findings and decrees:

That the defendant accepted service of Summons and Complaint in this cause at McChord Field, Washington, on the 28th day of May, 1949; and thereafter appeared in said action by an Admission of Service and Waiver of Appearance on the part of the defendant and refused to plead to the plaintiff's Complaint and agreed that his default for failure to plead may be entered by the Court at any time without notice of any kind or nature in or concerning any of the proceedings in said cause; that twenty days have passed since the Acceptance of Service by the defendant, and therefore, the default of the defendant is ordered to be entered on the records of the Clerk of said Court.

That the allegations of the plaintiff's Complaint are as follows, to-wit: 1, that the plaintiff and defendant were married at Lewiston, Idaho, on the 6th day of August, 1946; 2, that the plaintiff is a resident of the State of Idaho; 3, that the plaintiff and defendant have acquired no community property; 4, that there were two children born the issue of said marriage, namely, Gary Thomas Cook and Carol June Cook, and that said children are now in the possession of the plaintiff and that the plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have their care, custody, charge and control; and 5, that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty; that said allegations are incorporated in this Decree as Findings of Fact and are found by the Court to be true as alleged in said Complaint.

The Court concludes from the Findings of Fact that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of extreme cruelty.

NOW, THEREFORE, IN CONSIDERATION OF THE PREMISES, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

That the Court has jurisdiction of the parties and the subject matter of this action.

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Maxine Cook, and the defendant, Thomas H. Cook, be, and the same hereby are wholly and forever dissolved, and the parties are released from each other and from all matrimonial obligations and they are restored to the status of single, unmarried persons; and the plaintiff is granted and given an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant.

That the plaintiff, Maxine Cook, be and she hereby is awarded the care, custody, charge and control of the minor children of the parties, namely, Gary Thomas Cook and Carol June Cook; and that the defendant, Thomas H. Cook, is granted the right to visit said children at reasonable times and at reasonable places.

The above entitled cause came on regularly to be heard and tried in the chambers of the court at Boise, Ada County, Idaho, on the 10th day of June, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorneys, Anderson and Thomas, and the defendant not appearing either in person or by attorney;

And upon said hearing, it satisfactorily appearing to the court that the defendant herein, William L. Fitch, was personally and duly served with summons herein attached to a copy of the complaint referred to in the said summons and on file in this cause, and the defendant having failed to answer, demur or otherwise plead to said complaint and the time for answering, demurring or otherwise pleading to said complaint having expired, and the default of the defendant, William L. Fitch, having been duly entered according to law, and the court having heard the testimony introduced in behalf of the said plaintiff and in support of her complaint; and upon consideration of the said testimony the court finds upon the first cause of action of the plaintiff the issues in favor of said plaintiff and against the said defendant and finds that the said defendant has been guilty of wilful neglect of and towards the plaintiff as set forth in said complaint and the court finds upon the second cause of action of the plaintiff the issues in favor of said plaintiff and against said defendant and finds that the said defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty of and towards the plaintiff as set forth in said complaint and the court finds upon the third cause of action of the plaintiff the issues in favor of said plaintiff and against the said defendant and finds that the said defendant has been guilty of habitual intemperance which has reasonably inflicted a course of great mental anguish upon said plaintiff as set forth in said complaint and that by reason thereof said plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between plaintiff and defendant dissolved and to be divorced from the said defendant;

The court further finds that there has been born to the plaintiff and defendant as issue of said marriage, one child, a girl, whose name is Roberta Annette Fitch, and whose present age is 8 years, and that said minor child is now in the care and custody of the plaintiff;

The court further finds that the said plaintiff has been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho for more than six weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff, Edith B. Fitch, and the defendant William L. Fitch, be, and the same hereby are, dissolved and set aside, and the said plaintiff be, and she hereby is, forever divorced from the defendant, and each the said plaintiff and the said defendant is hereby restored to the status of a single person.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the plaintiff be, and she hereby is, awarded the sole and exclusive custody and control of the minor child of said marriage of the plaintiff and defendant, to-wit: Roberta Annette Fitch, a daughter, with the right of the said defendant to visit said minor child at all reasonable times and to have the said minor child visit him at reasonable times.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the defendant, William L. Fitch, be, and he hereby is, ordered and directed to pay to the said plaintiff the sum of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) each and every month for the education, care, support and maintenance of said minor child until said minor child shall attain the age of majority.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the plaintiff is the owner as her sole and separate property and not in any respect as community property of all of the right, title and interest of the said plaintiff and the said defendant in and to the various items of household furniture and effects as described in said complaint.

DECREE OF DIVORCE.

Case No. 2241

District Court

Date Filed 6/25/49 9 o'clock

Fred Webb

By

This cause came on for hearing this 24th day of June, 1949, before the Hon. Charles E. Winstead Judge of the within court, in Boise, County of Ada, State of Idaho, the plaintiff Phyllis Dillon, appearing in person and by her attorney Phil J. Evans, of Murphy, County of Owyhee, State of Idaho, and the defendant William Dillon, sometimes known as W.T.Dillon, not appearing either in person or by counsel, and

It appearing to the satisfaction of the court that the said defendant has been personally served with a copy of the verified complaint on file in the within action, and has waived service of process in said action and has entered his voluntary appearance in said action and taken the statutory time to plead to said complaint, and it further appearing to the satisfaction of the court that the said defendant has failed to plead to said complaint within the time allowed by law or at all, and that the time allowed by law for said defendant to plead to said complaint has expired, the default of said defendant is therefore entered in the within action, and it further appearing that the said defendant is not now, nor has he been during the pendency of this action enrolled in the military forces of the United States as defined in Section 101 (1) of the Act of Congress, approved October 17th, 1940, and cited as the Soldiers' and Sailors' Relief Act of 1940, or any Act of Congress amendatory thereof, or any legislation of the State of Idaho duly adopted and approved;

The Court proceeded to hear the evidence adduced by the plaintiff in support of the allegations contained in her complaint on file in the within action, and upon the conclusion of the said evidence, duly corroborated as required by law, and the final submission of this cause for the determination of the court, the law and the evidence being by the court understood and fully considered, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the court that all the material allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true, and such is found to be the fact, and that plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce as prayed in said complaint:

Now, therefore, on motion of Phil J. Evans, attorney for the said plaintiff, and in consideration of the premises, and the power in me vested by the laws of the State of Idaho,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the said plaintiff PHYLLIS DILLON, be, and she is hereby granted a divorce from the said William Dillon, sometimes known as W.T.Dillon, and that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the said plaintiff and the said defendant be, and the same are hereby dissolved and set aside, and the said parties and each of them are hereby restored to the status of single, unmarried persons. Custody of minor child Wilma Josephine Dillon is hereby awarded to plaintiff herein.

No. 2682
Filed

Clerk.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came on regularly to be heard by the court this 20th day of June, 1949, the plaintiff appearing with her attorney, J. P. Reed, and the defendant manking no appearance. And it being shown to the court that the defendant herein was duly served with summons in this action and has failed to appear herein and plead to plaintiff's complaint within the time allowed by law or at all, and that the default of the defendant has been duly entered and filed herein, and that a proper affidavit of military status is on file herein showing that the defendant is not in the military service of the United States of America, thereupon the court heard the evidence of plaintiff in support of her complaint, together with other evidence in corroboration of plaintiff, from which evidence the court now finds that the material allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true, and that she is entitled to the relief therein prayed for. Wherefore the court now renders judgment in this action in favor of plaintiff and against the defendant as follows, to-wit:

1. It is hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed by the court that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Gladys Lucille Hurd, and the defendant, B. Carson Hurd, be, and the same are, hereby absolutely dissolved; and that plaintiff and defendant, and each of them, are hereby restored to their former status of unmarried persons.

2. It is hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed by the court that the custody of the minor child of plaintiff and defendant, Gary Carson Hurd, be, and it is hereby, awarded to the plaintiff, with the right, however, on the part of the defendant to see and visit said child at all reasonable times and all reasonable places under reasonable circumstances.

Action No. 2686

Filed
June 20, 1949
Lillian Wilson,

This cause came on regularly to be heard in open Court on the 20th day of June , 1949, and it appearing that the defendant, Eddie Boren, was duly and regularly served with process herein by personal service upon him in the State of Idaho, according to law, and that he has failed to appear in any manner or at all herein although the time for appearance has fully expired, and a proper and sufficient affidavit showing that the defendant was not at any time during the pendency of this action and is not now in the service of the United States of America, either army, navy or otherwise, having been filed herein and based thereon a Judge of this Court made and there was filed an order permitting the default of said defendant to be entered upon proper and sufficient showing of service upon said defendant, and thereupon and on such order and showing of proper service upon said defendant, the Clerk of this Court duly entered the default of the said defendant, and the Court thereupon proceeded to try said cause.

The Court having heard the testimony of the plaintiff and a witness in her behalf and having examined the evidence in support of the allegations of the complaint herein, and the matter having been submitted to the Court for judgment, and the Court having considered the evidence and being fully advised in the premises, finds: That all the material allegations of the plaintiff as set forth in her complaint herein are true, to-wit: That plaintiff and defendant intermarried as alleged in said complaint; that plaintiff is and for more than six weeks preceding the commencement of this action was a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho; that plaintiff and defendant ceased to live together as husband and wife as alleged in said complaint and ever since they so ceased to live together have been and now are living separate and apart; that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty in his conduct toward and treatment of the plaintiff as alleged in said complaint, without just cause on the part of the plaintiff; that there were born as the issue of said marriage two children, to-wit: Ralph Boren, now aged 10 years, and Chester Boren, now aged 8 years, each of whom is now with the plaintiff and have been so during the pendency of this action and before; that plaintiff desires to have the care, custody and control of said children and each of them to be awarded to her and that they should be so awarded, plaintiff being a proper person to have same so awarded; that the defendant is an able bodied man, capable of earning good wages, and that the plaintiff desires to have awarded to her the sum of $25.00 per month for each of said children to assist in their care and support; that plaintiff owns as her separate property the lands and premises described in the complaint herein, and that the personal property therein described is community property of said parties.

The Court therefore finds that plaintiff is entitled to judgment and decree of this Court dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between herself and the defendant, on the grounds of extreme cruelty of the defendant toward the plaintiff; that the plaintiff should be awarded the care, custody and control of the minor children of said parties; that the defendant should be required to pay to the plaintiff toward the support and maintenance of said minor children the sum of $25.00 per month, each, and to continue during the minority of each of said respective children; that the real and personal property described in said complaint should be decreed to the plaintiff to be her sole and separate property of the plaintiff.

IT IS THEREFORE HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the marriage between the plaintiff, Lydia Boren, and the defendant, Eddie Boren, be, and the same hereby is dissolved on the grounds of extreme cruelty of the defendant toward the plaintiff, and that the said parties be and they are hereby relieved of all the obligations of said marriage and are returned to the status of unmarried persons.

2. That the care, custody and control of the minor children of said parties,- Ralph Boren and Chester Boren, and each of them, is hereby awarded to the plaintiff, subject to the further order of this Court, but that the defendant shall have the right to visit said children at reasonable times and places.

3. That the defendant pay to the plaintiff for her use in the care and support of the said minor children the sum of $25.00 for each child, per month, to continue each month during the minority of such child, the first of such monthly payments to be made on the day of July, 1949, and to so continue to be made on such day of each month thereafter.

4. That the following described real and personal property is hereby set over and decreed to the plaintiff, the same to be her sole and separate property of the plaintiff, and the rents, issues and profits thereof to be likewise the sole and separate property of the plaintiff, to-wit:

> Beginning at a point 935 feet East and 1380 feet North of the Southwest corner of Section 27, Township 9 North, Range 5 West of the Boise Meridian; run thence West 196.7 feet, thence North 50 feet, thence East 196.7 feet, thence South 50 feet to the point of beginning; together with any and all irrigation rights thereunto belonging;

Action No. 2678.

- - - - - - - - - - - - -

This cause came on regularly to be heard in open court on the 20th day of June, 1949, and it appearing that the defendant, Pauline A. Canaday, was duly and regularly served with process herein by personal service upon her outside the State of Idaho, according to law, and that she has failed to appear in any manner or at all herein although the time for appearance has fully expired, and a proper and sufficient affidavit showing that the defendant was not at any time during the pendency of this action and is not now in the service of the United States of America, either army, navy, or otherwise, having been filed herein and based thereon a Judge of this Court made and there was filed an order permitting the default of said defendant to be entered upon proper and sufficient showing of service upon said defendant, and thereupon and on such order and showing of proper service upon said defendant, the Clerk of this Court duly entered the default of said defendant, and the Court thereupon proceeded to try said cause.

The Court having heard the testimony of the plaintiff and a witness in his behalf and having examined the evidence in support of the allegations of the complaint herein, and the matter having been submitted to the Court for judgment, and the Court having considered the evidence and being fully advised in the premises, finds: That all the material allegations of said complaint are true, to-wit: That plaintiff and defendant intermarried as alleged in said complaint; that plaintiff is and for more than six weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action was a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho; that plaintiff and defendant ceased to live together as husband and wife as alleged in said complaint and ever since that date have lived and are now living separate and apart; that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty toward the plaintiff in that for long periods of time would be morose and would refuse to talk with him and would leave home for long periods of time without sufficient or any cause; that she seemed happy only when she was causing the plaintiff unhappiness; that she was instrumental in causing plaintiff to serve a jail sentence because of a minor game infraction; that she was not satisfied with the plaintiff's earnings and constantly nagging at him and constantly dissatisfied with what he was doing and the work engaged in, and never satisfied to live in one place long at a time and wanted to be constantly on the move; that normal relationship of husband and wife did not exist between them; and by various other and similar acts; all of which acts were calculated by the defendant to cause plaintiff mental suffering and worry and did so; that all of such acts were without cause on the part of the plaintiff and not because of any act or deed by him; that there were born as the issue of said marriage three children,- Raymond Larry Canaday, Lucy Ann Canaday, and Rodney Lee Canaday, which said children are now with the defendant in the State of Nebraska, and because of such fact are not within the jurisdiction of this Court and have not been during the pendency of this action and therefore the custody of such children is not and should not be determined by this Court; that there are no property rights of the parties hereto involved in this action.

The Court therefore finds that plaintiff is entitled to judgment and decree of this Court dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between himself and the defendant, on the grounds of extreme cruelty of the defendant toward the plaintiff; and that the custody of each of the minor children of the parties to this action should not at this time be settled.

IT IS THEREFORE HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

That the marriage between the plaintiff, Elwood L. Canaday, and the defendant, Pauline A. Canaday, be, and the same hereby is dissolved on the grounds of extreme cruelty of the defendant toward the plaintiff, and that the said parties be and they are hereby relieved of all the obligations of said marriage and are returned to the status of unmarried persons.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came on regularly for hearing this 20th day of June, 1949, plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney of record Herman Welker, Esq., and the defendant not appearing in person, or otherwise, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that said defendant has been duly and regularly served with summons by personal service within the State of Idaho, and the time for answering or appearing in said matter having exired the default of the defendant was duly and regularly entered, and it appearing that the defendant does not come within the Soldier and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, the Court then proceeded to hear the testimony and evidence introduced by the plaintiff in support of her cause of action on file herein; and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court from the evidence so adduced that the defendant has treated the plaintiff in a cruel and inhuman manner and has inflicted grievous mental suffering and bodily injury in and upon the person of the plaintiff, all without cause or provocation.

Now, Therefore, It is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, That the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff Ethel Werry and Defendant David C. Werry, be, and the same are hereby dissolved, and the plaintiff be and she is hereby granted a full and complete Decree of Divorce against the defendant upon the grounds of extreme cruelty as prayed for in her complaint, and plaintiff and defendant are hereby restored to the status of unmarried persons;

It is hereby further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, That plaintiff be awarded the care, custody and control of Sandra Lynn Werry and David Mark Werry, minor children of the parties hereto, during the nine months of the year which do ordinarily constitute the school term, with reasonable rights of visitation on the part of the defendant; and that defendant is awarded the care, custody and control of Sandra Lynn Werry and David Mark Werry during the three months of the year which do ordinarily constitute the summer vacation period, with reasonable rights of visitation on the part of the plaintiff;

It is hereby further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, That defendant pay to the plaintiff the sum of Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00), per month, for the care, support, maintenance and education of Sandra Lynn Werry, minor daughter of the parties hereto, during the nine months of the year said child is in the custody of the plaintiff, with payments to begin on the 1st day of September, 1949, and to continue monthly thereafter for a period of nine months and during the time said child is in the custody of the plaintiff; said payments to continue yearly on this basis until Sandra Lynn Werry reaches the age of her majority, or unless she sooner marries; and,

It is hereby further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, That defendant pay to the plaintiff the sum of Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00), per month, for the care, support, maintenance and education of David Mark Werry, minor son of the parties hereto, during the nine months of the year said child is in the custody of the plaintiff, with payments to begin on the 1st day of September, 1949, and to continue monthly thereafter for a period of nine months and during the time said child is in the custody of the plaintiff; said payments to continue yearly on this basis until David Mark Werry reaches the age of his majority, or unless he sooner marries.

- - - - -

This cause came on regularly for hearing this 20th day of June, 1949, plaintiff appearing in person and by his attorney of record Herman Welker, Esq., and the defendant appearing by a General Appearance and Waiver, in which said defendant states she is not a member of the Armed Services of the United States of America, or entitled to any rights by virtue of the Soldier and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, and the defendant in said General Appearance and Waiver having admitted due and legal service of summons and having refused to plead further in said matter, and consented that her default might be entered and the Court hear the matter at its earliest convenience, the Court then proceeded to hear testimony and evidence introduced by plaintiff in support of his cause of action on file herein; and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court from the evidence so adduced that the defendant has treated the plaintiff in a cruel and inhuman manner and has inflicted grievous mental suffering and bodily injury in and upon the person of the plaintiff, all without cause or provocation.

Now, Therefore, It is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, That the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff Joe Talbot and the defendant Helen Maxine Talbot, be, and the same are hereby dissolved, and the plaintiff be and he is hereby granted a full and complete Decree of Divorce against the defendant upon the grounds of extreme cruelty as prayed for in his complaint, and plaintiff and defendant are hereby restored to the status of unmarried persons; and,

It is hereby further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, That the Property Settlement Agreement marked Exhibit 'A' and attached hereto, is approved by the Court and made a part of this Decree of Divorce; and,

It is hereby further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, That defendant's former name of Ruckmer is restored to her.

Done in Open Court this 20th day of June, 1949, at Payette, Idaho.

A. O. Sutton
District Judge

Exhibit 'A'

THIS AGREEMENT, Made and entered into this 29th day of November, 1948, by and between Joe Talbot, of Payette, County of Payette, State of Idaho, first party, and Helen Maxine Talbot, of Payette, County of Payette, State of Idaho, second party, WITNESSETH: That

WHEREAS, the parties hereto are now husband and wife and have been living together as such since their marriage, but unhappy and insurmountable conditions exist and will continue to exist between them making it impossible for them to so live together hereafter, and for that reason they deem it best that their property interests be settled between them, both as to present property rights and also as to future interests and property rights, and for that reason and for that purpose said parties agree as follows:

That they shall from the date hereof henceforth live separate and apart from each other, and neither shall in anywise molest or interfere with the personal liberty of the other; that neither shall make any demands upon the other in any other way than as may be provided in this agreement.

That second party shall deed by quit claim deed any and all right, title, claim and interest she has or may have in and to that certain real property belonging to said parties located in the County of Payette, State of Idaho, and which is described as follows, to-wit:

The East 24 feet of Lot One and all of Lot Two in Block Two of the Amended Plat of the Payette Heights Addition to the City of Payette, Idaho, according to the official plat of said addition on file and of record in the office of the County Recorder of Payette County, Idaho.

That second party shall also give to first party a bill of sale conveying to first party and and all right, title, claim and interest she has, or may have in and to the following described personal property located in the County of Payette, State of Idaho, to-wit:

All household furniture, fixtures, goods and equipment in the residence of first party in Payette County, Idaho, meaning to include and including all thereof excepting the personall effects of second party;

Also Chevrolet Sedan, Model 1948 FK, Motor No. FAA-376226, Serial No.

The above mentioned quit claim deed and bill of sale to be executed at the time of the execution of this agreement and delivered to first party upon execution hereof.

First party shall pay to second party the sum of Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000.00), lawful money of the United States, in cash, the whole thereof to be paid upon the execution of this agreement.

It is also agreed that the income, earnings and accumulations of each of the parties hereto hereafter shall be the sole and separate property of the one receiving and having same, free and clear of all rights, interests and demands of the other party.

It is also agreed that neither shall have any right of inheritance as an heir at law of the other and shall have no right in any part of any estate that may be left by the one predeceasing the other, providing that this provision shall not apply in case of bequest made by will of either party in favor of the other.

It is also agreed that in the event either party shall hereafter apply to any Court for a divorce from the other neither party shall be entitled to any money judgment against the other by way of attorneys fees, alimony, suit money, or otherwise, or at all. It is also agreed that in case of any such action the former name of second party may be restored to her, same being the name of second party's son, and it is also agreed that first party does not have and shall not hereafter claim to have any right to the custody of, or interest in or responsibility for the son of second party by a former marriage.

It is further agreed that in case either party shall hereafter request the execution of any reasonable and proper instrument by the other in order to remove question from title to property of the party requesting such instrument, or any other reasonable reason, the one so requested for such instrument shall with due diligence execute same upon the request of the other party, but all expense thereof shall be paid by the party requesting same, and this provision shall continue in full force and effect.

It is also agreed that this agreement is voluntarily entered into by each party, without threat of any kind and without coercion or undue influence or misrepresentation on the part of any one or at all, and with full understanding of all the terms and conditions hereof.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Said parties have hereunto set their hands and seals, the day and year first above written.

LOLA WALKER, PLAINTIFF,

VS.

WAYNE WALKER, DEFENDANT.

DECREE

Case No. 357
Instrument No. 6
Filed June 11, 1949
By Isabel Adams Clerk
Deputy

The above entitled action came on to be heard at Chambers at Pocatello, Idaho, before the Court on the tenth day of June, 1949, plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Chas. T. Cotant, and the defendant not appearing, either in person or by an attorney.

Upon said hearing, it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that Defendant, Wayne Walker, was duly served with summons on the fourth day of June, 1949, as appears on the acceptance of service made by the defendant, Wayne Walker on said date in Power County, Idaho, said acceptance of service being attached to the summons on file herein, and the defendant not having made an appearance and having filed no answer or any other pleading to the said complaint, as provided by statute, and a clerk's default having been duly entered, according to law, and the Court having considered the law and the evidence, and it appearing satisfactorily to the Court that each and all of the material allegations and averments in plaintiff's complaint are true.

Now therefore, it is ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the above named plaintiff is entitled to a divorce upon the grounds stated in her complaint, and the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant should be dissolved;

Therefore, it is ORDERED, that it be dissolved and each of them are hereby restored to a single, unmarried state.

It is further ORDERED and DECREED that the minor child, Carol Jean Walker, girl, aged seven years, shall be placed in the care and custody of Charles Bryan and Mrs. Charles Bryan; that the defendant, Wayne Walker, be required to pay to the said parents of the plaintiff herein, Charles Bryan and Mrs. Charles Bryan, the sum of Forty $40.00 DOLLARS, per month for the care and maintenance of the minor child, Carol Jean Walker, beginning on the first day of July, 1949, and on the first day of each and every month thereafter until further order of this court.

This cause came regularly on to be heard this 7th day of June, A. D. 1949, before the Honorable Albert H. Featherstone, Judge of the above entitled Court, sitting without a jury, upon a Complaint of the plaintiff herein, taken as confessed by the defendant by his failure to appear and answer the verified Complaint of the plaintiff on file herein. Mr. Robert E. Brown appeared as attorney for the plaintiff, and the defendant did not appear; and it having been proved to the satisfaction of the above entitled Court, that the defendant was duly and regularly served with process, and that said defendant was served with said process in Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, and acknowledged service and waived his rights under the Soldiers' and Sailors' Relief Act of 1940; and the defendant having not appeared or answered said Complaint, the default of said defendant was thereupon duly and regularly entered.

WHEREUPON, the Court proceeded to examine the records and files in said action and to hear the evidence submitted on the part of the plaintiff in support of the allegations of her Complaint, and after having heard the same the testimony was closed.

WHEREUPON, after a brief statement by the plaintiff's counsel, the cause was submitted to the Court for its decision, and the Court considered the aforesaid testimony and statement of counsel, together with all papers, records, files and documents herein, and having heretofore made its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and having been fully advised in the premises:

This cause came on regularly to be heard before the undersigned, Judge of the above entitled Court, sitting without a jury, at Wallace, Idaho, on the 7th day of June, 1949. The plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, Dale Austin, and there was no appearance by or on behalf of the defendant.

It appeared to the satisfaction of the Court from the records and files herein that the defendant has been duly and regularly served with process at Sculthorpe, England, and has failed to enter an appearance herein and that his default was duly and regularly entered herein and has waived his rights under the Soldier's and Sailor's Civil Relief Act, by virtue of an affidavit on record in this cause.

Sworn testimony was introduced by and on behalf of the plaintiff and in support of the allegations of her complaint, and the Court being fully advised in the premises made and entered herein its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and the Court DOES HEREBY ORDER, ADJUDGE AND DECREE:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, LUCILLE LILES, and the defendant, PAUL S. LILES, be, and the same are hereby dissolved, set aside and held for naught, and the plaintiff is hereby granted an absolute divorce from the defendant.

2. That the plaintiff is hereby restored the use of her former name, to-wit: BARROWS

No. 10831

This matter came regularly on to be heard before the undersigned, Judge of the above entitled court, sitting without a jury, on the 8th day of June, 1949. The plaintiff appeared by her attorney, Herman J. Rossi, and there being no appearance by or on behalf of the defendant.

It appeared from the records and files herein that the defendant had been personally served with Summons and Complaint in the County of Shoshone, State of Idaho, and that he had failed to appear, answer, or plead within the time provided by law, or at all, and that his default had been duly and regularly entered in the premises.

Thereupon the court proceeded to the hearing of the cause. Sworn testimony was offered by and on behalf of the plaintiff and in support of the allegations of her complaint and the court being fully advised in the premises made and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law.

NOW THEREFORE, by virtue of the premises, and in accordance with said Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and the court does hereby ORDER, ADJUDGE AND DECREE:

1. That the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between the plaintiff, BERTHA BOND, and the defendant CYRUS J. BOND, be and the same hereby are, dissolved, set aside, and held for naught, and the said BERTHA BOND is hereby granted an absolute divorce from the defendant, CYRUS J. BOND.

2. Full care and custody of the minor child of the parties, LEWIS RALPH BOND, age 3 is hereby awarded to the plaintiff.

3. That the defendant pay to the plaintiff the sum of $50.00 per month as support for said minor child.

4. All community property, real or personal of any kind or character is hereby awarded to the plaintiff to be her sole and separate property, and in particular, the following described property to-wit:

> A six room house, with bath, situated upon leased ground belonging to the Federal Mining and Smelting Company, being a tract lying in a northeasterly direction from the Village of Mullan Monument No. Six (6), at the southwesterly corner of Block Number Nine (9), sixty (60) feet to the northeasterly corner of said house; and it also lies twelve (12) feet south of a house belonging to Anna Tornberg, which house faces Court Street and is West of the Wheatley residence which now is owned by Frances Dooling, is hereby awarded to the plaintiff.

Martha Benson, Plaintiff. No. 10840

vs. DECREE.

Morris A. Benson, Defendant.

The above entitled action came regularly on to be heard at Wallace, Idaho, before Honorable Albert H. Featherstone, judge of said court, in chambers. The plaintiff appeared in person and was represented by her counsel, H. E. Worstell. The defendant did not appear either in person or by counsel.

It appeared to the satisfaction of the court from an examination of the record and files in said action that the summons in said action, together with a copy of the complaint, had been served, personally, upon the defendant, Morris A. Benson, at Shoshone County, Idaho, by the sheriff of Shoshone County, Idaho, on May 24, 1949. That the said defendant has wholly failed and neglected to appear in said action, or to demur to the complaint, or to answer the same within the time allowed by law; and that the default of the said defendant for such failure has been duly and regularly entered herein, and endorsed upon the complaint.

The plaintiff and a witness in her behalf were duly sworn as witnesses herein, and testified concerning the allegations of the complaint, and the court, being fully informed in the premises and of the facts of this action, and the making and filing of findings of fact and conclusions of law having been waived by the defendant by his failure to appear in this action, the court now makes and renders the following judgment and decree, to wit:

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff, Martha Benson, and the defendant, Morris A. Benson, be, and the same hereby are, wholly dissolved and annulled, and the said parties to this action be, and they hereby are, restored to the state of unmarried persons.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that there is as the issue of said marriage one child, to wit, Norma Jean Benson, a daughter of the age of two years. That the sole care, custody and control of the said minor child be, and the same hereby is, awarded to the plaintiff, Martha Benson. That after the said Norma Jean Benson shall have arrived at the age of three years, the father, Morris A. Benson, shall have the right to see and visit the said child at all reasonable times.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the said parties to this action, the parents of the said minor child, have each agreed to pay and bear one-half of the expense of maintaining, caring for, clothing and educating the said minor child during the period of her minority.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the said parties to this action have heretofore mutually agreed upon and consummated a fair and equitable division of such community property as they acquired during the period of their marriage, and that there is now, at the date of this decree, no community property or assets of which each party has not obtained his or her fair share.

This cause came regularly on to be heard on the 18th day of June, 1949, before the Honorable Albert H. Featherstone, Judge of the above entitled court. The plaintiff appeared in person and was represented by her attorney, Mr. Chas. E. Horning. The defendant did not appear, his default having theretofore been duly entered herein by reason of his failure to answer or otherwise plead to plaintiff's complaint within the time allowed him by law for so doing after summons herein had been personally served upon him on the 28th day of May, 1949.

WHEREUPON, witnesses were duly called, sworn and examined on behalf of the plaintiff, and the court having considered the testimony of said witnesses and being now fully advised in the premises, and having heretofore made and entered herein its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law,

WHEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and they hereby are dissolved and that the plaintiff be, and she hereby is granted an absolute divorce from the defendant; and

IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the written agreement referred to in the Court's Findings of Fact herein be, and the same hereby is in all respects approved and that plaintiff and defendant's respective property rights be, and the same hereby are fixed and settled exactly in accordance with the terms and conditions of said agreement; and

IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the custody of Eileen Golden and Michael Golden, the minor children of plaintiff and defendant, be, and it hereby is awarded to plaintiff and defendant exactly in accordance with the terms of the aforesaid written agreement between said parties, that is to say, that the custody of said children be, and it hereby is awarded to the plaintiff, Susan L. Golden, for the period of six months from and after the 4th day of April, 1949, and that the custody of said children be, and it hereby is awarded to the defendant, Raymond G. Golden, for the six months' period from and after the 4th day of October, 1949, and that thereafter, that is to say, from and after the 4th day of April, 1950, the custody of said children shall alternate between plaintiff and defendant in each period of six months; and that the defendant be, and he hereby is directed and required to pay to the plaintiff for the support of said children the sum of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) per month during all times when said children shall be in the plaintiff's custody and during their minority.

This matter came regularly on to be heard before the undersigned, Judge of the above entitled court, sitting without a jury, on the 25th day of June, 1949. The plaintiff appeared by her attorney, Herman J. Rossi, and there being no appearance by or on behalf of the defendant.

It appeared from the records and files herein that the defendant had been personally served with Summons and Complaint in the County of Grant, State of Washington, and that he had failed to appear, answer, or plead within the time provided by law, or at all, and that his default had been duly and regularly entered in the premises.

Thereupon the court proceeded to the hearing of the cause. Sworn testimony was offered by and on behalf of the plaintiff and in support of the allegations of her complaint and the court being fully advised in the premises made and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law.

NOW THEREFORE, by virtue of the premises, and in accordance with said Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and the Court does hereby ORDER, ADJUDGE AND DECREE:

1. That the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between the plaintiff, LOIS DAVIS, and the defendant, MERRILL BARTON DAVIS, be, and the same hereby are, dissolved, set aside and held for naught, and the said LOIS E. DAVIS is granted an absolute divorce from the defendant, MERRILL BARTON DAVIS.

2. That the plaintiff LOIS E. DAVIS is hereby awarded absolute care, custody, and control of said minor children, MERRILL STANLEY DAVIS, and CAROLINE KAY DAVIS, and BARBARA ANN DAVIS, reserving, however, unto the defendant, the right to visit said children at all reasonable times and places.

3. That the plaintiff is awarded the sum of $150.00 per month as support for said minor children, the same to be paid by the defendant to the plaintiff.

4. That the plaintiff is hereby awarded the sum of $150.00 and her costs expended herein, subject, however, to set-off for whatever advances have been made by the defendant to either the plaintiff or her attorney.

5. That the community property of the plaintiff and defendant be distributed according to the terms of the Agreement and Settlement executed by the parties hereto, a copy of which is filed herein and which is expressly adjudged to be the decree of this Court with respect to such disposition; however, all community property both real and personal and of whatever kind or character and wheresoever situated which is not covered by the terms of aforesaid Agreement and Settlement is hereby awarded to the plaintiff to be her sole and separate property.

Wormward appeared as attorney for the plaintiff and the defendant did not appear; and it having been proved to the satisfaction of the above entitled Court that the defendant was duly and regularly served with process, and the default of the defendant for not appearing, answering or in anywise pleading in said cause was duly and regularly entered.

WHEREUPON, the Court proceeded to examine the records and files in said action and to hear the evidence submitted on the part of the plaintiff in support of the allegations of her Complaint and after having heard the same, the testimony was closed.

WHEREUPON, the cause was submitted to the Court for its decision, and the Court considered the aforesaid testimony, together with all papers, records and files herein, and having heretofore made its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and having been fully advised in the premises,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby absolutely dissolved, and the said plaintiff be, and she hereby is awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant, on the ground of extreme cruelty.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That plaintiff herein be awarded the care, custody and control of the minor children of said parties, namely: Gaynol Starr Titus and William Merrill Titus.

This cause having come on regularly to be heard before the court on the 26th day of February, 1949, at the court room of said court in Twin Falls, Twin Falls County, State of Idaho, with the plaintiff appearing in person and by her counsel W.L. Dunn, Esq., and the defendant neither appearing in person or by counsel and being in default for failure to file an answer to plaintiff's complaint in said cause, upon motion of counsel for the plaintiff the default of the defendant was duly entered by the Clerk and the same approved by the Court, whereupon the Court proceeded to hear the testimony of witnesses duly sworn and examined in support of plaintiff's complaint, and the matter being finally submitted and the court being fully advised in the premises, finds that the defendant has treated plaintiff with extreme cruelty to the extent of causing plaintiff great and grievous mental and physical suffering and distress and that plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the care, custody and control of the minor child the issue of said marriage, a son age seventeen months and that the community property consists of a Trailer House, A Bed Room suite and a Ford Automobile; and that all of the allegations of plaintiff's complaint are fully sustained, Wherefore, NOW, THEREFORE, upon motion of W.L. Dunn, counsel for the plaintiff it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be absolutely dissolved and the parties hereto freed from all of the obligations of matrimony.

2. That the care, custody and control of the infant son age seventeen months, the issue of said marriage be and is hereby awarded to the plaintiff, with the right of visitation at reasonable hours and times granted to the defendant.

3. That the community property consisting of a Trailer House, Bed Room Suite and a Ford Automobile be and the same is hereby awarded to the plaintiff as her sole and seperate property.

4 That plaintiff have judgment against the said defendant for the sum of Thirty-five ($35.00) dollars per month for the support and maintenance of said infant son and that plaintiff have judgment against said defendant for the sum of Fifty ($50.00) dollars per month as alimony.

DECREE OF DIVORCE.

The above entitled action came on regularly for hearing before the Court on the 6th day of June, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by and through her attorneys, Rayborn & Rayborn, and the defendant appearing in person and by and through his attorneys, J. W. Taylor and Lawrence B. Quinn.

And evidence having been adduced on behalf of the plaintiff in support of her complaint and the defendant having in open Court this day withdrew his answer and dismissed his cross complaint and refused to plead further in said action and agreed in open court to submit the Case to the Court on the evidence heretofore submitted and the Court having duly considered same and being fully advised in the premises; and it appearing to the Court that the material allegations in plaintiff's complaint are true and that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce from the defendant.

The Court further finds that the property Settlement Agreement which was dictated to the official court reporter in the records and which has been reduced to writing and entered into between the parties hereto is fair and equitable to both parties and same is by the Court approved and made a part of this Decree of Divorce.

NOW THEREFORE, On Motion of Rayborn & Rayborn, attorneys for the plaintiff, it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows;

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be and the same are hereby dissolved, and the parties forever freed from the obligations thereof.

2. It is further Ordered, Adjudged and Decreed that the property settlement agreement herein marked Exhibit "A", be and is hereby made a part of this Decree of Divorce, and the same is hereby approved and confirmed.

3. It is further Ordered, Adjudged and Decreed that the

The Southwest Quarter of The Southwest Quarter (SW-1/4 SW-1/4) of Section 21, Township 9 South, Range 14, E.B.M. in Twin Falls County, Idaho, is hereby awarded to the defendant, as his sole and separate property; provided further that the property mentioned in said property settlement agreement other than that specifically hereinabove set forth and therein agreed to be conveyed to the defendant is adjudged to be his sole and separate property.

4. It is further Ordered, Adjudged and Decreed in execution of said property settlement agreement that the defendant on or before the 6th day of July, 1949 pay to the plaintiff the sum of Two-thousand Dollars ($2,000.00) and that plaintiff have and recover of and from said defendant, judgment for the said sum of Two-Thousand Dollars ($2,000.00) and that no execution for the enforcement of said judgment issue within the period of thirty (30) days from the date hereof or prior to July 6, 1949.

5. It is further ordered, that the plaintiff is hereby restored to her former name of AMANDA ANDERSON.

OZIA M. BROWER, Plaintiff,

vs

JOHN T. BROWER, Defendant.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Entered JUN 10 1949

THIS MATTER came on to be heard before the above entitled Court on the 10th day of June, 1949. Plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, J. H. Barnes. Defendant did not appear. It is shown to the Court that personal service of the summons and copy of the original complaint was had on the defendant in Twin Falls County on the 12th day of June, 1948; it is further shown that personal service of another summons and copy of supplemental and amended complaint was had on the defendant in Twin Falls County May 17th, 1949; that the defendant has not made any appearance herein upon either of said services, and that his default for failure to appear and plead has been entered by the Clerk of this Court. Now, on motion of plaintiff's attorney, IT IS ORDERED that said entry of default be and the same hereby is approved and confirmed.

The plaintiff was sworn and testified, and a witness was sworn and testified in corroboration of plaintiff's testimony as to length o residence. From the evidence thus adduced, the Court finds that for more than six weeks next preceding the commencement of this action, plaintiff was a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho; that plaintiff and defendant were married at Missoula, Montana, on the 18th day of February, 1947, and ever since have been and now are wife and husband; that there are no children born of said marriage; that the real property described in Paragraph IV of plaintiffs original complaint is not community property, but is and always has been the separate property of plaintiff, by reason of the fact that the down payment of $2,500.00 was made out of funds belonging to plaintiff prior to her marriage with defendant, and that plaintiff has made all payments to the mortgagee, First Federal Savings & Loan Assn., on its loan of $2,400.00 with which the balance of the purchase price of said described real property was paid; that the defendant has never invested any of his money in said real property, and has no interest or rights therein; that defendant has treated plaintiff with extreme cruelty, by the infliction upon her of grevious mental suffering, and that plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce on the ground of extreme cruelty.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and they hereby are dissolved, and that each of said parties be and they hereby are restored to the status of a single, unmarried person; that the real property described in Paragraph IV of the original complaint, to-wit:

> That part of Block 16 of Moorman's 1st Addition to Twin Falls, being a portion of the W½ SW¼ sec.9, Tp 10 S., R. 17 E.B.M., described as beginning at a point on the west line of said Block 16 which is 130 feet north of the wouthwest corner of said block; running thence east along a line parallel with the south line of said block a distance of 135 feet to a point; running thence north along a line parallel with the west line of said block a distance of 50 feet; running thence west along a line parallel to the south line of said block a distance of 135 feet to the west line of said Block 16; running thence south along said west line of said block a distance of 50 feet to the place of beginning. Except public roads., be, and it hereby is, decreed to plaintiff as and for her sole and separate property, free and clear of any and all claims of the defendant to said property or any part thereof.

THIS CAUSE Came on regularly for hearing on the 10th day of June, 1949, before Honorable Hugh A. Baker, one of the judges of the above entitled Court sitting in open Court, the plaintiff being represented by her attorneys, Rayborn and Rayborn, and the defendant not appearing in person or by counsel.

And it appearing to the Court that the defendant has heretofore been duly and regularly served with Summons and Complaint in the above entitled action, and has filed herein his appearance, and has refused to plead to or answer plaintiff's complaint and has consented that his default may be entered herein; and that the default of said defendant for such failure to appear and answer plaintiff's complaint has been duly entered by the Clerk of the above entitled Court according to law.

Thereupon evidence was introduced and admitted from which it appears that each and all of the material allegations of the plaintiff's complaint have been established by competent evidence and the allegations of plaintiff's complaint as to her residence have been duly corroborated by competent testimony.

And the Court, being fully advised in the premises, on Motion of attorneys for plaintiff;

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows, to-wit:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Doris Sandretzky, and the defendant, Robert Sandretzky, be and they are hereby dissolved and the parties hereto restored to the status of unmarried persons.

2. That the plaintiff be, and she is hereby, restored to her former name of Doris Davis.

Entered JUN 17 1949

This cause came on regularly to be heard on the 17th day of June, 1949, F. C. Sheneberger, appearing as attorney for the plaintiff, and the defendant appearing neither in person nor by his attorney and it appearing that the said defendant was heretofore regularly served with process and having failed to appear and answer plaintiff's complaint on file herein and the time for answering having expired and the default of said defendant having been duly entered herein and evidence having been introduced on behalf of the plaintiff at said hearing of this cause, both oral and documentary, including that certain property settlement agreement made by and entered into between Lawrence Livesay, the defendant herein, and Maxine Livesay, the plaintiff herein, on the 31st day of May, 1949, wherein and whereby a complete disposition of all of the property of the parties hereto was made and provision was made for the care, custody, control and maintenance of the four minor children of said parties to this action, and said cause having been submitted to the Court for its consideration and decision, and the Court being fully informed in the premises, the Court now makes its findings of fact and decision as follows:

1. The Court finds that all the allegations contained in the complaint are true and that a divorce should be granted as prayed for in said complaint.

2. That the certain property settlement agreement made and entered into between the parties hereto on the 31st day of May, 1949, is fair and equitable.

WHEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff, Maxine Livesay, and the defendant, Lawrence Livesay, be, and the same hereby are, dissolved.

2. That the property settlement agreement made and entered into between the plaintiff and the defendant on the 31st day of May, 1949, be, and the same hereby is, approved and confirmed.

3. That the plaintiff, Maxine Livesay, shall have the care, custody and control of Leland Livesay and Derrine Livesay, two of the minor children of the parties hereto, and that Lawrence Livesay shall have the care, custody and control of Dean Livesay and Vicki Livesay, the other two children of the parties to this action, and the plaintiff and the defendant herein shall each have the right to visit the children in the custody of the other party at all reasonable times.

4. It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that Lawrence Livesay, the defendant, shall pay to Maxine Livesay the sum of $35.00 (Thirty Five Dollars) per month for the support, maintenance and education of Leland Livesay and Derrine Livesay, while they remain minors, and the first payment shall be made on July 1, 1949.

5. It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that this Court retain jurisdiction in this action for the purpose of modifying the decree insofar as it applies to the care, custody, control and maintenance of the minor children and to give further relief to either party, as provided in the property settlement agreement hereinabove described.

The above entitled action came on regularly for hearing before the Court on the 24 day of June, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by and through her attorneys, Rayborn & Rayborn, and the defendant appearing not, either in person or by attorney; and it satisfactorily appearing to the Court that due service of Summons and Complaint in said action has been made upon the defendant; and that the defendant has failed, and refused to appear and answer or otherwise plead to said complaint and the time allowed by law to the defendant for answering or otherwise pleading to said complaint having expired, and the default of the said defendant having been heretofore duly entered.

And evidence having been adduced on behalf of the plaintiff in support of her complaint, and the matter having been fully submitted to the Court for decision. The Court having duly considered same and being fully advised in the premises; and it appearing to the Court that the material allegations in plaintiff's complaint are true and that the said defendant has been guilty of cruel and inhuman treatment toward said plaintiff, and that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce from the defendant.

The Court further finds that the property settlement agreement entered into between the parties hereto which was introduced in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit "A" is fair and and equitable to both parties and same is by the Court approved and made a part of this Decree of Divorce.

The Court further finds that the plaintiff's maiden name, prior to her marriage to the defendant was COLLEEN FLEENOR.

NOW THEREFORE, On Motion of Rayborn & Rayborn, attorneys for the plaintiff, it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows;

I. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and existing between the plaintiff and defendant be and the same are hereby dissolved, and the parties forever freed from the obligations thereof.

II. That the plaintiff is hereby restored to her maiden name of COLLEEN FLEENOR.

III. It is Further Ordered that the property settlement agreement herein marked Plaintiff's Exhibit "A" be and is hereby made a part of this Decree of Divorce, and the same is hereby approved and confirmed.

"THIS AGREEMENT, Made and entered into between DONALD J. PECK, Party of the first part, and COLLEEN PECK, Party of the second part, WITNESSETH THAT:

WHEREAS, The parties hereto are husband and wife, certain differences have arisen between them which has made it impossible for them to continue to live together and a suit for divorce having been filed the parties desire to enter into an agreement for a division of the community property and for other purposes.

NOW, THEREFORE, It is mutually agreed as follows:

I.

The party of the first part is to receive the 1940 Ford sedan automobile, Motor No. 5383392, Title No. B427332 and a revolver.

II.

The party of the second part is to receive the balance of the community property owned by the parties hereto, consisting of in part certain wedding presents, a dinette, sewing machine and camera.

III.

The party of the second part hereby relinquishes to the party of the first part all of her interest and equity in the following insurance policies: Metropolitan Life Insurance Co., Policy No.47975; Provident Life and Accident Insurance Co., Policy No. 1604; New York Life Insurance Co., Policy No. 19-250-605.

IV.

It is understood that the parties hereto have incurred certain community indebtedness in the sum of $_____, which the party of the first part agrees to pay.

V.

The party of the first part agrees to pay to the party of the second part temporary alimony in the sum of $75.00, receipt of which is hereby acknowledged. The party of the first part agrees to pay to the party of the second part an attorney fee, filing fee and costs in the total sum of $117.10, receipt of which is hereby acknowledged.

VI.

It is further agreed that each party will when requested by the other execute to the other all necessary conveyances and releases for carrying out the terms of this agreement. Except as above provided, each party waives all claims which he or she may have against the other, it being agreed that the above is a full and complete property settlement and equitable division of the community property. The party of the second part waives any claim for alimony, attorney fees and court costs except as herein provided. In the event judgment is granted to the parties hereto, it is understood and agreed that this contract shall be confirmed by the Court and made a part of said judgment.

(COPY)

This cause came on regularly for hearing before the Court in open court on this the 6th day of June, 1949. Plaintiff was present in person and by Ed. R. Coulter, her attorney; defendant was present neither in person nor by attorney, and the following proceedings were had:

It appearing from the records that summons was issued on the 28th day of April, 1949, and thereafter copy of summons and complaint herein were personally served upon the defendant, who thereafter signed and acknowledged the affidavit of service of process upon him on the 30 day of April, 1949, which affidavit is now on file in the records of this action.

Thereupon a trial of said action is had. Witnesses are sworn and examined on behalf of the plaintiff, the taking of evidence is closed and the cause is submitted to the Court for decision.

After due deliberation thereon by the Court, the Court finds that all of the allegations contained in plaintiff's complaint are true and plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from the defendant.

WHEREFORE, by reason of the law and the premises, it is ordered, adjudged and decreed that the plaintiff, Minnie White, be and hereby she is, granted an absolute divorce from the defendant Oliver B. White.

BESSIE V. WILLIS, Plaintiff, -vs- BRYANT WILLIS, Defendant.) No. DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came on regularly for hearing this 6th day of June, 1949, plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney Herman Welker, Esq., and the defendant appearing by a General Appearance and Waiver in which said defendant states that he is not a member of the Armed Services of the United States of America, or entitled to any rights by virtue of the Soldier and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, and the defendant in said General Appearance and Waiver having admitted due and legal service of summons and having refused to plead further in said matter and consenting that his default might be entered and the Court hear the matter at its earliest convenience, the Court then proceeded to hear testimony and evidence introduced by the plaintiff in support of her cause of action on file herein; and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court from the evidence so adduced that the defendant has treated the plaintiff in a cruel and inhuman manner and has inflicted grievous mental suffering and bodily injury in and upon the person of the plaintiff, all without cause or provocation.

Now, Therefore, It is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, That the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff Bessie V. Willis, and the defendant, Bryant Willis, be, and the same are hereby dissolved, and the plaintiff be and she is hereby granted a full and complete Decree of Divorce against the defendant upon the grounds of extreme cruelty as prayed for in her complaint, and plaintiff and defendant are hereby restored to the status of unmarried persons;

It is hereby further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, That the plaintiff is hereby awarded the care, custody and control of Saundra Jean Willis, minor daughter of the parties hereto, subject to reasonable rights of visitation on the part of the defendant;

It is hereby further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, That the defendant is hereby awarded the care, custody and control of Michael Eugene Willis, minor son of the parties hereto, subject to reasonable rights of visitation on the part of the plaintiff; and,

It is hereby further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, That the defendant pay to the plaintiff the sum of Twenty Dollars ($20.00), per month, for the care, support, maintenance and education of Saundra Jean Willis; said payments to commence on the 1st day of July, 1949 and continue monthly thereafter until said child reaches the age of her majority, or unless she sooner married.

JUDGMENT

THIS CAUSE, Coming on regularly to be heard on the 5th day of July, 1949, before the Court without a jury, and the plaintiff appearing in person and by his attorney, Thornton D. Wyman, and the defendant not appearing in person or by counsel, and it appearing to the Court that summons in the above entitled action has heretofore been duly and regularly issued and due service of process had upon said defendant, and that the time for answering, demurring or appearing has expired; that the default of said defendant, Betty Potter, for failing to appear, answer or demur within the time prescribed by law has been heretofore duly entered herein,

WHEREUPON, Evidence duly corroborated, as required by law, was introduced by the plaintiff, from which it appears to the Court that all of the allegations of plaintiff's complaint on file herein are sustained by testimony free and clear from all objections as to competency, admissibility and sufficiency, and it appearing that said matters so alleged and proved are sufficient to entitle the plaintiff to the relief prayed for in said complaint, and the case being closed, and the law and premises being fully understood by the Court, the Court at this time makes and renders this final judgment and decree;

WHEREFORE, It is ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE and DECREE:

That the bonds of matrimony between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are, hereby forever dissolved.

This cause came on regularly to be heard this 8th day of July, 1949, upon the complaint of the plaintiff herein, J. L. Eberle, Esquire, appearing for the plaintiff; and the defendant having been duly served with process on June 16, 1949, and failing to make any appearance by pleading, counsel or otherwise, and an affidavit showing that said defendant has not been and is not now in the military service, the default of said defendant was duly entered; and the court, having heard the evidence submitted by plaintiff and being fully advised in the premises, finds and decides:

1. That the defendant, Genevieve Veale, and plaintiff intermarried on or about the 25th day of February, 1931, at Edmonton, Alberta, Canada, and ever since have been and now are husband and wife.

2. That plaintiff now is and has been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho for more than six weeks next preceding the commencement of this action.

3. That there is no community property and there is one son thirteen (13) years of age, not within the jurisdiction of the court.

4. That said plaintiff and said defendant now live, and continuously, since on or about January 2, 1941, have lived separate and apart without cohabitation.

5. That plaintiff herein is entitled to a decree of divorce.

6. Inasmuch as the Supreme Court of Alberta, Judicial District of Edmonton, Canada, on March 13, 1941 ordered plaintiff above named to pay the sum of $5.00 per week for the maintenance and support of the minor child, Harold William Veale, the same should be confirmed herein.

WHEREFORE, IT IS NOW ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff, Harold Gilbert Veale, and the defendant Genevieve Veale, be and the same hereby are dissolved absolutely and the said parties are, and each of them is, freed and released from the obligations thereof; and IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the plaintiff pay to the defendant the sum of $5.00 per week for the maintenance and support of said child, Harold William Veale, provided that any payments made under the order or decree dated March 13, 1941 in the Supreme Court of Alberta, Judicial District of Edmonton, Canada, be credited upon the amount payable under this decree.

JUDGMENT

The above entitled cause came on regularly to be heard and tried before the court on the 15th day of July, 1949, plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Frank Langley, Esquire, and the defendant not appearing either in person or by attorney;

And it appearing that the defendant, Elmo Rastus Hornsby, was duly served with summons herein and that he has failed to appear and answer or otharwise plead within the time allowed by law, or at all, and that his default in the premises has been duly entered, and the plaintiff having submitted her evidence, and the cause having been submitted for decision, and the court being fully advised in the premises now, from said evidence, finds that all of the material allegations of plaintiff's complaint herein are true and that said plaintiff has been, and now is, a bona fide resident of and has continuously resided in the State of Idaho for more than six weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action, and that plaintiff and defendant were married each to the other at Oakland, California, on February 11, 1944, and ever since have been and now are husband and wife, and that in the month of March, 1944, said defendant did wilfully and without cause desert and abandon said plaintiff and ever since has, and still continues to, so wilfully and without cause desert and abandon plaintiff, and to live separate and apart from her, without any sufficient cause or reason, and against her will, and without her consent, and that ever since the month of March, 1944, said defendant has wilfully failed and neglected to provide for plaintiff the common necessaries of ~~of~~ life, he having the ability to do so, and that the defendant is not now and never has been in the military service of the United States;

And said cause having been submitted to the court for decision, and the court being fully advised in the premises, and having found that the plaintiff is entitled to an absolute divorce from the defendant on the grounds of wilful desertion and wilful neglect;

NOW, THEREFORE, it is hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed that the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff, La Vera M. JUDGMENT AND DECREE

This cause coming on regularly to be heard on the 15 day of July, 1949, before the Court, without a jury, Elam and Burke appearing for said plaintiff, and the defendant not appearing in person or by counsel, and it appearing to the Court that summons in the above entitled action has heretofore been duly and regularly issued and due service of process had upon said defendant, and that the time for answering, demurring, or appearing has expired, and that the default of said defendant, Edward G. Roberts, for failing to appear, answer or demur within the time prescribed by law, has been heretofore duly entered herein.

WHEREUPON evidence, duly corroborated, as required by law, was introduced by the plaintiff, from which it appears to the Court that all of the allegations of plaintiff's complaint on file herein are sustained by testimony free from all objections as to competency, admissibility and sufficiency, and it further appearing that said matters so alleged and proved are sufficient to entitle the plaintiff to the relief prayed for in said complaint, and the case being closed, and the law and the premises being fully understood by the Court, the Court at at this time makes and renders this final judgment and decree:

WHEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE AND DECREE:

1. That the bonds of matrimony between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby forever dissolved.

2. That plaintiff's former name of Wanda L. Kinman be restored to her.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

THE ABOVE ENTITLED CAUSE came on regularly for hearing before the Court, at Boise, Idaho, July 15, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and with his attorney and witness, the defendant not appearing at all.

It satisfactorily appearing to the court that due and lawful service of summons and complaint has been made in Ada County, that no cause of military service exists precluding entry of default, that order so establishing has been duly made, and that the default of the defendant for failure to appear has been regularly entered,

Now on motion of plaintiff the court proceeds to reception of testimony on plaintiff's behalf, and being fully advised, express findings of fact and conclusions of law being waived, the court finds generally for the plaintiff and against the defendant and finds the plaintiff entitled to a decree of divorce, andorders judgment accordingly.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED BY THE COURT:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff Rollie Brown and the defendant Zelda Brown be, and they are absolutely dissolved, and the parties are divorced hereby.

DECREE

This cause came on regularly to be heard this 15th day of July, 1949, upon the complaint of the plaintiff herein, T. H. Eberle, Esquire, appearing for the plaintiff; and the defendant having been duly served with process, appeared by demurrer to the Complaint, and defendant then having withdrawn said demurrer and refused to plead further and an affidavit showing that said defendant has not been and is not now in the military service, the default of said defendant was duly entered; and the Court, having heard the evidence submitted by Plaintiff and being fully advised in the premises, finds and decides:

1. That the defendant, Fred W. McGill, and the plaintiff intermarried on or about the 18th day of January, 1947, at Portland, Oregon, and ever since have been and now are husband and wife.

2. That the Plaintiff now is and has been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho for more than six weeks next preceding the commencement of this action.

3. That there are no children of this marriage, and there is not community property.

4. That the defendant has treated plaintiff in a cruel and inhiman manner and such cruel and inhuman treatment so inflicted upon said plaintiff by said defendant has caused plaintiff grievous mental and physical suffering.

5. That Plaintiff herein is entitled to a decree of Divorce.

WHEREFORE, IT IS NOW ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony existing between the Plaintiff, Clara L. McGill, and the defendant, Fred W. McGill, be and the same hereby are dissolved absolutely and the parties and each of them be and they hereby are freed from the obligations thereof, and IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the plaintiff's name prior to this marriage, Clara Claghorn, by and it hereby is restored to the plaintiff.

This cause coming on regularly to be heard before the court without a jury on the plaintiff's complaint on file herein. The defendant appeared neither in person nor by attorney and it appearing to the satisfaction of the court that the defendant had been regularly served with process according to law, and that the time in which the said defendant was required by law to demur to, answer or plead to said complaint has expired, and default for so failing to plead to said complaint within the time required by law has been duly and regularly entered herein, the Court proceeded with the trial of said cause.

Witnesses were called, sworn, and testified on behalf of the plaintiff and the case was submitted to the court for final determination and decision and the court having found that the plaintiff and defendant were duly married at Eugene, Oregon, on the 23rd day of May, 1941 and the plaintiff has been, for more than six weeks preceding the commencement of this action, a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho; and that the defendant, disregarding the solemnity of his marriage vows, has caused the plaintiff much mental and physical suffering, pain, and anguish and is such as to constitute extreme cruelty as defined by the statutes of the State of Idaho.

The court ordered that judgment be entered for the plaintiff and against the defendant in accordance with the prayer of the plaintiff's complaint.

WHEREFORE, it is ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE and DECREE that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the above named plaintiff and the above named defendant be, and the same are hereby dissolved, and the plaintiff and defendant are absolutely freed from all obligations thereof.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED, the post nuptial agreement of April 21, 1949, be and it is hereby approved.

The above entitled cause came on regularly to be heard and tried before the court at Boise, Ada County, Idaho, on the 29th day of July, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorneys, Anderson and Thomas, and the defendant not appearing either in person or by attorney;

And upon said hearing, it satisfactorily appearing to the court that the defendant herein, Karl Marks Coonrod, was personally and duly served with summons herein attached to a copy of the complaint referred to in the said summons and on file in this cause, and the defendant having failed to answer, demur or otherwise plead to said complaint and the time for answering, demurring or otherwise pleading to said complaint having expired, and no answer, demurrer, or other plea having been filed; and the default of the defendant, Karl Marks Coonrod, having been duly entered according to law, and the court having heard the testimony introduced in behalf of the said plaintiff and in support of her complaint; and upon consideration of the said testimony the court finds upon the cause of action of the plaintiff the issues in favor of said plaintiff and against the said defendant and finds that the said defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty of and towards the plaintiff as set forth in said complaint and that by reason thereof said plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between plaintiff and defendant dissolved and to be divorced from the said defendant;

The court further finds that the said plaintiff has been a bona fide resident of, and has continuously resided in, the State of Idaho for more than six weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action;

The court further finds that under date of the 12th day of May, 1949, the parties hereto made and entered into a Separation and Property Settlement Agreement which said Separation and Property Settlement Agreement is in words and figures as follows, to wit:

SEPARATION AND PROPERTY SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

and

HUSBAND.

THIS SEPARATION AND PROPERTY SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT, Made and entered into this 12th day of May, 1949, by and between ELLEN LOUISE COONROD, of Boise, Ada County, Idaho, hereinafter designated as Wife, and KARL MARKS COONROD, of Boise, Ada County, Idaho, hereinafter designated as Husband,

W I T N E S S E T H:

WHEREAS, disputes and differences have arisen and do now exist between the said Wife and Husband as a result whereof they have separated and are now, and have been since July 13, 1948, living separate and apart and do intend to so live separate and apart from each other during the remainder of their natural lives, and it has become and is impossible for the said parties to again live together in the future as husband and wife; and,

WHEREAS, the total fair value of the community property of the Husband and Wife is approximately One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) consisting of the equity of said parties in one 1938 Oldsmobile automobile and payments made on the purchase price of a small home which the Husband was buying under contract when the said Husband and Wife intermarried, which payments aggregate approximately Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) during said marriage; and,

WHEREAS, the Husband and Wife have during said coverture incurred community indebtedness which has not been paid to the parties and in the approximate sums set out below, to-wit:

C. C. Anderson Store, Cascade, Idaho -	$154.91
Dr. Neal, Eugene, Oregon	91.43
Dr. Edwin P. Peterson, Boise, Idaho	10.00
Dr. James J. Caughlin, Boise, Idaho	20.00
Dr. Harvey Smith, Boise, Idaho	40.00
St. Luke's Hospital, Boise, Idaho	115.75

WHEREAS, said Wife and Husband desire to settle and adjust certain matters amicably, arising out of their separation as hereinafter provided;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises and agreements hereinafter contained the parties hereto in full and complete settlement of all their property rights have agreed and do hereby agree as follows:

That said Wife shall have as her sole and separate property, and the said Husband shall pay to the said Wife, FOUR HUNDRED DOLLARS ($400.00) in cash as follows:

One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) upon the execution of this agreement, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, and the balance in the sum of Three Hundred Dollars($300.00), without interest, on or before July 1st, 1949, and the said Husband shall also pay and discharge all the indebtedness hereinabove in this agreement set forth.

That said Husband shall have as his sole and separate property all the household goods, furniture and effects now located in the home of the said Husband in Ada County, Idaho, and all any any interest which the Wife may have in and to said home, and in and to said automobile, and any and all other personal or real property not herein otherwise specifically identified, and the said Wife does hereby release and relinquish and disclaim any and all claims, pretensions and rights thereto which she may have or make as a result of said marital relationship, or otherwise.

IT IS FURTHER UNDERSTOOD AND AGREED that both of the parties hereto shall execute such quitclaim deeds, bills of sale or other instruments as may be necessary to fulfill and carry into effect the terms and conditions of this agreement, and each of the parties hereto does hereby release to the other any and all claims to the earnings and accumulations hereinafter made by either party and does release and disclaim any and all rights arising from the marital status of the parties hereto to any and all property hereafter acquired by the other, and all such property, earnings and accumulations of the parties hereto shall belong to the party so acquiring, earning or accumulating such property, earnings, or accumulations, as the sole and separate property of such party and free and clear of any right of the other.

IT IS MUTUALLY AGREED That the parties hereto shall each live separately and apart from the other and independently of the other to the same extent as if they had never been married, and each shall in the future contract and be contracted with independently of the other to the full extent as if they had never been married, and the parties hereto each release, surrender and relinquish all and every right and obligation of whatsoever nature which does now exist or which might arise as a result of the said marriage, and each party hereto is hereby released and absolved from any and all obligations and liabilities for the future acts and duties of the other, and each of the said parties hereby releases the other from any and all liabilities, debts or obligations of any kind or character incurred by the other from and after this date, and from any and all claims and demands, including all claims of either party hereto upon the other for support and maintenance as wife or husband, or otherwise.

This agreement is a full and complete settlement of all property rights between the parties hereto as husband and wife, both now and after the death of either party to this agreement. From the date of the execution of this agreement, neither party shall have any interest of any kind or nature in or to any property, real, personal or mixed hereafter acquired by the other party to this agreement.

IT IS FURTHER UNDERSTOOD AND AGREED That there is now pending in the District Court of the Third Judicial District of the State of Idaho, in and for the County of Ada, an action for a divorce filed by the wife against the husband and that in said action for divorce this agreement shall be a full settlement of all rights in such divorce action and neither party in such divorce action shall have the right to obtain from or require the other party to pay attorney fees, alimony, support money or suit money on account of such action for divorce.

IT IS FURTHER UNDERSTOOD AND AGREED That this agreement shall be incorporated in and become in its entirety a part of any decree which may be entered in any divorce action between the parties hereto subject to its approval and confirmation by the court in which such action may be instituted.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have hereunto set their hands the day and year herein first above written.

MIKE KALANGE,

Plaintiff,

vs.

MARTHA KALANGE,

Defendant.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This case came on regularly for hearing before the Honorable Charles R. Winstead in the above-entitled court on the 15th day of July, 1949, upon the complaint filed herein and the answer thereto filed by the Prosecuting Attorney for Ada County, Idaho; Plaintiff appearing in person and by his attorney, Claude Marcus, of Boise, Idaho; and Defendant not appearing in person, but being represented throughout the hearing by the Prosecuting Attorney for Ada County, Idaho.

Whereupon, testimony was introduced in behalf of Plaintiff, and no testimony was submitted in behalf of Defendant, and the court being fully advised in the premises and having the benefit of representation of both parties, and being fully advised both as to the law and the facts, finds as follows:

I

That Plaintiff is now and has been for more than six full weeks preceding the filing of this action, a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho.

II

That the Defendant, Martha Kalange, is an inmate of the State Hospital South of the State of Idaho, at Blackfoot, Idaho, having been committed to said institution on the 13th day of April, 1983, and the court finds that said Defendant is an insane person and that Defendant has become permanently insane and has been duly and regularly confined in such institution, which is an insane asylum of the State of Idaho, for more than three years next preceding the commencement of this action for divorce, and the court finds from the proof that the insanity of the Defendant is permanent and incurable.

III

The court further finds that the property which the parties now have is their community property acquired since their marriage and with community funds or by their personal services and labor and should be equally divided between them.

NOW THEREFORE, pursuant to the above findings of fact and conclusions of this court, the court does hereby ORDER, ADJUDGE, AND DECREE AS FOLLOWS:

(a) That Plaintifff, Mike Kalange, is entitled to and he is hereby granted a full and absolute decree of divorce from the Defendant upon the ground of permanent insanity of the Defendant, and the bonds of matrimony existing between Plaintiff and Defendant are hereby dissolved, and they are restored to the status of single persons.

(b) That Plaintiff should have, and he is hereby awarded, the custody and control of the minor children of the marriage, namely:

George Kalange, born February 18, 1929;

Tommy Kalange, born December 1, 1935; and Johnny Kalange, born November 1, 1937.

(c) That the property owned and possessed by Plaintiff and Defendant should be, and it is hereby, equally divided between them, and one-half of such property is hereby distributed and awarded to each of said parties, the real property of said parties being more particularly described as follows:

That certain property in Ada County, Idaho, to-wit:

Beginning at the Northeast corner of Lot 35, Section 16, T. 3 N., R. 2 E., B. M., in Ada County, Idaho, as shown on that certain plat recorded in Book 1 of Plats at page 22; thence South 370.1 feet to a point on the North bank of a certain ditch being a lateral of the Ridenbaugh Canal; thence continuing South 30 feet to a point on the South bank of said ditch or lateral, the real place of beginning;

Thence South 115 feet to a point; thence West parallel with the South boundary line of Lot 35, 146.6 feet to a point; thence South parallel to the East boundary line of Lot 35, 138.05 feet to a point on the South boundary line of Lot 35. Thence South 89°47' West along the South boundary line of Lot 35 a distance of 389 feet to the intersection of the South boundary line of said ditch. Thence North 64°35' East along the South boundary line of said ditch, a distance of 593.1 feet to the real point of beginning.

And also:

An equity in and to the following described real property in Ada county, Idaho, to-wit:

West Half of the Southwest Quarter of the Southwest Quarter; West Half of the East Half of the Southwest Quarter of the Southwest Quarter, Section 26, T. 3 N., R. 2 E., B. M., containing 30 acres.

DECREE

This cause came on regularly for hearing, this 29th day of July, 1949, upon the complaint herein, the proof and testimony in said action.

And the Court finds that the defendant, Henry E. Fletcher, was regularly served with Summons in this action, in Boise, Ada County, Idaho; and that he has failed to appear in this action, proof having been submitted that he is not now engaged in any branch of the Military Service of the United States, default has been duly entered against said defendant.

The Court further finds that all the allegations of the complaint filed herein, are true, and that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce upon the grounds of Extreme Cruelty, and the restoration of her former name.

THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, By this Court:

1. That the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and defendant are dissolved, and they are hereby absolutely divorced from each other.

2. That the plaintiff's former name be restored to her, to-wit: Letha F. German.

DECREE.

Edna Frances Armstrong,
Defendant.

This cause came on regularly for trial by the Court without a Jury, on the 29th day of July, 1949, S. D. Fairchild, appearing as attorney for the plaintiff; the defendant not appearing by attorney or at all, J. P. Reed, Esquire of Emmett, Idaho, theretofore appearing as attorney for the defendant in said action having withdrawn his demurrer and appearance, and declined to plead further in said action, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court from the affidavit of the plaintiff that the defendant is not now in the military service of the United States of America, and is not a person in such service as defined in Section 101 (1) of the Act of Congress approved on the 17th day of October, 1940, as thereafter amended, and commonly known as the Soldiers' and Sailors' Relief Act of 1940, or of any other such act duly adopted and approved, the default of the defendant for failure to appear or plead in the action was duly entered, she having been personally served with summons in the action more than twenty days prior to the time of the entering of said default; whereupon whereupon the plaintiff and his corroborating witness was duly sworn and examined by Court and counsel, and testified in behalf of the plaintiff, and documentary evidence was offered in evidence and admitted concerning the rights of the respective parties to and in the property described and mentioned in Plaintiff's amended complaint, and the cause was finally submitted to the Court for consideration and decision; and the Court having considered the same, and being fully advised in the premises, now hereby finds and decides that all of the allegations in plaintiff's complaint contained are true, the same having been established by sufficient competent evidence duly corroborated as required by law, and that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree as prayed for in his verified complaint; that the stipulation of counsel with respect to a division of the property of the parties is just and equitable as between said parties and the same should be confirmed and approved.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND DECREED, That the bonds of matrimony hitherto existing between the plaintiff and the defendant, be, and the same are hereby dissolved, and that said parties and each of them, be, and hereby are restored to the status of single persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND DECREED, that the property of the parties mentioned and described in plaintiff's amended complaint, be , and hereby is decreed to the respective parties according to the property settlement agreement and stipulation of the parties submitted in evidence in this action, the same being hereby approved and confirmed: that is to say, the plaintiff shall pay to the defendant the sum of Eight Hundred Dollars, and that he, the said plaintiff shall take unto himself all of said property, both real and personal.

ORDER MODIFYING DECREE

THE ABOVE ENTITLED MATTER came on regularly for hearing July 22, 1949. The defendant, Myrtle Everheart Pepper, appeared in person and with her attorney and witnesses. No person appeared for or on behalf of the plaintiff, John R. Everheart.

NOW UPON MOTION of the defendant, the court proceeds to reception of testimony on behalf of the defendant and in support of the motion to modify decree and being fully advised, the court finds that there has been a material change in the condition of the parties, requiring modification of the decree made and entered in the above entitled action, February 20, 1947, in the matter of the custody of the minor child, Norma Jean Everheart, and more express findings of fact and conclusions of law being waived,

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED by the court that the decree of this court rendered and entered in the above entitled action, February 20, 1947, be and the same is modified in the following particulars only:

1. The care, custody, control, and keeping of the minor child, Norma Jean Everheart is awarded to the defendant Myrtle Everheart Pepper, subject to reasonable rights of visitation by the plaintiff, John R. Everheart, until further order of this court.

DECREE

The above entitled matter came duly on for hearing before the undersigned District Judge in his chambers in Pocatello, Idaho, on the 1st day of July, 1949.

From an examination of the files and records in this case, the court finds that a duly verified complaint and amended complaint were filed herein and that the court has jurisdiction of the said cause and parties, and that the defendant filed a demurrer to the amended complaint and that upon stipulation of the parties hereto by their respective attorneys the said demurrer was withdrawn and the defendant was allowed two days within which to answer.

It further appears that the defendant failed to answer the said amended complaint within the time required by the order of this court and is in default therefor and that the default of the defendant has been properly entered and the entry thereof is hereby approved.

And it appearing further that the plaintiff appeared herein in person and by her attorney, F. E. Tydeman, and that the defendant has failed to appear otherwise than as herein stated and that he is now in default, and because of said default to plead to the amended complaint, the court finds that the allegations of the said amended complaint are true and that it is proper to proceed with the hearing of testimony herein.

From the testimony of the plaintiff and one other witness, which testimony has been admitted and heard by the court, the court finds as follows:

That the parties hereto were married November 16, 1944, at Pocatello, Idaho, and at all of the times since said date have been and now are husband and wife: that one child, Connie Lee Jones, an infant, has been born of said marriage: that there is no community property belonging to the parties subject to distribution by the court: that during the married life of the parties the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty as defined by the laws of the State of Idaho as a ground for divorce: that a satisfactory agreement has been made between the parties relative to the payment of money due to the plaintiff and for her attorney's fees and costs: and that the plaintiff is entitled to payment of $30.00 per month from the defendant for the support of the said minor child and that the custody of the said minor child be decreed to the plaintiff.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the parties hereto be, and the same hereby are, dissolved and the parties returned to the status of single persons.

That the custody of the child of the parties hereto, to-wit, Connie Lee Jones, is awarded to the plaintiff until further order of the court with the right awarded to the defendant to visit said child at all reasonable times; and the plaintiff has judgment against the defendant for the payment of the sum of $30.00 per month for the support of the said minor child.

The above entitled matter came duly on for hearing before the undersigned District Judge in his Chambers at Pocatello, Idaho, on the 1ST day of July, 1949.

The plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, F. E. Tydeman.

The defendant appeared not, either in person or by attorney.

The court having fully considered this matter finds that a duly verified complaint was filed herein and the summons duly issued and served upon the defendant and that the defendant has failed to appear and answer said summons within the time specified therein and is in default therefor and his default has been properly entered by the clerk of the above entitled court.

The court proceeding with the matter upon the evidence of the plaintiff and the defendant duly taken herein finds as follows: That the plaintiff was at the time of the filing of the complaint herein and for more than six weeks immediately prior thereto had been and now is an actual bona fide resident of the State of Idaho; that the parties were married at Twin Falls, Idaho, on the 23rd day of February, 1949, and have been husband and wife since said date; that there are no children born of said marriage; the parties own no community property; that the plaintiff is the owner of certain property which is her separate property, located in Bannock County, State of Idaho, and more particularly described as follows, to-wit:

Lots One and Two, Block Four Hundred Fifty-nine, Pocatello Townsite, Bannock County, Idaho, as the same appears on the official plat of the said premises returned to the General Land Office by the Surveyor General.

that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty as defined by the laws of Idaho relative to grounds for divorce; that the plaintiff is entitled to have a judgment against the defendant for reasonable attorney's fees and court costs; that the name of the plaintiff before her marriage was Ella Fleming.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the parties hereto be and the same hereby are dissolved and set aside and the parties are returned to the status of single persons, and the name Ella Fleming is restored to the plaintiff.

That the property described herein is the sole and separate property of the plaintiff, and the defendant has no right, title or interest of any kind therein.

That the plaintiff have judgment against the defendant for the sum of $200.00 attorney's fees and her costs in the sum of $17.80.

FRANCIS J. OLSEN,) DECREE
Defendant.)

This cause came on for trial before the Honorable Isaac McDougall, District Judge, this 2nd day of July, 1949, at 11 o'clock A .M. Plaintiff was present in person and with her Attorney, Roy L. Black; defendant was not present, either in person or by attorney. It appearing from the records and files that the defendant has been duly and regularly served with Summons and Complaint, and has failed to answer, appear or plead thereto, and the time for defendant to appear, answer or plead has now expired and the Clerk has duly entered the default of the defendant for such failure.

Plaintiff and her witness were duly sworn and testified in support of the allegations of the complaint and a stipulation, in writing, signed by the respective plaintiff and defendant was introduced and submitted to the Court, which agreement is a settlement between plaintiff and defendant of matters of property, custody and support of the minor children, alimony and attorney fees. After hearing the evidence and examining said stipulation the Court finds that all of the allegations of the complaint have been proven by evidence free and clear of all legal objection, that defendant is not a member of the armed services, that plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for and that said stipulation is fair in its terms, fairly entered into and should be approved by the Court and its provisions incorporated in the decree. The making and entering of formal findings of fact and conclusions of law have been waived by defendant's failure to appear and plead herein and the Court being fully advised in the premises,

NOW THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be and they are dissolved and plaintiff is awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant.

2. That the care, custody and control of the minor children, namely, Roxann Olsen now aged 2½ years and Ronald Francis Olsen now aged 13 months, is hereby awarded to plaintiff, with the right on the part of defendant to visit said children at all reasonable times and places.

That defendant shall pay to plaintiff for the support and maintenance and education of said minor children the sum of $85.00 per month commencing August 1, 1949, payable on the first to the fifth of each month beginning on said August 1, 1949, and continuing until said children arrive at the age of 18 years or until they marry if before that time or become self supporting before that time or until further order of the court.

3. It is further ordered that defendant will pay to plaintiff for her use in paying her attorneys, BLACK & BLACK, the sum of $100.00 payable on or before July 5, 1949.

4. There is hereby awarded to plaintiff as her sole and seperate property the household goods and furniture consisting of the following:

Dishes, silverware, cooking utensils, waffle iron, electric iron, washing machine, bedding, baby crib, chest of drawers, and other miscellaneous household goods and furniture.

This cause came on regularly for hearing before the Honorable Isaac Mc Dougall, Judge of the above entitled court sitting at chambers at Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho, this 5th day of July, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by counsel, P. A. Mc Dermott, of Pocatello, Idaho, the defendant not appearing either in person or by counsel;

And it appearing to the court that the defendant was duly served by publication of summons in the Pocatello Tribune, a daily newspaper published in Pocatello, Idaho, commencing January 7, 1949, and concluding February 4, 1949; that a copy of complaint and summons were mailed to the last known address of said defendant and thatshe failed to appear and plead to the complaint within twenty days from the date of last publication of summons, and that her default has been duly entered by the court according to law;

Whereupon, said plaintiff and witness were duly sworn and examined and evidence introduced from which it appears that all the material allegations of the complaint are sustained by competent evidence, and said matters so alleged and proved on behalf of plaintiff are sufficient to entitle him to the relief prayed for in his complaint;

Now, on the motion of P. A. Mc Dermott, Attorney for plaintiff, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the bonds

DECREE

This cause having come on regularly this 6th day of July, 1949, before the above named Court; and it appearing that the above named plaintiff has heretofore withdrawn his complaint on file herein, and refuses to plead further in the action; and it appearing that due and regular service of the cross-complaint in the said action had been served upon the above named plaintiff and that the said plaintiff had failed and refused to file an answer or any other appearance in relation to said cross-complaint; and it further appearing that the defendant had withdrawn her demurrer of plaintiff's complaint, on file herein, and her motion for a change of venue; and it further appearing that the parties hereto have entered into a stipulation providing for the settlement of their property right, support money, and child support, which stipulation is hereby approved by the Court. And the defendant having appeared in person and by her attorney, and the plaintiff having appeared by and through his attorney, E. A. McDevitt, the Court proceeded to hear the testimony submitted in behalf of the defendant, which was all the testimony presented, and the Court having been fully advised in the premises;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED,

I.

That the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be, and they are hereby dissolved, divorced and set aside, and both the parties to this marriage restored to the status of single persons.

II.

That the plaintiff herein, Fred A. Selle, shall pay to the defendant, Dawn Beddes Selle, who is also cross-complainant, the sum of Forty Two Dollars ($42.00) per month, as support money for the said cross-complainant, and the sum of Twenty Three Dollars and Thirty-three cents ($23.33) each, for each of the three minor children of the parties, as long as said sums are available as allowances for dependants because of plaintiff's military service. That if such allowances are changed because of the acts of Congress or because of a change in rank of the plaintiff or otherwise, the alimony and support money be or on behalf of the plaintiff shall be changed accordingly. That in any event the total amount payable shall not be less than Ninety Dollars ($90.00) per month, allocated as alimony and support money in the same proportion as above specified; and that the plaintiff shall from time to time as may be necessary, sign such applications or other papers necessary to the obtaining and continuance of the above allowances.

III.

In the event that the plaintiff shall leave the military service, then the amount of support money payable for each of the said minor children, namely, Fred A. Selle III, Brad B. Selle, and Joslyn Selle, shall be the sum of Twenty Five Dollars ($25.00) per month and the amount of support money payable for the cross-complainant shall be the sum of Twenty Five Dollars($25.00) per month, or until further ordered by the Court.

IV.

That the care, custody, and control of the said minor children, of the said marriage, is hereby awarded to the defendant and cross-complainant.

V.

That the plaintiff is hereby restrained in any manner from molesting or interferring with the defendant and cross-complainant.

Done in open court the day and date first above written.

6881

This cause came on regularly to be heard before the undersigned District Judge in his Chambers at Pocatello, Idaho, on the 6th day of July, 1949.

The plaintiff appearing in person and by his attorneys, Jones, Pomeroy & Jones, and no one appearing for or in behalf of the above named defendant, and it appearing to the Court that the defendant was duly served with a summons and complaint in said action and failed to appear, plead or answer to the complaint within the time provided by law or at all.

UPON MOTION of the attorneys for the plaintiff, default was entered against the defendant.

It appearing to the court that plaintiff and defendant have entered into a written agreement settling all their property rights, an executed copy of said agreement being attached to the plaintiff's complaint in said action. The court after carefully examining said agreement and interrogating the plaintiff in respect thereto finds that the said agreement is fair, just and equitable and that the same should be approved. The court further finds that since the said agreement was entered into that Lots 4, 5 and 6 in Block 530 in the City of Pocatello, Idaho, according to the official plat of the survey of the said lands returned to the General Land Office by the Surveyor General, together with the t enements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in anywise appertaining, were sold by the plaintiff and defendant for the sum of $25,000 and a warranty deed was executed by plaintiff and defendant to the purchaser and that the defendant was paid the sum of $8,000 cash out of said sale in accordance with said agreement. It further appearing to the court from the evidence adduced at said hearing, that since said agreement was entered into, plaintiff delivered to defendant the following described property, to wit:

1 Westinghouse Electric Stove
1 Frigidaire
1 Dining room set, consisting of table, 6 chairs and buffet
1 9ft.x12ft. Axminster Rug

1 Bedroom set, consisting of bed, springs and mattress
1 Chest and vanity dressing table, together with bench
Twin beds with mattresses and springs
1 Chest of drawers
1 Electrolux vacuum
2 Floor lamps
1 Table lamp
2 End tables
1 Coffee table
1 G.E. Combination radio and phonograph
1 Singer sewing machine, cabinet and bench
Dishes, cooking utensils, silverware, and all bedding and linens.

Evidence was offered and received for and in support of the complaint of the plaintiff and no evidence was offered for and on behalf of the defendant. Evidence being closed, the case was submitted to the Court for consideration and decision and after due deliberation thereon the Court ordered that judgment be entered in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant in accordance with the prayer of the said complaint, and that all the allegations in said complaint of the plaintiff are true and such are found to be the fact.

WHEREFORE, by reason of the law and the premises

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED (1) that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be and they hereby are absolutely dissolved and each of the parties restored to the status of a single person; (2) that the agreement between plaintiff and defendant, dated May 19, 1949, settling all of their property rights is approved and confirmed; (3) that the following property is awarded to the defendant as her sole and separate property:

1 Westinghouse Electric Stove
1 Frigidaire
1 Dining room set, consisting of table, 6 chairs and buffet
1 9ft.x12ft. Axminster Rug
1 Bedroom set, consisting of bed, springs and mattress
1 Chest and vanity dressing table, together with bench
Twin beds with mattresses and springs
1 Chest of drawers
1 Electrolux vacuum
2 Floor lamps
1 Table lamp
2 End tables
1 Coffee table
1 G.E. Combination radio and phonograph
1 Singer sewing machine, cabinet and bench
Dishes, cooking utensils, silverware, and all bedding and linens;

(4) that the Pontiac Town Coupe automobile is awarded to the plaintiff and any and all furniture and household equipment not specifically awarded to the plaintiff herein, as his sole and separate property.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that by reason of the property settlement between plaintiff and defendant, herein mentioned, the defendant has no interest in the life insurance policy issued by the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, in the sum of $1,000 insuring the life of the plaintiff, is awarded to the plaintiff as his sole and separate property.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the $8,000.00 purchase price heretofore paid to the defendant is awarded to her as her sole and separate property, that the balance of the purchase price is awarded to the plaintiff as his sole and separate property pursuant to the terms and provisions of the property agreement.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that plaintiff is the legal owner of Lot 12, Block 3, West Pocatello Townsite, Bannock County, Idaho, and that the beneficial ownership of said property vests in the children of the plaintiff and defendant.

This cause came on for trial before the Honorable Isaac McDougall, District Judge, this 9th day of July, 1949, at 11 o'clock a.m. Plaintiff was present in person and with her Attorney, Roy L. Black; defendant was not present, either in person or by attorney. It appearing from the records and files that defendant has been duly and regularly served with Summons and Complaint, and has failed to appear or plead thereto, and the time for such appearance has now expired and the Clerk has duly entered the default of defendant for such failure.

Plaintiff and her witness were duly sworn and testified in support of the allegations of the complaint and agreement, in writing, signed by the respective parties was submitted to the Court and offerred in evidence making settlement between the parties as to property, suit money, alimony, attorney fees, and costs which agreement was offered and admitted in evidence. After hearing the evidence and examining the said agreement the Court finds all allegations of the complaint have been proved by evidence free and clear of all legal objection, that defendant is not a member of the armed forces or of any military branch of the government, and that plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in the complaint and in accordance with said agreement and that said agreement is fair in its terms and was approved by the Court and its provisions ordered and entered in the Decree. The making and entering of formal findings of fact and conclusions of law have been waived by defendant's failure to appear and plead herein, and the Court being fully advised in the premises,

NOW THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be and they are dissolved and plaintiff is awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant.

2. That in accordance with said agreement there is hereby awarded to plaintiff as her sole and seperate property the following described property to-wit:

One radio, two end tables, record cabinet, three lamps, linens, bedding, cooking utensils, and other small articles.

all located in the home of the plaintiff at 945 East Lander Street, Pocatello, Idaho.

There is further awarded to plaintiff as her sole and seperate property all of the right, title, and interest of the parties hereto in and to the 1947 Studebaker, 4 door Sedan automobile and it is adjudged and decreed plaintiff shall assume and pay all of the remaining unpaid balance now owing on the purchase price of said automobile and that defendant shall be by plaintiff wholly released from any part or portion of any balance owing on said automobile and this provision of the Decree hereby authorizes the seller to give to plaintiff and the plaintiff to receive the title to said automobile upon her completing the contract of purchase therefore and if necessary defendant is hereby required to sign any paper or instrument necessary to assign all of the right, title, and interest on said automobile to plaintiff which signature shall be made immediately by defendant upon request therefore.

3. That defendant shall pay to plaintiff for her use in paying Black and Black, attorneys, or pay to Black and Black direct the sum of $100.00 attorney fees for their representation of plaintiff in this action and defendant shall pay to plaintiff or to said attorneys the sum of $17.00 cost advanced in this action and said payment shall be made immediately.

4. That defendant shall pay all bills owing or contracted by himself.

5. It is ordered adjudged and decreed that the property herein awarded to plaintiff shall be in lieu of all rights and claims she might have against defendant for property rights or alimony or support and maintenance.

JOHN E. STUART,)
Defendant.)

The above entitled matter came duly and regularly on for hearing before the undersigned, one of the Judges of the above court, on the 12TH day of July, 1949, in the Bannock County Court House in Pocatello, Idaho. The plaintiff appearing in person, and also appearing by her attorney, H. J. Swanson, lawyer, of Pocatello, Idaho, and the defendant appearing for himself, but without any attorney, the defendant advising the Court that he did not desire to be represented by any attorney. And thereupon both parties announced themselves ready for trial. Thereupon the plaintiff and one witness were regularly sworn and testified in support of all of the allegations of plaintiff's complaint, and rested. And the defendant declined to put on any proof of any kind. And the Court having heard the evidence and having examined all of the files and the records and proceedings had herein, and having examined the agreement relating to the property settlement produced in open Court, and the same being considered, the Court finds that all of the allegations of the plaintiff's complaint are true, and that the property settlement, having been examined by the Court, be, and the same hereby is in all respects approved.

Findings of Fact having been waived by a written waiver filed by the Court, and all being by the Court understood, the Court finds that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce, as prayed for in the complaint, and that the property referred to in the complaint, and in the property settlement, be decreed as hereinafter set forth.

WHEREFORE, IT IS ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff, Odessa M. Stuart, and the defendant, John E. vs.

PEARL NORREEN ROMAINE,

Cross-Complainant

This cause came regularly on to be heard before the Honorable Isaac McDougall, Judge of the above entitled court, sitting at chambers at Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho, this 12th day of July, 1949, the plaintiff and cross-defendant appearing by and through his attorney of record, George Hargraves, and the defendant and cross-complainant appearing by and through her attorneys, Bistline & Bistline;

And it appearing that said cause is at issue and ready for trial upon the issues framed by plaintiff's complaint and defendant's answer thereto, and cross-complainant's Cross-Complaint; and the plaintiff offering no evidence in support of said Complaint, whereupon the deposition of the defendant and cross-complainant upon Motion of Bistline and Bistline, her attorneys, was duly published; and the cross-defendant offered no evidence;

And it appearing to the court from the evidence adduced in said matter that all of the material allegations of the cross-complaint are true and are sustained by evidence free from all legal objections to its competency, admissibility and sufficiency; and it further appearing that said matters so alleged and proven in behalf of cross-complainant by evidence so adduced on her behalf are sufficient to entitle her to the relief prayed for in said cross-complaint;

And the parties, by and through their respective attorneys, having in writing waived findings of fact and conclusions of law, and the court being fully advised in the premises;

Now, on Motion of R. Don Bistline, one of the attorneys for defendant and cross-complainant:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the cross-complainant Pearl Norreen Romaine and cross-defendant Prentice Frank Romaine be and the same are hereby dissolved absolutely and completely and the said parties and each of them are hereby restored to the status of single, unmarried persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That Cross-Complainant Pearl Norreen Romaine be and she is hereby awarded the custody, care and control of the minor child of the parties, to-wit, Brian Patrick Romaine, subject to the right of the cross-defendant to visit said child at all reasonable times and places.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That cross-defendant pay to the Cross-Complainant the sum of Twenty-Five ($25.00) Dollars per month, commencing from the date of this decree and each and every month thereafter until further order of this court, for the support, care and maintainence of the minor child of the parties, to-wit, Brian Patrick Romaine.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That cross-defendant pay to Cross-Complainant the sum of 80¢, said sum to bear interest at the legal rate of 6% per annum from date until paid.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That cross-defendant pay to Cross-Complainant her attorney's fees in this action incurred in the sum of $125.00, together with the further sum of $14.00 court costs, and the further sum of $25.00 for court costs with respect to the taking of said deposition.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That Cross-Complainant be and she is hereby awarded the sum of $25.00 per month alimony from Cross-Defendant until further order of this court.

Made and entered at chambers in Pocatello Idaho this 12th day of July, 1949.

DECREE

This cause came on regularly to be heard before the undersigned District Judge in his Chambers at Pocatello, Idaho, on the 23d day of July, 1949.

The plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorneys, Jones, Pomeroy & Jones, and no one appearing for or in behalf of the above named defendant, and it appearing to the Court that the defendant was duly served with a summons and complaint in said action and failed to appear, plead or answer to the complaint within the time provided by law or at all.

UPON MOTION of the attorneys for the plaintiff, default was entered against the defendant.

It appearing to the court that no evidence was offered for and on behalf of defendant and evidence being offered and received for and in support of the complaint of plaintiff. Evidence being closed, the case was submitted to the court for consideration and decision and after due deliberation thereon the court ordered that judgment be entered in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant in accordance with the prayer of the said complaint, and that all the allegations in said complaint of the plaintiff are true and such are found to be the fact.

NOW, THEREFORE, the law and the evidence being by this court fully understood and considered;

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED (1) that the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant be and they hereby are absolutely dissolved and held for naught and each of the parties restored to the status of a single person; (2) that the life insurance policy upon the life of Carolyn Aileen Wheeler Anderson, No. 14944, issued by the Great Northwest Life Insurance Company of Spokane, Washington, be and the same is hereby decreed to plaintiff herein as her sole and separate property, and that defendant have no interest in the same whatsoever; and (3) that the former name of plaintiff, to wit: Carolyn Aileen Wheeler be and the same is hereby restored to her.

Dated, this 23d day of July, 1949.

vs. : DECREE OF DIVORCE
IRIS P. WILLIS, :
Defendant. :

This cause came regularly on for trial before the Honorable Isaac McDougall, Judge of the above entitled Court, sitting without a jury, at Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho, on the 30th day of July, 1949. Merrill & Merrill, Attorneys at Law, appeared for and on behalf of the plaintiff. The defendant did not appear either in person or by attorney. It appeared to the Court that the defendant had been duly and regularly served with summons in this action in form and manner provided by law and that she failed within the time allowed by law or at all to appear and plead herein, and her default for thus failing to appear has been duly and regularly entered; and

It further appeared to the Court that the defendant is not in the military or naval service of the United States of America within the purview of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940. Evidence was thereupon introduced in support of said complaint, and from which evidence it appears that all of the allegations contained therein are true and correct and that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief sought and in the manner hereinafter adjudged.

The Court being now fully advised in the law and the premises:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED, AND THIS DOES ORDER, ADJUDGE, AND DECREE That the marriage existing between this plaintiff, Walter Roscoe Willis, and the defendant, Iris P. Willis, solemnized at Clovis, New Mexico, on the 20th day of January, 1935, be and the same is hereby dissolved and held for naught, and that the parties thereto are freed from all obligations thereof, and each party is hereby restored to the status of a single person.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED, AND THIS DOES ORDER, ADJUDGE, AND DECREE, that until further order of this Court, the care, custody and control of Norma Leach Willis, aged 11 years, the minor child of said marriage, be and the same is hereby presently left with the defendant, Iris P. Willis, with the right nevertheless on the part of the plaintiff to visit said minor child at reasonable times and under reasonable conditions and to occasionally have said child in his custody and control, and that said plaintiff, Walter Roscoe Willis, be and he is hereby ordered to pay to the defendant, Iris P. Willis, for the support of said minor child while said child is in her custody the sum of $ per month, beginning on the day of August, 1949, with the right nevertheless on the part of the Court to modify or decrease said amount if and when conditions change, and to likewise modify this decree as to custody of said child if present conditions touching her care or custody should change.

This cause coming on regularly for hearing at Pocatello, Idaho, this 26th day of July, 1949, before the Honorable Isaac McDougall, District Judge of the Fifth Judicial District, at Chambers, and it appearing that the defendant, A. Dean Jones, was duly and regularly served with process by personal service within the State of Idaho, according to law, and that he has withdrawn his demurrer to the complaint herein and has refused to plead further, and the plaintiff being present in Court and represented by her attorney, G. Staudacher, and the defendant not appearing to contest this action, and the defendant's default having been duly and regularly entered, and the complaint of plaintiff taken as confessed, the Court proceeded to hear the evidence submitted by the plaintiff in support of her allegations contained in her complaint.

The Court having heard the testimony of the plaintiff and a witness in her behalf and having examined the evidence in support of the allegations of the complaint herein, and the matter having been submitted to the Court for judgment, and the Court having considered the evidence and being fully advised in the premises, finds: That all the material allegations of the plaintiff as set forth in her complaint herein are true, to-wit: That plaintiff is, and for more than one year preceeding the commencement of this action has been, a bona fide resident of the state of Idaho, County of Bear Lake; that plaintiff and defendant intermarried at Bennington, Idaho, on the 30th day of September, 1939, and ever since have been, and now are, husband and wife; that there are living as the issue of said marriage two children, to-wit:

Cheryl Ann Jones, age four years; and Dennis Dean Jones, age eleven months, which said children are now in the care and custody of plaintiff.

That the following described three parcels of property were acquired by the said parties hereto during their marriage and that the same is community property:

Parcel No. 1.: Lot Fifteen (15) of Block Three (3) of the Bagley Extension to the City of Montpelier, in Bear Lake County, Idaho, on which said property is situate a dwelling house in which said dwelling house is located furniture, dishes, cooking utensils, radio, linens and bedding, and household goods.

Parcel No. 2.: A One-half partnership interest in the co-partnership business known as "Jones & Krater Paint and Appliance Co." situated in Montpelier, Idaho.

Parcel No. 3.: One 1942 Pontiac Sedan; Model P8KB; Motor No. 8-373-841; Serial No. P8KB 1847.

And, Whereas, it appearing by the evidence that on July 14, 1949, defendant A. Dean Jones executed a warranty deed conveying to plaintiff Verla T. Jones all of his community interest in and to the following described real property, situated in the County of Bear Lake, State of Idaho, known and described as follows, to-wit:

Lot Fifteen (15) of Block Three (3) of the Bagley Extension to the City of Montpelier, in Bear Lake County, Idaho.

WHEREUPON, The testimony having been concluded, the case was submitted to the Court for final decision, and the Court being fully advised in the premises,

1. IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are, hereby dissolved absolutely, and that the said parties and each of them are hereby relieved of all the obligations of said marriage.

2. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the plaintiff be and is hereby awarded the care, custody and control of the said two minor children of said marriage, to-wit: Cheryl Ann Jones and Dennis Dean Jones, but that the defendant have the right to visit said children at any reasonable time and place.

3. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the defendant A. Dean Jones shall pay to the plaintiff the sum of $ 75.00 Dollars per month for the care, maintenance and education of the said two minor children.

4. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, THAT the defendant A. Dean Jones be decreed as his sole and separate property the following described property, to-wit:

A One-half partnership interest in the co-partnership business known as "Jones & Krater Paint and Appliance Co." situate in Montpelier, Idaho.

One 1942 Pontiac Sedan; Model P8KB; Motor No. 8-373-841; Serial No. P8KB 1847.

5. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the plaintiff Verla T. Jones be decreed as her sole and separate property the following described property, to-wit:

Lot Fifteen (15) of Block Three (3) of the Bagley Extension to the City of Montpelier, in Bear Lake County, Idaho, on which said property is situate a dwelling house in which said dwelling house is located furniture, dishes, cooking utensils, radio, linens and bedding, and household goods.

MARCELLA G. JOHNSON, Plaintiff, -vs- THEO EDWIN JOHNSON, Defendant.	COPY FINAL JUDGMENT AND DECREE OF DIVORCE

The above entitled action having been brought on regularly to be heard and tried before the Honorable Preston Thatcher, Judge of the above entitled Court, sitting without a jury, on the 13th day of July, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and with her counsel of record, Donald R. Good, Esq., and the defendant failing to appear herein in person, or by counsel, and having failed to file any pleading in this action, and the default of the said defendant, Theo Edwin Johnson, having been heretofore duly and regularly entered herein according to law, and that the defendant, being in the military service of the United States, has, in writing, waived the provisions of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, and the Court finds that all material allegations and averments of plaintiff's Complaint are sustained by testimony free from all legal exceptions as to competency, admissibility or sufficiency, and that said matters so alleged and proved by the testimony of two competent witnesses in behalf of said plaintiff are sufficient in law to entitle the plaintiff to the relief prayed for in her said Complaint;

The Court finds that the plaintiff is a resident of the State of Idaho, and was such a resident of said State at the time of the commencement of this action, and for aperiod of more than six weeks immediately prior thereto, and that due and legal service of the Summons and Complaint in said action has been made upon the said defendant, Theo Edwin Johnson by a written acknowledgment and acceptance of service by the defendant heretofore filed herein and that the time allowed by law has expired and that the said defendant has failed to appear herein or plead in person or by counsel or otherwise, or at all, and the default of the said defendant has been duly and regularly entered herein, and the Court being fully advised in the premises;

NOW, THEREFORE, upon Motion of Donald R. Good, Esq., attorney of record for plaintiff, It Is Ordered, Adjudged and Decreed by this Court, by virtue of the power and authority therein vested, and in pursuance of the statutes in such cases made and provided, the said Court does hereby Order, Adjudge and Decree that the marriage between the plaintiff, Marcella G. Johnson and the said defendant, Theo Edwin Johnson, be dissolved, and the same is hereby dissolved accordingly, and the said parties are, and each of them is freed absolutely, and released from said bonds of matrimony, and all of the obligations thereof, and restored to the status of single persons;

IT IS FURTHER SO ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that pending the further Order of the Court herein, the care, custody and control of the minor child of the parties, Theo Edwin Johnson, Jr., be, and the same are hereby awarded to the plaintiff, Marcella G. Johnson, she being a fit, proper and competent person to be so awarded the custody of said child;

IT IS FURTHER SO ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the defendant, Theo Edwin Johnson, pay to plaintiff, Marcella G. Johnson, the sum of $35.00 monthly for the support, maintenance and education of said minor child of the parties, the first payment to be made on or about the 1st day of August, 1949, and continuing on the 1st day of each and every month thereafter, pending the further Order of the Court herein.

Dated at Blackfoot, Bingham County, Idaho, this 13th day of July, 1949.

PEARL THOMPSON HEADLEY, Plaintiff, vs. JESS D. HEADLEY, Defendant.	DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came on regularly for hearing before the above entitled Court on the 8th day of July, 1949, CALDWELL & ALEXANDERSON appearing as counsel for the plaintiff and the defendant having duly and regularly appeared in this action and said defendant having filed herein his demurrer to plaintiff's complaint and said defendant having thereafter filed herein his "Consent that Demurrer may be Overruled; Waiver of Notice; and Refusal to Plead Further" whereby he advised this Court that he did not care to argue said demurrer and that the same might be called up for hearing at any time by the plaintiff without notice to the defendant and said defendant further consenting that said Demurrer be overruled; and said Demurrer having been called up for hearing the same was overruled; and said defendant having further advised this Court that he refused to plead further in said action and consented that said action could be called up for trial and final hearing at any time without notice to said defendant; and said defendant having wholly failed to further appear or plead to or answer said complaint of the plaintiff on file herein, and said cause having been duly and regularly called up for trial and final hearing as above set forth and defendant having wholly failed to appear at said trial, witnesses were duly sworn and testified on behalf of the plaintiff;

AND THE COURT Having heard and considered all of the evidence and testimony in said action, and it thereby having been made to appear to this Court that the Plaintiff and Defendant intermarried at Payette, Payette County, State of Idaho, on or about the 14th day of August, 1945, and ever since said time have been and now are husband and wife; and that the plaintiff is now and for more than six full weeks next preceding the commencement of this action has been, a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho;

That there are no minor children the issue of said marriage.

That there are no property interests to be adjudicated between the parties hereto;

That said plaintiff's name before her marriage was Pearl Thompson;

That on or about the 10th day of February, 1947, the defendant, disregarding the solemnity of his marriage vows, wilfully and without cause, deserted and abandoned the plaintiff, and ever since said date has continued and still continues to so wilfully and without cause, desert and abandon said plaintiff and to live separate and apart from her without any sufficient cause or reason; all of which said desertion and abandonment on the part of the said defendant were, and in continuing to so live separate and apart from the plaintiff are, the wilful and voluntary acts of the defendant, with the intention and purpose on the part of the said defendant then and now to desert the plaintiff; that the defendant is guilty of wilful desertion of the plaintiff.

That all of the allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true and are sustained by the evidence and proofs submitted upon said hearing and that plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in her complaint and that decree should be entered accordingly.

That all the findings of fact and conclusions of law having been waived by the defendant by his failure to appear at the trial of said action;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE and DECREE:

1. That the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be dissolved and held for naught and that said parties be absolutely divorced.

2. That plaintiff be restored to her former name, Pearl Thompson.

DECREE

This cause came on regularly to be heard and tried before the Honorable Henry S. Martin, Judge of the above-entitled Court, in Chambers, at Idaho Falls, Bonneville County, State of Idaho, on the 17th day of June, 1949; the plaintiff appearing in person, and W. K. Naylor appearing as counsel for the plaintiff, and the defendant appearing not, either in person or by counsel, whereupon the plaintiff was duly and regularly sworn and examined and testified for and in her own behalf, and thereupon one May Holverson, witness for the plaintiff, was duly and regularly sworn and examined and testified for and in behalf of the plaintiff, and thereupon the plaintiff rested, and no proof whatsoever having been submitted for or in behalf of the defendant, this cause was thereupon submitted to the Court for its decision upon the evidence submitted for and in behalf of the plaintiff, and the Court, being fully advised in the premises now finds as follows:

That the above-named defendant has been duly and regularly served with a true copy of the Summons issued out of the above-entitled Court in the within cause, together with, and attached to, a true copy of plaintiff's Complaint on file herein; that the said defendant failed to appear or plead to plaintiff's said Complaint within the time allowed by law, or at all, and that the default of the said defendant has been duly and regularly entered herein according to law; that this Court has jurisdiction of the person of the above-named plaintiff and of the person of the above-named defendant, and of the subject matter of this action; that the allegations of plaintiff's said Complaint have been established by sufficient and competent evidence free and clear from all legal objections and that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of divorce as prayed for in her said Complaint filed herein; that the plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the care, custody and control of the minor child of plaintiff and defendant.

NOW THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff, Loeda Peterson, and the defendant, Leonard LaVell Peterson, be, and the same are hereby absolutely dissolved, set aside and held for naught, and that plaintiff and defendant are both hereby restored to the status of single persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the plaintiff shall have, and she is hereby awarded and decreed the care, custody and control of Colleen Peterson, minor child of plaintiff and defendant, and that the defendant shall have the right to see and visit said minor child at reasonable times and places and under reasonable circumstances.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the defendant shall pay to the plaintiff for the support and maintenance of said minor child of plaintiff and defendant, the sum of $15.00 per month, commencing during the month of July, 1949, and continuing each and every month thereafter until said minor child becomes of age, or until the further order of the Court in the premises.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the former name of the plaintiff, to-wit, Loeda Winder, be, and the same is hereby restored to the plaintiff.

Done and dated in chambers at Idaho Falls, Idaho, this 17th day of June, A. D. 1949.

AALTJE M. LINDSEY, Plaintiff, vs. PAUL D. LINDSEY, Defendant.	MODIFIED DECREE

On reading and filing the written Stipulation, dated July 1st, 1949, signed by the parties to the within action, providing for the modification of the Decree on file in this action, and it appearing that said Stipulation and the terms thereof are fair and proper, and that said Decree rendered and entered in the within action on the 24th day of December, 1948, should be amended and modified to conform to said Stipulation and the terms thereof.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, that said divorce decree shall be, and the same is hereby modified and amended to read and provided as follows:

I

Paragraph II thereof shall be, and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the above named plaintiff, be, and she is hereby awarded the sole care, custody and control of Linda Sue, a minor daughter of plaintiff and defendant, age three years, and defendant shall have the right to visit said minor child at all reasonable times and places.

II

That said Decree be modified and amended by vacating, annulling, setting aside and striking paragraph III of said divorce decree, which reads as follows:

"IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that defendant may live in the home of plaintiff and defendant, located at 199 Longfellow Street, Idaho Falls, Idaho, more particularly described as follows:

'Lots One (1) and Two (2) in Block Two (2) of Dwight's Addition to the City of Idaho Falls, Idaho,' until said minor child reaches the age of eighteen years, and it is further ordered that defendant shall assume and pay all obligations against said property as soon as possible, and that as soon as said obligations are paid, it is further ordered that both plaintiff and defendant shall deed and transfer all their right, title and interest in said property to said Linda Sue, as her sole and separate property."

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that said paragraph III of said divorce decree, above quoted, be, and the same is hereby vacated, annulled, set aside and stricken from said divorce decree.

III

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that plaintiff and defendant do not own, nor have either of them ever owned, or ever had any interest in and to Lots One (1) and Two (2) in Block Two (2) of Dwight's Addition to the City of Idaho Falls, Idaho.

IV

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that all the other provisions contained in said divorce decree shall be, and remain in full force and effect.

The above entitled cause coming on regularly to be heard and tried before the Honorable Henry S. Martin, District Judge, at Chambers at Idaho Falls, County of Bonneville, State of Idaho, on the 1st day of July, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by one of her attorneys, Errol H. Hillman, and the defendant appearing not, either in person or by attorney, and it appearing that the above named defendant has been duly and regularly served with process herein, and that he has filed herein an appearance submitting himself to the jurisdiction of this Court, and has refused to plead further in said cause, and has consented to an immediate hearing of this case without further notice to him, either in term time or vacation, in open Court or in Chambers, and has waived the making of findings of fact and conclusions of law herein, and has consented that default be entered against him, and the default of the said defendant having been duly and regularly entered herein, and the parties hereto having entered into a Stipulation with respect to the settlement of their property rights, the custody of their minor children, and the payment of support money for said children, and it appearing to the Judge that said Stipulation is in all respects fair, just and equitable, and the Judge having heard the evidence, and the matter having been submitted, and it appearing that all of the allegations contained in the plaintiff's complaint are true, and that the plaintiff is entitled to the custody of said minor children and to a divorce on the ground of extreme cruelty, and the Judge being fully advised in the premises:

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED as follows:

1. That the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff, Vera Hall, and the defendant, Roy D. Hall, be, and they are hereby dissolved, and each restored to the status of a single person.

2. That the plaintiff, Vera Hall, shall have the sole care, custody and control of the minor children, John Michael Hall and Michele Elaine Hall excepting from the 15th day of July to the 1st day of September, 1949, and from the 15th day of June, until the 1st day of September of each year, commencing with the year 1950, until further Order of this Court. Provided, however, that the defendant, Roy D. Hall, shall have the right to visit said children at all reasonable times and places, and provided further that the plaintiff shall not remove said children or either of them from the State of Idaho, without further Order of the Court, except that she may take said children or either of them out of the State of Idaho for temporary visits not to exceed a period of one month per year.

3. That the defendant, Roy D. Hall, shall have the sole care, custody and control of said minor children from the 15th day of July, 1949 to the 1st day of September, 1949, and from the 15th day of June until the first day of September each year, commencing with the year 1950, provided, however, that the plaintiff shall have the right to visit said minor children at all reasonable times and places.

4. That the defendant, Roy D. Hall, shall pay to the Clerk of the District Court in and for the County of Bonneville, the sum of $50.00 each month for the support, maintenance and education of the minor child, John Michael Hall, while he is in plaintiff's custody and the further sum of $50.00 each month for the support, maintenance and education of the minor child, Michele Elaine Hall, while she is in plaintiff's custody said payments to commence with the 1st day of July, 1949, and being payable on the 1st day of each and every calendar month thereafter, until said children respectively shall reach the age of majority, or until further Order of this Court.

5. That one electric stove, 1 Westinghouse refrigerator, 1 coffee table, 1 antique table, 2-piece living room set, consisting of 1 chair and 1 davenport, 1 swing rocker, 1 wardrobe chest, 1 bunk bed, 1 table radio, 1 electric iron, dishes, linen, silverware, and canned fruit and vegetables be, and the same is hereby, awarded and decreed to the plaintiff, Vera Hall, as her sole and separate property and for her sole and separate use and benefit.

6. That one 1940 Chevrolet automobile, 1 1937 Studebaker pick-up, together with all other community property of the parties hereto, of whatsoever nature, excepting only the property herein awarded and decreed to the plaintiff, be, and the same hereby is, awarded and decreed to the defendant, Roy D. Hall, as his sole and separate property and for his sole and separate use and benefit.

7. That the defendant shall pay to Errol H. Hillman, one of the attorneys for the above named plaintiff, the sum of $73.40, forthwith, as and for her costs of suit and attorneys' fees herein.

Dated this 1st day of July, 1949.

STARLIE BLAKE NELSON, Plaintiff,	)
JOSEPH T. NELSON, Defendant.	)

The above-entitled cause came on for hearing this 15th day of July, 1949, the plaintiff appearing with counsel, John M. Sharp and her witness. The defendant did not appear, either in person or by counsel; and it appearing to the court that the defendant was duly and regularly served with process as prescribed by law in such cases made and provided; that the time for answering having expired and defendant has failed to plead thereto; that the default of the defendant has been duly entered and the Affidavit of Non-military Service duly filed; the plaintiff having submitted proofs touching the allegations of the Complaint, and the court being fully advised in the premises; and it further appearing that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce on the grounds of extreme cruelty.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

I.

That the marriage heretofore and now existing between the above-named plaintiff, Starlie Blake Nelson, and the above-named defendant, Joseph T. Nelson, be, and the same hereby is, forever dissolved, set aside and held for naught.

II.

That the following community property of plaintiff and defendant: One cabinet radio, miscellaneous household items including dishes, silverware, cooking utensils, linen and bedding be awarded to the plaintiff as her sole and separate property.

III.

That the minor child of plaintiff and defendant, namely, Joseph Michael Nelson, be awarded to the plaintiff subject to the rights of the defendant to visit said minor child at all reasonable times and places.

IV.

That the defendant be required to pay to the plaintiff for the support, maintenance and education of the said minor child of plaintiff and defendant the sum of $50.00 per month payable on the first day of August, 1949, and the first day of each succeeding month until said child reaches the age of majority.

JUDGMENT

The above-entitled action came on for hearing before the undersigned Judge of said District Court, at Chambers of the Court, at Idaho Falls, Bonneville County, Idaho, this 15th day of July, 1949, Albaugh Bloem & Hillman appearing as attorneys for the plaintiff, and no appearance being made by or for the defendant, and it appearing that due service of the Summons in said cause has been made and had upon the defendant, with a copy of the complaint in said action attached to the copy of said Summons served upon the defendant, that the time allowed by law for answering said complaint has expired, and that no answer, demurrer or other appearance has been made by or for the defendant, and that the default of the defendant in the premises has been duly entered by the Clerk of this Court, and that an affidavit of the non-military or naval service of the defendant has been made and filed herein, upon which affidavit the Court hereby orders that said cause may proceed against the defendant by default, whereupon evidence was adduced by the plaintiff in support of the complaint in said cause, and upon due consideration thereof, the court finds that the allegations of said complaint are fully sustained by the evidence, and that plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in said complaint.

It is therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, as follows:

1. That the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be, and the same hereby are, dissolved, and each of the parties is hereby restored to the status of a single person.

2. That the defendant has heretofore paid to the plaintiff all of her attorney's fees and court costs herein, and the defendant is hereby released from any and all liability to the plaintiff of every nature and description.

J. W. PARKS,

Plaintiff,

vs. JUDGMENT

Defendant.

The above-entitled cause came on for hearing before the undersigned Judge of said District Court, at Chambers of the Court, at Idaho Falls, Bonneville County, Idaho, this 15th day of July, 1949, Albaugh, Bloem & Hillman appearing as attorneys for the plaintiff, and no appearance being made by or for the defendant, it appearing that the defendant has appeared in said cause by stipulation on file herein, under the terms and provisions of which stipulation the defendant, among other things, admitted that she has been served with a true copy of the summons issued out of this Court in said cause, attached to which was a true copy of the complaint filed herein, and the defendant entered her general appearance in said cause, submitted to the jurisdiction of the Court herein, refused to demur, answer, or plead further, waived additional time in which to plead further, consented that said cause might be heard at any time without further notice, waived the making of findings of fact and conclusions of law herein, and denied the allegations of said complaint; and it further appearing that the default of the defendant in said cause has been duly entered according to law, whereupon the Court proceeded to hear the evidence adduced in support of plaintiff's complaint, and after due consideration thereof and of the files and records of said cause, the Court finds that the allegations of plaintiff's complaint are fully sustained by the evidence, and that plaintiff is entitled to the relief demanded in said complaint, subject, however, to the terms and conditions of said stipulation as to the community and separate property rights of the parties, which stipulation the court adopts and approves as being just and equitable with respect to the circumstances of the parties.

It is therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, as follows:

1. That the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and the defendant are hereby dissolved, and the parties are restored to the status of single persons.

2. That the plaintiff, J. W. Parks, have as his sole and separate property and for his sole and separate use and benefit, from the community property of the parties, one davenport and a kitchenette set, but he shall assume and pay the unpaid balance of the purchase price thereof.

3. That the defendant, Jean Parks, have as her sole and separate property and for her sole and separate use and benefit, from the community property of the parties, all other household goods and furniture, including a small electric range and sewing machine, but she shall assume and pay the unpaid balance of the purchase price thereof.

4. That the plaintiff have and keep as his separate property all other property formerly owned by him as separate property, referring particularly to the South Half of Lots 42, 43 and 44 of Block 27 of Capital Hill Addition to Idaho Falls, Idaho.

5. That the defendant have restored to her her maiden name of Jean Hammer.

WINIFRED J. WHEELER, Plaintiff, vs. HARRY V. WHEELER, Defendant.	D E C R E E

This cause came on regularly for trial at Chambers at Idaho Falls, Bonneville County, Idaho, on the 15th day of July, A. D. 1949; Holden & Holden appearing for and in behalf and as the attorneys of record for the above named plaintiff, and no one appearing for or in behalf of the above named defendant, whereupon the plaintiff was duly and regularly sworn and examined and testified for and in her own behalf, and thereupon Richard H. Wheeler was duly sworn and examined and testified for and in behalf of the above named plaintiff, and thereupon the above named plaintiff rested, and the above named defendant, having submitted no proof for or in his own behalf, this cause was thereupon submitted to the Court for its decision upon the testimony and documentary evidence submitted for and in behalf of the above named plaintiff, and the Court being fully advised in the premises, now finds as follows:

I

That the above named defendant has been duly and regularly served with a true copy of the Summons issued out of said Court, in said cause, attached to which was a true copy of the Complaint filed herein; that the defendant failed to appear or answer or otherwise plead to said plaintiff's Complaint on file herein, either in person or by counsel, within the time required by law, or at all; that the time for answer having expired, the default of the defendant

has been duly and regularly entered according to law; that the said defendant is not in the military service of the United States or of its allies; that plaintiff and defendant intermarried at Idaho Falls, Bonneville County, Idaho, on or about the 19th day of August, 1926, and that ever since said date have been and now are husband and wife; that two children have been born the issue of said marriage, whose names and ages are as follows: Richard Harry Wheeler, a son, age twenty-one years, and Peggy Ann Wheeler, a daughter, age seventeen years; that the plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the care, custody and control of said minor daughter, of plaintiff and defendant, Peggy Ann Wheeler, age seventeen years; that there are no property rights to be adjudicated in this action; that the defendant is regularly employed by the Union Pacific Railroad Company at a monthly wage in excess of $300.00, and is able to pay to the plaintiff the sum of $40.00 per month for the support of said minor daughter, Peggy Ann Wheeler; that the plaintiff is in indigent circumstances and is wholly dependent upon her own labor and the charity of her friends and relatives for support, and is entitled to the sum of $25.00 per month from the defendant as and for permanent alimony; that the defendant is able to pay plaintiff's attorney's a reasonable attorneys' fee for the prosecution of this action; that this Court has jurisdiction of the subject matter of this action, and of the person of the above named plaintiff, and of the person of the above named defendant, and of the person of the above named Peggy Ann Wheeler, minor daughter of the plaintiff and defendant; that all the allegations of plaintiff's Complaint are true; that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of divorce as prayed for in her Complaint filed herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion of Holden & Holden, the attorneys of record of the above named plaintiff:

I

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the marriage heretofore and now existing between the above named plaintiff, Winifred J. Wheeler, and the above named defendant, Harry V. Wheeler, be, and the same is hereby forever dissolved, set aside and held for naught, and the plaintiff and defendant, and each of them, be, and they are hereby forever absolutely released from all the obligations thereof.

II

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the said plaintiff, Winifred J. Wheeler, be, and she is hereby awarded the care, custody and control of the minor daughter of plaintiff and defendant, Peggy Ann Wheeler, age seventeen years.

III

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the defendant, Harry V. Wheeler, pay to the plaintiff, Winifred J. Wheeler, the sum of $40.00 per month, payable on the 1st day of August, 1949, and the first day of each and every month thereafter for the support of said minor daughter of plaintiff and defendant, Peggy Ann Wheeler, until said minor daughter reaches the age of majority.

IV

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the defendant, Harry V. Wheeler, pay to the plaintiff, Winifred J. Wheeler, the sum of $35.00 per month, payable on the 1st day of August, 1949, and on the first day of each and every month thereafter as permanent alimony, and that such payments continue until further order of the Court.

V

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the said defendant, Harry V. Wheeler, pay to the plaintiff's attorneys, Holden & Holden, of Idaho Falls, Idaho, forthwith, the sum of $125.00, lawful money of the United States for the prosecution of this action.

VI

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the plaintiff, Winifred J. Wheeler, have judgment against the defendant, Harry V. Wheeler, for the sum of $ 16.40 , for plaintiff's costs and disbursements herein incurred.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came on regularly to be heard before the Honorable Henry S. Martin, Judge of the above entitled Court, in Chambers, at Idaho Falls, Bonneville County, State of Idaho, on this 15th day of July, A. D. 1949; the plaintiff appearing in person, andW. K. Naylor, appearing as counsel for the plaintiff, and the defendant appearing not, either in person or by counsel, whereupon the plaintiff was duly and regularly sworn and examined and testified for and in her own behalf, and thereupon one Lucille Williams, witness for the plaintiff, was duly and regularly sworn and examined and testified for and in behalf of the plaintiff, and thereupon the plaintiff rested and no proof whatsoever having been submitted for or in behalf of the defendant, this cause was thereupon submitted to the Court for its decision upon the evidence submitted for and in behalf of the plaintiff, and the Court having considered the same, and being fully advised in the premises, now finds as follows:

That the above named defendant has been duly and regularly served with a true copy of the Summons issued out of the above entitled Court in the within cause, together with a true copy of plaintiff's Complaint on file herein and plaintiff's Amended Complaint on file herein, and that the said defendant has admitted in writing, on file herein, due and legal service of said Summons,

Complaint and Amended Complaint, and has entered his appearance in this action and has submitted himself to the jurisdiction of this Court, in this cause, and has refused to plead in this action and has waived additional time in which to plead herein and has consented that default be entered against him and to an immediate hearing of this cause without further notice, either in term time, or vacation, in open Court, or in chambers; that the said defendant failed to appear or plead to plaintiff's said Complaint or Amended Complaint and that the default of the said defendant has been duly and regularly entered herein according to law; that this Court has jurisdiction of the person of the above named plaintiff, and of the person of the above named defendant, and of the subject matter of this action; that the allegations of plaintiff's said Amended Complaint have been established by sufficient and competent evidence, free and clear from legal objections and that the said plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of divorce as prayed for in her said Amended Complaint on file herein; that one child has been born and is now living as the issue of the marriage of the plaintiff and defendant and that the said plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the care, custody and control of said minor child; that there are no property rights to be adjudicated in or by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff, Maxine Gialy, and the defendant, William L. Gialy, be, and the same are hereby absolutely dissolved, set aside and held for naught and that they be, and they hereby are, each and both restored to the status of single persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the care, custody and control of Terry Erma Lee Gialy, minor child of plaintiff and defendant, be, and the same is hereby awarded and decreed to the plaintiff, subject to the further order of the Court.

The above entitled cause came on before the Court for final hearing at Chambers of the Court at Idaho Falls, Idaho, this 29th day of July, 1949, Albaugh, Bloem & Hillman appearing as attorneys for the plaintiff, and no appearance being made by or for the defendant, it appearing that the defendant has appeared in said action under and pursuant to a stipulation entered into by the parties, in which stipulation the defendant acknowledged service of the summons in said action by receipt of a true copy thereof attached to which was a copy of the complaint in said cause, acknowledged the jurisdiction of the Court herein and made a general appearance in said cause, refused to demur, answer or plead further in said cause, consented that default might be entered against her, and said cause heard at any time, without notice, and waived the making of findings of fact and conclusions of law herein.

Evidence was submitted by plaintiff in support of the allegations of plaintiff's complaint, and after duly considering the same and the files and records of this action, the Court finds that the allegations of said complaint are sustained by the evidence herein, and that plaintiff is entitled to the Judgment of this Court for the relief demanded in said complaint, it further appearing that the parties to said cause have entered into a certain property settlement agreement under date the 21st day of May, 1949, by which the parties have divided and settled their community and separate property rights, including the question of the maintenance of the parties in the future, and the support, custody and maintenance of the minor child of the parties, Walter R. Waters, which property settlement agreement the Court approves and adopts herein as being fair and equitable under the circumstances of the parties.

From the foregoing, it is hereby ADJUDGED and DECREED As follows:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the parties be, and the same hereby are, dissolved, and the parties are each restored to the status of single persons.

2. That each party to this action is hereby released and absolved from any and all obligations and liabilities for the future acts and deeds of the other, and each of said parties are hereby released from any and all liabilities, debts, or obligations of any kind or character incurred by the other from and after the 21st day of May, 1949, and from any and all claims and demands, except as hereinafter provided, including all claims of either party upon the other for support and maintenance as wife or husband or otherwise.

3. That any and all property acquired by either of the parties hereto, from and after the 21st day of May, 1949, shall be the sole and separate property of the one who is acquiring the same.

4. That the defendant have as her sole and separate property and for her sole and separate use and benefit, the property set apart to her in said stipulation, to-wit:

(a) All the household furniture and furnishings situated in the dwelling house of the parties at number 152 Vine Street in the City of Hollister, County of San Benito, State of California.

(b) The real property situated at number 152 Vine Street, Hollister, California, heretofor conveyed by the plaintiff to the defendant.

(c) All moneys for or owed to the parties by the defendant's father.

(d) All U.S. Savings Bonds owned by the parties, situated in saving deposit box at bank in Hollister, California.

(e) The sum of $5,000.00 in cash, heretofor turned over to the defendant by the terms of said stipulation.

(f) One Chevrolet 5-passenger Coupe, now registered in the name of defendant.

5. That the plaintiff shall assign and transfer all of his right, title and interest in those certain life insurance policies upon the life of the plaintiff, issued by the New York Life Insurance Company on September 2, 1929, bearing serial numbers 10873611 and 10873612, in such a manner that the beneficiary thereunder shall be the minor child of the parties, Walter R. Waters, with the proceeds payable during the minority of said child to the defendant, as trustee for said child, and the plaintiff shall have no right to change the beneficiary of said policies until such time as said child shall become 21 years of age, after which time the plaintiff shall be considered as the sole owner of said policies, and shall have the right to deal with them as he may desire.

6. That the plaintiff have as his sole and separate property and for his sole and separate use and benefit, the following described property, to-wit:

(a) One Chrysler automobile now registered in his name.

(b) All farming implements heretofor owned by the parties, together with a saddle horse and feed for said horse.

(c) All cash in the bank, formerly belonging to the parties, over and above the sum of $5,000.00 heretofor turned over to the defendant.

7. That the defendant shall have the sole care and custody of the minor child of the parties, subject to the right of the plaintiff to see and visit him, and be visited by him at all reasonable times, but the plaintiff shall have the right to take said child with him at reasonable times and intervals, provided, however, that he shall not take said child out of the State of California for more than 30 days during any calendar year, without first receiving the express written consent of the defendant thereto.

8. That the plaintiff shall pay to the defendant as and for the support and maintenance of said minor child, the sum of $50.00 per month, commencing as of the 21st day of May, 1949, and in addition thereto, the plaintiff shall pay all medical and dental bills which may be necessary for the proper care of said child, provided, however, that the amount herein adjudged for the support and care of said child shall be subject to such further Order as the Court may deem necessary or proper at any future time.

SEPARATION AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT, Made and entered into this 5th day of July, 1949, by and between Marion Stone, party of the first part and sometimes designated as the wife, and Eben E. Stone, party of the second part and sometimes hereinafter designated as the husband, both of Nampa, Canyon County, Idaho, WITNESSETH: That

WHEREAS, the said party of the first part and party of the second part are wife and husband and have heretofore ceased to live together and are now living separate and apart from each other and are desirous of entering into a property settlement agreement by which their property rights will be settled and provided for and of providing for the care, custody, maintenance and support of the minor children of the parties hereto, and

WHEREAS, irreconcilable differences have arisen between said parties which render it impossible for them to live together as wife and husband and the wife has heretofore brought an action against the husband for divorce.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and the mutual covenants and agreements hereinafter contained, it is hereby agreed by and between the parties hereto as follows, to-wit:

1. Neither of them, the husband or the wife, shall molest the other or compel or attempt to compel the other of them to cohabit or dwell with him or her by any proceedings or by any means whatsoever.

2. The husband does hereby sell, set over and transfer absolutely and unconditionally, and as the sole and separate property of the wife one (1) bedroom suite, one (1) Coronado washing machine, one (1) Coronado refrigerator and all other household goods and furnishings which were acquired by the parties hereto as community property, and the husband does hereby waive each and every right he may have in and to said property or any part thereof.

3. The wife does hereby sell, set over, transfer and assign unto the husband absolutely and unconditionally, as the sole and separate property of the husband, one (1) 1937 Ford Coupe, and the wife does hereby waive each and every interest and claim she has or may have in or to said property.

4. Each party shall be entitled to keep and maintain as his own separate property all articles of clothing or other strictly personal property belongings now in the possession of each party.

5. It is agreed that Jeannette Stone and LeRoy Stone, the minor children of the parties hereto shall be in the custody of the wife during their minority but that the husband shall have the right to visit and be visited by said minor children at all reasonable times and places.

6. The husband agrees to pay to the wife, for the care, maintenance, support and eduction of said minor children, the sum of $30.00 per month for each of said minor children during the time the wife has custody of them, or either of them.

7. Except as specifically provided herein, each party hereto hereby releases the other absolutely and unconditionally from any duties to support the other in any future time and each of said parties hereby releases the other from any and all liability of every kind whatsoever incurred by the other from and after March 1, 1948.

8. It is understood and agreed between the parties hereto that the husband has previously paid to the wife all of the wife's attorney's fees incurred in the divorce action abovementioned and that the husband shall not be required to pay any additional fees, costs or expenses connected therewith.

9. Henceforth neither party shall have any right whatsoever in the estate of the other, or in the property belonging to such estate, and neither party shall claim any interest of any kind whatsoever in and to the property hereinabove conveyed to the other party, and especially the wife does hereby accept the property hereinabove transferred to her in full and complete satisfaction of all future claims by her for support, maintenance, or alimony.

10. Each party hereto agrees that upon the request of the other, he will make such conveyances or other instruments as shall be deemed necessary to carry into effect any of the agreements contained herein.

11. It is understood and agreed by and between the parties hereto that the foregoing is a full and complete and fair settlement of all the property rights of the parties hereto, and that this agreement is made by the parties hereto, after consulting with their respective attorneys.

12. Both parties to this agreement join in requesting the Court, before whom the above entitled action is pending, to approve and confirm this agreement as a settlement of all of the rights of the parties hereto upon the matters included herein and for each and every other purpose set forth in this agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF The parties hereto have hereunto set their hands the day and year first above written.

The above matter came on regularly to be heard in the above entitled court, without a jury, upon the plaintiff's complaint, the plaintiff appearing in person by her attorney, Cleve Groome, the defendant having been duly and regularly served with summons and process herein and time having elapsed for his appearance and answering plaintiff's complaint and he appearing not either in person or by an attorney, as to the complaint and summons served upon him herein; and a proper non-military affidavit has been made and filed herein, and an order declaring that the defendant was not engaged in the military service of the United States, as defined by the Act of Congress, and a default having been entered against him, and evidence having been produced on the part of the plaintiff herein and the plaintiff having closed her case, and the court having duly considered the same and having arrived at his conclusions in the matter, from which it appears that the plaintiff is entitled to judgment as prayed for in her complaint upon the grounds of extreme cruelty; and the court waives the necessity of filing findings of fact and conclusions of law, but finds that the allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true; now, therefore, it is

ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE and DECREE, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be, and they are hereby, dissolved, and the plaintiff and defendant are absolutely divorced one from the other; and it is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE and DECREE, that the care and custody and control of the minor child of the plaintiff and defendant, ~~Jack~~ Edward Robinson, is awarded to the plaintiff, provided that the said defendant may visit said child during reasonable hours in the daytime.

DECREE

This cause came on regularly for hearing the 11 day of July, 1949, before the court without a jury on the plaintiff's complaint filed herein. The defendant appeared neither in person nor by attorney and it appearing to the satisfaction of the court that the defendant had been regularly served with process according to law, and that the time in which the said defendant was required by law to demur to, answer, or plead to said complaint has expired, and this his default for so failing to plead to said complaint within the time required by law has been duly and regularly entered herein, the Court proceeded with the trial of said cause.

Witnesses were called, sworn, and testified for and in behalf of the plaintiff and the case was submitted to the Court for final determination and decision, and the Court having found that the plaintiff and defendant were duly married at Caldwell, Idaho, on the 9th day of October, 1942; that there was born to this union three children, a daughter, Elsie Gaylene Gries, a son, Gary A. Gries, and a son, Gerald L. Gries; that the plaintiff has been for more than six weeks last past, a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho, and that the defendant, disregarding the solemnity of his marriage vows, has caused the plaintiff much mental and physical suffering, pain, and anguish and is such as to constitute extreme cruelty as defined by the statutes of the State of Idaho.

The Court ordered that judgment be entered for the plaintiff and against the defendant in accordance with the prayer of plaintiff's complaint.

WHEREFORE, it is ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE, and DECREE, that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the above named plaintiff and the above named defendant be, and the same are hereby dissolved and the plaintiff and defendant are absolutely freed from all obligations thereof;

That there is awarded to the plaintiff, the full care, control, and custody of the said minor children, Elsie Gaylene Gries, Gary A. Gries, and Gerald L. Gries, subject to the right of visitation by the defendant at reasonable times and under reasonable conditions;

That there is awarded to the plaintiff the sum of $_____ per month for the support of said minor children, payable on the first day of each month, beginning _____, 1949.

That there is awarded to the plaintiff, as her sole and separate property the portion of the community property of the plaintiff and defendant consisting of the household furnishings.

That there is awarded to the defendant, as his sole and separate property the portion of the community property of the plaintiff and defendant consisting of one 1930 Model A Ford automobile.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause coming on regularly for hearing this 25th day of July, 1949, on the Complaint of the plaintiff taken as confessed by the defendant, whose default for not answering has been duly entered in said cause this day.

It appearing to this Court that the said defendant, Richard Sutton, has been duly and regularly served with Summons in the above entitled cause according to law, and that more than twenty (20) days have elapsed since said service.

Witnesses were duly sworn and examined on behalf of the plaintiff and the evidence being closed, the case was submitted to the Court for its decision and after due deliberation the Court finds:

That the plaintiff has filed her affidavit as provided under the Soliders' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, in which plaintiff states that the defendant, Richard Sutton, is not in the Military Service of the United States, as defined by Section 101 (1) of the Act of Congress approved October 17, 1940; that pursuant to said affidavit, an Order allowing default was entered by the Court herein ordering that in case of proper service, default judgment be entered against the said defendant, Richard Sutton.

That all of the allegations contained in plaintiff's Complaint are true and supported by evidence; that the plaintiff and defendant intermarried at Grants Pass, County of Josephine, State of Oregon, on or about February 24, 1945, and ever since said time have been and now are husband and wife.

That plaintiff is now and has been for more than six months last past preceding the commencement of this action a resident of the State of Idaho.

That there is one child the issue of the marriage of the plaintiff and defendant, to-wit: Richard Sutton, Jr., age one (1) year.

That there is no community property of the plaintiff and defendant.

That the Court finds that the defendant has been guilty of Extreme cruelty and habitual intemperance as more particularly set forth in plaintiff's complaint.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED and this DOES ORDER, ADJUDGE and DECREE that the marriage bonds between the plaintiff, Bettie Jane Sutton, and the defendant, Richard Sutton, be and the same are hereby dissolved, and that the parties and each of them, are free and absolutely released from the bonds of matrimony and all obligations thereof.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the plaintiff is to have the custody, care and control of the minor child, to-wit: Richard Sutton, Jr., age one (1) year.

THIS CAUSE came on regularly for hearing before Honorable Kales E. Lowe, one of the District Judges of the Eleventh Judicial District of the State of Idaho, in and for the County of Cassia, upon the 14th day of July, 1949, at Burley, Idaho.

The plaintiff appeared with her counsel, Henry W. Tucker; and the defendant appeared neither in person nor by counsel; and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant herein has been duly served by publication according to law; and that the time for appearing, answering or demurring has expired; and that the default of the defendant has been duly entered by the Clerk of this Court according to law,

WHEREUPON, the Court proceeded to the hearing. Witnesses on behalf of the plaintiff in support of the allegations of her complaint were duly sworn and testified; and the evidence being closed, and the Court being fully advised in the premises, after deliberation did order the plaintiff to have judgment against the defendant as herein set forth:

WHEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED:

That the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be, and they are hereby dissolved, and plaintiff relieved from all further obligation thereof; and that she is restored to the status of a single person.

That the plaintiff be, and she is hereby awarded her maiden name of Iva Wickel.

Dated at Burley, Idaho this 14th day of July, 1949.

JUDGMENT AND DECREE

- - - - - - -

This cause came regularly on for hearing before the Court on the 15th day of July, 1949, on the complaint of the plaintiff filed herein. The plaintiff appeared in person and by S. T. Love, her attorney, and the defendant having failed to appear, either in person or by an attorney, and it appearing to the Court that due and legal personal service was had upon the defendant at Burley, in the County of Cassia, State of Idaho, on the 21st day of June, 1949; that the time for appearing and pleading to the complaint of the plaintiff had expired and no appearance, answer or demurrer had been made or filed by the said defendant, and it further appearing to the Court that the said defendant is not now and was not at the time of the service of the summons herein engaged in the military service of the United States, it was by the Court ordered that the default of the defendant for his failure to appear and plead to the complaint of the plaintiff be entered.

Thereupon witnesses on behalf of the plaintiff were sworn and examined and the plaintiff rested, and it appearing to the Court that the allegations of the complaint of the plaintiff were true and had been supported by the evidence, it was by the Court ordered that the plaintiff have judgment as prayed for in her complaint.

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff, Muriel Suelzle, and the defendant, Richard Suelzle, be and they are hereby released, dissolved, discharged and annulled, and the parties are hereby restored to the status of single persons.

2.

That the plaintiff be and she is hereby given and granted the sole care, custody and control of the minor child, issue of the said marriage, to-wit, Richard David Suelzle, a son, 10 months old.

3.

That the defendant, Richard Suelzle, shall pay to the plaintiff, Muriel Suelzle, for her support and maintenance and the support and maintenance of the minor child, issue of the said marriage, the sum of $100.00 per month, the first monthly instalment of $100.00 to be paid by the defendant to the plaintiff on or before the 25th day of July, 1949, and a monthly instalment of $100.00 to be paid on or before the 25th day of each and every calendar month thereafter, until the said minor child shall attain his majority.

That the plaintiff be and she is hereby awarded, as her sole and separate property, the following described community property, to-wit:

One (1) Baby crib
One (1) High chair
One (1) Push cart

That the said personal property, and the whole thereof, is hereby awarded to the plaintiff, free and clear of any and all claims, demands or pretensions of the defendant.

That the said defendant, Richard Suelzle, shall pay to the plaintiff, Muriel Suelzle, the sum of $100.00 as an attorney's fee for the attorney for the plaintiff, for the institution and prosecution of this action, and $17.40, the cost of filing the complaint herein and procuring service of the summons.

6.

That the temporary injunction heretofore granted be and the same is hereby made permanent and perpetual, and the said defendant is hereby perpetually enjoined, restrained and estopped from attacking, molesting, annoying or interfering with the plaintiff, Muriel Suelzle.

DECREE

The above entitled cause came on duly and regularly for hearing and trial before the Honorable A. L. Morgan, Judge of the above entitled Court, in Chambers, at Moscow, Idaho, on the 6th day of July, 1949, the plaintiff having given testimony before a referee, the defendant not being present, and the defendant not appearing, and no one appearing for or on his behalf, after the default of the defendant had been duly and regularly entered in the premises for his failure to answer or demur to plaintiff's complaint or in any way appear herein within the time allowed to him by law therefor, after he had been duly and regularly served with Summons and a copy of the Complaint in this action, and had signed a waiver of the benefits afforded him by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, and all the amendments thereto, and the Court having heard the evidence adduced on behalf of the plaintiff, and having examined the records and files of this action, and having made and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law;

NOW, ON THIS DAY, on motion of the attorney for the plaintiff, the following decree is made and entered by the Court:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

I.

That the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be, and the same hereby are, forever dissolved, and that the plaintiff be, and she hereby is, returned to the status of a single person.

II.

That the care, custody and control of William Allen Stephens and Susan Carol Stephens, minor children of plaintiff and defendant, be, and the same hereby are, awarded to the plaintiff, subject only to the right of the defendant to visit the said children at reasonable and seasonable times, and subject to the further orders of this Court.

III.

That the defendant pay to the plaintiff the sum of Twenty-Five Dollars ($25.00) per month as and for the support and maintenance of each of the said minor children until their majority, unless sooner married or deceased, said payments to be made in monthly installments on the first day of each and every month hereafter.

This cause came on regularly for hearing the 8TH day of JULY, 1949, before the Court without jury on the plaintiff's complaint filed herein. The defendant appeared neither in person nor by attorney and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant had been regularly served with process according to law, and that the time in which the said defendant was required to demur, answer orpload to said complaint within the time required by law has been duly and regularly entered herein, the Court proceeded with the trial of said Cause.

Witnesses were called, sworn and testified for and on behalf of plaintiff and the case was submitted to the Court for final determination and decision; and the Court found that at the time of said marriage the said defendant, Ira Grim, Jr., was then and there the husband of Joyce Hetrick Grim, Jr., having been married at Winnemucca, Nevada in April of 1946, and that said marriage is in full force and effect; that the said Joyce Hetrick Grim, Jr., is alive and no action for divorce or annulment had been instituted by either of said parties.

The Court therefore ordered that judgment be entered for the plaintiff and against the defendant in accordance with the prayer of plaintiff's complaint.

* * * * *

This cause came on regularly for hearing the 8TH day of July, 1949, before the Court on the plaintiff's complaint filed herein. The defendant having appeared by her attorney, Herman Welker, Esq., and having demurred to plaintiff's complaint, and having withdrawn such demurrer, and having refused to plead further, the Court proceeded with the trial of said cause.

Witnesses were called, sworn and testified for and on behalf of plaintiff and the case was submitted to the Court for final determination and decision, and the Court having found that the plaintiff and defendant were duly married at Payette, Idaho, on the 28th day of July, 1940, and the plaintiff having been for more than six weeks last past, a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho, and that the defendant, disregarding the solemnity of his marriage vows, has caused the plaintiff great mental suffering, pain, and anguish, and is such as to constitute mental cruelty.

It further appearing from the said testimony and evidence that the plaintiff and defendant have entered into a property settlement agreement in words and figures as follows, to-wit:

PROPERTY SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT, made and entered into this 10th day of June, 1949, by and between ETHEL M. MASON, of Cambridge, Idaho, party of the first part, hereinafter referred to as the "wife", and JAMES L. MASON, Huntington, Oregon, party of the second part, hereinafter referred to as the "husband", WITNESSETH:

THAT WHEREAS, the party of the first part and the party of the second part are wife and husband and irreconcilable differences have arisen between said parties which render it impossible for them to live together as wife and husband; and

WHEREAS, it is the desire of said parties to settle and determine their rights in and to the community property of the parties hereto;

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and the mutual covenants and agreements hereinafter contained,

IT IS HEREBY AGREED BY AND BETWEEN THE PARTIES HERETO AS FOLLOWS, TO-WIT:

1. That the husband shall have as his own sole and separate property the real estate owned by the parties hereto and particularly described as follows:

The South Half of the Northwest Quarter and the Southwest Quarter of the Northeast Quarter; the Northeast Quarter of the Southwest Quarter and the Northwest Quarter of the Southeast Quarter, all in Section 5, Township 14 North, Range 3 West of the Boise Meridian;

2. That the husband shall have as his own sole and separate property the following described personal property;

1 1933 Chevrolet Sedan, Motor #5548772

1 1942 Chevrolet Sedan, 6 cylinders, with a lien against said car in the amount of $591.04.

4 Yearling Steers
3 Calves
1 2 year old heifer
2 Yearling Steers
1 Set Harness
1 Mowing Machine, and
1 Hay rake

3. That there were two children born to this union, namely, Patsy Mason, daughter, age 7 years, and Mary Mason, daughter, age 5 years;

That both parties to this agreement are fit and proper persons to have care of the children and it is agreed by the parties hereto that Ethel M. Mason is to have the care of the children each school day during the school year and that James L. Mason is to have care of the children over the Thanksgiving holiday, the Christmas holidays, the summer vacation and such week ends as he may desire to take them;

4. It is further agreed that all the earnings of each of the parties hereto since the date of separation of said parties shall be and become hereby the sole and separate property of the party receiving same without any claim or interest of any kind whatever by the other;

5. It is understood and agreed that this agreement is made and intended to be in full and complete settlement of all of the property rights of the parties hereto as between themselves, and after the execution hereof neither shall have any claim or interest whatsoever in the estate of the other, and it is the intention of this agreement that the same shall be in full force and effect subject to the approval of the court after any action for divorce has been instituted or completed by either party hereto;

6. Each party hereto agrees that any obligations incurred since the date of the separation of the parties hereto shall be the sole obligation of the person incurring the same, and each of he parties agrees to save the other harmless from such obligations incurred by him or her.

The court finds that the said separation agreement is fair and equitable and ought to be confirmed.

The Court therefore ordered that judgment be entered for the plaintiff and against the defendant in accordance with the prayer of plaintiff's complaint.

WHEREFORE, It is ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE AND DECREE, that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the above named plaintiff and the above named defendant be, and the same are, hereby dissolved, and the plaintiff and defendant are absolutely freed from all obligations thereof;

That the property settlement agreement heretofore entered into by the parties hereto is hereby confirmed and ratified;

That the plaintiff is hereby awarded the care, control and custody of the two minor children of the parties hereto during the school year, with the right of reasonable visitation on the part of the defendant;

That the defendant is hereby awarded the care, control and custody of the two minor children of the parties hereto during the summer or vacation months, with the right of reasonable visitation on the part of the plaintiff.

KENNETH BURLEY,

Defendant.

The above entitled cause came on regularly to be heard and tried before the Court, sitting without a jury, at Gooding, in the County of Gooding, State of Idaho, upon the 8th day of July, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Perce Hall, and the defendant appearing not, neither in person nor by attorney nor otherwise;

Upon said hearing it appeared to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant Kenneth Burley had been duly and regularly served with summons in this action in the manner provided by law and that said defendant had failed to appear and answer, demur or otherwise plead to the plaintiff's complaint within the time allowed by law and the default of said defendant having been duly and regularly entered according to law and the Court having heard the testimony introduced in behalf of the plaintiff and in support of the allegations of her complaint and the cause having been submitted;

After duly considering the testimony introduced herein the Court finds the issues upon the plaintiff's complaint in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant and finds that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty towards the plaintiff and that by reason thereof the plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant dissolved;

And the Court further finds that upon the 12th day of May, 1949, the plaintiff and the defendant made and entered into one certain agreement in writing, in words and figures as follows:

THIS AGREEMENT, Made and entered into this 12th day of May, 1949, by and between Lois Burley, hereinafter designated as the first party, and Kenneth Burley, hereinafter designated as the second party, WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, The parties hereto are wife and husband and because of certain differences and disagreements which have arisen between them, they are now living separate and apart from each other, And,

WHEREAS, The said parties desire to settle and adjust certain of the differences arising between them in connection with the custody of their minor children, NOW, THEREFORE;

IT IS MUTUALLY UNDERSTOOD AND AGREED by and between the said parties as follows:

1. That the first party shall have and she is hereby granted the care, custody and control of Patricia Joan Burley, a girl 7 years of age, Keith Burley, a boy 5 years of age, and Anita Burley, a girl 8 months of age and that hereafter, commencing upon the 5th day of June, 1949, the second party shall pay to the first party towards the support and maintenance of said minor children the sum of $75.00 each and every month, being the sum of $25.00 for each of said children, and that the second party shall continue to make said payments to the first party until the child for which such payment is being made attains the age of majority, at which time said payments shall cease for the child attaining the age of majority.

2. That the second party shall have the right to visit said children at all reasonable times and places and to have said children visit him at reasonable times and for reasonable periods of time and that neither of the parties to this agreement shall in any way attempt to alienate the affections of said minor children from the other party.

3. Subject to the approval of the Court in the above entitled action, this agreement may be incorporated into and may be made a part of any decree of divorce entered by the Court in said action.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, The said parties have hereunto set their hands the day and year herein first above written.

The Court concludes as a matter of law that said agreement should be confirmed and approved and incorporated in this decree, NOW, THEREFORE; dissolved and that the plaintiff be and she is hereby divorced from said defendant.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff Lois Burley and the defendant Kenneth Burley be and the same are hereby

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the plaintiff Lois Burley have and she is hereby granted the care, custody and control of Patricia Joan Burley, Keith Burley and Anita Burley, minor children of the plaintiff and the defendant, and that in accordance with said agreement the defendant shall pay to the plaintiff towards the support and maintenance of said minor children the sum of $75.00 on or before the 5th day of each and every calendar month hereafter, being the sum of $25.00 for each of said children, and that the defendant shall continue to make said payments to the first party until the child for which such payment is being made attains the age of majority, at which time the payment for such child shall cease.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the defendant shall have and he is hereby granted the right to visit said children at all reasonable times and places and to have said children visit him at reasonable times and for reasonable periods of time.

The above matter came on regularly for trial before the above court sitting in regular session in Gooding, Idaho, this 11 day of July, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorneys, James, Shaw & James, and the defendant appearing not at all. It appeared further and the court finds that the defendant had been duly and regularly served with process and that he had failed to answer within the time fixed by law, and that the default of the defendant for his failure to appear has been duly entered by the Clerk of the court.

Whereupon evidence duly corroborated, was introduced on behalf of the plaintiff in support of her complaint from which it appears and the court finds that the allegations of the complaint are true and correct and that the defendant is guilty of extremem cruelty as charged in the said complaint, and that the plaintiff is and for more than six weeks last past and immediately prior to the filing of the complaint herein has been an actual bona fide resident of the State of Idaho.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be and hereby are dissolved and each party is restored to the status of a single person. The plaintiff is hereby awared as her sole and separate property certain household goods, furniture and furnishing and the mining claim on

THIS CAUSE Having been brought on to be heard this 12TH day of July, 1949, Blaine & Ambrose, appearing as counsel for the plaintiff herein, the defendant appearing not in person, by counsel or otherwise; service of the verified complaint and summons upon said defendant in said action having been made upon said defendant pursuant to order of publication of this Court by publishing said summons in five weekly issues of the GOODING LEADER and a copy of the said summons and said complaint mailed to defendant's last known address, and the time for answering having expired and no answer, demurrer or other appearance having been filed in said cause, and the defendant having failed to make an appearance in said action, and the default of said defendant, Francis Norman Coolbrith, was duly entered herein, and that upon the complaint herein as confessed by the said defendant, it appears that the allegations of the complaint are sustained by testimony free from all legal exceptions as to its competency, admissibility and sufficiency, and said matters so alleged and proven are sufficient in law to entitle the plaintiff, Virginia D. Coolbrith, to the relief demanded in the complaint as prayed for; and the plaintiff herein having been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho for more than six weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and this Court by virtue of the power and authority therein vested and in pursuance of the statutes in such case made and provided does order, adjudge, and decree that the marriage existing between the said parties be dissolved and the said parties and each of them are released from the bonds of matrimony.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the legal care, custody and control of Michael Anthony Coolbrith, the minor child of plaintiff and defendant be awarded to the plaintiff herein and that the said defendant may have the privilege to visit the said minor child at all reasonable and proper times and places while said minor child is under the care, custody and control of the plaintiff.

Defendant.

This matter came on to be heard before the Court on this 14th day of July, 1949; the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney of record, C. H. Higer, and the defendant having failed to answer, plead, or demur to plaintiff's complaint within the time allowed by law for so appearing and pleading, the defendant's default was duly entered by the court.

Thereupon the Court received the sworn testimony of the plaintiff and her corroborating witness; and from it the court finds that the defendant has inflicted upon the plaintiff extreme cruelty as alleged in said complaint, and as a result thereof the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from the defendant on the grounds of extreme cruelty.

The Court further finds that the plaintiff and defendant have entered into a property settlement agreement, settling their property rights, which said agreement is hereby approved by the Court.

The Court further finds that the plaintiff's premarriage name was Francis Vera Puser.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ordered, adjudged, and decreed, and this does order, adjudge, and decree, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing and now existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and they are, hereby dissolved, and plaintiff and defendant are absolutely divorced from one another.

DECREE

The above entitled cause came on regularly to be heard and tried before the Court, sitting without a jury, in open Court at Gooding, in the County of Gooding, State of Idaho, upon the 20th day of July, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by his attorney, Perce Hall, and the defendant appearing not, neither in person, by attorney nor otherwise;

Upon said hearing it appeared to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant Florence Ann Nichols had been duly and regularly served with summons in this action in the manner provided by law and that said defendant had failed to appear and answer, demur or otherwise plead to the plaintiff's Complaint within the time allowed by law and the default of said defendant having been duly entered according to law and the Court having heard the testimony introduced in behalf of the plaintiff and in support of the allegations of his Complaint and the cause having been submitted;

After duly considering the testimony introduced herein the Court finds the issues upon the plaintiff's Complaint in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant and upon the first cause of action set out in plaintiff's Complaint the Court finds that the defendant has been guilty of wilful desertion of the plaintiff and upon the second cause of action of plaintiff's Complaint the Court finds that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty towards the plaintiff, and that by reason thereof the plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant dissolved;

IT IS THEREFORE HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff Durham Nichols, Jr., and the defendant Florence Ann Nichols be and the same are hereby dissolved and that the plaintiff be and he is hereby divorced from said defendant.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That hereafter the plaintiff shall pay to the defendant towards the support, maintenance and education of Susan Ann Nichols, minor child of the plaintiff and the defendant the sum of $25.00 per month, commencing upon the 1st day of August, 1949, and that the plaintiff shall continue to make such monthly payments for said child until such child attains the age of majority, at which time said payments shall cease.

Lois Kathrin Moore, Plaintiff,	)
-Vs-	)	DECREE OF DIVORCE.
Robert E. Moore, Defendant.	)

This cause came on regularly for hearing the 23rd day of July, 1949, before the court without a jury, on the plaintiff's complaint filed herein. Plaintiff appeared personally and with Mary Schmitt, one of her attorneys. The defendant appeared neither in person nor by attorney, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the court that the defendant had been regularly served with process according to law and that the time in which the said defendant was required to demur, answer or plead to said complaint had expired, the default of the defendant was duly and regularly entered herein; whereupon, the court proceeded with the trial of said cause.

Witnesses were called, sworn, and testified for and on behalf of the plaintiff and the case was submitted to the court for final determination and decision; and the court having found that the plaintiff and defendant were married at Dallas, Texas, December 19, 1944; that plaintiff has been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho for more than six weeks prior to the time of filing her complaint; that plaintiff and defendant have no children; that plaintiff and defendant have no community property, except the furniture hereinafter described; that the real property hereinafter described is the sole and separate property of the plaintiff and that defendant has no right, title or interest therein; that the plaintiff's name prior to her marriage was Lois Kathrin Gott; that the defendant is also known as and is the same person as Robert Edmond Moore; that the plaintiff is entitled to a divorce from the defendant on the ground of willful neglect.

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed, and this does order, adjudge, and decree that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff Lois Kathrin Moore, and the defendant, Robert E. Moore, be, and the same hereby are dissolved, and the plaintiff and defendant are absolutely freed from all obligations thereof.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed and this does order, adjudge and decree that the plaintiff's former name of Lois Kathrin Gott be returned to her.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the community property of plaintiff and defendant be awarded to the plaintiff, said property being furniture consisting of a davenport, Monarch electric stove, overstuffed chair, bed and mattress, coffee table and lamp.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the defendant does not have any right, title claim or interest in or to the real property hereinafter described or any part, portion or parcel thereof, and that the said real property and the whole thereof is the sole and separate property of the plaintiff. Said real property is situated in Canyon County and described as follows:

Beginning at the Southwest corner of Lot 6, Section 10, Township 4 North, Range 3 West of the Boise Meridian, running thence North along the West boundary line of said Lot 6, a distance of 388 feet to the real point of beginning; running thence East at right angles to the said West boundary line of Lot 6, a distance of 225 feet; running thence North and parallel with said West boundary line approximately 67 feet to the irrigation ditch of the Caldwell Irrigation District; running thence in a Northwesterly direction along the Southern boundary line of said ditch to the West boundary of Lot 6, running thence South along said West boundary approximately 200 feet to the point of beginning.

Together with the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in anywise appertaining, including all water and ditch rights.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the defendant pay to the plaintiff the sum of Twelve Hundred Dollars, said amount to be paid at the rate of One Hundred Dollars per month for a period of twelve months, beginning on or before August 15, 1949.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the defendant pay plaintiffs attorneys fee herein in the amount of One Hundred and Fifty Dollars and costs of suit in the sum of Sixteen Dollars and Twenty cents.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE NINTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT OF THE STATE OF IDAHO. FOR AND IN THE COUNTY OF JEFFERSON.

James C, Lambert. Plaintiff.

vs,

Caroline Lambert Defendant.

DECREE OF THE COURT.

On this 10 day of June, in the year 1949,this cause coming on regularly to be heard at Chambers,at Idaho Falls, Idaho. and the defendant not being a resident of the State of Idaho, and summons was served by publication and a true copy of said summons attached to a true copy of the verified complaint having been mailed to the Defendant at her last known address,to-wit; Reading, State of Pennsylvania, and the time having elapsed and expired, the default of the Defendant having been had and placed of record,and the Plaintiff appearing in open court in person and by his Attorney of record,and the Defendant failing to appear either in person,or by attorney,or at all,and no legal reason existing therefore the court proceeded to hear said cause,whereupon the Plaintiff was duly sworn and examined as A Witness in his own behalf,and thereafter Leon A,Lambert was duly sworn and examined as a witness in Plaintiffs behalf,whereupon Plaintiff rests and said cause was submitted to the court for decision, whereupon the court finds that the Plaintiff has for many years last past been a resident of the State of Idaho, that the Plaintiff and the Defendant inter-married at Ely, Nevada on the 17th day of August,1948,and ever since have been and now are Husband and Wife.

That the Defendant herein has not been residing in the State of Idaho, since the 13th day of November,1948,leaving the State at that time and having failed to return.

That during the time of the marriage and coverture of the Plaintiff and the Defendant there has been no children born to them but the Defendant had a child of her own that belonged to a former marriage, prior to the said marriage of the Plaintiff and the Defendant.Neitherhas there been or now exists any property,either real or personal that was acquired during the time of the said marriage. to be adjusted by the Court.

That the Defendant was prior to her said marriage a resident of the State of Pennsylvania, that the Plaintiff who was in service of his country at the time of his marriage, brought her out to this state at the time of his discharge and started house keeping here in the State of Idaho.

The court finds that almost immediately after said Marriage as aforesaid, the ~~Plaintiff~~ Defendant was guilty towards this Plaintiff of cruelty in this, that after being married one Month, the Defendant refused to live with the Plaintiff, or to tolerate him to sleep with her at Night, and the Plaintiff either had to sleep in the coal House, or find other places to sleep, which he did by staying at the Neighbors during the rest of the time that she remained in Idaho.

That she did not have any interest in any House hold duties and refused to do any House work,or maintain the dignity of a new bride and became sloppy,refused to cook,and the Plaintiff had to do his own cooking,and prepare his own food,if he had anything to eat.

That her Language was not becoming a Wife, accusing him the Plaintiff of deceiving her and in her anger used unbecoming language, assisted by her Mother in law who had taken up quarters with them,making life miserable and unbearable to this Plaintiff;

That on the 13th day of November 1946,she decided to go back with her Mother into the State of Pennsylvania, this Plaintiff gave her the sum of $500,00, to bear her expenses while away,it being understood that it was a visit only and she would return,however instead of returning, she has asked for another $500,00, and accuses him of being not as good as her former Husband, of which she was divorced, that She was through with him the Plaintiff, that he knew nothing about marriage, or any of its responsibilities, and using a sharp biting Language in her opinions of him, that the effect of Defendants ± treatment as above set forth has been to enoy, distress, harass and vex and humilitate this Plaintiff and to render his life burdensome and unsupportable and inflicting mental and physicial injury to his peace of mind,and rendering the continuation of the marriage relation u undersiable and unsupportable.

And it appearing to the court that the equities are with the Plaintiff,and that the allegations set forth in over

Plaintiffs verified complaint are true, that the Plaintiff is entitled to a decree of Divorce dissolving the Bonds of Matrimony hereto fore and now existing between the Plaintiff and the Defendant, and the court being fully advised in the premises,--

It is therefore Ordered, Adjudged and Decreed by the Court, that the Bonds of Matrimony heretofore and now existing between the Plaintiff and the Defendant, be, and they are hereby totally dissolved;

EMMA JEAN EVANS,
Plaintiff,
vs.
LLOYD P. EVANS,
Defendant.

Filed: June 6, 1949 at 11:30 A.M.
Eileen Madsen, Clerk of District Court

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came regularly on to be heard this 24th day of June, 1949, at Chambers of said Court at Idaho Falls, Bonneville County, Idaho, before the Honorable Henry S. Martin, Judge of said Court, the plaintiff appearing by Wm. P. Hemminger, her attorney, and the defendant not appearing either in person or by counsel, and the defendant having been duly and regularly served with process, and the default of the defendant having been heretofore entered herein, the said cause was finally heard and submitted to the Court upon the plaintiff's verified complaint and the evidence submitted on behalf of the plaintiff by the following witnesses: Emma Jean Evans and Bonita Ossmen, from which it appears that all the material allegations of the complaint are sustained by the testimony, free from all legal exceptions as to its competency, admissibility and sufficiency; that said matters so alleged and proved are sufficient in law to entitle the plaintiff to the relief prayed for in her complaint; that the plaintiff was a resident of the County of Jefferson, State of Idaho at the time the suit was filed and was a resident of the State of Idaho and County of Jefferson for a period of more than six weeks immediately prior thereto.

On motion of Wm. P. Hemminger, counsel for plaintiff, it is ordered, adjudged and decreed, and this Court, by virtue of the power and authority therein vested, and in pursuance of the Statutes in such cases made and provided, does order, adjudge and decree that the marriage between the said plaintiff, Emma Jean Evans, and the defendant, Lloyd P. Evans, be dissolved, and the same is hereby dissolved accordingly, and the said parties are, and each of them is freed and absolutely released from the bonds of matrimony and all the obligations thereof.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the said plaintiff, Emma Jean Evans, be and she is hereby awarded and decreed as her sole and separate property and for her sole and separate use and benefit the following described real property situated, lying and being in the County of Jefferson, State of Idaho, and which is the separate property of the plaintiff owned by her before her marriage to the defendant.

Grace Bible,

Plaintiff,

vs.

Howard D. Bible,

Defendant,

DECREE.

The above entitled matter came on regularly to be heard in chambers at Twin Falls, County of Twin Falls, State of Idaho, before the Honorable HUGH A. BAKER ~~Ralph E. Bowe~~, a Judge of the above entitled Court upon the complaint of plaintiff herein taken as confessed by the defendant. Wayne A. Barclay appearing as counsel for plaintiff and no person appearing as counsel for defendant and the defendant not being present in Court and it appearing to the Court that legal and proper service of summons and complaint had heretofore been made upon said defendant; that the said defendant is in default and that the default of the said defendant has been duly and regularly entered, the cause proceeded to trial;

Testimony in behalf of plaintiff was presented and proofs taken herein and the testimony being closed, the matter was submitted to the Court for his decision and the Court being fully advised in the premises and it appearing to the Court that all of the material allegations of plaintiff's complaint are sustained by testimony free from all legal objections and exceptions as to its competency, admissability and sufficiency and that said matters so alleged and proved are sufficient in law to enable plaintiff to obtain the relief prayed for in her complaint; that plaintiff was a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho for more than six full weeks immediately preceeding the commencement of this action; that there are no living children as the issue of the marriage of plaintoff and defendant and that there is no community property belonging to the parties hereto to be assigned by the Court in this action and that plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce as prayed in h said complaint;

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

That the marriage of the said plaintiff, Grace Bible, and the said defendant, Howard D. Bible, be dissolved and set aside and that the same is hereby dissolved and set aside accordingly and that the said parties are, and each of them is hereby freed and absolutely released from the bonds of matrimony and all of the obligations thereof.

Done in chambers at Twin Falls in Twin Falls County, State of Idaho, this 15th day of July, 1949.

The above-entitled matter came on for hearing and final determination before the undersigned, one of the Judges of the above-entitled Court, sitting in Chambers, at Twin Falls, County of Twin Falls, State of Idaho, on this 22nd day of July, 1949, it appearing that the Defendant has been duly and regularly served with Summons and Complaint and has not appeared herein and has not plead to Plaintiff's Complaint, and the time for appearing and pleading having elapsed;

Plaintiff appeared in person and with his attorney of record, Richard H. Seeley, and the Defendant appearing not nor any person for her, and being in default, which has been heretofore duly entered against her, and proof having been submitted, free and clear from all exceptions and objections, from which it appears that the Plaintiff is now and for more than six full weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action has been a resident of the State of Idaho, that Plaintiff and Defendant have entered into an Agreement settling their property rights, care and custody of children and claims for alimony and maintenance, and it appearing that said Agreement should be approved, ratified and confirmed in every respect except as to the custody of Pauline Iverson, one of the minor children of the parties hereto, that the Plaintiff should have the care, custody and control of both of saidminor children, and that the Plaintiff is entitled to a divorce upon the grounds of Extreme Cruelty:

Now, therefore, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED AS FOLLOWS:

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between Plaintiff and Defendant be and the same are hereby forever dissolved and set aside, and that said parties be and each of them is freed and released from said bonds and from all of the obligations thereof.

That the Plaintiff be and he hereby is awarded the care, custody and control of Pauline Iverson and Martin Wayne Iverson, minor children of the parties hereto.

That the Agreement, Plaintiff's Exhibit A, entered into by and between the parties hereto, be and the same is hereby approved, ratified and confirmed in every respect except so far as it pertains to the custody of Pauline Iverson, one of the minor children.

Dated July 22, 1949.

W. R. Hopkins,

Plaintiff,

vs.

Jewel L. Hopkins,

Defendant,

DECREE.

The above entitled matter came on regularly to be heard in chambers at Twin Falls, in the County of Twin Falls, State of Idaho before the Honorable Kales E. Lowe, a Judge of the above entitled Court this 29th day of July, 1949, upon the complaint of plaintiff herein taken as confessed by the defendant, Wayne A. Barclay, appearing as counsel for plaintiff and no person appearing as counsel for defendant and the said defendant not being present in Court and it appearing to the Court that legal and proper service of summons and complaint has heretofore been made upon said defendant; that the said defendant is in default and that the default of the said defendant has heretofore been duly and regularly entered, the cause proceeded to trial;

Testimony in behalf of plaintiff was presented and proofs taken herein and the testimony being closed, the matter was submitted to the Court for his decision and the Court being fully advised in the premises and it appearing to the Court that all of the material allegations of plaintiff's complaint are sustained by testimony free from all legal objections and exceptions as to its competency, admissability and sufficiency and that said matters so alleged and proved are sufficient in law to enable plaintiff to obtain the relief prayed for in his complaint; that plaintiff was a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho for more than six full weeks immediately preceeding the commencement of this action; that there is a minor daughter living as the issue of said marriage of plaintiff and defendant, namely: Rosemary Hopkins whose age is fifteen years and who presently resides with and is within the care custody and control of plaintiff; that prior to the commencement of this action the parties hereto made and entered into an agreement dividing the community property of plaintiff and defendant and that said agreement has heretofore been completely performed by each of the parties to this action and that the said agreement should be by this Court approved and confirmed and that plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce as prayed in his said complaint;

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

That the marriage of the said plaintiff, W. R. Hopkins, and the said defendant, Jewel L. Hopkins, be dissolved and set aside and that the same is hereby dissolved and set aside accordingly and that the said parties are and each of them is hereby freed and absolutely released from the bonds of matrimony and all of the obligations thereof;

That plaintiff be and he is hereby awarded the care, custody and control of the minot daughter of plaintiff and defendant, namely: Rosemary Hopkins;

That the property settlement heretofore made and entered into by and between the parties to this action, introduced at the trial of this matter as Plaintiff's Exhibit "A" be and the same is in all respects hereby approved and confirmed.

This cause came regularly on to be heard before the undersigned judge of the above entitled court, at chambers, at Coeur d'Alene, Kootenai County, Idaho on the date hereof, plaintiff appearing in person and being represented by her counsel, Mr. James W. Wayne, the defendant not appearing, but having filed his answer herein and having waived any notice of time for hearing and having consented to the jurisdiction of the court in the premises. Thereupon competent and corroborative evidence was received, substantiating the allegations of the complaint and written findings of fact and conclusions of law having been expressly waived under 10-304; now, therefore,

IT IS HEREBY FOUND, CONCLUDED AND DECREED THAT:

1. Plaintiff be and she hereby is granted a decree of absolute divorce from the defendant herein on the grounds of extreme cruelty.

2. Plaintiff has been a bona fide resident of and domiciled in the State of Idaho for at least six weeks next preceding the date of the commencement of this action.

3. That the property settlement, heretofore entered into between the parties, a copy of which has been received by the court in evidence, be and it hereby is approved.

This action having come regularly on for hearing this day, the Plaintiff appearing in person and with her Attorney, E. T. KNUDSON, but the Defendant did not appear and was not represented.

The Court finds that due and legal service of the Summons in this cause has been made upon the Defendant by personal service within the State of Idaho, in accordance with the law and order of this Court. That after the expiration of the time allowed by law for the entry of an appearance by the Defendant herein, and the Defendant having failed to file or enter any appearance whatever, the default of the Defendant was duly and regularly entered by the Clerk of this Court.

The Court further finds that the Defendant is not in the Federal Service on active duty as a member of the Army, or Navy, or Marine Corps, or Coast Guard of the United States, or as an officer of the Public Health Service with either the Army or Navy of the United States, or in training or being educated under the supervision of the United States preliminary to induction into the Military Service thereof.

The Court further finds that the Plaintiff is entitled to a Decree herein, as prayed for in Plaintiff's Complaint, and that Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law have been waived herein by failure of the Defendant to appear within the time provided by law.

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion of E. T. KNUDSON, Attorney for the Plaintiff,

IT IS, BY THE COURT, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the Plaintiff, MAYME A. MILLER, and the Defendant, ORAL L. MILLER, be, and the same hereby are vacated, dissolved and set aside on the ground of extreme cruelty.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the following described property, to-wit: Lot 10 of Block 6, O'Brien's First Addition to Coeur d'Alene, Kootenai County, Idaho, together with all household furnishings therein situate is hereby decreed to the Plaintiff, MAYME A. MILLER, as and for her sole and separate property and it is adjudged and decreed that the Defendant, ORAL L. MILLER, has no right, title, interest or estate whatever in or to said property.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND DECREED, that the 1936 Ford Station Wagon and the 1937 Buick Two-door Coach automobile, both of which are described in Plaintiff's Complaint, is hereby decreed to the Defendant.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the care, custody and control of the minor children of these parties is hereby awarded to the Plaintiff.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the Defendant be, and he hereby is permanently enjoined and restrained from molesting, disturbing, annoying or in any manner interfering with the Plaintiff. The Defendant is further restrained and enjoined from in any respect interfering with the Plaintiff's custody and control of the two minor children and the Defendant is further restrained from going to the premises occupied by the Plaintiff for any purpose whatsoever.

DECREE

This action having come regularly on for hearing this day, the Plaintiff appearing in person and with her Attorney, E. T. Knudson, but the Defendant did not appear and was not represented.

The Court finds that due and legal service of the Summons in this cause has been made upon the Defendant by personal service outside of the State of Idaho and within the State of South Dakota, in accordance with the law and order of this Court. That after the expiration of the time allowed by law for the entry of an appearance by the Defendant herein, and the Defendant having failed to file or enter any appearance whatever, the default of the Defendant was duly and regularly entered by the Clerk of this Court.

The Court further finds that the Defendant is not in the Federal Service on active duty as a member of the Army, or Navy, or Marine Corps, or Coast Guard of the United States, or as an officer of the Public Health Service with either the Army or Navy of the United States, or in training or being educated under the supervision of the United States preliminary to induction into the Military Service thereof.

The Court further finds that the Plaintiff is entitled to a Decree herein, as prayed for in Plaintiff's Complaint, and that Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law have been waived by the Defendant's failure to appear herein within the time required by law.

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion of E. T. Knudson, Attorney for the Plaintiff,

IT IS, BY THE COURT, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the Plaintiff, FRANCES HETLAND, and the Defendant, MARTIN OLIVER HETLAND, be, and the same hereby are vacated, dissolved and set aside on the ground of extreme cruelty.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

The above entitled matter came on regularly to be heard and tried before the Court this 19th day of July, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney of record, J.M. O'Donnell, and the Defendant appearing neither in person nor by attorney.

On said hearing it appeared to the satisfaction of the Court that service of Summons was duly and regularly made by personal service as appears by the Affidavit of Service filed herein, and the Defendant having failed to appear and answer said Complaint within the time allowed by law and his time for appearing having expired and the default of said Defendant having been entered according to law, and the Court having heard the testimony adduced on behalf of said Plaintiff and in support of her Complaint, and the cause having been finally submitted to the Court for decision, the Court finds that the allegations stated in Plaintiff's Complaint on file herein are true and supported by the evidence.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED BY THIS COURT AS FOLLOWS:

(1) That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the above named Plaintiff, Peggy Marlene David, and the above named Defendant, Bruce Matthew David, be, and the same hereby are dissolved and the said parties, and each of them, are free from the married relation.

(2) That the Plaintiff be, and she is, hereby awarded the custody of the minor children, Richard Bruce David and James Michael David, free from interference on the part of the defendant, provided that the defendant shall have a right of reasonable visitation of said children at the residence of the Plaintiff at reasonable times and places to be designated by said Plaintiff.

(3) That the Plaintiff be, and she is, hereby awarded the personal property described in the Complaint, to wit:

> Household furniture, furnishings and equipment, and clothing and personal effects of the Plaintiff and minor children, all located in the dwelling house at No. 123 North Asbury Street, Moscow, Latah County, Idaho;
> Insurance policy upon the life of the Plaintiff, Peggy M. David, policy No. 20725002, with the New York Life Insurance Company, principal $1000.00, as her sole and separate property.

(4) That the Defendant be, and he is, hereby ordered to pay the Plaintiff the sum of $75.00 per month for the support of the minor children during their minority.

(5) That the defendant be, and he is, hereby ordered to complete the payments on the notes, conditional sales contracts, chattel mortgages and open accounts incurred by these parties prior to February 13, 1949, and that he is hereby ordered to pay the premiums and keep in full force and effect New York Life Insurance Company Policy No. 20584633 for the benefit of the Plaintiff and the minor children named as beneficiary thereon.

(6) That the defendant be, and he is, hereby ordered to pay the Plaintiff's attorney fees and costs in the amount of $145.00.

CHESTER AVERY, Plaintiff, — vs — GLADIES AVERY, Defendant.	:	DECREE

W. R. Emerson

For the above entitled cause came on duly and regularly for trail in open Court without a jury on the 14th day of July, 1949, before the Honorable Leo McCarty, Judge of the above entitled Court. The plaintiff appeared in person and by his attorney John R. Kemper, and no person or persons appeared for or on behalf of the defendant, Gladies Avery. It appeared to the Court that the defendant, Gladies Avery, was duly and regularly and personally served with process of summons and complaint in the City of Lewiston, Nez Perce, County, State of Idaho, 21 June, 1949, and that said defendant has failed to demur, answer or otherwise plead within the time provided by law. That the said defendant having been in default and his default having been duly and regularly entered herein, and it appearing to the Court upon reading and filing the affidavit of Chester Avery, the plaintiff in the above entitled action, which said affidavit is filed herein pursuant to the provisions of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940 and supplemental acts thereto, that the defendant, Gladies Avery, is not now in the Military service of the United States of America, in accordance with the terms of said act; and that this cause having been duly and regularly set for trial, and evidence submitted, and the cause having been fully submitted to the Court, and the Court having duly considered the same and being fully advised in the premises, finds that the alligations of Plaintiff's complaint are true and correct.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED and this does order and decree that the marriage between plaintiff, Chester Avery and the defendant, Gladies Avery be dissolved, and the same is hereby dissolved, and the said parties, and each of them, is freed and absolutely released from the bonds of matrimony, and all the obligations thereof, and each of the parties are restroded to the status of a single person.

Done in open Court this 14th day of July, 1949.

Leo McCarty
DISTRICT JUDGE.

I hereby certify the above is a full, true and correct copy of the original now on file in this office.

OF THE STATE OF IDAHO, IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF LINCOLN

CHARLES W. GOSVENER,
Plaintiff,

VS.

EMILY ISABELLE GOSVENER,
Defendant.

JUDGMENT

The above entitled matter came on regularly for hearing at Shoshone, Lincoln County, Idaho on the 9th day of July, 1949, and it appearing to the Court that the Defendant had been regularly served with Summons and Complaint and had failed to answer Plaintiff's Complaint herein in the time allowed by law and the order of this Court; that the Defendant was not in the Military Service; and the default of the Defendant having been regularly entered, testimony was introduced in behalf of the Plaintiff, and it appearing to the Court that the Plaintiff was and is entitled to a Decree of Divorce.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the Plaintiff, Charles W. Gosvener and the Defendant, Emily Isabelle Gosvener be and the same are hereby permanently dissolved and a Decree of Divorce granted; and that the custody of Emma Louise Gosvener and William Eugene Gosvener, the minor children of Plaintiff and Defendant be and the same is hereby awarded to the Defendant, provided however, that Plaintiff may visit said children at reasonable times and places.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the Support Money Agreement, filed in this matter as "Plaintiff's exhibit 'A' for purposes of identification" is by this Court confirmed and by this reference made a part of this Decree.

Done in open Court this 9th day of July, 1949.

AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT, Made and entered into at Shoshone, Idaho, this 6 day of June, 1949, by and between Charles W. Gosvener, Party of the First Part, and Emily Isabelle Gosvener, Party of the Second Part,

WITNESSETH THAT:

WHEREAS, the parties hereto are husband and wife respectively and certain difficulties have arisen between them that cannot be adjusted, said parties have seperated, and do not intend to live together in the future, and

WHEREAS, they desire to make a mutual adjustment of all of their rights, and

WHEREAS, the parties are the parents of Emma Louise Gosvener, born July 27, 1944 and William Eugene Gosvener, born August 14, 1945.

NOW THEREFORE, it is mutually agreed, and in pursuance of such agreement and for the consideration herein appearing, the party of the first part shall pay to the party of the second part for the support of the minor children of the Plaintiff and Defendant the sum of $35.00 per month as hereinafter provided.

It is expressly understood and agreed that the party of the second part, in consideration of the execution of this Agreement and of the payment of said sums of money paid to her, releases the party of the first part of any and all claims which she may have against him in the future for her support, maintenance, alimony, temporary or permanent, attorney fees in any suit brought by her against him. It is further agreed that each party releases the other from any and all claims which either might otherwise have against the property of the other, both as to present property and property that may be acquired by either in the future. It being understood and agreed that this agreement represents a full and complete settlement between the parties hereto, of any claim which either may have against the other.

It is further agreed between the parties that in the divorce proceeding instituted by party of the First part at his residence in Idaho, with the consent of the Court, the terms of this agreement will be entered as part of the Decree entered therein and that upon the entry of said Decree the party of the First part will pay to the party of the second part the said sum of $35.00 for support money and a like sum on each month thereafter, so long as said minors remain in the custody of the said party of the Second part.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto, have, after consultation with their respective counsel, to-wit: Party of the First part with Howard E. Adkins, Esquire, his Attorney of Shoshone, Idaho, and Party of the Second part with John T. Fuller, Esquire, her attorney of Porterville, California, relative to the matter herein set forth and agreed upon and having been advised fully and fairly as to all of the facts and circumstances herein set forth, hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year first above written.

Plaintiff,
vs
GEORGE F. VANDERPOOL,
Defendant,

This matter came on for hearing in open court in Shoshone, Idaho, this 9th. day of July, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Ross B. Haddock, and the defendant appearing not, either in person or by anyone for him.

The court thereupon inspected the court files, and the summons issued in this matter, and the sworn acceptance of service of summons by the defendant, and finds that the defendant accepted service of summons in Redding, Redding County, California, on the 13th. day of June, 1949. The Court finds that the statutory time allowed the defendant for making an appearance and pleading to said complaint has expired, and that the defendant is in default for want of an answer and for failure to plead to the complaint on file herein within the statutory time, and the court thereupon ordered that the default of the defendant be entered and a Clerk's default was thereupon entered.

Thereupon the plaintiff and Mrs. Lou Smith were duly sworn and testified in behalf of the plaintiff, whereupon the plaintiff rested.

The court having seen and heard the testimony in behalf of the plaintiff, and having seen and inspected the files and records in this matter, and being fully advised in the premises finds that all of the allegations of the plaintiff's complaint are true, and that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed in her complaint.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the marriage between the plaintiff, Geraldine I. Vanderpool, and the defendant, George F. Vanderpool, be, and the same hereby is, dissolved, and that said parties, and each of them, are freed and absolutely released from the bonds of matrimony and from all obligations thereof.

2. That the Custody of Douglas G. Vanderpool, a minor son of plaintiff and defendant, be, and the same hereby is, awarded to the plaintiff herein.

3. That the custody of Donald F. Vanderpool, the only other child of plaintiff and defendant, be, and the same is hereby, awarded to the defendant.

4. That the costs of this action be taxed to the plaintiff.

KEITH GOLDEN HAWKES, Plaintiff,

vs.

JERALDEAN LEE HAWKES, Defendant.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

The above entitled cause came on regularly to be heard and tried by the court on the 8th day of July, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by his attorney, Mary Smith of Rexburg, Idaho, and the defendant not appearing either in person or by attorney, and

It appearing to the court that the defendant could not be located in Madison County, Idaho, or elsewhere for personal service of summons and that in lieu thereof summons was published in the Rexburg Standard at Rexburg, Madison County, Idaho, which was designated as the paper most likely to give notice to said defendant, and

It appearing from the Affidavit of Publication on file herein that said summons was published once a week for five consecutive weeks, and

It further appearing that the defendant has failed to appear and plead in this cause and that the time for answering has expired and no answer or demurrer has been entered herein and that the default of the defendant has been duly entered and,

It appearing that said defendant is not now in the military service of the United States and was not in the military service of the United States at the time of the commencement of this action,

That the plaintiff, Keith Golden Hawkes, and were sworn and testified on behalf of the plaintiff and it appearing that the plaintiff has been a resident of the State of Idaho for more than six full weeks prior to the commencement of this action and that the defendant for more than one year prior to the commencement of this action wilfully and without cause deserted and abandoned the plaintiff and ever since has and still continues to so wilfully and without cause desert and abandon said plaintiff and live separate and apart from him without any reason and against his will and without his consent, and

It further appearing that all of the allegations and avertments in plaintiff's complaint are true.

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion of plaintiff's attorney, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the marriage between plaintiff, Keith Golden Hawkes, and the defendant, Jeraldean Lee Hawkes, be, and the same is forever dissolved, set aside and held for naught and the plaintiff and defendant, and each of them, be, and they are hereby forever absolutely released from the obligations thereof and each of them is hereby restored to the status of a single person. The court reserves jurisdiction as to support money for said child

The above entitled matter came on for hearing before me, H. A. Baker, one of the Judges of the Eleventh Judicial District of the State of Idaho, in and for the County of Minidoka, at my chambers in the City of Rupert, County of Minidoka, State of Idaho, and within the Eleventh Judicial District of the State of Idaho, the plaintiff appearing in person and with witnesses and with his counsel, H. V. Creason, the defendant appearing not; and it appearing from the records and files in said cause that the defendant has been duly and regularly served with summons and complaint and that the default of the defendant has been duly and regularly entered, she having waived her time of appearance; and it further appearing from the records and files that the said defendant is not in the military service of the United States of America within the meaning of the Soldiers and Sailors Civil Relief Act; and it further appearing that it is a proper matter to be heard at chambers.

WHEREUPON, Witnesses for the plaintiff were called, sworn and testified for and on behalf of the plaintiff, and the court after listening to all of said testimony, free of all legal objections thereto, and being fully advised in the premises, makes and enters its findings as follows:

1. The court finds that the plaintiff now is and for more than six weeks next preceding commencement of this action is and has been an actual and bona fide resident of the State of Idaho.

2. The court finds that the plaintiff and defendant were duly and regularly married on or about the 9th day of February, 1948.

3. The court finds that no issue was born of said marriage and that the plaintiff and defendant do not have and have not acquired any community property.

4. The court further finds that the plaintiff having proven all of the material allegations of his complaint that it is a proper matter for the entry of a decree of divorce.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff, Ira J. Chugg, and the defendant, Juanita Chugg, be and the same are hereby dissolved, and that a decree of divorce be made and entered in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant.

Made and entered in my chambers this 19th day of July, 1949, in the City of Rupert, County of Minidoka, and within the Eleventh Judicial District of the State of Idaho.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

The above entitled cause came on regularly for trial in open court at Lewiston, Idaho, before the Honorable Leo McCarty on the 7th day of July, 1949, at Ten o'clock A.M. The plaintiff appeared in person and was represented by her attorney, Paul C. Keeton. The defendant did not appear either in person or by attorney, and he having been served with Summons and Complaint in this cause within the State of Idaho, on the 16th day of June, 1949, and twenty days having expired since said service, and he having failed to appear, demur or answer within the time allowed by law, or at all; and he being in default and his default having been entered and a Non-Military Affidavit having been filed by the plaintiff as required by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, and all laws amendatory thereof, the Court proceeded to hear the cause.

Witnesses were sworn and examined on behalf of the plaintiff and testimony and corroborating testimony was admitted; and the Court being advised in the premises makes the following findings and decrees:

That the defendant was served with Summons and Complaint in this cause within the State of Idaho at Lewiston, Nez Perce

County, Idaho, on the 16th day of June, 1949.

That the allegations of the plaintiff's Complaint are as follows, to-wit: 1, that the plaintiff and defendant were married at Lewiston, Idaho, on the 28th day of May, 1942; 2, that the plaintiff is a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho; 3, that the plaintiff and defendant have acquired no community property since the time of said marriage; 4, that there have been born no children as the issue of said marriage; and 5, that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty toward the plaintiff; that said allegations are incorporated in this Decree as Findings of Fact and are found by the Court to be true as alleged in said Complaint.

The Court concludes from the Findings of Fact that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of extreme cruelty.

NOW, THEREFORE, IN CONSIDERATION OF THE PREMISES, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

That the Court has jurisdiction of the parties and the subject matter of this action.

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Hazel P. Burden, and the defendant, Oscar L. Burden, be, and the same hereby are wholly and forever dissolved and the parties are released from each other and from all matrimonial obligations and they are restored to the status of single, unmarried persons; and the plaintiff is granted and given an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

The above entitled cause came on regularly for trial in open court at Lewiston, Idaho, before the Honorable Leo McCarty on the 14th day of July, 1949, at Ten o'clock A.M. The plaintiff appeared in person and was represented by his attorney, Paul C. Keeton. The defendant did not appear either in person or by attorney, and she having been served with Summons and Complaint in this cause within the State of Idaho on the 21st day of June, 1949, and twenty days having expired since said service and she having failed to appear, demur or answer within the time allowed by law, or at all; and she being in default and her default having been entered and a Non-Military Affidavit having been filed by the plaintiff as required by the Soldiers' and Sailers' Civil Relief Act of 1940, and all laws amendatory thereof, the Court proceeded to hear the cause.

Witnesses were sworn and examined on behalf of the plaintiff and testimony and corroborating testimony was admitted; and the Court being advised in the premises, makes the following findings and decrees:

That the defendant was served with Summons and Complaint in this cause within the State of Idaho at Lewiston, Nez Perce

County, Idaho, on the 21st day of June, 1949.

That the allegations of the plaintiff's Complaint are as follows, to-wit: 1, that the plaintiff and defendant were married at Lewiston, Idaho, on the 9th day of April, 1949; 2, that the plaintiff is a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho; 3, that the plaintiff and defendant have acquired no community property; 4, that no children were born the issue of said marriage; and 5, that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty; and said allegations are incorporated in this Decree as Findings of Fact and are found by the Court to be true as alleged in said Complaint.

The Court concludes from the Findings of Fact that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of extreme cruelty.

NOW, THEREFORE, IN CONSIDERATION OF THE PREMISES, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

That the Court has jurisdiction of the parties and the subject matter of this action.

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Robert J. Blair, and the defendant, Anna E. Blair, be, and the same hereby are wholly and forever dissolved and the parties are released from each other and from all matrimonial obligations and they are restored to the status of single, unmarried persons; and the plaintiff is granted and given an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant.

The above entitled cause came on regularly for trial in open court before the Honorable Leo McCarty at Lewiston, Idaho, on the 14th day of July, 1949, at Ten o'clock A.M. The plaintiff appeared in person and was represented by her attorney, Paul C. Keeton. The defendant did not appear either in person or by attorney, and he having been regularly and duly served with Summons and Complaint in this cause by publication pursuant to Affidavit and Order for service in a foreign jurisdiction or by publication; and said Summons having been published on the 25th day of May, 1949, and on each succeeding Wednesday thereafter to and until the 22nd day of June, 1949; and twenty days having expired since said service, and he having failed to appear, demur or answer within the time allowed by law, or at all; and he being in default and his default having been entered and a Non-Military Affidavit having been filed by the plaintiff as required by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, and all laws amendatory thereof, the Court proceeded to hear the cause.

Witnesses were sworn and examined on behalf of the plaintiff and testimony and corroborating testimony was admitted; and the Court being advised in the premises makes the following findings and decrees:

That the defendant was duly and regularly served by publication in the Lewiston Morning Tribune, by publication of said Summons on May 25, June 1, June 8, June 15, and June 22, 1949, and by mailing of a copy of Summons and Complaint to his last known post office address, being that of Spokane, Washington, within ten days of the first publication of said Summons, as shown herein by Affidavit of Mailing filed on behalf of the plaintiff.

That the allegations of the plaintiff's Complaint are as follows, to-wit: 1, that the plaintiff and defendant were married at Lewiston, Idaho, on the 24th day of June, 1943; 2, that the plaintiff is a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho; 3, that the plaintiff and defendant have acquired community property since the time of said marriage consisting of household furniture and fixtures; 4, that there were no children born the issue of said marriage; and 5, that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty; and that said allegations are found by the Court to be true as alleged in said Complaint and are incorporated in this Decree as Findings of Fact.

The Court concludes from the Findings of Fact that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of extreme cruelty.

NOW, THEREFORE, IN CONSIDERATION OF THE PREMISES, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

That the Court has jurisdiction of the parties and the subject matter of this action.

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Mildred I. Copper, and the defendant, Harvey Copper, be, and the same hereby are wholly and forever dissolved and the parties are released from each other and from all matrimonial obligations and they are restored to the status of single, unmarried persons; and the plaintiff is granted and given an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the plaintiff, Mildred I. Copper, be, and she hereby is awarded the community property of the parties, consisting of household furniture and fixtures.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the plaintiff, Mildred I. Copper, have and she hereby is restored her former name, that of Mildred I. Fromdahl.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

The above entitled cause came on regularly for trial in chambers before the Honorable Leo McCarty, Judge of the above entitled court, at Lewiston, Idaho, on the 19th day of July, 1949, at Ten o'clock A.M. The plaintiff appeared in person and was represented by her attorney, Paul C. Keeton. The defendant did not appear either in person or by attorney, and he having been regularly and duly served with Summons and Complaint in this cause in the State of Oregon, pursuant to Affidavit and Order for service in a foreign jurisdiction, on the 28th day of June, 1949, and twenty days having expired since said service and he having failed to appear, demur or answer within the time allowed by law, or at all, and he being in default and his default having been entered and a Non-Military Affidavit having been filed by the plaintiff as required by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, and all laws amendatory thereof, the Court proceeded to hear the cause.

Witnesses were sworn and examined on behalf of the plaintiff and testimony and corroborating testimony was admitted; and the Court being advised in the premises, makes the following findings and decrees:

That the defendant accepted service of Summons and Complaint in this cause at Pendleton, County of Umatilla, State of Oregon, on the 28th day of June, 1949.

That the allegations of the plaintiff's Complaint are as follows, to-wit: 1, that the plaintiff and defendant were married at Clarkston, Washington, on the 4th day of February, 1946; 2, that the plaintiff is a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho; 3, that no children were born the issue of said marriage; 4, that the plaintiff and defendant have acquired as community property since the time of said marriage a small confectionery business and an equity in a residence and also household furniture and fixtures, all located at Winchester, Lewis County, Idaho; 5, that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty; and 6, that the plaintiff operates the business at Winchester, Idaho, and makes her home in the residence at Winchester and that the same are necessary for her to make a livelihood and home; that said allegations are incorporated in this Decree as Findings of Fact and are found by the Court to be true as alleged in said Complaint.

The Court concludes from the Findings of Fact that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of extreme cruelty.

NOW, THEREFORE, IN CONSIDERATION OF THE PREMISES, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

That the Court has jurisdiction of the parties and the subject matter of this action.

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Frances H. Quirk, and the defendant, Attell E. Quirk, be, and the same hereby are wholly and forever dissolved and the parties are released from each other and from all matrimonial obligations and they are restored to the status of single, unmarried persons; and the plaintiff is granted and given an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the plaintiff, Frances H. Quirk, be, and she hereby is entitled to the following described community property, to-wit:

Real property situate in Winchester, County of Lewis, State of Idaho, described more fully as the North Half (N½) of Lot Five (5) Block Twenty Three (23), Village of Winchester, Lewis County, Idaho.

Confectionery business at Winchester, Idaho.

Household furniture and fixtures at Winchester, Idaho.

to henceforth hold the same as her sole and separate property, free from any interest whatsoever of the defendant.

JUNE BELL)
PLAINTIFF
VS.) DECREE OF DIVORCE
BYRON E. BELL,
DEFENDANT)

The above entitled cause came duly on for hearing before the undersigned, Hon. Isaac McDougall, one of the Judges of this Court, in the Chambers of this court in Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho, on the 13th day of July, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her Attorney, Jno.W.Clark, Esq.,of Malad City, Idaho, and the defendant not appearing either in person or by counsel.

Thereupon the court proceeded to examine the files, records and proceedings had in this case, and from such examination the court finds that the defendant has heretofore been duly served with summons as provided by law and by the order of this court on the 20th day of June, 1949, by personal service had on said defendant, all as provided by the Statutes of the State of Idaho, all as appears to this court from the affidavit of Service annexed to the Alias Summons, and from the files, records and proceedings had herein. That the court had jurisdiction of this cause of action; that the time within which the defendant could appear and plead has expired, and that the defendant has failed to enter any appearance or plead to the complaint. That a clerk's default has been entered against the defendant for his failure to appear and plead.

That thereupon the plaintiff was duly and regularly sworn according to law, and the plaintiff's corroborating witness was also duly and regularly sworn according to law, and each testified in support of all the allegations of the plaintiff's complaint, and after hearing the testimony so offered and received, and after considering the same, and being fully advised in the premises, the Court finds all of the allegations of the plaintiff's complaint are true and fully established by the evidence, and that from the evidence heard by this court and considered by this court, the said court finds that the plaintiff is entitled to a divorce as prayed for in the complaint.

WHEREFORE in consideration of the premises, and upon the evidence heard in this cause, the court being fully advised:

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff, June Bell, and the defendant, Byron E. Bell, be and the same are hereby dissolved, and that said plaintiff and said defendant be and each of them are hereby restored to the status of a single person.

Judgment rendered and entered this 13th day of July, 1949, in the Chambers of this court in Pocatello, Idaho.

RUTH STELLA DAVIS,

DEFENDANT.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

The above entitled cause came duly on for hearing before the undersigned, Hon. Isaac McDougall one of the Judges of this Court, in the Chambers of this Court in Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho, on the 18th day of July, 1949, the plaintiff pearing in person and by his Attorney, Jno.W.Clark, Esq., of Malad City, Idaho, and the defendant not appearing either in person or by counsel.

Thereupon the court proceeded to examine the files, records and proceedings had in this case, and from such examination the court finds that the defendant has heretofore been duly served with summons as provided by law and by the order of this court on the 13th day of January, 1949, by personal service has on said defendant, all as provided by law and the Statutes of the State of Idaho, all as appears to this court from the affidavit of Service annexed to the Another Summons, and from the files, records and proceedings had herein. That the court had jurisdiction of this cause of action; that the time within which the defendant could appear and plead has expired, and that the defendant has failed to enter any appearance or plead to the complaint. That the Clerk's default has been entered against the defendant for his failure to appear and plead.

That thereupon the plaintiff and his corroborating witness were duly and regularly sworn according to law, and the plaintiff and his witness being so sworn, each testified in support of all the allegations of the plaintiff's complaint, and after hearing the testimony so offered and received, and after due consideration of the same, and being fully advised in the premises, the Court finds that all of the allegations of the plaintiff's complaint are true and fully established by the evidence, and that from the evidence heard by this Court and considered by this Court, the said court finds that the plaintiff is entitled to a divorce as prayed for in the complaint.

WHEREFORE, in consideration of the premises, and upon the evidence heard in this cause, the court being fully advised:

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff, Vaun C.Davis, and the defendant, Ruth Stella Davis, be and the same xx are hereby dissolved, and that said plaintiff and said defendant be and each are hereby restored to the status of a single person.

Judgment rendered and entered this 18th day of July, 1949, in the Chambers of this court in Pocatello, Idaho.

The above matter came on regularly to be heard in this court in Boise, Ada County, Idaho, within the above judicial district, without a jury, upon the plaintiff's complaint, the plaintiff appearing in person by his attorney, Cleve Groome, the defendant having been duly and regularly served with summons and process herein and time having elapsed for her appearance and answering plaintiff's complaint and she appearing not either in person or by an attorney, as to the complaint and summons served upon her herein; and a proper non-military affidavit has been made and filed herein, and an order declaring that the defendant was not engaged in the military service of the United States, as defined by the Act of Congress, and a default having been entered against her, and evidence having been produced on the part of the plaintiff herein and the plaintiff having closed his case, and the court having duly considered the same and having arrived at his conclusions in the matter, from which it appears that the plaintiff is entitled to judgment as prayed for in his complaint upon the grounds of extreme cruelty; and the court waives the necessity of filing findings of fact and conclusions of law, but finds that the allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true; now, therefore, it is

ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE and DECREE, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be, and they are hereby, dissolved, and the plaintiff and defendant are absolutely divorced one from the other; and it is further

ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, that the following described real estate situate in Owyhee County, Idaho, to-wit:

A one-half interest in Lot Four (4), Block Four (4) of Bosma's Subdivision No. 2 of Marsing, Owyhee County, Idaho, according to the official plat thereof now on file and of record in the office of the Recorder of Owyhee County, Idaho; be, and the same is hereby, decreed and set apart to the plaintiff and the said defendant is hereby perpetually enjoined from claiming or to claim any right, title or interest in and to the said property, or any part thereof and the title to the said property be, and the same is hereby, quieted in the plaintiff; and it is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE and DECREE, that the defendant's maiden name of Shirley L. Wilson be, and the same is hereby, restored to her.

THIS CAUSE Coming regularly on to be heard this 8th day of July, 1949, plaintiff appearing together with one of her attorneys, J. W. Galloway of Boise, Idaho, and defendant not appearing by counsel or otherwise; and it appearing to the Court that summons in this cause has been served upon the defendant herein personally in the County of Elmore, State of Idaho, and that the time for making appearance has elapsed, and the defendant, Donald C. Flock, has failed to appear, answer or plead to plaintiff's complaint herein within the time allowed by law; and it appearing to the Court that the defendant is not in the military forces of the United States, and that default of the defendant was duly and regularly entered herein on the 8th day of July, 1949;

WHEREUPON, Evidence was introduced on behalf of the plaintiff and the cause submitted, whereupon, the Court took the matter under advisement, and it appearing that all the material allegations of the complaint are sustained by testimony free from all legal exceptions as to its competency, admissability and sufficiency, and that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for,

NOW, THEREFORE, On motion of J. W. Galloway, attorney for the plaintiff, and by virtue of the law and by reason of the premises aforesaid,

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and this does hereby ORDER, ADJUDGE AND DECREE, That plaintiff shall have, and she is hereby granted, a divorce from the defendant, Donald C. Flock, on grounds of extreme cruelty, and that the bonds of matrimony existing between plaintiff and defendant are hereby dissolved, and said parties, and each of them, are hereby restored to the status of single, unmarried persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and this does hereby ORDER, ADJUDGE AND DECREE, That Patricia Ann Flock and William Carl Flock, minor children of the parties, shall be under the care, custody and control of the plaintiff herein, and that the defendant shall have the right to visit said minor children, and be visited by them, at reasonable times and places.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and this does hereby ORDER, ADJUDGE AND DECREE, that the defendant shall pay the plaintiff the sum of $30.00 each month for the support of Patricia Ann Flock and the sum of $30.00 each month for the support of William Carl Flock until each shall reach the age of her or his majority and the payment shall be made on the first day of August, 1949, and on the first day of each month thereafter.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause coming on regularly for hearing this 18th day of July, 1949, on the Complaint of the plaintiff taken as confessed by the defendant, whose default for not answering has been duly entered in said cause this day.

It appearing to this Court that the said defendant, William L. Hoag, Jr., has been duly and regularly served with Summons in the above entitled cause according to law, and that more than twenty (20) days have elapsed since said service.

Witnesses were duly sworn and examined on behalf of the plaintiff and the evidence being closed, the case was submitted to the Court for its decision and after due deliberation the Court finds:

That the plaintiff has filed her affidavit as provided under the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, in which plaintiff states that the defendant, William L. Hoag, Jr., is not in the Military Service of the United States, as defined by Section 101 (1) of the Act of Congress approved October 17, 1940; that pursuant to said affidavit, an Order allowing default was entered by the Court herein ordering that in case of proper service, default judgment be entered against the said defendant, William L. Hoag, Jr.

That all of the allegations contained in plaintiff's Complaint are true and supported by evidence; that the plaintiff and defendant intermarried at Bakersfield, County of Kern, State of California, on or about July 18, 1948, and ever since said time have been and now are husband and wife.

That plaintiff is now and has been for more than six weeks last past preceeding the commencement of this action a resident of the State of Idaho.

That there are no children the issue of the marriage of the plaintiff and defendant.

That there is no community property of the plaintiff and defendant.

That the Court finds that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty as more particularly set forth in plaintiff's complaint.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED and this DOES ORDER, ADJUDGE and DECREE that the marriage bonds between the plaintiff, Nona Hoag, and the defendant, William L. Hoag, Jr., be and the same are hereby dissolved, and that the parties and each of them, are free and absolutely released from the bonds of matrimony and all obligations thereof.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the plaintiff's maiden name be restored to her, to-wit: Nona Easter.

Clerk.

This cause came on regularly to be heard in open Court, and by leave of the Court, at Caldwell, Canyon County, Idaho, on the 25th day of July, 1949, and it appearing that the defendant, Georgia Faye Richards, was duly and regularly served with process herein by personal service upon her in the State of California, according to law, and that she has failed to appear in any manner or at all herein although the time for appearance has fully expired, and a proper and sufficient affidavit showing that the defendant was not at any time during the pendency of this action and is not now in the service of the United States of America, either army, navy, or otherwise, having been filed herein and based thereon a Judge of this Court made and there was filed an order permitting the default of said defendant to be entered and upon proof of such proper service upon said defendant the Court entered the default of the said defendant, and thereupon the Court proceeded to try said cause.

The plaintiff and a witness on his behalf were sworn and testified before the Court herein, and the Court having heard such testimony and having examined and considered the evidence in support of the allegation of the complaint herein, and the matter having been submitted to the Court for judgment and the Court being fully advised in the premises, finds: That all the material allegations of the plaintiff as set forth in his complaint herein are true, to-wit: That plaintiff and defendant intermarried as alleged in said complaint; that plaintiff is and for more than six weeks preceding the commencement of this action was a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho; that plaintiff and defendant ceased to live together as husband and wife as alleged in said complaint and ever since said date they have been and now are living separate and apart; that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty in her conduct and treatment of the plaintiff, and has caused him great mental suffering, humiliation and shame, all without any just cause or reason and against the will of the plaintiff, such acts being as alleged in plaintiff's complaint; that the maiden name of the defendant was Georgia Faye Lauderdale, and that plaintiff desires that such name be restored to her herein; that there are no property rights or interests involved in this action; and that there is no child of the marriage of plaintiff and defendant.

The Court therefore finds that plaintiff is entitled to judgment and decree of this Court dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between himself and the defendant, on the grounds of extreme cruelty of the defendant toward the plaintiff; and that the maiden name of the defendant, Georgia Faye Lauderdale, should be restored to the defendant.

IT IS THEREFORE HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the marriage between the plaintiff, James Henry Richards, Jr., and the defendant, Georgia Faye Richards, be, and the same hereby is dissolved on the grounds of extreme cruelty of the defendant toward the plaintiff, and that the said parties be and they are hereby relieved of all the obligations of said marriage and are returned to the status of unmarried persons.

2. That the defendant be and she is hereby restored to her maiden name of Georgia Faye Lauderdale.

This cause came on regularly to be heard before the undersigned, Judge of the above entitled Court, sitting without a jury, at Wallace, Idaho, on the 30th day of June, 1949. The plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, Dale Austin, and there was no appearance by or on behalf of the defendant.

It appeared to the satisfaction of the Court from the records and files herein that the defendant has been duly and regularly served with process at Wallace, County of Shoshone, State of Idaho, and has failed to enter an appearance herein and that his default was duly and regularly entered herein.

Sworn testimony was introduced by and on behalf of the plaintiff and in support of the allegations of her complaint, and the Court being fully advised in the premises made and entered herein its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and the Court DOES HEREBY ORDER, ADJUDGE AND DECREE:

1. That the bonds of Matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, EDNA HILL, and the defendant LAWRENCE W. HILL, be, and the same are hereby dissolved, set aside and held for naught, and the plaintiff is hereby granted an absolute divorce from the defendant.

DALE AUSTIN

This cause came regularly on to be heard this 6th day of July , 1949, before the Honorable Albert H. Featherstone, Judge of the above entitled Court, sitting without a jury, upon a Complaint of the plaintiff herein, taken as confessed by the defendant for his failure to appear and plead to the verified Complaint of the Plaintiff on file herein. Mr. John J. Peacock appeared as attorney for the plaintiff and the defendant made no appearance; and it having been proved to the satisfaction of the above entitled Court that the defendant was duly and regularly served with process; and that said service was by publication of Summons in the Kellogg-News-Wardner, a newspaper published at Kellogg, Shoshone County, Idaho, and that said publication of Summons was for the time required by law. And after said publication, the defendant having failed to appear or answer said Complaint within the time allowed and permitted by law; and the default of the defendant for not appearing, answering or in anywise pleading in said cause was duly and regularly entered.

WHEREUPON, the Court proceeded to examine the records and files in said action and to hear the evidence submitted on the part of the plaintiff in support of the allegations of her Complaint and after having heard the same the testimony was closed.

WHEREUPON, after a brief statement by the plaintiff's counsel, the cause was submitted to the Court for its decision and the Court considered the aforesaid testimony and statement of counsel, together with all papers, records, files and documents herein, and having heretofore made its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and having been fully advised in the premises;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby absolutely dissolved, and the said plaintiff be, and she hereby is, awarded an absolute divorce.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the custody of Barclay K. Poole be, and the same is hereby affirmed in plaintiff.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That plaintiff's former name of Carroll B. Poole be, and the same is hereby restored to her.

The above entitled cause coming on regularly to be heard and tried before the Honorable Henry S. Martin, District Judge, at Chambers, at Idaho Falls, County of Bonneville, State of Idaho, on the 22nd day of July, 1949, Holden & Holden, appearing for and in behalf and as the attorneys of the above named plaintiff and no one appearing for or in behalf of the above named defendant; and whereupon plaintiff was duly and regularly sworn and examined, and testified for and in his own behalf and thereupon Earl Dredge _____ was duly and regularly sworn and examined, and testified for and in behalf of the above named plaintiff, and thereupon the above named plaintiff rested, and the above named defendant having submitted no proof whatever, for or in her own behalf, this cause was thereupon submitted to the Court for its decision upon the testimony and documentary evidence submitted for and in behalf of the above named plaintiff, and the Court being fully advised in the premises now finds as follows:

I

That the above named defendant has been duly and regularly served with a true copy of the Summons issued out of said Court in said cause, attached to which was a true copy of the Complaint filed herein; that by the written Stipulation of the parties to this suit, filed in said Court in said cause, it is expressly agreed that the above named defendant enters a general appearance in said Court in said cause, and subjects herself to the jurisdiction of said Court; that the Complaint filed herein shall be deemed to be denied; that this cause may be tried and final Judgment rendered and entered herein, either in term time or in vacation, at Chambers, at any time convenient to said Court, or the Judge thereof, without notice to the above named defendant; that the making of Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law herein is waived.

II

That this Court has jurisdiction of the subject matter of this suit and of the person of the above named plaintiff, and of the person of the above named defendant; that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce as prayed for in his Complaint filed herein.

III

That by the written Stipulation of the parties to this suit, filed in said Court in said cause, it is expressly agreed that in the event the Court grants a Decree of Divorce to the above named plaintiff, that the Court shall award to the plaintiff, as his sole and separate property and for his sole and separate use and benefit, the following described real and personal property, to-wit:

> The West Half of the Northwest Quarter (W½NW¼), and the West Half of the Southwest Quarter (W½SW¼), in Section Fourteen (14), Township Five (5) North, Range Forty-four (44), East Boise Meridian, in Teton County, Idaho.

IV

That by the written Stipulation of the parties to this suit, filed in said Court in said cause, it is expressly agreed, that in the event the Court grants a Decree of Divorce to the above named plaintiff, that the Court shall award to the defendant, as her sole and separate property and for her sole and separate benefit, the following described personal property:

> All her personal effects and household goods and furnishings, that were acquired by defendant prior to her marriage to plaintiff.

V

That by the written Stipulation of the parties hereto, filed in said Court and cause, it is expressly agreed that in the event the Court grants a Decree of Divorce to the above named plaintiff, that the said defendant waives any and all demands of every kind and nature against the plaintiff by reason of, or on account of this action, and/or on account of the marriage and marriage relationship of plaintiff and defendant, and that defendant be restored to her former name of Edythe Arlene Berry.

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion of Holden & Holden, the attorneys of record of the above named plaintiff:

I

IT IS HEREBY CONSIDERED, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the marriage heretofore and now existing between the above named plaintiff, Wayne Pehrson, and the above named defendant, Edythe Pehrson, be, and the same is hereby forever dissolved, set aside and held for naught, and that the above named plaintiff and the above named defendant, and each of them, be, and they are hereby forever absolutely released from all the obligations thereof.

II

IT IS FURTHER CONSIDERED, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the plaintiff, Wayne Pehrson be, and he is hereby awarded as his sole and separate property and for his sole and separate use and benefit, the following described real and personal property:

> The West Half of the Northwest Quarter (W½NW¼), and the West Half of the Southwest Quarter (W½SW¼), in Section Fourteen (14), Township Five (5) North, Range Forty-four (44), East Boise Meridian, in Teton County, Idaho.
> One Philco Radio-Phonograph Combination; one Bed complete; one Bedroom Suite, consisting of one complete bed, vanity and chest of drawers; and one 1948 Pontiac Sedan.

And the defendant be, and she is hereby divested of all title and interest to the same.

This action coming on for hearing before Honorable Kales E. Lowe, one of the Judges of this Court, at Twin Falls, Idaho, on July 1, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, J. H. Blandford, Twin Falls, Idaho, and it appearing to the Court that the defendant has in writing accepted service of summons herein, waived the twenty-day period within which he has to appear and answer the complaint of plaintiff, and has refused to plead to said complaint of plaintiff and default of said defendant having been duly filed herein and evidence having been adduced on behalf of plaintiff in support of her complaint, and the matter having been submitted to the Court for decision and the Court having taken said matter under advisement; and it appearing to the Court that the material allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true, namely, that plaintiff and defendant were married at Elko, Nevada, on May 28, 1946, and ever since said date have been and now are husband and wife; that during the existence of said marriage relation one child has been born to plaintiff and defendant, namely, Sharon Louise Bigley, born November 4, 1947; that said child is now in the custody of plaintiff and she is a fit and proper person to have the care, custody and control of said minor child; that defendant has without cause treated plaintiff in an extremely cruel and inhuman manner and has failed to provide plaintiff and defendant with the common necessities of life; that said acts of cruelty and non-support have caused plaintiff great mental anguish and suffering; that said parties have heretofore made and entered into a property settlement agreement adjusting all of their property rights and interests, which agreement to the Court appears to be fair and just; and that plaintiff has resided in the State of Idaho at least six weeks prior to the commencement of this action;

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion of J. H. Blandford, attorney for plaintiff;

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, as follows:

1. That the marriage relation existing between plaintiff and defendant be absolutely dissolved, and said parties forever freed from the obligations thereof; and that plaintiff and defendant, and each of them, be restored to the status of a single or unmarried person.

2. That plaintiff be and she hereby is given the care, custody and control of Sharon Louise Bigley, the minor child of plaintiff and defendant, and the defendant is given the right to visit said child at reasonable times; that plaintiff be and she hereby is awarded the sum of $35.00 per month for the support and maintenance of said minor child, such payments to be made on or before the 5th day of each month, beginning with the month of July, 1949, and continuing to and including the month of December, 1949, and the sum of $50.00 per month on or before the 5th day of each month, beginning with the month of January, 1950.

3. That plaintiff be and she hereby is awarded the sum of $75.00 as a reasonable attorney's fee for the prosecution of this action, and $20.00 court costs herein expended.

4. That the property settlement agreement made and entered into between plaintiff and defendant dated June 30, 1949, introduced in evidence as plaintiff's Exhibit A, be and the same hereby is approved and confirmed and made a part of this decree.

5. That plaintiff be and she is hereby given as her sole and separate property and estate all of the household furniture and fixtures and equipment which belonged to plaintiff and defendant upon which there is an unpaid balance due the Pacific Finance Corporation, Pocatello, Idaho, and also an unpaid balance due Wilson-Bates Company, Twin Falls, Idaho. That plaintiff is awarded no alimony under this decree but in lieu thereof all of said personal property is given to plaintiff as her sole and separate property as aforesaid, and defendant shall pay to said Pacific Finance Corporation and Wilson-Bates Company all of the unpaid balances due upon said household furniture, fixtures and equipment in such a manner as shall be satisfactory to said companies.

PROPERTY SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

WHEREAS, the undersigned, EDNA LOUISE BIGLEY, of Twin Falls, Idaho, party of the first part, and JAMES LOUIS BIGLEY, of Twin Falls, Idaho, the party of the second part, were married at Elko, Nevada, on May 28, 1946, and ever since said date have been and now are husband and wife; and

WHEREAS, unhappy differences have arisen between said parties and each of them deems it for the best interests and greater happiness of each of them that they live separate and apart and discontinue to live together as husband and wife; and

WHEREAS, said parties have agreed upon and desire to evidence and carry into effect a full, final and complete settlement of all their property rights and interests in property;

NOW, THEREFORE, THIS AGREEMENT, Made and entered into this 30th day of June, 1949, by and between said parties, WITNESSETH:

That for and in consideration of the sum of One Dollar by each of the parties hereto to the other in hand paid, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, and other good and valuable considerations, and the mutual covenantsn and agreements herein contained by each of said parties to be observed and performed, it is mutually understood and agreed as follows:

1. That the parties hereto shall live separate and apart and each shall be free from any and all direction, interference, authority and control by the other as fully as if he or she were sole and unmarried, and each may conduct, carry on and engage in any employment, business, trade or undertaking for his or her sole and separate use and benefit without and free from any direction, control, restraint or interference, direct or indirect, by the other, in all respects as if each were unmarried.

2. That the party of the second part shall pay to the party of the first part for the support of Sharon Louise Bigley, the minor child of said parties, born November 4, 1947, the sum of Thirty-five Dollars ($35.00) per month, beginning with the month of July, 1949, and Fifty Dollars ($50.00) per month beginning with the month of January, 1950, said payments to be made each month between the 1st and the 5th.

3. That the party of the second part shall, in lieu of alimony, make, execute and deliver to the party of the first part a bill of sale to all furniture and fixtures owned by the parties hereto as her sole and separate property and the party of the second part agrees to pay any unpaid indebtedness against the same; that the party of the first part shall make, execute and deliver to the party of the second part a bill of sale to the automobile of the parties hereto; that each party shall be entitled to any other property which was and is his or her separate property; that the party of the first part shall not be entitled to and does hereby waive any and all right or claim which she has or may have to the payment of alimony.

4. That the party of the first part shall have the care, custody and control of said minor child, and the party of the second part shall have the right to visit said child at reasonable times.

5. That the respective parties hereto shall execute and deliver to the other upon request any papers necessary to change the beneficiary in any policies of insurance owned or carried by either of them.

6. That the party of the first part hereby represents that she has incurred no bills whatsoever for which the party of the second part is liable; that neither of the parties hereto shall be obligated to pay any bills or obligations of the other hereinafter incurred.

7. That an action for divorce has been instituted by the party of the first part against the party of the second part, and this agreement shall be introduced in evidence and the Court requested to approve and confirm the same and make it part of the final decree of divorce.

8. That the party of the second part shall pay to the party of the first part the sum of Seventy-five Dollars ($75.00) as attorney's fees and the sum of $20.00 as court costs.

9. This agreement shall bind the parties hereto, their heirs, successors, assigns and legal representatives.

This cause having come on regularly to be heard before the court on the First day of July, 1949, with the plaintiff appearing in person and by her counsel W.L. Dunn, Esq., and the defendant neither appearing in person or by counsel, but having theretofore cause his voluntary appearance to be filed in said cause, whereby he expressly waived the service of summons upon him, admitted the receipt of a copy of the complaint on file in said cause, waived the statutory time to answer or plead to said complaint, submitted himself to the jurisdiction of the above entitled court and consented that a default be entered against him in said court in said cause, and the Clerk's default having been duly entered and approved by the Court, the Court thereupon proceeded to hear the testimony of witnesses duly sworn and examined in support of plaintiff's complaint and the matter being finally submitted and the Court being fully advised in the premises, finds that the defendant has treated plaintiff with extreme cruelty to the extent of causing plaintiff great and grievous mental and physical suffering and distress and that the allegations of plaintiff's complaint are fully sustained, Wherefore, NOW, THEREFORE, upon motion of W.L. Dunn, counsel for the plaintiff it is Hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED: That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be absolutely dissolved and the parties hereto freed from all of the obligations of matrimony.

Case No. 13,869

This cause coming on to be heard before me, Honorable Kales E. Lowe, Judge of the District Court in and for Twin Falls County, State of Idaho, on this 1st day of July 1949, a regular Court day of the April term of said Court, upon the complaint of the plaintiff herein, and the defendant being duly served in this cause on the 28th day of May, 1949; and that more than twenty days have expired after the day of service, the Court Clerk having entered a default, and the defendant having been three times called in open Court to appear, accept, demur, plead or answer to the complaint of the plaintiff, and came not and wholly made default, and the Court having ordered that the allegations made in said petition be taken as confessed, and having heard the oral testimony of witnesses, sworn and examined in open Court, and being fully advised in the premises and on consideration thereof, finds that all material facts alleged in plaintiff's complaint are true, and especially finds that the plaintiff at the time of filing the complaint was and had been an actual resident of the State of Idaho for the last past two years preceding the filing of said complaint, and was at the time of filing the complaint a resident of the State of Idaho; and that the parties in said action had been married as in the complaint set forth;

The Court further finds that the said defendant willfully neglected to provide for his wife and child the common necessaries of life, having the ability to do so. The Court finds that the plaintiff is without fault; and that by reason of the acts of the defendant and the faults of the defendant, plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce as prayed for, and

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED By this Court that the plaintiff have judgment against the defendant, dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant and restoring the plaintiff to the status of a single person.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED That the care, custody and education of the child of plaintiff and defendant VIOLA G. CAMPBELL and BUCK CAMPBELL, be awarded to the plaintiff exclusively, and the defendant is hereby enjoined from interfering with said child or with plaintiff in her custody of him, and from visiting said child until further orders of this Court.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the defendant pay to plaintiff as her reasonable alimony and money the sum of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) payable each and every month beginning on the first day of July, 1949 and continuing until the death or earlier remarriage of the plaintiff;

And that the defendant be required to pay to plaintiff for the support and maintenance of said minor child the sum of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) per month commencing with the month of July, 1949 and continuing until the child shall have attained the age of twenty-one years;

And that the defendant be required to pay to the plaintiff as attorney's fees for the institution and prosecution of this action the sum of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) together with Court costs therein incurred.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

DISTRICT COURT
Eleventh Judicial District
County of Twin Falls, State of Idaho
FILED JUL 8 - 1949
C. A. Bulles Clerk
Irene C. Nielsen Deputy Clerk
Entered JUL 8 - 1949

This matter came on regularly for hearing on the 8th day of July, 1949, before the undersigned District Judge, sitting without a jury. Plaintiff appeared in person and by his attorney, J. W. Taylor, and the defendant failed to appear either in person or by attorney.

Defendant having been duly and regularly served with process herein and having failed to plead thereto and file any appearance herein, and the time allowed by law for her to appear having expired, testimony was submitted by the plaintiff and by witnesses in his behalf.

The Court, having heard the evidence, and being fully advised in the matter, finds that all the allegations of the plaintiff's complaint are true and that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from the defendant upon the ground of willful desertion, as prayed in his complaint.

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed that the bonds of matrimony existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same hereby are, dissolved, and each of the said parties is hereby restored to the status of a single unmarried person.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the defendant, be, and she hereby is, restored to her former name of Grace Hannah Griffin.

Dated July 8, 1949.

This cause came on regularly for trial, before the above entitled Court, at the Court Room thereof, in the County Court House, in the County of Twin Falls, State of Idaho, upon the 8th day of July, 1949. The plaintiff appeared in person and by and through her attorney of record, Ray D. Agee. The defendant did not appear, and it appeared to the Court, and it hereby finds, that the defendant, James R. Payne, has been duly and regularly served with summons in this action and, having failed to appear and plead to the plaintiff's complaint filed herein, and the time allowed by law for pleading to said complaint having expired, and no answer, demurrer, or other appearance having been made by the defendant, or filed herein, the default of the defendant, James R. Payne, in the premises, has been duly and regularly entered herein according to law.

Whereupon, witnesses on the part and behalf of the plaintiff were duly sworn and examined and evidence introduced and admitted and the evidence being closed the cause was submitted to the Court for its consideration and decision and, after due deliberation thereon, the Court hereby finds and decides: That, for a long time last past, the defendant has wilfully, wrongfully and intentionally treated the plaintiff with extreme cruelty and has inflicted grievous bodily injury and grievous mental suffering upon her by his acts and conduct; that each and all of the property, hereinafter described, is the community property of the plaintiff and defendant, and that the plaintiff is entitled to have said property, and each and every part thereof, and each and every interest therein, set aside, awarded, assigned, transferred, set over, conveyed and decreed to her, as her sole and separate property; that each and every allegation in plaintiff's complaint on file herein is true and correct, and that the plaintiff is entitled to all of the relief prayed for by her in said complaint. And, being now fully advised in the premises, the Court hereby makes and enters its judgment and decree as follows:

Wherefore, by virtue of the law and by reason of the premises aforesaid, it is hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed that the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Bertha Payne, and the defendant, James R. Payne, be, and the same are hereby, wholly and absolutely dissolved, and that said parties be, and they are hereby, forever freed from the obligation thereof, and that a decree of absolute divorce be, and the same is hereby, entered herein in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant.

And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the property, hereinafter mentioned, referred to and/or described, and each and every part thereof, and each and every interest therein, be, and the same is hereby, set aside, awarded, set over, assigned and decreed to the plaintiff, Bertha Payne, as her sole and separate property, free and clear of and from any and all claims of the defendant, James R. Payne, therein or thereto. Said property is particularly described as follows:

Miscellaneous household furniture, fixtures, appliances, dishes, equipment, goods and supplies.

MILDRED REED, Plaintiff,

vs

GEORGE REED, Jr., Defendant.

DECREE OF DIVORCE.

Entered JUL 12 1949

THIS MATTER came on to be heard before the above entitled Court on the 12th day of July, 1949. Plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, J. H. Barnes; defendant made no appearance. It is shown to the Court that on the 28th day of June, 1949, the defendant executed an affidavit of voluntary appearance herein, admitting the receipt of a copy of the amended complaint herein, refusing to plead to said amended complaint, consenting to his default for failure to plead being entered, and subjecting himself to the Jurisdiction of the Court for all purposes connected with this action. It is further shown that more than ten days have elapsed since the execution of said voluntary appearance, and that the defendant has made no other or further appearance herein. Now, on motion of plaintiff's attorney, IT IS ORDERED that the default of the defendant for failure to plead within the time allowed by law be and the same hereby is entered.

The plaintiff was sworn and examined, and a witness was sworn and testified in corroboration of plaintiff's testimony as to residence. From the evidence thus adduced, the Court finds that the plaintiff has been a bona fide resident of Idaho for more than six weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action; that plaintiff and defendant were married at Rupert, Idaho, on the 18th day of March, 1933, and ever since have been and now are wife and husband; that there are six children born of said marriage, whose names and ages are stated in Paragraph III of the amended complaint and confirmed by plaintiff's testimony; that the matter of the care and custody of said children has been before the Court on several occasions; that the Court would not consent to their custoday being awarded to the defendant, he being unable to employ an adult woman of good character to care for said children durins his absence; that relatives of the parties were called in, and the following disposition was made of said children, subject to the approval of the Court, namely: That the plaintiff be awarded the custody of the two youngest children, James Reed, aged four, and Karen Reed, aged six; that Mr. and Mrs. Bert Reed, the brother and sister-in-law of the defendant, have agreed to take and care for the third youngest child, Donald Reed, aged eight; that Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cope, the sister and brother-in-law of plaintiff, have agreed to take and care for the fourth youngest child, Jenne Reed, aged ten; that Mr. and Mrs. George Stokesberry, Mr. Stokesberry being the uncle of the defendant, have a greed to take and care for the two eldest of said children, Ellen Reed, aged sixteen, and Evelyn Reed, aged fourteen; that both the plaintiff and the defendant have agreed to such disposition of said children, and the ame ded complaint prays that the Court approve such disposition; that there is no real property belonging to the community consisting of plaintiff and defendant; that there is certain community personal property, consisting of household furniture, etd, and that plaintiff and defendant have entered into a property settlement agreement in which all of said personal property is awarded to the plaintiff; that during their marriage, the defendant has treated the plaintiff with extreme cruelty, by the infliction upon her of grevious mental suffering.

From the facts thus found, the Court concludes that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from the defendant on the ground of cxrem extreme cruelty; that the minor children born of said marriage should be awarded to the plaintiff and to the relatives of the parties, as hereinbefore set forth; that the property settlement should be approved and incorperated in this decree.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and this does order, adjudge and decree, that the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant be and the same hereby are dissolved, and that each of said parties be and they hereby are restored to the status of a single, unmarried person; that the community personal property be and it hereby is awarded to the plaintiff, in accordance with the property settlement agreement admitted in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit A; that the custody of the two youngest children, James Reed, aged four, and Karen Reed, aged six, be and it hereby is awarded to the plaintiff; that the custody of the third youngest child, Donald Reed, aged eight, be and it hereby is awarded to Mr. and Mrs. Bert Reed; that the custody of the fourth youngest child, Jenne Reed, aged ten, be and it hereby is awarded to Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cope; that the custody of the two eldest children, Ellen Reed, aged sixteen, and Evelyn Reed, aged fourteen, be and it hereby is awarded to Mr. and Mrs. George Stokesberry; that the Court retain jurisdiction to change or modify this decree with respect to the custody of any of said minor children, upon proper showing being made.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

THE ABOVE ENTITLED MATTER coming on for hearing before the Hon. Kales E. Lowe, judge of the above entitled court, at Twin Falls, Idaho, on the 22nd day of July, 1949; the plaintiff appearing in person and by and through her attorneys, Graydon W. Smith and Leonard H. Jacob of Twin Falls, Idaho, and the defendant not appearing in person or by an attorney; and

It appearing to the court that regular and proper service of summons and complaint has been made upon defendant, and that defendant has filed his acceptance of service and waiver of time to appear, and his default having been duly entered herein, the court does hereby confirm and approve said default;

WHEREUPON, the testimony introduced herein by plaintiff and the Court being fully advised in the premises; the Court hereby finds that the plaintiff and defendant are each fit and proper persons to have the care, custody and control of their minor children, to-wit, Jeri Lucille Bryant and Dennis Nyle Bryant; that the plaintiff for more than six weeks prior to the commencement of this action was a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

1. That plaintiff is awarded a divorce upon the grounds stated in her complaint, and that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant should be and are hereby dissolved; and

2. That plaintiff is given care, custody and control of said minor children, to-wit, Jeri Lucille Bryant and Dennis Nyle Bryant, with the defendant having the right to visit said children at reasonable and seasonable times and places.

3. That the defendant is hereby ordered to pay the plaintiff for the support of said minor children the sum of Thirty and no/100 Dollars ($30.00) per month per each child during the minority of each child, or a total of Sixty and no/100 Dollars ($60.00) per month, when the eldest child attains its majority, the defendant must then pay the sum of Thirty and no/100 Dollars ($30.00) per month to the plaintiff for the support of the younger child, and upon the younger child reaching its majority, said payments will stop completely. The first payment is to be on the 1st day of August, 1949, and a like sum on the same day of each succeeding month.

4. That the household furniture of plaintiff and defendant and that certain 1944 Glider Trailer House are hereby awarded to plaintiff as her sole and separate property.

This action coming on for hearing before Honorable Kales E. Lance, one of the Judges of this Court, at Twin Falls, Idaho, on July 22, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, J. H. Blandford, and it appearing to the Court that defendant has been regularly served with process, and has answered and refused to plead further to said complaint and has consented to the entry of default against him, and said default having been duly entered and filed, and defendant having waived the 20-day period in which he has to answer; and it appearing to the Court that the material allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true, namely: That plaintiff and defendant were married at Tryon, Nebraska, on November 14, 1935, and ever since have been and now are husband and wife; that there are no children the issue of said marriage; that certain real and personal property was accumulated during said marriage and the same has been heretofore satisfactorily disposed of by the parties hereto and agreeably adjusted between themselves; that defendant has treated plaintiff in an extremely cruel and inhuman manner and has been guilty of habitual drunkenness and intemperance, and said acts of cruelty and intemperance have caused plaintiff grevious mental and physical suffering; and that plaintiff has resided in the State of Idaho at least six weeks prior to the commencement of this action;

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion of J. H. Blandford, attorney for plaintiff,

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

1. That the marriage relation existing between plaintiff and defendant be absolutely dissolved and said parties forever freed from the obligations thereof; and that plaintiff and defendant, and each of them, be restored to the status of a single and unmarried person.

2. That plaintiff is hereby restored her former name of Pearl Lawhorn.

LENA HARGER Plaintiff vs. HURSCHEL HARGER Defendant	)	DECREE OF DIVORCE

DISTRICT COURT
Eleventh Judicial District
County of Twin Falls, State of Idaho
FILED JUL 29 1949
C. A. Bullen Clerk
Irene O. Nielsen Deputy Clerk
Entered JUL 29 1949

This matter coming on regularly for hearing on the 29th day of July, 1949, at the hour of 2:00 P. M., before the undersigned District Judge. Plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, G. R. Dibble, Esq., and the defendant appeared not either in person or by attorney. It appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant has been duly and regularly served with process herein and he having in writing waived the time allowed by the law to answer and consented that his default be entered forthwith, and his default having been duly entered accordingly, testimony was submitted by and on behalf of the plaintiff. The court having heard the evidence and duly considered the same, finds that all the allegations of the plaintiff's complaint are true, and that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from the defendant on the ground of extreme cruelty, as prayed in her complaint, and it appearing to the court that there has been a property settlement;

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and defendant, be, and the same are dissolved, and each of the said parties is hereby restored to the status of a single unmarried person; and it is further ordered that the following property settlement and agreement be made a part of the decree and that the real and personal property mentioned in the complaint shall be divided according to the terms of this property settlement and agreement.

AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT, Made and entered into this 26th day of July, 1949, by and between Lena Harger, party of the first part, hereinafter referred to as the wife, and Hurschel Harger, party of the second part hereinafter referred to as the husband, both of Buhl, Idaho.

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, the parties hereto were lawfully married on the 23rd day of June, 1915, at Harrisonville, Missouri, and ever since have been and now are husband and wife; and

WHEREAS, unhappy differences have arisen between them and the wife has instituted action for divorce in the District Court of the Eleventh Judicial District in the State of Idaho in and for Twin Falls County; and

WHEREAS, the said parties deem it for the best interests and the greater happiness of both that they make, execute, and carry into effect a full, final and complete settlement of all their property rights, interests, and claims:

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises and covenants contained herein, the parties hereto agree as follows:

That except as hereinafter specified, each part hereto is hereby released and absolved from and and all obligations and liabilities for the future acts and duties of the other, and that each of the said parties releases the other from any and all liabilities for the future acts and duties of the other, and thateach of the said parties releases the other from any and all liabilities, debts, and obligations of any kind or character incurred by the other from and after this date and delivery of this agreement, except that the husband shall owe the wife, Eleven Thousand Dollars, plus four per cent interest on the same as hereinafter specified, it being understood that this instrument is intended to settle the rights of the parties hereto in all respects, except as may be hereinafter specified.

2. That any and all property acquired by either of the parties hereto from and after the date hereof, shall be the sole and separate property of the one so acquiring the same, and each of said parties hereby respectively grants to the other all such future acquisitions of property as the sole and separate property of the one acquiring the same.

3. It is agreed that the parties hereto are the owners of the following described real property.

A home located on lot 10 of Block 64 of the Original Townsite of the City of Buhl, Idaho.

A farm located on the Northeast Quarter of the Northwest Quart and the Southeast Quarter of the Northwest Quarter of Section 11

Township 11 South Range 14 E. B. M.

And a farm located on the West One-half of the Southwest Quarter of Section 2, Township 11 South Range 14 E. B. M.

That both of the farms shall go to and become the sole and separate property of the husband and the wife agrees to execute a deed to him for her half.

The home shall go to the wife under the following terms and conditions. The wife shall have a life estate in the home and upon her death the remainder shall go to her daughter Ardith Marie Kramer. The wife shall get the furniture, except that the husband shall get his personal belongings, which includes his fishing equipment, guns, and other sporting equipment.

It is agreed that the parties hereto are the owners of the following described personal property, to-wit:

Approximately 160 shares of Twin Falls Canal Company Stock

A 1940 Chrysler Car.

A safety deposit box

A small bank account

It is understood that the husband shall get all of the above personal property and the wife will make out the necessary papers for him to get it.

It is understood and agreed that the husband shall pay One hundred and Fifty Dollars attorney fees.

It is further understood and agreed that the wife has athousand Dollar insurance policy in her name and that the husband has a Five Thousand Dollar policy. It is agreed that the Wife shall keep the One thousand dollar policy and the husband the five thousand Dollar Policy. Each party agrees to sign waivers to the other as soon as they can be made out.

It is understood and agreed that the husband shall pay the wife for her share of the community property a total sum of Eleven Thousand Dollars, plus the one thousand insurance policy and the life estate in the home. Five Thousand Dollars of Which is to be paid down within two days of the signing of this agreement. The other Six Thousand will be paid at the rate of Fifteen Hundred Dollars a year, plus interest of four per cent per annum on the deferred balance payable annually. The husband has the right to make the payments as fast as he desires.

As security for the deferred payments of Six Thousand Dollars, the husband agrees to give the wife a first mortgage on the Northeast Quarter of the Northwest Quarter and the Southeast Quarter of the Northwest Quarter of Section 11 Township 11 South Range 14 E. B. M.

This instrument shall be binding upon the parties their heirs, administrators, and executors.

It is understood and agreed that the crops from the farms for the year 1949 shall go to and become the property of the husband.

STELLA R. LLOID,

Plaintiff,

vs

ALBERT B. LLOID, BEN LLOID and MYRTLE LLOID,

Defendants.

The above entitled cause came on to be heard before the Court in Chambers at Weiser, Idaho, on the 8th day of July, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by Robert H. Remaklus, her attorney, and the defendants having withdrawn their demurrer and each of them having refused to plead further, and the default of the defendants and each of them having been duly and regularly entered, and the plaintiff having filed her affidavit of non-military status, as required by law; the plaintiff introduced oral evidence in support of her complaint, and Miss Jo Ann Slifka testified in behalf of the plaintiff;

And, there having been offered and admitted in evidence a contract made and entered into by and between the plaintiff and defendant under date the 8th day of July, 1949, in words and figures as follows:

AGREEMENT

Between: Stella R. Lloid
First Party

and Albert B. Lloid
Second Party

THIS AGREEMENT Made July 7, 1949 by and between Stella R. Lloid, hereafter called the first party, and Albert B. Lloid, hereafter called the second party,

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, The first party and the second party were married each to the other on the 31 day of October 1946, and ever since have been and now are husband and wife;

WHEREAS, There have been differences between the parties which have resulted in separation of the parties and the institution of a divorce action in the District Court of the Seventh Judicial District of the State of Idaho in and for the County of Valley, by the first party; and

WHEREAS, The said parties have agreed upon a settlement and reasonable and just disposal of all of the property in which the parties are jointly interested; and,

WHEREAS, The action is still pending undetermined; and,

WHEREAS, The parties have contracted certain debts hereinafter set forth and the parties have agreed upon provisions for the payment therefor;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and of the mutual covenants and agreements of the parties hereinafter contained it is mutually agreed as follows:

1. That the first party shall have, and there is hereby set over to her, the sum of Three Hundred Sixty Two and 50/100 ($362.50) Dollars to be paid by the second party to the first party; and,

2. That the first party does hereby transfer, convey and set over to the second party, all of her right, title and interest, both in law and equity, in and to that certain contract of sale of real property by and between Ben Lloid and Myrtle Lloid, husband and wife, first parties, and Albert Lloid and Stella Lloid, husband and wife, second parties, dated the first day of June 1947 and recorded in Book 8 of Misc. at page 226 in the office of the Recorder of Valley County, Idaho, covering the real property described as follows, to-wit:

> Lot 4, Block 3 of the Patterson Addition to the Townsite of Cascade, Idaho according to the official plat there on file and of record in the office of the Recorder of Valley County, Idaho, together with any and all improvements that the parties hereto have placed thereon.

3. That the second party shall pay all of the indebtedness heretofore contracted by the first party and the second party up to and including the day of separation of the parties, without reservation save as hereinafter set forth;

4. That the first party shall pay the indebtedness in the sum of Six and 80/100 ($6.80) Dollars, contracted for at C. C. Anderson's Department Store, Cascade, Idaho.

IT IS FURTHER SPECIFICALLY UNDERSTOOD AND AGREED by and between the parties hereto that the first party shall have no right, title or interest in and to the real property herein above described.

The first party hereby releases the second party from all claims and demands of every character arising out of the marital status of said parties, including temporary alimony, permanent alimony, support and maintenance, right of family allowance and right to inherit and all claims of every character and description held by the first party against the second party, save as herein provided; and neither shall incur any obligation upon the credit of the other, it being agreed that this agreement comprises the complete adjustment and settlement between said parties of all claims and demands of every chara cter and that the first party shall have no right, title or claims against the second party save as herein provided.

IT IS FURTHER UNDERSTOOD AND AGREED That this agreement is made subject to approval of the Court in said divorce proceedings now pending between the parties hereto, and shall not be of any effect nor force until same shall be approved and confirmed by the Court and the terms hereof carried into the decree of divorce.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, The parties hereto have hereunto set their hands as of the day and year first above written.

- - - - - - - - -

This cause came on regularly before the Court to be heard in open Court on this, the 12th day of July, 1949, Plaintiff was present in person and by Ed. R. Coulter, his attorney of record. Defendant was present neither in person nor by Attorney, and the following proceedings were had.

It appearing that personal service of process has been had upon the defendant and the time for Answer has expired and the defendant has failed to answer plaintiff's complaint, on motion of Ed. R. Coulter, Attorney for the plaintiff, the default of the defendant, Anna Mary Franklin, for want of Answer or other appearance is duly entered.

Witnesses were sworn on behalf of the plaintiff and the taking of evidence is closed and the cause is submitted to the Court for decision.

The Court finds that all of the material allegations contained in plaintiff's complaint are true. The Court further finds that Melvin LaVerne Franklin, a minor child of plaintiff and defendant is and during all of the times since the beginning of this action has been in the possession of the plaintiff in Idaho, and the other children are in the possession of their mother in Oklahoma.

WHEREFORE, By reason of law and presence, it is ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the plaintiff, Theodore Franklin, be and he hereby is awarded a complete divorce from the defendant, Anna Mary Franklin and that the custody of Melvin LaVerne Franklin, minor child of said parties is hereby awarded to the plaintiff, Theodore Franklin during the minority of said Melvin LaVerne Franklin and that the defendant be permitted to visit said child at reasonable times and places.

Action No. 4610.

- - - - - - - - - - - - - -

This cause came on regularly to be heard in open Court on the 12th day of July, 1949, and it appearing that the defendant, Lillian V. Milligan, was duly and regularly served with process herein by personal service upon her within the State of Idaho, according to law, and that she has failed to appear in any manner or at all herein although the time for appearance has fully expired, and a proper and sufficient affidavit showing that the defendant was not at any time during the pendency of this action and is not now in the service of the United States of America, either army, navy, or otherwise, having been filed herein and based thereon a Judge of this Court made and there was filed an order permitting the default of said defendant to be entered upon proper and sufficient showing of proper service upon said defendant, the Clerk of this Court duly entered the default of said defendant, and the Court thereupon proceeded to try said cause.

The plaintiff and a witness in his behalf were duly sworn and testified and the Court having heard such testimony and having examined the evidence in support of the allegations of the complaint herein, and the matter having been submitted to the Court for judgment, and the Court having considered the evidence and being fully advised in the premises, finds: That all the material allegations of the complaint as set forth in his complaint herein are true, to-wit: That plaintiff and defendant intermarried as alleged in said complaint; that plaintiff is and for more than six weeks preceding the commencement of this action was a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho; that the plaintiff and defendant ceased to live together as husband and wife as alleged in said complaint and ever since they so ceased to live to gether have been and now are living separate and apart; that the defendant treated plaintiff in a cruel manner and abused him and made life burdensome for him by such acts and treatment and caused him great mental suffering, humiliation and shame; that such acts were not caused by any act, word or thing on the part of the plaintiff; that there is no child of said marriage; and that all the property rights of the said parties have been fully and completely disposed of by said parties.

The Court therefore finds that plaintiff is entitled to judgment and decree of this Court dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant, on the grounds of extreme cruelty by the defendant toward the plaintiff.

IT IS THEREFORE HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the marriage between the plaintiff, Roy Milligan, and the defendant, Lillian V. Milligan, be, and the same hereby is dissolved on the grounds of extreme cruelty of the defendant toward the plaintiff, and that the said parties be and they are hereby relieved of all the obligations of said marriage and are returned to the status of unmarried persons.

JAMES E. HANSEN, Defendant,

Now on this the 12th day of July, 1949, the above entitled action came on for trial before the court without a jury, Plaintiff being present in person and by her Attorney Frank D. Ryan, the Defendant appearing not, either in person or otherwise, and the court finds that said defendant was duly and personally served with a summons and copy of complaint in Washington County, Idaho, on the 3d day of June, 1949, and that said defendant is in default. On motion of Attorney for Plaintiff, the default of said defendant is duly and regularly entered.

Thereupon the Plaintiff introduced her evidence, and the court finds therefrom that all allegations of the complaint are true, and that plaintiff and defendant were married in Ada County, Idaho, on the 25th day of March, 1947, and ever since have been and now are husband and wife. The court further finds that plaintiff and defendant on the 3d day of June, 1949, entered into an agreement in writing pursuant to which the parties settled between themselves their property rights, and defendant assigned to plaintiff and executed a Quit Claim Deed to her, covering the real estate described in that certain assignment made by defendant to plaintiff pursuant to which defendant assigned all the right, title and interest of defendant and Quit Claimed to plaintiff the real estate described in such assignment, and under the terms of said assignment such deed and executed copy of such assignment were and still is, escrowed in the Weiser branch of the Idaho First National Bank.

That there have been no children born to said marriage.

The court finds that all the material allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true, and that said plaintiff is entitled to a decree annulling the marriage existing between her and said defendant, and that at the time of said marriage between plaintiff and defendant, the said defendant was physically incapable of entering into said marriage state and that such incapacity has ever since continued and still continues and is incurable.

WHEREFORE, It is ordered, adjudged, and decreed that the said marriage entered into between plaintiff and defendant in Ada County, Idaho, on the 25th day of March, 1947, was and is without effect, and is hereby set aside and annulled and decreed to be without force and effect, and said plaintiff is hereby restored to the status of a single woman, and said defendant restored to the status of a single man.

Dated this 12th day of July, 1949.

Vs.

KENNETH E. GRIMES, Defendant

DECREE

On this the 12th day of July, 1949 the above entitled action came on for trial before the court, the plaintiff being present in person and by her attorney, Frank D. Ryan, and it appearing that said defendant was duly and regularly served with a copy of summons and complaint in said action in Malheur County, Oregon, on the 9th day of June, 1949. And that said defendant is in default and has failed to appear herein, and on the motion of Attorney for Plaintiff, the default of said defendant is duly and regularly entered. Thereupon the plaintiff introduced her evidence and the court finds therefrom that the allegations contained in plaintiff's complaint are true. That there has been born to plaintiff and defendant one child, a son by the name of Kenneth C. Grimes who is now in the care and custody of plaintiff. That plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the care and custody of said child and its care and custody is hereby awarded to plaintiff.

WHEREFORE, It is considered, ordered, adjudged and decreed that the marriage existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same is hereby dessolved, and the parties are restored to the status of single persons, and each party is enjoined from inheriting from and through the other, and plaintiff is granted the care and custody of said minor child, Kenneth C. Grimes, the defendant to have the right to visit said child at reasonable times and hours.

Dated this 12th day of July, 1949.

The above-entitled cause came on regularly to be heard before the court, without jury, on the 5th day of August, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and represented by her attorney, Paul B. Ennis, and the defendant not appearing, either in person or by attorney, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the court that summons had regularly issued and due service of process was had upon said defendant, Chris Henry Lee, Jr., and the time for answering, demurring or appearing having expired, and the default of said defendant, Chris Henry Lee, Jr., for failing to appear, answer or demur, within the time prescribed by law, having been duly entered on the 5th day of August, 1949.

WHEREUPON Evidence duly corroborated as required by law was introduced by the plaintiff from which it appears to the court that all of the allegations of plaintiff's complaint on file herein are sustained by testimony free from all objections as to competency, admissibility, and sufficiency, and from which the court finds that the said defendant for more than one year last past has been guilty of habitual intemperance and is habitually intemperant from the use of intoxicating drinks to that degree that the intemperance of said defendant reasonably inflicts a course of great mental anguish upon the said plaintiff, and from which the court further finds that the plaintiff is entitled to have the care, custody, and control of Chris Henry

Lee, III, and the case being closed and the law in the premises being understood by the court, the court at this time makes and renders this final judgment and decree:

WHEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, And this does ORDER, ADJUDGE AND DECREE:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby, forever dissolved;

2. That the care, custody and control of the minor child of plaintiff and defendant, to-wit: Chris Henry Lee, III, be, and the same is hereby, awarded to the plaintiff.

THIS CAUSE Having been brought on to be heard this 5th day of August, 1949, JAMES W. BLAINE appearing as counsel for the plaintiff herein, defendant not appearing in person, by counsel, or otherwise; personal service of the verified complaint and summons in said action having been made upon said defendant in the County of Sacramento, State of California, and the time for answering having expired and no answer, demurrer or other appearance having been filed in said cause; the defendant having failed to make an appearance in said action, the default of said defendant, FLORA M. STOLL, was duly entered herein;

That upon the complaint herein as confessed by said defendant it appears that the allegations of said plaintiff are sustained by testimony free from all legal exceptions as to its competency, admissibility and sufficiency, and said matters so alleged and proved are sufficient in law to entitle the plaintiff, CHARLES R. STOLL, to the relief demanded in the complaint and prayed for;

That plaintiff herein was a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho for more than six weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and this Court by virtue of the power and authority therein vested and in pursuance of the statutes in such cases made and provided does order, adjudge and decree that the marriage now existing between the plaintiff and defendant herein be wholly dissolved and that said parties, and each of them, are hereby released from the bonds of matrimony and all obligations thereof.

This cause came on regularly for trial by the Court without a Jury on the fifth day of August, 1949, S. D. Fairchild, appearing as attorney for the plaintiff; the defendant not appearing by attorney, or at all, and it appearing from the affidavit of S. D. Fairchild, attorney for the plaintiff, that the defendant is not now in the military service of the United States of America, and is not a person in such service as defined in Section 101 (1) of the Act of Congress approved October 17th 1940, as amended, or in any other such act, duly adopted and approved, said act being commonly known as the Soldiers' and Sailors' Relief Act of 1940, her default for failure to appear or plead in said action within the time prescribed by law, was duly and regularly entered, she having been personally served with summons in said action more than twenty days prior to the entering of said default; whereupon the plaintiff and his corroborating witness was duly sworn and examined, and testified on behalf of the plaintiff, documentary evidence was offered and admited in evidence, and the cause was finally submitted to the Court for consideration and decision, and the Court having considered the same, and being fully advised in the premises, now hereby finds and decides that all of the allegations in plaintiff's verified complaint are true, the same having been established by sufficient competent evidence duly corroborated as required by law; that the contract of the parties defining and settling the property rights of the parties, admitted in evidence in this action is just and equitable as between the said parties and that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree as prayed for in his verified complaint herein.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the bonds of matrimony hitherto existing between the plaintiff and the defendant, be, and the same are hereby dissolved, and that said parties and each of them, be, and hereby are restored to the status of single persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND DECREED, THAT THE PLAINTIFF HAVE CUSTODY OF THE minor children of the marriage, Martell F. Cook, Favon F. Cook and Martin F. DECREE OF DIVORCE

THE ABOVE ENTITLED ACTION came on regularly for hearing before the Court at Boise, Idaho, August 5, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and with his witness, and no person appearing for or on behalf of the defendant.

It appearing to the court that due and lawful service of process has been had and made upon the defendant for the time and in the manner provided by law, that the defendant has made no appearance herein, that she is in no military service and that order so establishing has been duly entered, and the default of the defendant having been regularly entered of record,

The Court proceeds to receiption of testimony on behalf of the plaintiff, andbeing fully advised, express findings of fact and conclusions of law being waived, the Court finds generally for the plaintiff and against the defendant, and finds that the plaintiff is entitled to decree of divorce, and that he should make reasonable provision for the support of the minor child of the parties.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED BY THE COURT:

1. That the plaintiff Bob Roberts and the defendant Helen Pauline Roberts be and they are absolutely divorced hereby.

2. That the plaintiff Bob Roberts pay into the hands of the Clerk of the above entitled court the sum of $25.00 per month for the support of the minor child Helen Louise Roberts, during the continuance of her minority.

This cause coming on regularly to be heard this 5th day of August, 1949, upon the complaint herein taken as confessed by the defendant (whose default for not answering had been duly entered), and the court having heard all the evidence and proofs produced herein, from which it appears that all the allegations of plaintiff's complaint are sustained by testimony free from all legal exceptions as to its competency, admissibility, and sufficiency, and it further appearing to the court that defendant was duly served with summons, and that he appeared herein by his counsel, Ariel L. Crowley, Esq., and declined to plead, and consented that his default be entered herein; and all and singular the law and the premises being by the court here understood and fully considered;

Now, therefore, it is ordered, adjudged, and decreed, and this does order, adjudge, and decree:

(1) The marriage between plaintiff and defendant be and the same is hereby dissolved, and said parties, and each of them, are freed and absolutely released from the bonds of matrimony and all the obligations thereof.

(2) The community property, wherever situated, real, personal, and mixed, owned by plaintiff and defendant, be and the same is awarded to them equally, share and share alike, as provided in their written stipulation introduced in evidenced as Plaintiff's Exhibit "A", and which is hereby made a part of this decree.

(3) The court retains jurisdiction of this action for the purpose of making an appropriate order for the disposition of the real estate described in the complaint not covered by the contract of purchase and sale referred to in plaintiff's complaint, and for the disposition of the real estate covered by said contract, or the proceeds derived from the final payment of the purchase price of the real estate covered by said contract after said final payment shall have been made or the optionee of said real estate covered by said contract shall have forfeited its right to purchase the same.

(4) As soon as the community personal property of plaintiff and defendant shall have been divided, the parties shall report the fact to the court in writing, and that each has received and is in possession of his or her one-half thereof.

(5) Plaintiff is hereby awarded possession of said real estate with the right to occupy and use the same to the exclusion of defendant until the further order of the court.

THIS CAUSE came on regularly to be heard in open Court on the 5th day of August, 1949, upon the Amended Complaint of the plaintiff, Marion E. Raspperry and the Answer of the defendant, Karl B. Raspperry, Pasco B. Carter appearing for the plaintiff and Harry Keyser appearing for defendant. That the defendant was regularly served with a copy of the amended complaint and Summons in Boise, Ada County, State of Idaho; that said defendant failed to appear or plead within the time required by law; that an affidavit was filed for and on behalf of plaintiff stating that the defendant was in the military service of the United States of America and in said affidavit motion was made that the Court appoint an attorney to represent defendant and protect his interests in the trial of this action; that by order of this Court Harry Keyser, an attorney of this Court, was appointed to represent defendant and protect his interests.

Evidence was introduced by plaintiff in support of the allegations of her complaint and plaintiff was duly cross- examined by defendant's attorney, and the cause submitted to the Court for decision, and the Court being fully advised in the premises, finds, concludes, decides and decrees:

That the plaintiff now is, and that for more than six weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action, has been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho.

2.

That said plaintiff and defendant intermarried on the 9th day of October 1941 at Rockville, Maryland, and ever since have been and now are husband and wife.

3.

That the issue of the marriage of the plaintiff and defendant are three minor children: Karla M. Raspperry, a daughter, age 5 years, Claudia A. Raspperry, a daughter, age 4 years and Michael L. Raspperry, a son, age 7 months, all of whom are in the care and custody of plaintiff in Boise, Idaho.

That for two years last past said defendant has treated plaintiff and their children with extreme cruelty and has inflicted upon her grievous mental and physical suffering, which conduct has impaired plaintiff's happiness and well being and has caused her great worry. That to continue to maintain marital relations with the defendant would serve no useful purpose and by reason thereof the said plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce.

WHEREFORE IT IS NOW ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

(a) That the marriage heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same is, hereby dissolved upon the ground of defendant's extreme cruelty to the plaintiff and her children, and the parties are, and each of them is, freed from the bonds of matrimony and that the plaintiff and defendant are restored to the status of single persons.

(b) That the plaintiff herein, Marion E. Raspperry, be, and she hereby is, awarded the custody, control, care and education of their children, Karla M. Raspperry, a daughter, age 5 years, Claudia A. Raspperry, daughter, age 4 years and Michael L. Raspperry, son, age 7 months; that the defendant shall have the right to visit his said children at all reasonable times.

(c) That the defendant is hereby ordered and directed to pay to plaintiff for the support, maintenance and education of their children during their minority dependency benefits provided for by law for dependents of those in the military service of the United States of America amounting to the sum of $30.00 per month for the first child and $20.00 per month for each of the other two children, amounting in all to the sum of $70.00 per month, payable to the plaintiff at the times provided for by law.

BETTY JEAN MARTIN, Plaintiff,
-vs-	JUDGMENT AND DECREE
EARL MARTIN, Defendant.

THIS CAUSE coming on regularly to be heard on the 6th day of August, 1949, before the Court without a jury, and the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Thos. Y. Gwilliam, and the defendant not appearing in person or by counsel and it appearing to the Court that Summons in the above-entitled action has heretofore been duly and regularly issued and due service of process had upon said defendant, and that the time for answering, demurring, or appearing has expired; that the default of said defendant, EARL MARTIN, for failing to appear, answer or demur within the time prescribed by law, has been heretofore duly entered; and an Affidavit stating the Defendant is not in the Military Service of the United States having been filed herein:

WHEREUPON, evidence duly corroborated, as required by law, was introducted by the plaintiff, from which it appears that the allegations of the plaintiff's complaint on file herein are sustained by testimony free from all ~~obligations~~ objections as to competency, admissibility and sufficiency; and it further appearing that said matters in said complaint alleged and proved are sufficient to entitle the plaintiff to the relief prayed for in said complaint, and the case being closed, and the law and premises being fully understood by the Court, the Court at this time makes and renders this final judgment and decree:

WHEREFORE, it is ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED, and this does, ORDER, ADJUDGE, AND DECREE:

1. That the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby forever dissolved.

2. That the plaintiff be, and is hereby awarded the care custody and control of the minor child, to-wit: Dennis Martin, age 4½ years, with the right in the defendant to visit said minor child at all reasonable times.

3. That the plaintiff be and is hereby awarded the sum of $40.00 per month for the care, maintenance, and education of said minor child.

The above-entitled cause came on for hearing before the Court in open Court at Boise, County of Ada, State of Idaho, on the I2th day of August, I949. The plaintiff appeared in person, and through his attorney, Benj. F. Harrison, and the defendant did not appear, either in person, or by attorney.

It appeared to the Court that the defendant had been served with process by personal service of a copy of the summons and complaint within the state as required by law and had failed to appear and answer the plaintiff's complaint filed in said cause, or otherwise plead thereto, and that no further time had been granted the defendant in which to appear and answer or plead to said cause; and it further appearing from plaintiff's affidavit and satisfactory evidence adduced that the defendant is not, and for more than sixty days prior to the commencement of this action has not been, in any branch of military service of the United States of America, or its allied nations, as contemplated by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of I940, as amended, and the Court had ordered the Clerk to enter the default of said defendant according to law.

The plaintiff introduced evidence in behalf of her complaint, which was corroborated by the testimony of one witness as to his residence, and the cause was submitted to the Court for decision, and after considering the evidence and being fully advised, the Court finds the issues in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and that defendant is guilty of extreme cruelty as alleged in plaintiff's complaint, and plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and defendant dissolved, and to be divorced from the defendant.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby, dissolved, and the plaintiff divorced from the defendant.

OLGA P. MALONE,

Plaintiff,

vs.

HAROLD B. MALONE,

Defendant.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

THE ABOVE ENTITLED ACTION came on regularly for hearing before the Court at Boise, Idaho, August 13, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and with her witness and attorney, and the defendant making no appearance whatever.

It appearing to the court that the defendant Harold B. Malone is not in any military service whatever, and that order establishing that no cause of military service exists precluding entry of default herein has been entered, and that the said defendant has been regularly served with summons and complaint in Ada County, Idaho, for the time and in the manner provided by law, that he hasmade no appearance herein, and that the time for appearance has expired, and that the default of the said defendant in the premises has heretofore been duly entered according to law,

Now, on motion of the plaintiff, the Court proceeds to reception of testimony on behalf of the plaintiff, and being fully advised, express findings of fact and conclusions of law being waived, the Court findsgenerally for the plaintiff and against the defendant, and finds the plaintiff entitled to a decree of divorce, to custody of the minor child Ronald Lee Malone, to award of support for the said minor child, to have set apart to her the real property hereinafter described as her separate estate, and to settlement of the property rights of the plaintiff and defendant in accordance with the terms of the property settlement agreement received in evidence.

IT ISTHEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED BY THE COURT:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff Olga P. Malone and the defendant Harold B. Malone be, and they are absolutely dissolved, and the said parties are divorced hereby.

2. That the plaintiff Olga P. Malone have, and she is awarded the care, custody and keeping of Ronald Lee Malone, minor child of the parties, and that the defendant Harold B. Malone shall pay to theplaintiff for the support of the said minor child, during his minority, the sum of $50.00 per month, commencing September 1, 1949, and continuing during his minority; the said defendant is given reasonable rights of visitation and to be visited by the said minor child.

3. That the plaintiff Olga P. Malone have, and there is decreed and set over to her, to be her sole and separate property henceforth, free and clear of all claims of the defendant Harold B. Malone, the following described real property, towit:

> The Northeast Quarter of the Northeast Quarter of Section 13, Township 7 South, Range 16, East Boise Meridian; and The Northwest Quarter of the Northeast Quarter of Section 13, Township 7 South, Range 16 East Boise Meridian, all in Jerome County, State of Idaho.

4. That the defendant Harold B. Malone have, and there is set over to him, and decreed to be henceforth his sole and separate property and estate, free and clear of all claims of the plaintiff Olga P. Malone, the following described real property, towit:

> The West Half of the Northwest Quarter of Section 26, Township 9 South Range 16 East of the Boise Meridian, in Twin Falls County, Idaho.

5. That the personal property of the parties shall be divided between them in conformity with the provisions of the property settlement agreement executed by the parties and received in evidence herein, which property settlement agreement is ratified and confirmed hereby.

DECREE

This matter came on for hearing on the 19th day of August, 1949, before the Court, sitting without a jury, the plaintiff having appeared in person and by her attorney, Vernon K. Smith, Esq. of Boise City, Ada County, Idaho, and the defendant having appeared neither in person nor by counsel, andit appearing from the records and files of said cause that the plaintiff filed her verified complaint alleging grounds for divorce, and that a Summons thereon was issued, which said Summons was served upon the defendant, and that said defendant did not appear and plead within the time specified, and the time for appearance having expired, a default was entered against said defendant.

Whereupon, evidence was introduced from which it appeared that the allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true, and that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief for which she prays, and it further appearing that the plaintiff is a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho, which said fact was duly corroborated;

NOW THEREFORE, It is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE and DECREE, that the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between Colene Hicks and Gerald Hicks are forever dissolved, and that each said party is absolutely freed from the obligations thereof.

The above entitled cause came on regularly to be heard and tried before the Court at Boise, Ada County, Idaho, on the 19th day of August, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Pete Leguineche, and the defendant not appearing in person and otherwise;

And upon said hearing it satisfactorily appearing to the said Court that the said defendant, George W. Harvey, was duly and regularly served with the summons in the above entitled action together with and attached to a copy of the complaint on file in the above entitled action and the said defendant having failed to appear, answer, or otherwise plead to the complaint of plaintiff on file herein, and the time for so answering, or otherwise pleading to the said complaint having expired;

And it satisfactorily appearing to the Court that the said defendant is not in the military service of the United States of America in any capacity, whatsoever, and the default of the said defendant, George W. Harvey having been duly and regularly entered, and the Court having heard the testimony introduced in behalf of the said plaintiff and in support of her said complaint, and the cause having been thereupon submitted, the Court finds the issues in favor of said plaintiff and against the said defendant and finds that the said plaintiff is entitled to a divorce from the said defendant on the grounds of extreme cruelty;

The Court further finds that the said plaintiff has resided in the State of Idaho for more than six continuous weeks immediately preceding the commencement of the action;

The Court further finds that plaintiff and defendant have acquired and do now own a joint property as follows:

Real Property

The residence home of plaintiff and defendant located at 3920 Cassia Street, Boise, Ada County, Idaho, more particularly described as follows, to-wit:

> Beginning at a point 574.4 feet westerly of the S.E. Quarter of S.E. Quarter of S.W. Quarter of N.W. Quarter of Section Sixteen (16) Township Three (3) N. Range 2 E. of B.M., thence northerly 148.1 feet to an iron pin, thence westerly 89.3 feet to an iron pin, thence southerly 119.3 feet to an iron pin, easterly 85.0 feet to the place of beginning, and further known as Lot One (1), Rhodes Subdivision in Ada County, Idaho.

Personal Property

Furniture and fixtures located in and upon said residence hereinabove described.

A trust fund created from the said defendant's earnings from Falk's Department Store and held in trust at the Idaho First National Bank, Boise Branch, Boise, Idaho, in the approximate sum of Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000.00);

A checking account in the Continental State Bank of Boise, Idaho, in the approximate sum of One Hundred Fifty (150.00) Dollars;

A 1941 Dodge Coupe.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, adjudged and decreed that the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between plaintiff and defendant be forever dissolved and set aside and that plaintiff be forever divorced from said defendant;

That the said plaintiff have as her sole and separate property the residence home of plaintiff and defendant hereinabove described, together with all of the furniture and fixtures located in the said residence property, and the checking account in the Continental State Bank.

It is further hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed that the said defendant have as his sole and separate property the said trust fund created for his benefit from his earnings from Falk's Department Store and held in the Idaho First National Bank, Boise Branch, Boise, Idaho, and the said 1941 Dodge Coupe.

JUDGMENT AND DECREE

THIS CAUSE coming on regularly to be heard on the 19th day of August, 1949, before the Court without a Jury, and the plaintiff, appearing in person and by her attorney, Thos. Y. Gwilliam, and the defendant not appearing in person or by counsel and it appearing to the Court that Summons in the above-entitled action has heretofore been duly and regularly issued and due service of process had upon said defendant, and that the time for answering, demurring, or appearing has expired; that the default of said defendant, JOHN W. TAYLOR, for failing to appear, answer or demur within the time prescribed by law, has been heretofore duly entered; and an Affidavit stating the Defendant is not in the Military Service of the United States having been filed herein;

WHEREUPON, evidence duly corroborated, as required by law, was introduced by the plaintiff, from which it appears that the allegations of the plaintiff's complaint on file herein are sustained by testimony free from all obligations as to competency, admissibility and sufficiency; and it further appearing that said matters in said complaint alleged and proved are sufficient to entitle the plaintiff to the relief prayed for in said complaint, and the case being closed, and the law and premises being fully understood by the Court, the Court at this time makes and renders this final judgment and decree:

WHEREFORE, it is ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE, and DECREE:

1. That the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby forever dissolved.

2. That the plaintiff be, and is hereby awarded the care, custody and control of the minor children, to-wit: John Teddy, age 5 years and Roger ~~Willen~~ Willard, age 3 years, with the right in the defendant to visit said minor children at all reasonable times.

3. That the plaintiff be, and is hereby awarded the sum of $20.00 per month for the care, maintenance, and education of said minor children.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came on regularly to be heard on the 19th day of August, 1949, upon the verified complaint of the plaintiff herein; and Clarence T. Ward, Attorney-at-Law, appearing for plaintiff and no one appearing for the defendant, and it appearing to the Court that the said defendant, William Hayes Allen, was regularly served with summons issued in this action, and the default of the defendant for failure to answer plaintiff's complaint having heretofore been duly entered in this action, the Court did proceed to hear the evidence submitted on the part of the plaintiff in support of the allegations of the complaint, and proofs having been regularly taken herein, from which it appears that all of the allegations of the complaint are sustained by evidence free from all exceptions as to its competency, admissibility or sufficiency, and it appearing that said matters, so alleged and proven, are sufficient to entitled the plaintiff to the relief prayed for in the complaint, and it appearing that said plaintiff has been a resident of the State of Idaho for a period of more than six full weeks next preceding the commencement of this action, and the Court having heard the evidence and being fully advised in the premises, findings of fact and conclusions of law being duly waived, now, on the motion of Clarence T. Ward, attorney for plaintiff,

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony existing between the said Helen W. Allen, plaintiff, and William Hayes Allen, defendant, be and the same are hereby dissolved and the said plaintiff and defendant and each of them be, and they hereby are, absolutely released from the bonds of matrimony and all obligations thereof;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the plaintiff, Helen W. Allen, be and she is hereby given the care, custody and control of said minor child, namely, Barbara Hayes Allen, with the right in the defendant to visit said minor child at reasonable times and places.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

No.22309

The above-entitled cause came on for hearing before the Court in Open Court at Boise, County of Ada, State of Idaho, on the I9th day of August, I949. The plaintiff appeared in person, and through his attorney, Benj. F. Harrison, and the defendant did not appear, either in person, or by attorney.

It appeared to the Court that the defendant had been served with process by personal service of a copy of the summons and complaint within the state as required by law and had failed to appear and answer the plaintiff's complaint filed in said cause, or otherwise plead thereto, and that no further time had been granted the defendant in which to appear and answer or plead to said cause; and it further appearing from plaintiff's affidavit and satisfactory evidence adduced that the defendant is not, and for more than sixty days prior to the commencement of this action has not been, in any branch of military service of the United States of America, or its allied nations, as contemplated by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of I940, as amended, and the Court had ordered the Clerk to enter the default of said defendant according to law.

The plaintiff introduced evidence in behalf of his complaint, which was corroborated by the testimony of one witness as to his residence, and the cause was submitted to the Court for decision, and after considering the evidence and being fully advised, the Court finds the issues in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and that defendant is guilty of extreme cruelty as alleged in plaintiff's complaint, and plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and defendant dissolved, and to be divorced from the defendant; and that it will be to the best interests of the minor child of the parties hereto if it remains in the custody of the plaintiff.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

(Ist) That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same hereby are, dissolved, and the plaintiff divorced from the defendant; and

(2nd) That the plaintiff have the care, custody and control of the minor child of the parties hereto, Cheryl June Marley, until further order of this Court, and the defendant to have the right to visit said child at all reasonable times.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS AGREED BETWEEN THE PARTIES HERETO, as follows:

1. That the parties hereto own as community property:

All of Lots 18, 19, 20 and 21, Block No. 6
Finstur's Addition to the City of Salmon, Lemhi County, Idaho,

subject to a certain real estate mortgage. That the fair market value of the property is $5000.00, and that the equity of the parties therein is the sum of $500.00. That the first party shall pay the second party the sum of $250.00 on or before 30 days after the execution of this agreement and immediately thereafter, the second party shall make, execute, acknowledge and deliver to the first party a good and sufficient deed conveying her interest therein to the first party.

2. Second party shall be entitled to, as her separate property, the personal property belonging to the parties hereto, consisting of the following items:

Dining Room Set - table, buffett, 6 chairs, 1 arm or hostess chair; Bed, springs, inter-spring mattress, chest of drawers, dressing table; chrome breakfast set, table, and 4 chairs, cook stove, oil burner, 2 end tables, 1 floor lamp - 7 lights., also, all of second party's personal effects and the personal effects belonging to said minor children.

3. First party shall have and hold as his sole and separate property, free from any community interest, all other community property belonging to the parties hereto.

4. That, until modified by mutual agreement or by order of a Court of competent jurisdiction, the second party shall have the care and custody of the minor children: ANITA JOY GOODMAN and PATRICIA RAE GOODMAN, from and after the date of the execution hereof, with the right reserved in the first party to visit the said children at any and all suitable, fit and proper times, after reasonable notice given of said visitations, and to have the children with him at such times as the second party may consider proper.

That the first party will give possession of the children to the second party upon the execution hereof, or immediately thereafter.

That until the said children shall have arrived at the age of eighteen years, the first party is to pay to the second party the sum of $25.00 per calendar month for the support of each child, payable as follows: $25.00 on the 15th and $25.00 on the 30th day of each month, for the older and younger of said children, respectively; and that the first party will pay for medical and hospital services rendered the said children, or either of them, in cases of serious illness.

That payment of support money and expenses of serious illness shall be subject to any changed conditions of the parties hereto and their ability to care for said children.

5. It is further understood and agreed, that each of the parties hereto will make, execute and deliver, to the other party or to any prospective purchasers of said real or personal property, any bill of sale or deeds necessary to carry out the terms and conditions of this agreement, in selling and disposing of said property and dividing the proceeds thereof between the parties hereto.

6. That any and all property acquired by either of the parties hereto from and after the date hereof shall be the sole and separate property of the one so acquiring the same, and each of the parties hereto respectively grants to the other all such future acquisitions of property as the sole and separate property of the one so acquiring the same.

7. That each of said parties shall have an immediate right to dispose of or bequeath by will, his or her respective interests in and to all property belonging to him or to her from and after the date hereof, and the said right shall extend to all of the aforesaid dates, hereof, and the same right shall extend to all of the aforesaid future acquisitions of the property, as well as to all property set over or reserved to either of the parties hereto under this Agreement.

8. That said parties hereto each hereby waives any and all right to the estate of the other left at his or her death, and forever quit-claims any and all right to share in the same of the other by the laws of succession, and the said parties hereby release one to the other all rights to be administrator or administratrix, or executor or executrix, of the estate of the other, and hereby release and waive all right to inherit under any will of the other, and each of the said parties hereto waives any and all right to homestead in the real property of the other, and the said parties hereby waive any and all right to the estate or any interest in the estate of the other for family allowance by way of inheritance or otherwise, and from the date of this agreement said waiver of either of the parties hereto in the estate of the other party shall be effective and they and each of them shall have all the rights of single persons and maintain the relation of such toward each other.

9. In case any action or proceedings shall hereafter be commenced in any jurisdiction by or in behalf of either of the parties in which a judgment or decree of divorce or of separation shallbe sought or made, or entered in favor of either party, it is hereby covenanted and agreed by and between the parties hereto that neither party will in any manner apply for a modification of the terms of this agreement and that this agreement shall be filed as a part of such proceedings and shall be subject to the approval of the Court and as approved made a part of any decree entered in such proceedings and that no application shall be made by the wife for alimony, counsel fees or Court costs in any such proceedings, and it is further agreed that this agreement and all of its terms and provisions shall survive and continue in force and effect whether or not a decree of divorce or separation shall ever be made in any action between the parties hereto in any jurisdiction; it being understood and agreed between the parties hereto that the provisions hereof are in full satisfaction of the obligations of the parties hereto toward each other and of the estate of each of them toward each other, and in any and every event including any and all claims by the wife against the husband for alimony and support and maintenance.

10. Each of the parties to this agreement hereby solemnly and specifically avers that the foregoing agreement has been entered into without undue influence, fraud, coercion or misrepresentation or for any cause or reason whatsoever except as herein specified.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have hereunto set their hands and seals, the day and year first above written.

William E. Goodman
Party of the First Part.

MARY L. GOODMAN

be and such agreement is hereby ratified, confirmed and approved.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, as follows:

That the Plaintiff is awarded the custody of the minor children of Plaintiff and Defendant, namely, ANITA JOY GOODMAN, whose birth date is April 25th, 1940, and PATRICIA RAE GOODMAN, whose birthdate is May 14th, 1945. The Defendant shall have the right to visit said children at any and all suitable, fit and proper times, after reasonable notice given of said visitations, and to have the children with him at such reasonable, fit and proper times as the parties may feel just.

That the Defendant shall pay to the Plaintiff for the support of said children the sum of $25.00 per calendar month for the support of each child, payable as follows: TWENTY-FIVE DOLLARS AND NO/100($25.00) on the fifteenth (15th), and TWENTY-FIVE DOLLARS AND NO/100 ($25.00) on the thirtieth day of each month, for the older and younger of said children, respectively, and that the Defendant will pay for medical and hospital services rendered to said children or either of them in cases of serious illness. That said monthly support of said children and medical and hospital services to be rendered, said children, shall be paid by the Defendant until the said children shall have arrived at the age of eighteen years.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

THE ABOVE ENTITLED action came on regularly to be heard before the court at Boise, Idaho, August 26, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and with his attorney Ariel L. Crowley, the defendant making no appearance whatever.

It appearing to the court that due and lawful service of summons and complaint has been had and made for the time and in the manner provided by law, that the defendant has made no appearance within the time limited by law, that the defendant is in no military service whatever, and that order establishing that no cause of military service exists precluding entry of default has been entered, and that the default of the defendant in the premises has been duly entered,

Now, on motion of the plaintiff, the court proceeds to reception of testimony on behalf of the plaintiff, and being fully advised, express findings of fact and conclusions of law being waived, the court finds generally for the plaintiff and against the defendant, and finds that the plaintiff is entitled to decree of divorce upon the ground of no cohabitation for more than five years before the commencement of this action.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED BY THE COURT:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff Murray Hardin and the defendant Pauline Hardin be, and they are absolutely dissolved, and the said parties are finally divorced hereby.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

On this 26th day of August, 1949, this cause came regularly on for trial in open court, the plaintiff appearing in person and with her witnesses and being represented by Geo. H. van de Steeg, her attorney of record in the action, and the defendant appearing not at all, and it appearing to the court from the records and files of the cause that said defendant has been duly served according to law with the summons in this action, and that he has failed to appear, answer or otherwise plead to the complaint of the plaintiff herein, and that the time allowed by law for him so to do has now fully expired, and that said defendant is in default for want of appearance; and it further appearing that said defendant is not engaged in the military and/or naval service of the United States within the provisions of the Act of Congress of 1940, and its amendments, known as the Soldier's and Sailor's Civil Relief Act; now, therefore, on motion of Geo. H. van de Steeg, attorney for said plaintiff:

It is hereby ordered and decreed that said defendant is in default and judgment of default is hereby rendered against him, and the Clerk of this Court is hereby directed to enter judgment of default against the said defendant upon the minutes and in the records of this Court in this cause.

AND THEREUPON, the Court proceeded with the trial of the cause, and plaintiff and her witnesses were duly sworn to testify, and did testify, and the Court being now fully advised in the premises finds that the allegations contained in plaintiff's complaint are true, and that the plaintiff is entitled to a divorce on the grounds of extreme cruelty.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the said plaintiff and the said defendant, be, and hereby are, dissolved and set at naught and the said plaintiff is hereby granted a decree of divorce against the said defendant.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the plaintiff's maiden name, to-wit: Twyla J. Suiter, is hereby restored to the said plaintiff.

Done in open Court this 26th day of August, 1949.

The above entitled cause came on regularly to be heard and tried before the Court at Boise, Ada County, Idaho, on the 26th day of August, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Pete Leguineche, and the defendant not appearing in person or otherwise;

And upon said hearing it satisfactorily appearing to the said Court that the said defendant, William Lyells, was duly and regularly served with the summons in the above entitled action together with and attached to a copy of the complaint on file in the above entitled action and the said defendant having failed to appear, answer, or otherwise plead to the complaint of plaintiff on file herein, and the time for so answering, or otherwise pleading to the said complaint having expired;

And it satisfactorily appearing to the Court that the said defendant is not in the military service of the United States of America in any capacity, whatsoever, and the default of the said defendant, William Lyells, having been duly and regularly entered, and the Court having heard the testimony introduced in behalf of the said plaintiff and in support of her said complaint, and the cause having been thereupon submitted, the Court finds the issues in favor of said plaintiff and against the said defendant and finds that the said plaintiff is entitled to a divorce from the said defendant on the grounds of mutual separation without cohabitation for a period of more than five continuous years.

The Court further finds that the said plaintiff has resided in the State of Idaho for more than six continuous weeks immediately preceding the commencement of the action;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between plaintiff and defendant be forever dissolved and set aside and that plaintiff be forever divorced from said defendant.

JUDGMENT AND DECREE

THIS CAUSE coming on regularly to be heard on the 26th day of August, 1949, before the Court without a jury, and the plaintiff, appearing in person and by his attorney, Thos. Y. Gwilliam, and the defendant not appearing in person or by counsel and it appearing to the Court that Summons in the above-entitled action has heretofore been duly and regularly issued and due service of process had upon said defendant, and that the time for answering, demurring, or appearing has expired; that the default of said defendant, GRACE E. HALL, for failing to appear, answer or demur within the time prescribed by law, has been heretofore duly entered; and an Affidavit stating the Defendant is not in the Military Service of the United States having been filed herein;

WHEREUPON, evidence duly corroborated, as required by law, was introduced by the plaintiff, from which it appears that the allegations of the plaintiff's complaint on file herein are sustained by testimony free from all obligations as to competency, admissibility and sufficiency; and it further appearing that said matters in said complaint alleged and proved are sufficient to entitle the plaintiff to the relief prayed for in said complaint, and the case being closed and the law and premises being fully understood by the Court, the Court at this time makes and renders this final judgment and decree:

WHEREFORE, it is ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE, and DECREE:

1. That the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby forever dissolved.

2. That the plaintiff be awarded the balance due on the real property sold at Pocatello and that the defendant be awarded the $1,000.00 cash and household furniture and 1940 Ford sedan.

JUDGMENT AND DECREE

THIS CAUSE coming on regularly to be heard on the 26th day of August, 1949, before the Court without a jury, and the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, W. W. WANDER, and the defendant not appearing in person or by counsel, and it appearing to the Court that summons, in the above entitled action has heretofore been duly and regularly issued and due service of process had upon said defendant, and that the time for answering, demurring, or appearing has expired; that the default of said defendant, RONALD McCLELLAN, for failing to appear, answer or demur within the time prescribed by law, has been heretofore duly entered; and an affidavit stating that the defendant is not in the Military Service of the United States having been filed herein.

WHEREUPON, evidence duly corroborated, as required by law, was introduced by the plaintiff, from which it appears to the Court that the allegations of plaintiff's complaint on file herein are sustained by testimony free from all obligations as to competency, admissibility and sufficiency; especially that the defendant has deserted the said minor child and has absolutely failed to contribute anything toward the support of said child, and it further appearing that said matters in said complaint so alleged and proved are sufficient to entitle the plaintiff to the relief prayed for in said complaint, and the case being closed, and the law and premises being fully understood by the Court, the Court at this time makes and renders this final judgment and decree:

WHEREFORE, It is ORDERED, AJUDGED AND DECREED, and this does, ORDER ADJUDGE, AND DECREE:

#22323

The above-entitled cause came on for hearing before the Court in Open Court at Boise, County of Ada, State of Idaho, on the 26th day of August, 1949. The plaintiff appeared in person, and through her attorney, Benj. F. Harrison, and the defendant did not appear, either in person, or by attorney.

It appeared to the Court that the defendant had been served with process by personal service of a copy of the summons and complaint within the state as required by law and had failed to appear and answer the plaintiff's complaint filed in said cause, or otherwise plead thereto, and that no further time had been granted the defendant in which to appear and answer or plead to said cause; and it further appearing from plaintiff's affidavit and satisfactory evidence adduced that the defendant is not, and for more than sixty days prior to the commencement of this action has not been, in any branch of military service of the United States of America, or its allied nations, as contemplated by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, and the Court had ordered the Clerk to enter the default of said defendant accoring to law.

The plaintiff introduced evidence in behalf of her complaint, which was corroborated by the testimony of one witness as to her residence, and the cause was submitted to the Court for decision, and after considering the evidence and being fully advised, the Court finds the issues in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and that defendant is guilty of wilful desertion and wilful neglect as alleged in plaintiff's complaint, that the plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the custody and control of the minor children of the parties hereto, that defendant is able to and should contribute to the support and maintenance of said children, and plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and defendant dissolved, and to be divorced from the defendant.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED as follows:

(1st) That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby, dissolved, and the plaintiff divorced from the defendant; and

(2nd) That the plaintiff have the care, custody and control of the minor children of the parties hereto, namely, Dennis King Mentell and Marlene Rae Mentell, subject to defendant's right to have said children visit with him during the school vacation months of June, July and August of each year; and

(3rd) That the defendant shall pay to the plaintiff the sum of ten ($10.00) dollars per week for the support and maintenance of each said child, and the first payment to be made on the first Tuesday following the date of this decree, and on each and every Tuesday thereafter until said child, or children, reaches the age of majority, dies or is married, except for such times that said child, or children, may be visiting with the defendant; and

(4th) That the separation agreement made and entered into by the parties hereto is hereby approved and confirmed.

Frances Jennings, Defendant.

* * * *

In this action, the defendant Frances Jennings having been regularly served with process and having failed to appear in answer to the plaintiff's complaint herein and the legal time for answering having expired and it appearing that the defendant is not in the Military Service, the default of said defendant in the premises having been duly entered according to law and the matter coming on this day to be heard and witnesses being sworn and testified on the part of the plaintiff and it appearing from the evidence that the allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true and during the married life of plaintiff and defendant, defendant has treated plaintiff with extreme cruelty and inflicted upon plaintiff, grevious mental worry and suffering to the degree that it has defeated the objects and purposes of matrimony and that plaintiff, because thereof is entitled to a decree of divorce.

And it further appearing that there are three minor children, the issue of said marriage as alleged in said complaint and that the defendant is not a fit or proper person to have the custody of said children and that plaintiff if given the custody of said minor children is capable and able to afford such children a proper home and proper care and it is for the best interests of said minor children that the children be awarded to the plaintiff and it further appearing that the community automobile is necessary for plaintiff to go back and forth to his work and that the furniture is required for the proper care and keeping of the minor children.

WHEREFORE, by reason of the law and premises aforesaid, it is ordered, adjudged and decreed that the marriage between the plaintiff, Verle Jennings and

This cause came on regularly for hearing before the Honorable Isaac McDougall, District Judge of the above Court, at Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho, on the 1st day of August, 1949. Plaintiff appeared in person and with his counsel, Black & Black of Pocatello, Idaho; defendant did not appear, either in person or by counsel.

IT APPEARED To the Court that Summons and Complaint in this cause were duly and regularly served by personal service thereof upon the defendant, but that said defendant failed within the time allowed by law, or at all, to appear and plead to or answer the Complaint of the plaintiff herein; and

IT FURTHER APPEARED That the defendant is not in the Armed Forces of the United States and that the default of the defendant for failing to appear and plead was duly and regularly entered. Evidence both oral and documentary was thereupon introduced for and on behalf of plaintiff by plaintiff and a witness, free from all objections as to its competency, and from the evidence the Court finds that all of the material allegations of plaintiff's Complaint are true and correct and such are found to be the facts, and that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in the Complaint.

IT FURTHER APPEARED That subsequent to the filing of the Complaint herein, the parties to this action entered into a written Stipulation, by the terms of which they agreed upon the custody of the minor child, alimony and support of the minor child, which Stipulation has been presented to the Court, and the Court further orders that said Stipulation is approved by the Court, and the terms thereof are hereinafter incorporated in this Decree; and the making of Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law were waived by the default of the defendant.

NOW, THEREFORE, The Court being fully advised in the premises;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby dissolved, and that plaintiff be, and he is hereby awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant.

2. That the care, custody and control of the minor child namely, Claudia Marie Christensen, now aged 19 months, be, and the same is hereby awarded to the defendant with the right on the part of plaintiff to visit said child at all reasonable times and places.

3. That the plaintiff is hereby required to pay to defendant for the support and maintenance of said minor child, the sum of $35.00 per month, the first payment to be made August 15, 1949, and a like sum to be paid on the 15th of each and every month thereafter until said child reaches the age of 18 years, or until further order of the Court.

This cause came on regularly to be heard before the undersigned District Judge in his Chambers at Pocatello, Idaho, on the 2nd day of August, 1949.

The plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorneys, Jones, Pomeroy & Jones, and no one appearing for or in behalf of the above named defendant, and it appearing to the Court that the defendant was duly served with a summons and complaint in said action and failed to appear, plead or answer to the complaint within the time provided by law or at all.

UPON MOTION of the attorneys for the plaintiff, default was entered against the defendant.

It appearing to the court that no evidence was offered for and on behalf of defendant and evidence being offered and received for and in support of the complaint of plaintiff. Evidence being closed, the case was submitted to the court for consideration and decision and after due deliberation thereon the court ordered that judgment be entered in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant in accordance with the prayer of the said complaint, and that all the allegations in said complaint of the plaintiff are true and such are found to be the fact.

NOW, THEREFORE, the law and the evidence being by this court fully understood and considered;

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED (1) that the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant be and they hereby are absolutely dissolved and held for naught and each of the parties restored to the status of a single person; (2) that the care, custody and control of the minor children of the parties hereto, namely Janet Blackburn, of the age of approximately three years; and Bruce W. JOSEPH K. NELSON and FIRST SECURITY BANK OF IDAHO, N. A., PRESTON BRANCH, a corporation,)

Defendant.)

This cause came on regularly for hearing before the Honorable Isaac McDougall, District Judge of the above Court, at Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho, on the 3rd day of August, 1949. Plaintiff appeared in person and with her counsel, Black & Black of Pocatello, Idaho; the defendant, Joseph K. Nelson, has heretofore appeared through and by his counsel of records, Ben Johnson, of Preston, Idaho; That the defendant, Joseph K. Nelson, has by Stipulation withdrawn his Demurrer and refused to plead further and his default in the premises has been duly and regularly entered, and the case being now ready for trial;

Evidence was offered on behalf of the plaintiff, both oral and documentary, and in support of all of the material allegations of her Complaint, and her evidence having been corroborated. Counsel for the respective parties Stipulated thewaiving of the making of Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and the Court being fully advised in the premises finds that the Summons and Complaint in this cause were duly and regularly served upon the defendant and that the defendant appeared by filing a Demurrer, that the Demurrer was withdrawn and defendant refused to plead further and his default has been entered according to law, and the case has been submitted to the Court;

THE COURT FURTHER FINDS That the defendant is not in the Armed Forces of the United States, and that the evidence offered by the plaintiff is sufficient to sustain all the material allegations of her Complaint, and that she is entitled to relief.

THE COURT FURTHER FINDS That subsequent to the filing of the Complaint herein, the parties to this action entered into a written Stipulation by the terms of which they agreed upon a division of the community property, custody of the minor children, support for the minor children, alimony, attorneys fees and Court costs, and the Court finds that said Stipulation is just and proper, and hereby approves the same, and the terms thereof are hereinafter incorporated in this Decree, and the Court being now fully advised in the premises, and the matter having been fully submitted to the Court:

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby dissolved, and that the plaintiff is awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant, and the parties are restored to their status as single persons.

2. That the care, custody and control of the three minor children of the parties, namely, Sarah Meredith Nelson, now aged 15 years, Bart Nelson, now aged 10 years, and Bruce Nelson, now aged 10 years, is hereby awarded to the plaintiff during their minority, subject however to the right of the said defendant to visit said children at all reasonable times, and to have said children visit with him during the summer school vacation each year, during half of said vacation, and at such other times as may be mutually agreeable.

3. That the defendant is hereby required to pay to plaintiff for the support and maintenance of the said minor children, the sum of $25.00 per month, the first payment to be made September 1, 1949, and a like payment to be made on the 1st of each and every month thereafter until said children reach the age of majority.

4. That there is hereby awarded to plaintiff as her sole and separate property, the following described property situated in Preston, Franklin County, more particularly described as follows, to-wit:

REAL PROPERTY:

Commencing at a point 40 rods West and 16 rods North of the Southeast corner of the SW¼ of Section 23, Twp. 15 S. R. 39 E.B.M.; thence North 7 rods; thence East 12 rods; thence South 7 rods; thence West 12 rods to the place of beginning.

Together with the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in anywise appertaining.

PERSONAL PROPERTY:

All of the household goods and furniture situated in and upon said above-described real property.

All bank accounts standing in plaintiff's name containing funds which plaintiff has earned herself.

1941 Chevrolet automobile now in plaintiff's possession.

That the foregoing award of property to the plaintiff shall be in lieu of and in final settlement of all claims of the plaintiff against the defendant for rights in the community property, alimony, Court costs, attorneys fees, and in partial settlement of plaintiff's claim against the defendant for support of the children of the plaintiff and the defendant.

5. That the Restraining Order now entered in the within action, restraining the defendant from withdrawing any moneys on deposit in the First Security Bank of Preston, Idaho, in his name, is hereby dissolved, and that all of said moneys now on deposit in said bank in the name of said defendant, are hereby awarded to defendant as his sole and separate property, together with any and all moneys or personal property now in defendant's possession, wherever they may be situated.

6. That the 1941 Chevrolet automobile now in defendant's possession, is hereby awarded to the defendant as his sole and separate property.

This matter came duly on for hearing before the undersigned District Judge of the above entitled court, in his Chambers in Pocatello, Idaho, on the 6th day of ~~July~~ August, 1949.

The plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, F. E. Tydeman.

The defendant failed to appear, either in person or by his attorney.

It appearing that a duly verified complaint was filed in the above entitled matter, and that thereupon a summons was issued; and,

It further appearing that the said summons was duly served upon the defendant, and the said summons with due proof of service thereof has been filed in the above entitled court, and is now on file herein, and that the defendant has failed to appear and plead to the said complaint within the time specified in said summons and is in default therefor; and

It further appearing that the clerk of the above entitled court has duly entered the defendant's default, and the plaintiff being entitled to proceed with proof of the allegations of his complaint, testimony was heard by the court in support of said complaint, and from said testimony it appears that the allegations thereof are true;

That for more than six weeks prior to the filing of the said complaint herein and at the time of the hearing, the plaintiff was an actual bona fide resident of the State of Idaho; that the parties hereto were married at Rexburg, Idaho, on the fifth day of April, 1922, and have been husband and wife since that date; that the community property of the parties consisted of household furniture and house moving equipment; that there is one minor child of the parties hereto, to-wit, Donald Jensen; that the said child is now in the custody of the plaintiff; that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty within the meaning of the statutes relative to grounds for divorce in the State of Idaho.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the parties be dissolved and the parties restored to the status of single persons.

That the custody of the child of the parties, to-wit, Donald Jensen, is hereby awarded to the plaintiff; and the defendant is ordered to pay to the plaintiff for the support and maintenance of the said minor child the sum of $25.00, and in addition thereto the sum of $25.00 per month beginning this day.

That all of the household furniture belonging to the parties hereto is awarded to the plaintiff, and the plaintiff do have and recover from the defendant the sum of $1,000.00.

That the plaintiff do have and recover from the defendant the sum of $100.00 which is hereby determined to be a reasonable sum to be allowed as an attorney's fee and the sum of $16.40 for her costs and disbursements herein.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came regularly on for trial before the Honorable L. E. Glennon, Judge of the above entitled court, sitting without a jury, at Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho, on the 15th day of August, 1949. Merrill & Merrill, Attorneys at Law, appeared for and on behalf of the plaintiff. The defendant did not appear either in person or by attorney. It appeared to the Court that the defendant had been duly and regularly served with summons in this action in the State of Idaho in form and manner provided by law and that he failed within the time allowed by law or at all to appear and plead herein, and his default for thus failing to appear has been duly and regularly entered; and

It further appeared to the Court that the defendant is not in the military or naval service of the United States of America within the purview of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, but is engaged in civilian life. Evidence was thereupon introduced in support of said complaint, and from which evidence it appears that all of the allegations contained therein are true and correct and that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief sought and in the manner hereinafter adjudged.

The Court being now fully advised in the law and the premises:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED, AND THIS DOES ORDER, ADJUDGE, AND DECREE That the marriage existing between the plaintiff, Helen Young Anderson, and the defendant, Glenn A. Anderson, which marriage was solemnized at Twin Bridges, Montana, on May 5, 1945, be, and the same is, hereby dissolved and held for naught, and that the parties thereto are freed from all obligations thereof, and each party is hereby restored to the status of a single person.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED, AND THIS DOES ORDER, ADJUDGE, AND DECREE, that the care, custody and control of the minor children of said marriage, to-wit: Glenna Jane Anderson and James Deane Anderson, be, and the same, hereby awarded to the plaintiff, Helen Young Anderson, with the right nevertheless on the part of the defendant to visit said minor children at reasonable times and under reasonable conditions.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the defendant, Glenn A. Anderson, pay to the plaintiff, Helen Young Anderson, for the support of said minor children, the sum of $50.00 per month baginning September 1, 1949, and continuing until further order of the court, with the right nevertheless on the part of the court to change said amount if and when conditions of the parties change and such changes deemed advisable.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the plaintiff, Helen Young Anderson, shall have as her sole and separate property freed from all claims of the defendant therein, all of the household and kitchen furniture and personal effects and all property which may be deemed community property now in the possession of the said plaintiff and that the said defendant may have as his sole and separate property, such personal property as is in his possession.

vs.) JUDGMENT AND DECREE THOMAS HOBSON,)
Defendant.)

The above cause came on for trial before the Honorable IsaacMcDougall, District Judge, on the 16th day of August, 1949, at 11:30 a.m. in accordance with the Stipulation of plaintiff and defendant as to the time of said trial; the defendant filed his answer to the complaint, and the cause was at issue and ready for trial at the time set. Plaintiff appeared in person and with her counsel, Black & Black, of Pocatello, Idaho, and defendant did not appear, but was represented by his counsel, O.R. Baum and Darwin Brown of Pocatello, Idaho. Plaintiff and her witness were duly sworn and testified in support of the allegations of the complaint, and a Stipulation making a settlement between the parties subject to the approval of the court as to their property, suit money, alimony, and custody and support of the minor child of the parties, was introduced in evidence, and the court finds from the evidence that all of the allegations of plaintiff's complaint have been proven by evidence free and clear of all legal objections. No evidence was offered by the defendant. The terms of the Stipulation between the parties were approved; and the defendant is not engaged in any branch of the army or military service coming under the Soldiers and Sailors Relief Act; and that the defendant is engaged in civil occupation; that the making and entering of formal Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law were waived by Stipulation of the parties filed herein; and the court being fully advised of the settlement between the parties per the terms of the Stipulation and the matters therein contained.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are, hereby dissolved, and that the plaintiff be, and she is, hereby awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant.

2. That the custody of the minor child, namely, Keith Robson, now aged 6 years, be, and is, awarded to the plaintiff, Claire Robson, with the right on the part of the defendant, Thomas Robson, to have said child with him during the summer vacation from school.

3. That at all times when said minor child is with the plaintiff, Claire Robson, the defendant shall pay to plaintiff for the care, support, and maintenance of said child, the sum of $30.00 per month payable in advance on the first day of each month hereafter until said child arrives at the age of 18 years, or until further order of the court.

4. That the following described real property, to-wit:

> All of Lot 21, Block 5 Townsite of North Pocatello, in Bannock County, Idaho, according to the official plat thereof on file in the office of the County Recorder of Bannock County, Idaho, together with the improvements thereon and belonging to the parties hereto, has now been sold by the parties and they have deeded their interest in the same to the purchasers, Milton D. Strawn and Kathleen C. Strawn and it is decreed that all of the proceeds of said sale, be, and they are hereby awarded to the plaintiff as her sole and separate property.

5. That there is further awarded to the plaintiff as her sole and separate property all of the household goods and furniture belonging to the parties, subject to the outstanding indebtedness thereon, which plaintiff shall assume and pay, and defendant shall have no further right, title, or interest in or to any of said property or any part thereof.

6. That there is awarded to defendant as his sole and separate property, a certain Buick automobile, 1941 model, now owned by the parties, and defendant assumes and pays the balance now owing and unpaid on the purchase price or liens against said car.

This cause came on regularly to be heard before the undersigned District Judge sitting at chambers at Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho, this 18th day of August, 1949, the said plaintiff appearing in person and by her counsel, F. M. Bistline, and the defendant not appearing either in person or by counsel;

And it appearing to the court that the said defendant has heretofore on the 6th day of August, 1949, accepted service of summons, together with copy of the complaint in said action, and filed a voluntary appearance in writing with the clerk of the above entitled court in the above entitled cause, consenting that said cause could be heard and tried and judgment rendered at any time fixed by the court or the judge thereof, and the court having fixed this time for the hearing thereof:

WHEREUPON, the said plaintiff and witness were duly sworn and examined and oral evidence introduced from which it appears that all the material allegations of the complaint are sustained by testimony free from all legal objections as to its competency, admissibility or sufficiency, and that the matters so alleged and proved in behalf of plaintiff are true and are sufficient to entitle her to the relief prayed for in her said complaint, and the court being fully advised in the premises:

Now on motion of Bistline & Bistline, attorneys for plaintiff:

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Agnes Tripp, and the defendant, Fred J. Tripp, be, and the same are hereby absolutely dissolved, and the parties freed from the obligations thereof.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the custody of the minor daughters, Kathleen, aged 7 years, and Linda, aged 3 years, be, and same is hereby awarded to the plaintiff, Agnes Tripp, and, that the custody of the minor son, John aged 5 years, be, and the same is hereby awarded to the defendant, Fred J. Tripp, with the right in each of the parents to visit the child or children in the custody of the other at all reasonable times and places.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the defendant, Fred J. Tripp, pay to the plaintiff, Agnes Tripp, monthly, on the 1st day of each and every month hereafter the sum of $50.00 as permanent allowance for her support and maintenance, and the further sum of $50.00 for the support, maintenance and education of the said minor child, Kathleen, and the further sum of $50.00 for the support, maintenance and education of the said minor child, Linda.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the portion of this decree pertaining to the awarding of custody of the children, and for their support and maintenance, and permanent alimony for plaintiff, be and the same is hereby made subject to future modification by the court.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the following described property, to-wit:

Lots 13 and 14 of Block 3 of Harkness Townsite, within the Village of McCammon, Bannock County, Idaho, and is the sole and separate property of the defendant Fred J. Tripp, free and clear of any claim whatsoever of the plaintiff.

One Model F-3 3/4 Ton Ford Truck

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the following described property, to-wit:

The West 10 feet of Lot 3 and all of Lots 4, 5, 6 and 7 in Block 4 of Harkness Townsite, McCammon, Bannock County, Idaho, together with the household furniture in the house situated thereon, together with all the tenaments, hereditaments, and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in anywise appertaining, is the sole and separate property of the defendant Agnes Tripp, free and clear of any claim whatsoever of the defendant, Fred J. Tripp.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came on regularly to be heard before the Hon. Isaac McDougall, one of the Judges of the above entitled Court, in Chambers, at Pocatello, Idaho, on the 18th day of August, 1949.

The plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, M. H. McGlone; and the defendant appeared neither in person nor by counsel.

It appearing to the Court that the defendant was duly served with Summons and Complaint in said action, and failed to plead or appear in said action within the time allowed by law, and default was entered against him as provided by law.

Evidence was offered and received for and on behalf of the plaintiff in support of the allegations of her complaint, from which it appears that each and every of the allegations of said complaint are true, and such are found to be the facts, and that the plaintiff is entitled to judgment against the defendant.

NOW, THEREFORE, The law and the evidence being by the Court fully understood and considered;

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff, JOYCE HARTWIG, and the defendant, MELVIN F. HARTWIG, be, and the same are hereby absolutely dissolved, and each of the parties is hereby restored to the status of a single person.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the care, custody and control of the minor children of the plaintiff and defendant, to-wit: CHERYL HARTWIG; STEPHEN HARTWIG and STANLEY HARTWIG, be and the same is hereby awarded to the plaintiff.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the defendant pay to the plaintiff the sum of $ 50.00 per month toward the support and maintenance of the minor children of the plaintiff and defendant, to-wit: Cheryl Hartwig, Stephen Hartwig and Stanley Hartwig, and that said payments shall be made on the _____ day of each month, commencing with the first day of September, 1949.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the defendant shall pay to the plaintiff the sum of $200.00 to enable the plaintiff to pay doctor and hospital bills incurred by her during her confinement with Stephen Hartwig and Stanley Hartwig, two of the minor children of the plaintiff and defendant, and that said sum of $200 shall be paid not later than the first day of January, 1950, ~~[illegible]~~

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the following described property, to-wit:

> Miscellaneous items of household furniture and furnishings, linens, dishes, silverware, and miscallenouse household furnishings and equipment.

JUDGMENT AND DECREE

The above-entitled action having come on for trial before the Honorable Isaac McDougall, District Judge, this 19th day of August, 1949. Plaintiff appeared in person and with her attorneys, Black & Black, of Pocatello, Idaho; defendant did not appear, either in person or by attorney.

It appearing from the records and files that the defendant has been duly and regularly served with Summons and Complaint, and has failed to appear, answer or plead thereto, and the time for defendant to appear or plead thereto has now expired, and the Clerk has duly entered the default of defendant for such failure.

Plaintiff and her witness were duly sworn and testified in support of the allegations of the Complaint, and the Court finds from the evidence that all of the allegations of plaintiff's Complaint have been proven by evidence free and clear of all legal objections; that defendant is not engaged in the Military or Armed Services of the United States Government, or in any Department of Public Health, and that plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in the Complaint. The making and entering of formal Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law were waived by defendant's failure to appear and plead herein, and the Court being fully advised in the premises and good cause appearing therefor:

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby dissolved, and plaintiff be, and she is hereby awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant, on the ground of extreme cruelty.

2. That the care, custody, and control of the minor child, namely, Bonnie Jean Rice, now aged six years, be, and it is hereby awarded to plaintiff.

3. It is further ordered and decreed that the defendant be, and he is, hereby required to pay to plaintiff the sum of $30.00 per month, payable each month hereafter beginning on the 1st of September, 1949, and continuing until said child shall arrive at the age of 18 years, or until further order of the Court, for the support and maintenance of said child.

DECREE

The above entitled cause came on regularly to be tried and heard upon the 19th day of August, 1949, before the above entitled court, the Honorable L. E. Glennon sitting as Judge thereof, upon the complaint of the plaintiff and the answer of the defendant, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorneys, Jones, Pomeroy & Jones, the defendant by his attorney, H.J. Swanson, and the parties announced that they were ready for trial. Whereupon the court proceeded to take evidence. The plaintiff in said action and her witness testified in support of the allegations of the complaint. The defendant failed to offer evidence in support of his answer. It was stipulated in open court between the attorneys for plaintiff and attorney for defendant that findings of fact and conclusions of law be expressly waived. And the court after hearing the testimony so offered and received and being fully advised in the premises finds that the plaintiff is entitled to a divorce as prayed for in said complaint, and the court further finds that the plaintiff herein is a fit and proper person to have the care, custody and control of said minor child.

WHEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and upon the evidence heard in this case, and the court being fully advised in the premises;

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the marriage heretofore and now existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same is hereby absolutely dissolved and each of the parties be and they are hereby restored to the status of a single person.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the custody of the minor child of the parties, to wit: Mary Virginia Kennedy, three years of age, be awarded to the plaintiff herein, subject to the right on the part of the defendant to see said child at reasonable times and places, and the court retains jurisdiction of said action for further orders in respect to the custody of said child.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the defendant pay to the plaintiff herein the sum of Fifty Dollars($50.00) per month for the support of said minor child, such payments to commence upon the first day of September, 1949, and to continue thereafter upon the first day of each succeeding month until further order of this court or until such minor child reaches majority.

JANE M. BISTLINE, Defendant.

DECREE

This cause came on regularly for trial in open court before the undersigned District Judge, sitting without a jury, at Pocatello, Idaho, on the 22nd day of August, 1949. The plaintiff appeared in person and by his attorneys, Bistline & Bistline. Merrill & Merrill appeared for and on behalf of the defendant.

It appeared to the court that the defendant had been duly served with summons herein and had appeared and filed answer to plaintiff's complaint, and pursuant to stipulation of the parties said cause was set for trial. Evidence was introduced upon the issues raised by the complaint of the plaintiff and the answer of the defendant thereto, which evidence was free from objections as to competency, relevancy, and admissibility, from which evidence it appeared that all the allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true and correct and that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief therein sought and as herein adjudged.

Findings of fact and conclusions of law having been made and entered and the Court being now fully advised in the law and the premises:

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED, AND THIS DOES ORDER, ADJUDGE, AND DECREE that the marriage existing between the plaintiff, Roy M. Bistline, and the defendant, Jane M. Bistline, solemnized in Scarsdale, Westchester County, New York, on the 31st day of December, 1942, be and the same is hereby, in all respects dissolved and held for naught, and the parties thereto are freed from all their obligations thereof, and each of them is restored to the status of a single person.

Dated and done at Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho, this 22nd day of August, 1949.

The above entitled matter came regularly on for hearing before the Judge of the above entitled Court pursuant to Order made of trial by said Court, such Order being dated the 25th day of August, 1949. The plaintiff was present in person and by her counsel, Zener & Peterson, and the defendant was present by his counsel, Henry McQuade, but he personally appeared not. Both parties announced that they were ready for trial. Whereupon, the plaintiff called witnesses to testify in support of the allegations of her Complaint, and the plaintiff testified in support of the allegations of her Complaint, and such testimony with respect to residence and the other allegations of the Complaint was corroborated by competent witnesses; and the Court finds that both the subject matter of the action and the parties thereto were within the jurisdiction of the Court, and the Court being fully advised in the premises, and the Court specifically finding that the allegations of the plaintiff's Complaint are true, and that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty toward the plaintiff as alleged in said Complaint and as testified to by the plaintiff and corroborating witnesses;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, as follows:

I.

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the parties be, and the same are hereby, dissolved, and an absolute Decree of Divorce is granted in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and the parties, and each of them, are restored to their status of unmarried persons.

DECREE

This cause came regularly on to be heard this the 26th day of August, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her counsel Robert M. Terrell and no one appearing for or on behalf of the defendant and it appearing to the Court that the defendant has appeared in said action and in said appearance reserved five days from the 19th day of August, 1949, within which to answer or otherwise plead in this action, and it further appearing to the court that said defendant has not answered or filed any pleadings herein and that his default for not answering or pleading to plaintiff's complaint within the time reserved in said appearance has been duly and regularly entered herein, whereupon the court proceeded to hear proof in support of plaintiff's complaint.

The plaintiff and Robert M. Terrell were duly sworn and testified for and on behalf of the plaintiff and no one was sworn or testified on behalf of the defendant and the testimony was closed and the court having fully considered the evidence submitted, from which it appears that all of the allegations of plaintiff's complaint are fully sustained and proven and that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in said complaint;

WHEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be dissolved and that the plaintiff and defendant and each of them be freed from all of the obligations thereof and that they and each of them be restored to the status of single persons respectively;

That the care, custody and control of the minor children of plaintiff and defendant, to-wit: Lola Marie Huth, a girl, 13 years of age, and Freddie Carol Huth, a girl, 3 years of age, be and they are hereby awarded to the care, custody and control of the plaintiff, until further order of the Court, with the right to the defendant to visit said children at all reasonable times and that, until further order of the court, the defendant be required to pay to the plaintiff, for the support of said minor children, the sum of $40.00 per month, commencing on the date of this Decree.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the property settlement between the plaintiff and defendant, set forth in plaintiff's complaint be approved and that an undivided one-half interest in the hereinafter described real estate, together with the rents, issues and profits thereof, be awarded to the plaintiff herein, as her sole and separate property, for her sole and separate use.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the plaintiff herein is awarded an undivided one-half interest in and to the following described real and personal property, to-wit:

JUDGMENT AND DECREE

The above-entitled action having come on for trial before the Honorable L. E. Glennon, District Judge, this 27th day of August, 1949. Plaintiff appeared in person and with his attorneys, Black & Black of Pocatello, Idaho; defendant did not appear, either in person or by attorney.

It appearing from the records and files that the defendant has been duly and regularly served with Summons and Complaint, and has failed to appear, answer or plead thereto, and the time for defendant to appear or plead thereto has now expired, and the Clerk has duly entered the default of defendant for such failure.

Plaintiff and his witness were duly sworn and testified in support of the allegations of the Complaint, and the Court finds from the evidence that all of the allegations of plaintiff's Complaint have been proven by evidence free and clear of all legal objections; that defendant is not engaged in the Military or Armed Services of the United States Government, or in any Department of Public Health, and that plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in the Complaint. The making and entering of formal Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law were waived by defendant's failure to appear and plead herein. and the Court being fully advised in the premises and good cause appearing therefor:

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby dissolved, and plaintiff be, and he is hereby awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant.

2. That the exclusive care, custody and control of the minor child of the parties, namely, Ralph LaRean Snooks, be, and the same is hereby awarded to the plaintiff, Charles Snooks.

This cause came on regularly to be heard before the undersigned District Judge in his Chambers at Pocatello, Idaho, on the 29th day of August, 1949.

The plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorneys, Jones, Pomeroy, & Jones, and no one appearing for or in behalf of the above named defendant, and it appearing to the Court that the defendant was duly served with a summons and complaint in said action and failed to appear, plead or answer to the complaint within the time provided by law or at all.

UPON MOTION of the attorneys for the plaintiff, default was entered against the defendant.

It appearing to the court that no evidence was offered for andon behalf of defendant and evidence being offered and received for and in support of the complaint of plaintiff. Evidence being closed, the case was submitted to the court for consideration and decision and after due deliberation thereon the court ordered that judgment be entered in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant in accordance with the prayer of the said complaint, and that all the allegations in said complaint of the plaintiff are true and such are found to be the fact.

NOW, THEREFORE, the law and the evidence being by this Court fully understood and considered;

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED (1) that the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant be and they hereby are absolutely dissolved and held for naught and each of the parties restored to the status of a single person; (2) that the care, custody and control of the minor children of the parties hereto, namely Marion Lewis Egbert and Margie Egbert, be and they are hereby awarded to plaintiff herein with right of visitation by defendant at any reasonable time and place. (3) That all of the household furniture, bedding and linens; radio; record player; and electric fan, be awarded to plaintiff as her sole and separate property; (4) That the 1941 Chevrolet Coach automobile, above described, be awarded to defendant as his sole and separate property (5) That plaintiff be awarded $100 as alimony and for support of the said minor children. No. 2096 ~~2906~~

DECREE OF DIVORCE

The above entitled cause came on regularly for trial in open court at Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, before the Honorable O. C. Wilson, Judge of the above entitled court, at Eleven o'clock A.M. on the 8th day of August, 1949. The plaintiff appeared in person and was represented by his attorneys Paul C. Keeton and Clay V. Spear. The defendant did not appear either in person or by attorney, and she having been regularly and duly served with Summons and Complaint in this cause in the State of Michigan, pursuant to Affidavit and Order for service in a foreign jurisdiction, on the 14th day of July, 1949, and twenty days having expired since said service and she having failed to appear, demur or answer within the time allowed by law, or at all, and she being in default and her default having been entered and a Non-Military Affidavit having been filed by the plaintiff as required by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, and all laws amendatory thereof, the Court proceeded to hear the cause.

Witnesses were sworn and examined on behalf of the plaintiff and testimony and corroborating testimony was admitted; and the Court being advised in the premises, makes the following

findings and decrees:

That the defendant was served with Summons and Complaint in this cause at Detroit, County of Wayne, State of Michigan, on the 14th day of July, 1949.

That the allegations of the plaintiff's Complaint are as follows, to-wit: 1, that the plaintiff and defendant were married at Bowling Green, Ohio, on the 16th day of November, 1946; 2, that the plaintiff is a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho; 3, that the plaintiff and defendant have acquired no community property; 4, that no children were born the issue of said marriage; and 5, that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty; that all of said allegations are incorporated in this Decree as Findings of Fact and are found by the Court to be true as alleged in said Complaint.

The Court concludes from the Findings of Fact that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of extreme cruelty.

NOW, THEREFORE, IN CONSIDERATION OF THE PREMISES, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

That the Court has jurisdiction of the parties and the subject matter of this action.

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Russell P. Barber, and the defendant, Lillian L. Barber, be, and the same hereby are wholly and forever dissolved and the parties are released from each other and from all matrimonial obligations and they are restored to the status of single, unmarried persons; and the plaintiff is granted and given an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant.

DATED at Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, this 8th day of August, 1949.

ALICE WATSON LEWIS, Plaintiff, -vs- MABON C. LEWIS, Defendant.	D E C R E E

In this cause the above named defendant, Mabon C. Lewis, having been regularly served with process and having appeared herein by his attorneys, Black & Black, and demurred to plaintiff's complaint, and said demurrer having been thereafter withdrawn by the defendant; and the said defendant having failed and refused to plead further in said action and having consented that default be entered against him and the default of said defendant having been heretofore duly entered according to law, said cause came on regularly for hearing this date before the Judge of the above entitled Court at Blackfoot, Bingham County, Idaho, said plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, H. William Furchner, and no appearance being made by the defendant, either in person or by counsel; and the Court having heard the testimony of Alice Watson Lewis and of Agnes DeCola, witness for the plaintiff, the plaintiff rested, and said cause was submitted to the Court for consideration and decision; and the Court being fully advised in the law and in the premises finds that each and all of the allegations of plaintiff's complaint are proved and are true and that such allegations are proved by evidence free from any objections as to its admissibility, relevancy and materiality, and that the facts so proved are sufficient to entitle the plaintiff to the relief prayed for in her complaint;

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff, Alice Watson Lewis,

CHARLES WILFORD BIRD, SELDON RICHARD CLEGG, and ETHEL CLEGG,

Defendants.

JUDGMENT AND DECREE

This case came on for trial before the Honorable Preston Thatcher, District Judge, at the Court Room of the Court in Blackfoot, Idaho, on August 29th, 1949 at 10:00 o'clock A. M.; plaintiff was present with her attorneys, Black & Black of Pocatello, Idaho; defendant was present with his attorneys, Merrill & Merrill of Pocatello, Idaho. Evidence was introduced by plaintiff in support of the allegations of her complaint; no evidence was introduced by the defendant in opposition thereto, or in support of defendant's cross-complaint.

The Court having considered all of the evidence introduced, finds that the evidence sustains the allegations of plaintiff's complaint, free and clear of all legal objection, and that plaintiff is entitled to a divorce from the defendant on her complaint, and the money to be paid her in full settlement of her property rights in this case, as herein provided; That defendant is not entitled to any relief upon his cross-complaint and the same should be dismissed. It was stipulated by counsel in open court that the making and entry of formal findings-of-fact and conclusions-of-law are waived by the parties.

The Court being fully advised in the premises,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

I.

That the bonds of matrimony existing between plaintiff and defendant, be, and the same are hereby dissolved, and the parties herein are hereby restored to the status of single persons, and plaintiff is restored to her name before the marriage, namely; Ethel M. Lent.

II.

That defendant shall pay to plaintiff the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00) cash, which sum shall be paid to her immediately after the signing of the decree, and which sum shall be in full settlement of all her rights and claims against the defendant for community property interest, or for any other claim she might have against defendant, and that all other property of whatever nature, including notes, mortgages, bank deposits, or any other monies or property however evidenced, and of real estate however described, standing on record in the name of said defendant, other than the said ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00), is hereby awarded to the defendant as his sole and separate property.

III.

AND, IT IS ORDERED AND ADJUDGED, that plaintiff is hereby ordered and adjudged to sign any necessary deed or instrument carrying out the terms of this decree.

This cause having been brought on to be heard this day, in open court, upon the complaint herein, taken as confessed by defendant, and default of the defendant having been duly entered, proofs were adduced, and it appearing that all material allegations of the complaint are sustained, and that plaintiff has been for more than six full weeks prior to the commencement of this action a resident of Blaine County, Idaho.

On motion of Joseph McFadden, attorney for plaintiff,

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, as follows:

I

That the marriage between plaintiff, Maxine O. Penney, and defendant, Ross M. Penney, be dissolved, and the same is hereby dissolved accordingly.

II

That the agreement entered into by and between plaintiff and defendant on July 19, 1949, introduced in evidence is here by ratified and confirmed.

III

That the plaintiff shall have the full care, custody and control of the minor children of plaintiff and defendant, to-wit: Connie Faye Penney, age four as of July 27, 1949, and Eddie Leslie Penney, age ten who will be eleven years on September 5, 1949, subject however, to the right of the husband to visit said children at reasonable times and places.

IV

That the defendant shall pay to the plaintiff on the 5th and 20th day of each month commencing August 20, 1949, the sum of $30.00 that is, the sum of $60 per month being $30 for each of the said minor children for their support maintenance and care. IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE EIGHTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT OF THE STATE OF IDAHO, IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF BONNER

LAURENCE R. SALDECKE, Plaintiff, vs. VIRGINIA H. SALDECKE, Defendant.	ORDER MODIFYING DECREE OF DIVORCE

On July 29, 1949, at the hour of 10 in the forenoon of said day and in the Courtroom of the Court at the Court House in Sandpoint, Bonner County, Idaho, the plaintiff and defendant, now Virginia H. Libera, appeared in Court personally and with witnesses in response to an Order to Show Cause that had been previously issued asking for a modification of the divorce Decree insofar as the care, custody and control of the minor child, Michael Anthony Saldecke, was concerned. One of the plaintiff's Attorneys, Raymond T. Greene, Jr., also appeared for the plaintiff, and O. J. Bandelin, one of the Attorneys for the defendant, appeared in person. All parties concerned announced they were ready for trial. Witnesses were duly sworn and examined in Open Court. Both sides rested.

The Court took the case under advisement and after duly considering the testimony in said cause finds that the defendant, Virginia H. Libera, formerly Virginia H. Saldecke, is a fit and proper person to have the care, custody and control of the minor child, Michael Anthony Saldecke.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED That henceforth the care, custody and control of said minor child, Michael Anthony Saldecke, be and hereby is awarded to the defendant, now Virginia H. Libera, subject to the right of the plaintiff, Laurence R. Saldecke, to visit said child at all reasonable and proper times.

YVONNE GLOVER,

Plaintiff,

vs JUDGMENT

RICHARD GLOVER,

Defendant.

The above entitled cause came on for final hearing before the undersigned Judge of said District Court, at chambers of the Court, at Idaho Falls, Bonneville County, Idaho, this 1st day of July, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by Albaugh, Bloem & Hillman, her attorneys, no appearance being made by or for the defendant, it appearing that the Summons and Complaint in said cause having been duly served upon the defendant and that the defendant thereafter interposed a demurrer to said complaint, which demurrer was thereafter withdrawn by a stipulation entered into between the parties, and which stipulation provides, among other things, that the defendant admits service of the Summons and Complaint in said cause, refuses to answer, demur, or plead further, consents that default may be entered against him and to an immediate hearing of said cause without further notice, waives the making of findings of fact and conclusions of law, and consents to the entry of a decree in said cause.

Evidence was thereupon introduced in said cause by the plaintiff in support of the allegations of the complaint, and upon due consideration thereof and of the files and records of said cause, the Court finds that the complaint is fully sustained by the evidence, that the said stipulation is just and fair in its provisions for the division of the property of the parties and for the care, custody, maintenance and support of the minor child of the parties, Kristine Glover, and the Court approves and adopts the terms and conditions of said stipulation.

IT IS THEREFORE ADJUDGED AND DECREED, as follows:

1. That the marriage relation heretofore existing between the parties to this action be, and the same hereby is, in all things dissolved, and the parties are restored to the status of single persons.

2. That the plaintiff have as her sole and separate property and for her sole and separate use and benefit, all dishes, silverware, cooking utensils, linen and household furniture and equipment of every kind, nature and description heretofore owned by the parties to this action.

3. That the sole care, control and custody of the minor child of the parties, Kristine Glover, be, and the same hereby is, awared to the plaintiff, provided, however, that the defendant shall have the right to see and visit said minor child at all reasonable times and places.

4. That the defendant shall pay to the plaintiff for the support of said minor child the sum of Twenty Dollars ($20.00) per month, payable monthly, commencing with July 10, 1949, until said minor child arrives at legal age.

This cause coming on regularly for hearing before the Hon. Henry S. Martin, Judge of the above entitled Court, at Chambers, in the City of Idaho Falls, County of Bonneville, State of Idaho, within said Judicial District, this 11th day of August , 1949, at the hour of ten o'clock A. M., of said day, plaintiff appearing in person and by Paul T. Peterson, her attorney, and the defendant not appearing and no one appearing for him, and his default having been heretofore regularly entered herein.

The Court having examined the files of this action and finding that service of Complaint and Summons upon the defendant, Fred L. Kellar, has been legally made and the time having expired for his appearance, and the default of said defendant having been heretofore duly and regularly entered, the Court proceeded to hear the case upon the verified Complaint herein and the testimony of plaintiff and the testimony of a corroborating witness as to residence on behalf of said plaintiff, and the Court further finding that all of the property rights both community and separate between the parties having been settled in accordance with a certain agreement on file herein, dated June 3rd, 1949, and that proper deeds of conveyances have been executed or will be executed forthwith and the Court approving such property settlement, and the Court further finding that there is to be no alimony to be paid plaintiff, and the matter having been submitted to the Court for judgment, and the Court having considered all the evidence and being fully advised in the premises, and it appearing that all material allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true, and the Court finding the same to be true, the parties having waived the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and all and singular the laws and premises being by the Court considered, and the Court having jurisdiction of the matter and of the parties hereto.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff and defendant be and the same are hereby dissolved and each of said parties freed from the obligations thereof and each restored to the status of a single person.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came on regularly to be heard ~~this~~ on the 29th day of July, 1949, in the Court Chambers of the above entitled Court at Idaho Falls, Bonneville County, Idaho, before Honorable Henry S. Martin sitting without a jury; that Vion Mathews and Madge W. Cutler appeared as witnesses for and on behalf of the plaintiff and L. H. Merrill, attorney, appeared for and in behalf of said plaintiff; that the defendant did not appear in person and was not represented by counsel; the witnesses were sworn and testified and other documentary evidence was introduced, and the court being fully advised as to the law and the facts finds as follows:

1. That the plaintiff and the defendant were married at Dillon, Montana, on the 21st day of April, 1946 and as a result of said marriage there was born one child, Carolyne Cutler, age two years.

2. That the allegations in plaintiff's complaint have been duly proven by said witnesses and the conclusions of law.

3. That the defendant has been duly served with a copy of the summons and complaint; that time for answer has elasped and default has been properly filed and an affidavit of non-military service has also been filed pursuant to law.

4. That during coveture of the plaintiff and the defendant there has been accumulated no community property, either real or personal.

5. That the court has jurisdiction over the parties and subject matter of these proceedings.

CONCLUSION OF LAW

That as a conclusion of law the Court finds that the marriage of Madge W. Cutler, plaintiff, and Edwin L. Cutler, defendant, should be desolved absolutely.

That the care,custody, and control of the minor child, Carolyne Cutler, age two, should be given to the mother, Madge W. Cutler.

DECREE

IT IS ORDERED ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff, Madge W. Cutler and Edwin L. Cutler, defendant, be dissolved absolutely, and said marriage is dissolved accordingly.

That the plaintiff, Madge W. Cutler is awarded the care, custody and control of the minor child, Carolyne Cutler, age two but that the defendant and father of the child shall have the right to visit said child at any reasonable time and shall also have the right to have the care and custody of said child three months out of each year, but at a time when it will not interfear with the child's schooling and education.

That the defendant, Edwin L. Cutler, pay to the plaintiff, Madge W. Cutler, the sum of $30.00 per month, beginning August 1, 1949, for the support and maintenance of said minor child and said sum of $30.00 is to be paid on the 1st day of each and every month thereafter until the child, Carolyne Cutler, reaches her legal age or until this decree is changed by further order of this court. That during the period that the defendant has the care, custody and control of the minor child, said defendant, Edwin L. Cutler shall be relieved from paying the $30.00 per month to the plaintiff, Madge W. Cutler, for the maintenance and support of said child.

This cause came on regularly for trial, in chambers, at Idaho Falls, Idaho, on this 26th. day of August, 1949, John Perebauer appearing as counsel for the plaintiff and no one appearing for or on behalf of the defendant; whereupon, plaintiff was duly and regularly sworn and examined and testified for and in her own behalf and thereupon Catherine Shriver was duly and regularly sworn and testified for and in behalf of the above named plaintiff and thereupon the plaintiff rested, and the defendant having submitted no proof whatever for or in his behalf, this cause was thereupon submitted to the Court for its decision upon the testimony submitted for and in behalf of the plaintiff, and it further appearing that the parties hereto have entered into a written stipulation providing for a full and complete settlement of all of the property rights of the respective parties, and it further appearing that said stipulation and the terms thereof are fair, just and equitable to each of the parties hereto and that the same should be approved by the Court, and the Court being fully advised in the premises, now finds as follows:

I.

That the above named defendant has been duly and regularly served with a true copy of the summons issued out of the above entitled Court in the within cause, attached to which was a true copy of the complaint filed herein; that by written stipulation of the parties to this suit, filed herein, the above named defendant submits himself to the jurisdiction of the Court, and expressly agrees that the within cause may be tried and final judgment rendered and entered herein, either in term time or vacation, at chambers or in open court, without notice to said defendant; that this Court has jurisdiction of the subject matter of this suit and of the person of the above named plaintiff and the person of the above named defendant.

II.

That the terms and provision of said Stipulation, and each and all of them, are fair, just and equitable, and the Court approves and adopts the provisions of said Stipulation and makes the same a part of this decree.

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion of John A. Ferebauer, the attorney of record for the above named plaintiff,

IT IS HEREBY CONSIDERED, ADJUDGED, ORDERED AND DECREED, that the marriage heretofore and now existing between the above named plaintiff, Artie Marie Holien, and the above named defendant, Henry O. Holien, be, and the same hereby is, forever dissolved, set aside and held for naught, and that the plaintiff and defendant, and each of them, be, and they hereby are, restored to the status of single persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the defendant is hereby awarded all of the household goods and effects now located at #665 Cleveland Street, Idaho Falls, Idaho.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the balance of payments due the parties herein, arising from the sale of certain real property located at St. Paul, Minnesota, is to be paid to John Ferebauer, attorney for the plaintiff, as trustee for the uses and purposes hereinafter mentioned, and that said proceeds shall be disbursed by said trustee as follows:

That said trustee shall first pay all court costs arising out of this action.

That said trustee shall pay to Albaugh, Bloem & Hillman, the sum of Fifty Dollars ($50.00), as attorney's fees for their services in this action, and to himself, the sum of

One Hundred Dollars ($100.00), as attorney's fees for his services in this action.

Said trustee shall then pay the balance thereof to the parties hereto, share and share alike to each party.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the plaintiff have, and she is hereby awarded the care, custody and control of Harvey Holien, minor child of plaintiff and defendant, with the exception of from June 15 to August 15 of each and every year, during which time the care, custody and control of said minor child shall be awarded to the defendant herein. That the defendant is hereby awarded the care, custody and control of Clarence Holien, minor child of plaintiff and defendant. That both parties hereto shall have the right to visit said minor children at all reasonable times and places.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that all outstanding debts of said parties shall be paid by the defendant.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the plaintiff have, and she is hereby awarded the sum of Twenty Dollars ($20.00) per month, for the support of the said minor child, Harvey Holien, and that said support money shall be due and payable beginning November 1, 1950, it being understood and agreed that the postponement of the due date for said support money is made for the purpose of paying the debts of the community, as above mentioned.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that plaintiff's former name, to-wit: Artie Marie Scott, be, and the same is hereby restored to her.

- - - - - - -

This cause came regularly on for hearing before the Court on the 13th day of August, 1949, on the complaint of the plaintiff filed herein. The plaintiff appeared in person and by S. T. Lowe, her attorney, and the defendant having failed to appear, either in person or by an attorney, and it appearing to the Court that due and legal personal service was had upon the defendant at Anchorage, in the Territory of Alaska, on the 20th day of July, 1949; that the time for appearing and pleading to the complaint of the plaintiff had expired and no appearance, answer or demurrer had been made or filed by the said defendant, and it further appearing to the Court that the said defendant is not now and was not at the time of the service of the summons herein engaged in the military service of the United States, it was by the Court ordered that the default of the defendant for his failure to appear and plead to the complaint of the plaintiff be entered.

Thereupon, witnesses on behalf of the plaintiff were sworn and examined and the plaintiff rested, and it appearing to the Court that the allegations of the complaint of the plaintiff were true and had been supported by the evidence, it was by the Court ordered that the plaintiff have judgment as prayed for in her complaint.

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff, Beatrice Robinson, and the defendant, Noel Robinson, be and they are hereby released, dissolved, discharged and annulled, and the parties are hereby restored to the status of single persons.

2.

That the plaintiff, Beatrice Robinson, be and she is hereby given and granted the sole care, custody and control of the minor child, issue of the said marriage, to-wit, Bonnie Lynn Robinson, who is now five years old, with the right of the defendant, Noel Robinson, to visit the said child at reasonable times.

- - - - - - - - - - - - -

THIS CAUSE Came on regularly to be heard at chambers, at Burley, Cassia County, Idaho, before Honorable Kales E. Lowe, one of the District Judges of the Eleventh Judicial District of the State of Idaho, on the 26th day of August, A. D., 1949; the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Dean Kloepfer; and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court herein that the defendant was regularly served with a copy of the Summons and Complaint in person within the State of Idaho, and that he, the said defendant has wholly failed to make any appearance and that the proper time allowed by law in which it is provided he might appear, answer, or demur herein, having expired; and the default of the said defendant having been regularly entered;

WHEREUPON, the Court proceeded to the hearing herein, and witnesses on behalf of the plaintiff were sworn, and examined, and the cause was submitted to the Court herein for decision; and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court herein that all of the allegations of the Complaint are sustained by evidence free from all legal exceptions as to its competency, admissibility or sufficiency; and it appearing that the matters so alleged are true and correct and are sufficient to entitle the plaintiff to the relief prayed for in plaintiff's complaint, and the Court having heard the evidence and being fully advised in the premises, did order that the plaintiff have judgment herein as hereinafter set forth:

The court, being fully advised in the premises, having duly considered the matter, Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law being expressly waived by the plaintiff and being waived as a matter of law by the defaulting defendant, and it appearing to the court from an affidavit made and filed herein in compliance with the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, that the defendant is not, and for more than six months last past, has not been in the military service of the United States or its allies, the court orders that the plaintiff have judgment and decree as prayed in her complaint.

NOW, THEREFORE, By virtue of the law and by reason of the premises aforesaid, it is hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed:

That the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff, BETTY RAE PETERSON, and the defendant, DONALD J. PETERSON, be and they are hereby cancelled, annulled and held for naught, and the said persons are restored to the status of single persons.

That it is hereby awarded to the care, custody and control of the plaintiff, Gary Bush Peterson, the minor child issue of the marriage of the plaintiff and defendant, subject to the right of the defendant to visit said child at reasonable times and upon first receiving permission from the plaintiff; that the defendant Donald J. Peterson shall pay to the plaintiff for the support and maintenance of said minor child, until said minor child shall reach the age of majority, the sum of $40.00 per month for the support and maintenance of said minor child, the first such payment of $40.00 to be paid during the month of September, 1949, and a like sum of $40.00 to be paid during each and every calendar month thereafter until said minor child shall reach the age of majority.

That there is hereby awarded to and set over to the plaintiff, Betty Rae Peterson, as her sole and separate property, all of the household furniture, fixtures and equipment now owned by the parties hereto, and consisting of the following specified items:

1 Maytag Washing Machine
1 Desk
1 Bedroom Set
1 Living Room Set
1 Occassional Chair
1 Lamp Table
1 Rug
1 Stromberg-Carlson Radio
1 Radio Stand
1 Electric Clock
1 Kitchen Set Dishes
Miscellaneous household goods, bedding, linens, etc.

Also, approximately $500.00 U. S. Bonds, acquired from Plaintiff's earnings.

That there is hereby awarded to the defendant, Donald J. Peterson as his sole and separate property, 1, 1939 Ford Coupe.

5.

That the defendant pay to the plaintiff the sum of $100.00 attorney's fees and costs of suit.

- - - - - - -

This cause came regularly on for hearing before the Court on the 17th day of August, 1949, at Burley, Idaho, on the complaint of the plaintiff filed herein. The plaintiff appeared in person and by S. T. Lowe, his attorney, and the defendant having failed to appear, either in person or by an attorney, and it appearing to the Court that due and legal personal service was had upon the defendant at Spokane, Washington, on the 17th day of December, 1947; that the time for appearing and pleading to the complaint of the plaintiff had expired and no appearance, answer or demurrer had been made or filed by the said defendant, and it further appearing to the Court that the said defendant is not now, and has not been for more than six months prior to the filing of the complaint in this action, engaged in the military service of the United States, or any of its allies, it was by the Court ordered that the default of the defendant for her failure to appear and plead to the complaint of the plaintiff be entered.

Thereupon, witnesses on behalf of the plaintiff were sworn and examined and the plaintiff rested, and it appearing to the Court that the allegations of the complaint of the plaintiff were true and had been supported by the evidence, it was by the Court ordered that the plaintiff have judgment as prayed for in his complaint.

NOW, THEREFORE, By virtue of the law and by reason of the premises aforesaid, it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED:

JUDGMENT

The above entitled cause came on before the Court for final hearing at Chambers of the Court at Idaho Falls, Idaho on the 26th day of August, 1949, Albaugh, Bloem, Hillman & Barnard appearing as attorneys for the plaintiff, and no appearance being made by or for the defendant, it appearing that the summons in said cause has been duly served on the defendant by publication, as provided by law, pursuant to an Order issued out of this Court, and that no answer, demur or other appearance has been made by or for the defendant, and that the default of the defendant in the premises has been duly entered according to law, and it further appearing that an affidavit of the non-military or naval service of the defendant is on file herein, the Court hereby orders that said action may proceed as by default insofar as the act of Congress known as the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940 is concerned.

Evidence in support of the allegations of the complaint was thereupon introduced, and upon due consideration thereof and the files and records of said action, the Court finds that the allegations of said complaint are fully sustained by the evidence, and that plaintiff is entitled to the relief demanded in said complaint.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the parties be, and the same hereby are, dissolved, and the parties are restored to the status of single persons; that the plaintiff have the sole care, custody and control of the minor children of the parties.

JUDGMENT

C. C. BERKEY,

Defendant.

The above entitled action came on for final hearing before the undersigned judge of said District Court, at chambers of the Court, at Idaho Falls, Bonneville County, Idaho, in said District, this 24th day of August, 1949, Albaugh, Bloem & Hillman appearing as counsel for the plaintiff, and no appearance being made by or for the defendant, it appearing from the files and records of said action that the defendant has appeared herein by stipulation under which stipulation defendant admits that he has been served with the summons and complaint in said cause, appears generally herein, and refuses to answer, demur, or plead further and consents that default may be entered against him and that said cause may be heard at any time and judgment entered without further notice.

Evidence in support of the complaint was adduced by and on behalf of the plaintiff, and after duly considering the same and the files and records in this action, the Court finds that the allegations of plaintiff's complaint are fully sustained by the evidence and that plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in her complaint, subject to the terms and conditions of the stipulation entered into between the parties.

IT IS THEREFORE ADJUDGED AND DECREED, as follows:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be, and the same hereby are, in all things dissolved, and the parties are each restored to the status of a single person.

DECREE

The above entitled cause came on regularly to be heard and tried before the Court, sitting without a jury, in Chambers at Boise, in the County of Ada, State of Idaho, upon the 18th day of August, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Perce Hall, and the defendant appearing not, neither in person, by attorney nor otherwise;

Upon said hearing it appeared to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant Kenneth Melton had been duly and regularly served with summons in this action in the manner provided by law and that said defendant has filed an appearance herein and has consented to the entry of default against him without further notice of proceedings, and that said defendant has failed to answer or otherwise plead to the plaintiff's complaint within the time allowed by law, and the default of said defendant having been duly entered according to law, and the Court having heard the testimony introduced in behalf of the plaintiff and in support of the allegations of her complaint and the cause having been submitted;

After duly considering the testimony introduced herein the Court finds the issues upon the plaintiff's complaint in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant and upon the first cause of action in said complaint the Court finds that the defendant has been guilty of wilful neglect of the plaintiff and upon the second cause of action of said complaint the Court finds that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty towards the plaintiff and that by reason thereof the plaintiff is entitled to have dissolved the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff Kathleen Melton and the defendant Kenneth Melton be and the same are hereby dissolved and that the plaintiff be and she is hereby divorced from said defendant.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause coming on to be heard this 26TH day of AUGUST, 1949, upon the complaint herein taken as confessed by the defendant (whose demurrer and motion for change of place of trial were withdrawn and whose default for not pleading had been duly entered upon his consent by and through his attorney), Walter M. Oros, Esq., appearing as attorney for plaintiff, and the Court having heard the proofs taken herein, from which it appears that all the allegations of plaintiff's complaint are sustained by testimony free from all legal exceptions, as to its competency, admissibility and sufficiency, and it further appearing to the Court that defendant was duly served with summons; and all and singular the law and the premises being by the Court here understood and fully considered:

WHEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, And this does order, adjudge and decree:

1. That the marriage between the plaintiff, Winnifred Sterling and the defendant, Robert E. Sterling, be, and the same is hereby dissolved and said parties, and each of them are freed and absolutely released from the bonds of matrimony.

2. That plaintiff is hereby awarded the care, custody and control of Donald E. Sterling, age about one year, the minor child of said parties.

3. That defendant pay to plaintiff the sum of Fifty and no/100 Dollars ($50.00) a month, commencing on September 1, 1949, for the care, maintenance and education of said minor child until said child shall attain the age of 18 years.

4. That defendant is granted the right to visit said child at all reasonable times and places.

5. That plaintiff is awarded all of the household goods and effects described in said complaint.

6. That defendant is awarded the 1941 Mercury sedan described in said complaint.

7. That defendant pay to plaintiff, on or before September 1, 1949, the sum of One Hundred and no/100 Dollars ($100.00) as attorney's fees.

Dated this 26TH day of AUGUST, 1949.

Benjamin P. Winn,

Plaintiff,

vs. : Decree.

Florence Wright Winn,

Defendant.

- - - - - - - - -

The above entitled cause came on for hearing this 1st day of August, 1949, at Chambers at Pocatello, Idaho, before Honorable L. E. Glennon, Judge of the above entitled Court. P. M. Condie, Esquire, appeared as attorney for the plaintiff, and the defendant did not appear in person or by attorney.

And the defendant having accepted service of summons and complaint and having consented that said mtter might be heard at the convenience of the Court either at Preston, Idaho, or at Pocatello, Idaho, at Chambers, and without the defendant being present, and the defendant having declined to plead to said complaint and the default of the defendant having been entered for failure to plead to said complaint, and the said matter being ready for hearing, on motion of counsel for plaintiff the Court proceeded to hear said matter.

Witnesses were sworn and testified in support of the allegations of the complaint and the plaintiff rested. And the Court being satisfied from the evidence that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in his complaint, and the Court being fully advised in the premises:

It is hereby Ordered, Adjudged, and Decreed, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be and the same are hereby dissolved and declared for naught and the parties to this action are hereby restored to the status of single persons; that there are no children of said marriage.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

-o-o-o-o-o-o-o-

This matter coming on for hearing in open court this 2nd day of August, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Frank E Meek, Esq., and it appearing to the Court that the defendant has heretofore, on the 27th day of June, 1949, executed and acknowledged his appearance in said action, wherein and whereby he made his appearance and consented to default being entered against him admitting to receiving a copy of the summons and complaint on file in said action.

Now, therefore, on motion of counsel for plaintiff, it is ORDERED and this does ORDER, that the default of the defendant be entered.

Whereupon the Court proceeded to the hearing and consideration of the issues herein; witnesses were duly sworn and testified on behalf of the plaintiff and it appearing from the evidence introduced that Rita M. Ellis, the plaintiff herein, and Everett Taylor Ellis, the defendant herein, were married on the 10th day of July, 1947, at Minden, Nevada, and ever since have been and now are husband and wife.

That the plaintiff has been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho for more than six weeks prior to the filing of this action.

That there is no property to be adjudicated in this action and that there are no children, the issue of said marriage.

That the conduct and actions of the defendant towards the plaintiff were such to cause the plaintiff great mental anguish, pain and suffering, and that by reason of the defendant's actions toward the plaintiff, he is guilty of extreme cruelty to the plaintiff.

Wherefore, it is ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE and DECREE, that the bonds of matrimony now existing between Rita M. Ellis and Everett Taylor Ellis, be, and the same are hereby dissolved and held for naught. That plaintiff have restored to her her maiden name, to-wit, Rita M. Lawton.

* * *

The above entitled cause came on regularly to be heard and tried before the Court, sitting without a jury, in open Court at Gooding, in the County of Gooding, State of Idaho, upon the 9th day of August, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Perce Hall, and the defendant appearing not, neither in person, by attorney nor otherwise;

Upon said hearing it appeared to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant Keith Hand had been duly and regularly served with summons in this action in the manner provided by law and that said defendant had failed to appear and answer, demur or otherwise plead to the plaintiff's Complaint within the time allowed by law and the default of said defendant having been duly entered according to law and the Court having heard the testimony introduced in behalf of the plaintiff and in support of the allegations of her Complaint and the cause having been submitted;

After duly considering the testimony introduced herein the Court finds the issues upon the plaintiff's Complaint in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant and finds that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty towards the plaintiff and that by reason thereof the plaintiff is entitled to have dissolved the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant;

IT IS THEREFORE HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff Deloris Hand and the defendant Keith Hand be and the same are hereby dissolved and that the plaintiff be and she is hereby divorced from said defendant.

Done in open Court at Gooding, in the County of Gooding, State of Idaho, this 9th day of August, 1949.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause coming on to be heard this 12th day of August, 1949, upon the complaint herein taken as confessed by the defendant (whose default for not pleading had been duly entered), Walter M. Oros, Esq., appearing as attorney for the plaintiff, and the Court having heard the proofs taken herein, from which it appears that all the allegations of the plaintiff's complaint are sustained by testimony free from all legal exceptions, as to its competency, admissibility and sufficiency, and it further appearing to the Court that defendant was duly served with summons; and all and singular the law and the premises being by the Court here understood and fully considered:

WHEREFORE, it is ordered, adjudged and decreed and this does order, adjudge and decree that the marriage between the plaintiff, Glenn D. Turley, and the defendant, Virginia P. Turley, be and the same is hereby dissolved and said parties, and each of them are freed and absolutely released from the bonds of matrimony; and it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the plaintiff pay to Virginia P. Turley the sum of Twenty Five and no/100 Dollars ($25.00) per month for the care, support, custody and education of each of the minor children of said marriage until said children attain the age of 18 years, save and except during those periods of time within which said children shall be with the defendant, plaintiff shall not be required to pay, with the usual rights of visitation with said minor children awarded to plaintiff.

Dated this 12 day of August, 1949.

This Cause coming on to be heard before the Court this 13th day of August, 1949, the plaintiff being present in person and being represented by Parry, Keenan, Robertson & Daly, her attorneys; the defendant being represented by Edward Babcock, his attorney, the following proceedings were had:

It appearing to the Court that a duly verified answer had been filed in said action by the defendant and that said action was ready for trial; that the said parties had agreed that said action should be tried before the Court without a jury at this time, and that each of the said parties was ready for trial. After hearing the testimony and examining the proofs submitted for and on behalf of the plaintiff, which was duly corroborated, and the issue of plaintiff's domicile having been contested, and both sides having rested; the Court having considered the law and the evidence now finds that all material allegations of the Complaint are true and correct; that the plaintiff is, and for more than six weeks immediately prior to the filing of the Complaint in this action has been a resident of Blaine County, State of Idaho, in which county she had her place of residence and domicile, and the Court having rendered its decision herein in writing consisting of findings of fact and conclusions of law, which said decision is in favor of said plaintiff.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff, Elizabeth F. Witalis, and the defendant, Rupert R. Witalis, be and the same are hereby dissolved absolutely, and the plaintiff and defendant are, and each of them is, hereby free and absolutely released from said bonds of matrimony and is hereby restored to the status of a single and unmarried person.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED ADJUDGED AND DECREED That an agreement made and entered into the 13th day of June, 1949, by and between Rupert R. Witalis and Elizabeth F. Witalis and admitted in evidence herein as plaintiff's Exhibit A, in words and figures as follows, to-wit:

"AGREEMENT made this 13 day of June, 1949, by and between RUPERT R. WITALIS, hereinafter designated 'husband', and ELIZABETH F. WITALIS, hereinafter designated 'wife',

"W I T N E S S E T H:

"WHEREAS, the parties hereto were duly married in October, 1942, in the City of Washington, District of Columbia, and the issue of such marriage is a daughter, VALENTINA FRANCES WITALIS, born November 24, 1946; and

"WHEREAS, unhappy differences have arisen between the parties hereto, and they have not, for some time past, co-habited as man and wife, and they deem it for the best interests of themselves and their child that they live separate and apart, and they have therefore agreed to live separate and apart from each other;

"NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises, agreements and covenants herein contained, the parties hereto agree as follows:

"1. The respective parties to this agreement shall continue to live separate and apart from each other, and each shall be free from interference, authority or control of or by the other, as if he or she were sole and unmarried, and each may reside at such place or places and in such family or families and with such relations, friends and other persons as each may deem fit, and each may follow and carry on such business, occupation and trade as he or she may choose, without and free from any control, restraint or interference, direct or indirect, by the other party, in all respects as if each were unmarried.

"2. Neither party shall molest the other or interfere with the other at any place of business or residence, nor shall either party compel or endeavor to compel the other to cohabit or dwell with him or her.

"3. Wife shall have custody and control of said child, VALENTINA FRANCES WITALIS, during her minority, during the usual or so-called school months, namely, from on or about September 15 to on or about the following June 15 in each and every year, with reasonable rights of visitation to the husband during such periods; and the husband shall have custody and control of said child during the so-called summer months, namely, from on or about June 15 to on or about September 15 in each and every year, with reasonable rights of visitation to the wife during such periods.

"4. Husband shall have no liability whatsoever for support or maintenance of wife and shall not be liable for any debts at any time contracted by wife, and wife shall not incur any debts and liabilities whatsoever upon the credit of husband and will not permit any to be so incurred.

"5. Each of the parties hereto shall have the right to dispose of his or her property by last will and testament or otherwise, and each of the parties hereto hereby waives the right of election granted to him or her in and by section 18 of the Decedent Estate Law of the State of New York to take against any last will and testament of the other whatsoever, and in the event of the death of either party the other hereby releases the estate of the said party so dying from any right which the surviving party shall or may at any time have under any statute of distribution or any other law giving him or her the right to share or the right to elect to share in the estate of the one so dying.

"6. This agreement is executed upon the express condition that if at any time hereafter the parties shall become and be reconciled and again cohabit together, then and in that event this agreement and its provisions and conditions shall become and be null, void and of no effect from the time of such reconciliation, and without prejudice to any act or thing done or right accrued up to the time of such event.

"If at any time hereafter the marriage of the parties should be dissolved by a decree of a court of competent jurisdiction, this agreement shall remain in full force and effect and the provisions hereof shall be incorporated in such decree finally dissolving such marriage.

"7. All personal property now owned or possessed by the husband shall belong to and be retained by him, free of any claim thereto of any kind on the part of the wife. All personal property now in or at the residence of the husband, 52 Radnor Road, Great Neck, New York, shall belong to and be retained by him, free of any claim thereto of any kind on the part of the wife, except the following enumerated items: sewing machine, linens and the wife's own personal items, which enumerated items shall belong to the wife and may be removed by her from said residence at any time.

"8. The real property, identified as premises known as 52 Radnor Road, Great Neck, New York, and now owned by the parties hereto as tenants by the entirety, may not be sold by either party without the consent of the other, such consent, however, not to be unreasonably withheld. In the event of a sale of said realty, out of the net moneys received therefrom (that is, after the then indebtedness secured by mortgage on said property has been deducted from the sales price and adjustment of interest, insurance and taxes has been made and paid), the husband shall be reimbursed for all such sums paid by him from the date hereof in and for taxes and interest on said indebtedness and to amortize same; after such reimbursement, the moneys remaining shall be divided equally between the parties hereto. Husband shall have the right to exclusive occupancy of said premises for a period not to exceed six (6) months from the date hereof. Husband agrees to make the amortization payments on said mortgage, pay the interest thereon and the taxes on said property. For such then current interest payments on said indebtedness as are made by him during his occupancy of said premises from the date hereof, and for such taxes as are paid by him for the period of such occupancy, he shall not be entitled to reimbursement as aforesaid.

"In the event the premises are leased to a third party, the net rental (after deduction of then current interest on said mortgage, then current taxes on said property and expenses for repairs to said property) shall be divided equally between the parties. It is the intention that husband shall be entitled to reimbursement for such deducted items as have been paid by him during the period the premises are under lease to a third party.

"IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this instrument the day and year first above written.

DECREE

THIS CAUSE came on regularly to be heard in open Court this 15TH day of May, 1949, upon the complaint of the plaintiff, Glenn W. Dennis, and the answer of the defendant, Ida A. Dennis, Pasco B. Carter appearing for plaintiff, and Willis E. Sullivan appearing for the defendant. Oral and documentary evidence was introduced, and the cause submitted to the Court for decision, and the Court being fully advised in the premises, finds, concludes, decides and decrees:

1.

That Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law were waived by Stipulation in writing filed with the clerk of this Court.

2.

That the plaintiff now is and for more than six full weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action, has been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho.

3.

That said plaintiff and defendant intermarried in the City of Athol, South Dakota, on the 22nd day of May, 1921, and ever since have been and now are husband and wife.

That for many months last past defendant has treated plaintiff with extreme cruelty and has inflicted upon him grievous mental suffering, which conduct has impaired plaintiff's happiness and well being and has caused him great worry and misery. That to continue to maintain marital relations with the defendant would serve no useful purpose and by reason thereof the said plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce.

WHEREFORE IT IS NOW ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

That the marriage heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same is, hereby dissolved upon the ground of defendant's extreme cruelty to the plaintiff, and that the parties are, and each of them is, freed from the bonds of matrimony and all the obligations thereof, and that the plaintiff and defendant are restored to the status of single persons.

The above matter came on regularly for trial before the above court sitting in regular session in Gooding, Idaho, this 16th day of August, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorneys, James, Shaw & James, and the defendant appearing not at all. It appeared further and the court finds that the defendant had been duly and regularly served with process, and that he had failed to answer within the time fixed by law, and that the default of the defendant for his failure to appear has been duly entered by the Clerk of the Court.

Whereupon, evidence duly corroborated, was introduced on behalf of the plaintiff in support of her complaint from which it appears and the court finds that the allegations of the complaint are true and correct and that the defendant is guilty of extreme cruelty as charged in the complaint, and that the plaintiff is and for several years last past and immediately prior to the filing of the complaint herein has been an actual bona fide resident of the State of Idaho.

It is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff and defendant be and the same are hereby dissolved, and each of said parties is hereby restored to the status of a single person, and that the property settlement agreement entered into between the plaintiff and defendant on the 22nd day of July, 1949, an original copy of which has been admitted as an exhibit herein, is hereby approved and confirmed by the court; that the plaintiff is hereby declared to be the owner and is hereby awarded the residence home described as Lot 7, Block 39, Hammers Addition to the Town of Glenns Ferry, Elmore County, Idaho; and further, the plaintiff is awarded all furniture, dishes and household goods acquired by the parties since their marriage, together with all money and personal property as provided for in said agreement.

Defendant.

This cause came on regularly to be heard on the 18th day of August, 1949, before the undersigned, Judge of the above entitled court, upon plaintiff's complaint and defendant's answer thereto, Plaintiff appearing in person and being represented by E. B. Smith, of Boise, Idaho, her attorney of record, and defendant being represented by Robert N. W. Balleisen of Twin Falls, Idaho, his attorney of record.

It appearing to the Court that defendant made due appearance herein and pleaded to plaintiff's complaint by his answer on file herein, oral and documentary evidence was introduced by and on behalf of plaintiff to sustain the allegations of her complaint relating to her causes of action for divorce from defendant, and oral and documentary evidence was introduced by and on behalf of both plaintiff and defendant relating to the written marriage settlement contract made and entered into by the plaintiff and defendant June 15, 1949, the original of which was introduced in evidence and duly substituted by copy thereof; no evidence having been introduced on behalf of defendant, other than that relating to the marriage settlement contract aforesaid, either in opposition to said marriage settlement contract or in support of the allegations of defendant's answer, whereupon, said cause having been submitted to the Court for its decision, findings of fact and conclusions of law having been by the parties expressly waived in writing by stipulation on file herein, the Court having considered the evidence, being fully advised in the law in the premises, and having found all the allegations of plaintiff's complaint to be true:

IT IS THEREFORE HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and this does order, adjudge and decree that the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between plaintiff, Eleanor G. Kubie, and defendant, Lawrence S. Kubie, be and they hereby are dissolved and that the parties are and each of them is freed from the obligations thereof.

IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and this does order, adjudge and decree that the written marriage settlement contract made and entered into June 15, 1949, by and between Lawrence S. Kubie, party of the first part called "the Husband" therein, and Eleanor G. Kubie, party of the second part called "the Wife" therein, they being defendant and plaintiff respectively in this suit, is found to be fair and equitable, voluntarily made by said parties and of such a character to be of the most benefit to each of the parties under the circumstances, in keeping with their respective positions and stations in life, and designed to be for their mutual benefit, and said contract and each and all of its provisions is hereby confirmed and approved, the original of which contract was introduced in evidence in this suit and permitted to be substituted by true and correct copy thereof.

In accordance with the provisions of the aforementioned marriage settlement contract, IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. Plaintiff and defendant, except as herein otherwise provided, each shall own, have and enjoy, independently of any claim or right of the other party, all real, personal and intangible property belonging to him or her, and now in his or her possession, or which hereafter may come into his or her possession, with full power of disposition independent of and to the exclusion of the other party, and without any right whatsoever in either party to any such properties of the other party, or mutations, or proceeds thereof;

2. In addition to the sums of money paid by defendant to plaintiff, as evidenced by said contract, defendant, Lawrence S. Kubie, shall and he hereby is ordered and directed to pay to plaintiff, Eleanor G. Kubie, for the period commencing August 1, 1949 and ending June 30, 1950, the sum of Four Hundred ($400.) Dollars per month on the first day of each and every month during said period of time;

3. Defendant, Lawrence S. Kubie, shall and he hereby is ordered and directed to pay to plaintiff, Eleanor G. Kubie, for the year beginning July 1, 1950 and for each successive year thereafter the sum of Three Thousand Six Hundred ($3,600.) Dollars per annum in equal monthly installments on the first day of each and every month; such payments, so provided, and hereby ordered and directed to be made, shall continue to be made by defendant to plaintiff during the joint lives of plaintiff and defendant, PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that said payments shall cease upon the occurrence of the first of the following contingencies:

(a) The death of either plaintiff or defendant;

(b) The death of plaintiff's mother, Miriam H. Gottheil;

(c) Plaintiff's re-marriage.

4. Plaintiff is hereby ordered and directed, in the event of the death of her mother, Miriam H. Gottheil, or upon her, plaintiff's re-marriage, to notify defendant immediately by registered mail addressed to defendant in care of Messrs. Kupfer, Silberfeld, Nathan & Danziger, No. 29 Broadway, New York 6, N. Y., of either of such events, whichever first shall have occurred;

5. Defendant shall and he hereby is ordered and directed to pay all debts, accounts and obligations incurred, existing, or due and unpaid growing out of the relationship of plaintiff and defendant as husband and wife, prior to and up to and including June 14, 1949, and plaintiff shall be and she hereby is relieved of all responsibility in connection with the payment of any and all of such debts and obligations; commencing with June 15, 1949 and thereafter plaintiff shall become and be responsible for any and all debts and obligations incurred by her, and defendant shall be and he hereby is relieved of all responsibility and liability for the payment of such obligations incurred and to be incurred by plaintiff commencing June 15, 1949 and thereafter;

6. Plaintiff by said marriage settlement contract has waived, remised and released any and all rights in defendant's estate existing as of June 15, 1949, or hereafter which otherwise might exist in her favor under the laws of any State in the United States, and amendments thereto, by virtue whereof defendant may execute any last will and testament desired by him and make any other final disposition of his property in any manner whatsoever to the entire exclusion of plaintiff, and plaintiff shall have no right of election whatsoever to take against any last will and testament of defendant; and she, plaintiff, shall at any time upon recuest of defendant, execute such form of agreement or waiver as may be deemed necessary or appropriate in the premises;

7. Defendant by said marriage settlement contract has waived, remised and released any and all rights to plaintiff's estate existing as of June 15, 1949, or hereafter which otherwise might exist in his favor under the laws of any State in the United States, and amendments thereto, by virtue whereof plaintiff may execute any last will and testament desired by her or make any other final disposition of her property in any manner whatsoever to the entire exclusion of defendant, and defendant shall have no right of election whatsoever to take against any last will and testament of plaintiff; and, he, defendant, shall at any time upon request of plaintiff, execute such form of agreement or waiver as may be deemed necessary or appropriate in the premises;

8. Plaintiff and defendant, by virtue of their mutual covenants evidenced by said marriage settlement contract, shall be and they hereby are released and forever discharged each from the other from any and all actions, suits, debts, claims, demands, and obligations whatsoever, both in law and in equity, which either of them has had, or has, or may hereafter have against the other upon or by reason of any matter, cause or thing up to June 15, 1949, the date of the execution of said contract, except as provided in said contract and in this decree provided, it being the expressed intention of the said parties that said contract be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York and be binding upon each of their heirs, executors or administrators.

9. Plaintiff and defendant, by virtue of their mutual covenants evidenced by said marriage settlement contract, shall and they hereby are ordered and directed to, upon the request of either, make, execute and deliver any and all deeds, releases, assignments, waivers, instruments, papers or documents as the other party may reasonably require for the purpose of giving full effect to said marriage settlement contract and the covenants, conditions and agreements therein contained and for the purpose of giving full force and effect to this Decree and each and every of the requirements herein contained, and no change, modification or discharge of said marriage settlement contract shall be valid unless in writing and signed by both of said parties.

The above entitled matter came on regularly for hearing on the 16th day of August, 1949 and it appearing that the defendant, B. L. CURTRIGHT, was duly and regularly served with summons in Ada County, State of Idaho on the 25th day of July, 1949, and that the defendant has failed to answer or in any manner plead to the plaintiff's complaint filed herein; that upon the motion of the plaintiff the default of the defendant was duly and regularly entered and witnesses were thereupon sworn and testified on behalf of the plaintiff; it appearing from the testimony of the witnesses for the plaintiff that all the allegations of the complaint are true and that plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from the defendant upon the ground of extreme cruelty; and the Court being fully advised in the premises.

NOW, THEREFORE IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED and this does Order, Adjudge and Decree that the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the parties be dissolved and that plaintiff is hereby restored to the status of a single person.

DOREATHA OSBORNE, Plaintiff, vs. EUGENE S. OSBORNE, Defendant.	DECREE OF DIVORCE.

This cause coming on regularly to be heard on the 26th day of August, 1949, plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorneys, Davison & Davison, and the defendant appearing not, either in person, by attorney, or otherwise; and it appearing from the files and records in said case that the defendant was personally served with Summons in the State of Idaho, and that the time for the defendant to make an appearance has expired, and the default of the defendant has been duly entered;

The Court heard the evidence and proof submitted by plaintiff and on her behalf, and finds that the allegations of said Complaint are true, that defendant has treated plaintiff in an extremely cruel and inhuman manner, inflicting upon her great and grievous mental suffering and anguish, and that plaintiff is entitled to the relief sought by her Complaint.

WHEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby dissolved and held for naught, and each of the parties are freed from any further obligations thereof.

Defendant.

DECREE

THIS CAUSE Came on before the Court sitting without a jury on the ~~29th~~ 30 of August, 1949, the said plaintiff appearing in person and by counsel, Vernon K. Smith, Esq., of Boise, Idaho, and the defendant having appeared neither in person nor by counsel.

And it appearing from the records and files of this said case that a verified complaint was filed and that a Summons was issued, which said Summons was served upon the defendant on the 8th day of August, 1949, but that said defendant did not appear and plead to said Complaint, and the time for appearance having expired, the plaintiff filed an Affidavit setting forth the facts from which the Court finds that the defendant is not, nor has he been at any time within six (6) months next preceding the date hereof, a person in the armed forces of the United States of Merica, as defined by Section 101 (1) of the Soldiers'and Sailers' Relief Act of 1940, or any other act of Congress or the Legislature of the State of Idaho, duly enacted and approved. Whereupon the Court did make its Order allowing a default against said defendant.

Whereupon, evidence was produced from which it appears that each and all and every of the allegations of plaintiff's complaint are duly sustained, and that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief for which he prays, it particularly appearing from said evidence that the plaintiff is a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho, and has been such resident for more than six (6) full weeks next preceding the filing of said action, which said fact was duly corroborated.

NOW THEREFORE, It is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE and DECREE, that the bonds of matrimony, now and heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Mildred Cagle, and the defendant, Elvin Cagle, are forever dissolved, and that each said party is absolutely freed from each, all and every obligation thereof.

This cause came on regularly for hearing on this day before the Court, J. L. Eberle, Esquire, appearing as attorney for the plaintiff and the defendant having heretofore appeared by demurrer by Herman Welker, Esquire, her attorney, and thereafter by stipulating having withdrawn such demurrer, refused to plead further, and consented to a hearing of the above entitled cause at the convenience of the court, default of said defendant upon such refusal to plead further having been duly entered, and such default is hereby entered, and an affidavit of military service having been duly filed herein, and the court having heard the testimony introduced by plaintiff and being fully advised in the premises, finds, concludes and decrees:

1. That said plaintiff and defendant intermarried in Queens County, New York, on June 14, 1937, and ever since have been and now are husband and wife.

2. That plaintiff now is and for more than a year last past has been a resident of Ada County, State of Idaho.

3. That there is no issue of said marriage.

4. That for more than a year last past the said defendant has treated plaintiff herein with extreme cruelty and has inflicted upon him grevious mental suffering, and her conduct has been such that it has impaired, and will continue to impair, said plaintiff's health; that defendant has repeatedly committed acts of cruelty upon plaintiff, including constant quarelling, nagging and criticism, together with physical injury resulting from defendant's violent temper, and treating plaintiff by words and conduct in such a way as to humiliate and injury him, all of which caused plaintiff mental suffering, greatly distressing him and seriously affecting him both mentally and physically.

5. That the community property of the parties hereto consists of household goods, including a piano, oil painting, cocktail table and certain other items of furniture which the plaintiff has in his possession; the beauty parlor business of plaintiff, together with furniture, fixtures and equipment in connection therewith, and a contract of sale dated May 4, 1948 by and between Clarence E. Brewer and Lillian N. Brewer as sellers, wherein the parties hereto are buyers of the following described property, to wit:

> Lots 9 and 10 of C. E. Brewer Subdivision, a part of Lots 13 and 14, Veazey Park Addition, recorded in Book 11 of Plats at Page 614, records of the County Recorder's Office of Ada County, Idaho, together with a water right in Nampa & Meridian Irrigation District; that plaintiff is entitled to all of such personal property, excepting said piano, oil painting, cocktail table and certain other items of furniture which the plaintiff now has in his possession and which should be shipped to the defendant at plaintiff's expense.

6. That plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce upon the ground of cruelty and the bonds of marriage should be dissolved.

7. That plaintiff should pay defendant as alimony the sum of $100.00 per month during her lifetime or unless said defendant remarries.

WHEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony existing between Joseph J. Pisone and Jeanne Moore Pisone be and the same are hereby dissolved and the said parties are, and each of them, freed and absolutely released therefrom.

2. That the plaintiff be and hereby is decreed and shall have as his sole and separate property the contract of sale and real property hereinbefore described, his beauty parlor business and all of the other property hereinbefore described and mentioned, excepting only the property decreed to the defendant as hereinafter specified.

3. That the defendant be and hereby is decreed and shall have as her sole and separate property the piano, oil painting, cocktail table and certain other items of furniture, which the plaintiff now has in his possession and which are to be shipped to said defendant at plaintiff's expense.

4. That plaintiff shall pay to the defendant for her maintenance, care and support during her lifetime, or until she remarries, the sum of $100.00 per month, payable on the 10th day of each and every month, commencing September 10, 1949.

Defendant.

This cause coming on to be heard before the Court this 22ND day of August, 1949, the plaintiff being present in person and being represented by Everett B. Taylor, her attorney, the defendant being represented by L. L. Sullivan, his attorney, the following proceedings were had:

It appearing to the Court that a duly verified answer had been filed in the said action by the defendant and that the said action was ready for trial; that the said parties had agreed that the said action should be tried before the Court, without a jury, at this time, and that each of the said parties were ready for trial. The Court after hearing the testimony submitted for and on behalf of the plaintiff, which was duly corroborated, and the issue of the plaintiff's domicile having been contested, and both sides having rested; the Court having considered the law and the evidence, now finds that all material allegations of the complaint are true and correct; that plaintiff is, and for more than six weeks immediately prior to the filing of the complaint in this action has been a resident of Blaine County, State of Idaho, in which County she had her place of residence and domicile, and the Court having rendered its decision herein in writing, consisting of findings of fact and conclusions of law, which said decision is in favor of said plaintiff.

NOW, therefore, in accordance therewith, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED, that the marriage between the plaintiff Dorothy S. Thackrey and the defendant Theodore O. Thackrey, be dissolved and said parties and each of them is freed and released from the bonds of matrimony.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED, That the separation agreement between the parties dated the 5th day of April, 1949, marked Plaintiff's Exhibit "A", on file in this Court, providing for a settlement of their property rights between the parties and of the claims of each of them against the other, be approved, confirmed and ratified by this Court, and the parties are each hereby ordered and directed to comply with the terms and provisions thereof on his or her part to be performed with the same force and effect as if such terms and provisions were set out in haec verba as a part hereof.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED, That the plaintiff's maiden name of Dorothy Schiff be restored to her.

NEWELL B. CHANDLER
Plaintiff
vs.
DELORES L. CHANDLER

The above entitled cause came on regularly to be heard and tried before the court, sitting without a jury on the 25th day of August, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by David Doane of the firm of Doane & Furey, his attorneys, and the defendant appearing by Merlin S. Young, her attorney; and, the said cause was thereupon tried upon the complaint of the plaintiff and the answer of the defendant; and, the court having heard the testimony and being fully advised in the premises, and findings of fact and conclusions of law having been expressly waived by stipulation of the parties filed in the above entitled cause;

And, there having been offered and admitted in evidence a contract made and entered into by and between the plaintiff and defendant under the date of August 10, 1949, in words and figures as follows:

AGREEMENT

Between: NEWELL B. CHANDLER of Payette, Payette County, Idaho
First Party
and
DELORES L. CHANDLER of Sacramento County, Sacramento, California
Second Party

THIS AGREEMENT, Made this 10th day of August 1949, by and between Newell B. Chandler, herein called "first party" and Delores L. Chandler, herein called "second party,"

W I T N E S S E T H

WHEREAS, the parties hereto have, since February 17, 1940 been husband and wife and now are husband and wife; and,

WHEREAS, unfortunate differences have arisen between the parties hereto, as a result of which they have separated and are now living apart from each other; and,

WHEREAS, the parties hereto desire to enter into an agreement for the purpose of confirming their separation and to set forth their agreement which they term to be satisfactory and reasonable for the purpose of disposing of all the property in which the parties are jointly interested;

NOW, THEREFORE, In consideration of the premises and of the mutual covenants and agreements of the parties herein contained;

IT IS HEREBY MUTUALLY AGREED AS FOLLOWS:

That it shall be lawful for the said parties to continue to live separate and apart from each other, during the term of their natural lives; and that each of said parties shall, at all times, live separate and apart from the other as if sole and unmarried and may reside, from time to time, at such place or places and may conduct, carry on and engage in any employment, business, or trade that either shall deem fit without any control, restraint or interference, directly or indirectly, by the other party hereto.

That neither party shall molest the other, nor compel the other to dwell with him or her, by any legal proceedings or otherwise.

That neither party shall be obligated in any respect to maintain or support the other.

That from and after the date hereof, the second party shall have the entire care, custody, and control of the minor child of the parties heretofore, which was adopted by the first party, to-wit:

Edwin Charles Chandler, Age 12,

and that the first party shall have the right to make reasonable visitation at reasonable times and places to such child, provided that such visitation does not in any way interfere with his schooling or with the care, custody, and control hereby granted to the second party.

That the first party does hereby grant and convey unto the second party all of his right title and interest in and to all of the household furniture now owned by the respective parties and also all of his right title and interest in and to that certain 1941 Pontiac Sedan, now the community property of the parties hereto, and the second party does hereby acknowledge that she has full and complete possession of said furniture and automobile.

In the event that either of the parties hereto begin an action for divorce, this agreement shall be binding and effective as to the disposition of their properties and the custody of said child and shall be presented to such Court if such divorce is to be obtained for approval and should that Court not approve the same, then no decree of divorce shall be entered with provisions contrary to this Agreement, except upon notice to the other party.

The second party hereby releases the first party from all claims and demands of every character arising out of the marital status of said parties, including attorneys fees which may be incurred in any future divorce action between the parties, costs, temporary alimony, permanent alimony, support and maintenance, right of family allowance, and right to inherit and all claims of every character and description held by the second party against the first party, save as herein provided. It is specifically agreed and understood that this agreement comprises the complete adjustment and settlement between said parties of all claims and demands of every character and that the second party shall have no right, title, or claim against first party, save as herein provided.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year first above written.

First Party

Delores L. Chandler
Second Party

And, it appearing to the court that such contract is fair, equitable, and should be confirmed and approved by the court;

IT IS NOW, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED BY THE COURT AS FOLLOWS:

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby, dissolved, and the plaintiff, Newell B. Chandler, divorced from the defendant, Delores L. Chandler, and each of the parties hereto restored to the status of a single person;

That the said agreement in writing made and entered into by and between the plaintiff and defendant under date of the 10th day of August, 1949, and placed in evidence and hereinbefore set forth, providing for the care, custody, support and maintenance of the minor child, Edwin Charles Chandler, and settling, adjusting and composing all property rights of the plaintiff and defendant with reference to each other, be, and the said agreement hereby is, approved, ratified, and confirmed, and each the plaintiff and defendant is hereby ordered and directed to comply with the terms thereof;

DECREE OF DIVORCE

THIS CAUSE CAME on to be heard in open Court on the 27th day of August, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by Creed W. Mullins, her attorney, and the defendant appearing not; and

IT APPEARING FURTHER, from the records and files in this cause that a complaint was duly and regularly filed in the above entitled Court and cause on the 12th day of July, 1949, that a Summons was duly and regularly issued by the Clerk of said Court and that the defendant was personally served with said Summons in Nampa, Canyon County, Idaho, on the 14th day of July, 1949, by delivering to him in person a copy of said Summons to which was attached a copy of the said complaint; and

IT APPEARING FURTHER, that more than twenty days have elapsed since the said service and that the said defendant has failed to answer or otherwise appear herein; and

IT APPEARING FURTHER, from the affidavit on file herein, that the defendant is not in the military service of the United States and has not been in said service more than one year immediately preceding the filing of this action; and

IT APPEARING FURTHER, that the plaintiff and defendant have made a property settlement and agreement adjusting their property rights and providing for the support of the minor children of plaintiff and defendant.

WHEREFORE: upon motion of Creed W. Mullins, attorney for plaintiff for a default, based upon the records and files in this cause, the default of the said defendant was duly and regularly entered, after the entry of the default of the defendant, witnesses were sworn and their testimony taken in support of the allegations of the plaintiff's complaint.

The Court thereupon considered the records and files in this cause and the testimony of the Witnesses offered on behalf of the plaintiff as well as the documentary evidence and decided that the plaintiff was entitled to the relief prayed for in her complaint.

NOW THEREFORE: It is hereby Ordered, Adjudged and Decreed;

1. That the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby forever dissolved, and the plaintiff is hereby granted a decree of divorce from the said defendant.

2. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the property settlement heretofor made and entered between plaintiff and defendant, be and the same is hereby ratified and confirmed.

3. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, that the plaintiff be and she is hereby granted the custody and control of Janet Lee Hurst, the minor child of plaintiff and defendant.

4. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that when the child which plaintiff is expecting is born, that she be granted the care, custody and control of said child.

This cause coming on regularly for hearing before the above entitled court on the 31st day of August, 1949, upon the plaintiff's complaint, service of the same and of the summons in this action having been duly and regularly, and in the manner provided by law, personally served upon the defendant, Bertha C. McKim, at Caldwell, Idaho on the 9th day of August, 1949, and said defendant failing to appear herein or to plead in said action within the time allowed by law, as specified in said summons; motion for the entry of default of said defendant for failing to so appear was duly made, and it appearing to the court that said defendant, Bertha I. McKim, was not at any time during the pendency of this action ~~in~~ the military serviedof the United States or any of the branches or departments thereof, order was duly issued directing the clerk of this court to enter the default of said defendant for so failing to appear and plead within the time allowed by law; pursuant to the order of this court thereafter the default of said defendant for so failing to appear and plead within the time allowed by law was duly and regularly entered by the clerk of this court in the above entitled cause and prior to the hearing of this matter; and the plaintiff appearing in person and by his attorney, Harold L. Yeamans, and the defendant not appearing in said cause the court proceeded to the hearing thereof.

The plaintiff and his witnesses were called, duly sworn and testified in open court in support of all the material allegations of the complaint; and from such testimony it appears to the satisfaction of the court that all of the material allegations of said complaint are true, that the plaintiff now is and for more than six weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action has been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho; that said plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in his complaint and in particular that he is entitled to an absolute divorce from the defendant on the grounds of ~~Wilful Desertion and~~ for the reason that said plaintiff and defendant have lived separate and apart from each other without cohabitation for a period of more than five years next preceeding the commencement of this action.

NOW THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE AND DECREE,:

That the plaintiff, H. I. McKim, be and he hereby is granted an absolute divorce from the defendant, Bertha C. McKim, and that each of the parties to said marriage be and they hereby are restored to the status of single persons.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause coming on regularly to be heard this 19th day of August, 1949, at Chambers of said court, at Idaho Falls, Bonneville County, Idaho, before the Honorable Henry S. Martin, Judge of said Court, the plaintiff appearing by T. Harold Lee, Attorney, and the defendant not appearing either in person or by counsel, the said matter was finally heard and submitted to the Court, upon the plaintiff's verified Complaint, and the evidence submitted on behalf of the plaintiff by the following witnesses: LaMar K. Johnson and Roy Livermore ; from which it appears that all of the material allegations of the complaint are sustained by the testimony, free from all legal exceptions as to its competency, admissability and sufficiency; that said matters so alleged and proved are sufficient in law to entitle the plaintiff to the relief prayed for in his complaint; that the plaintiff was a resident of the County of Jefferson, State of Idaho, at the time the suit was commenced and filed, and for a period of more than six full weeks immediately prior thereto; and the default of the defendant having heretofore been entered on motion of T. Harold Lee, counsel for the plaintiff.

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED, and this Court by virtue of the power and authority therein vested and in pursuance of the statutes in such cases made and provided, does order, adjudge and decree that the marriage between LaMar K. Johnson, the plaintiff, and Marjorie Maxine Reese Johnson, the defendant, be dissolved, and the same is hereby dissolved accordingly, and the said parties are, and each of them, is freed and absolutely released from the bonds of matrimony and all the obligations thereof.

This action having come regularly on for hearing this day, the Plaintiff appearing in person and with his attorney, C. J. Hamilton, but the Defendant did not appear and was not represented.

The court finds that due and legal service of the Summons in this cause has been made upon the Defendant by personal service of the Summons, in accordance with the law and order of this court. That after the experation of the time allowed by law for the entry of an appearance by the Defendant herein, and the Defendent having failed to file or enter any appearance whatever, the default of the Defendant was duly and regularly entered by the Clerk of this Court.

The court further finds that the Defendant is not in the Federal Service on active duty as member of the Army, or Navy, or Marine Corps, or Coast Guard of the United States, or as an officer of the Public Health Service with either the Army or Navy of the United States, or in training or being educated under the supervision of the United States preliminary to induction into the Military Service thereof.

The court further finds that the Plaintiff is entitled to a Decree herein, as prayed for in Plaintiff's complaint, and that Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law have been expressly waived herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion of C. J. HAMILTON, attorney for Plaintiff,

IT IS, BY THE COURT, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the Plaintiff, EDWARD SILAS, and the defendent, MARCELINE SILAS, be, and the same hereby are vacated, dissolved and set aside on the grounds of extreme cruelty.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the care, custody and control of the three minor children of these parties, to-wit: DAISY MAE SILAS, NELLIE VERONICA SILAS, and GERALDINE RAE SILAS are hereby awarded to the Plaintiff.

BESSIE A. EBERT)

This action having come regularly on for hearing this day, the Plaintiff appearing in person and with his attorney, C. J. Hamilton, but the Defendant did not appear and was not represented.

The Court finds that due and legal service of the Summons in this cause has been made upon the Defendant by personal service of the Summons, in accordance with the law and order of this Court. That after the expiration of the time allowed by law for the entry of an appearance by the Defendant herein, and the Defendant having failed to file or enter any appearance whatever, the default of the Defendant was duly and regularly entered by the Clerk of this Court.

The Court further finds that the Defendant is not in the Federal Service on active duty as a member of the Army, or Navy, or Marine Corps, or Coast Guard of the United States, or as an officer of the Public Health Service with either the Army or Navy of the United States, or in training or being educated under the supervision of the United States preliminary to induction into the Military Service thereof.

The Court further finds that the Plaintiff is entitled to a Decree herein, as prayed for in Plaintiff's Complaint, and that Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law have been ~~expressly~~ waived herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion of C. J. HAMILTON, attorney for Plaintiff,

IT IS, BY THE COURT, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the Plaintiff, HAROLD H. EBERT, and the defendant, BESSIE A. EBERT, be, and the same hereby are vacated, dissolved and set aside on the ground of extreme cruelty.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the care, custody and control of the two minor children of these parties, to-wit: DAVID HARLOW EBERT and PHILLIP ARTHUR EBERT are hereby awarded to the Plaintiff.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the community, real property described as follows: to-wit:

> The Southwest Quarter (SW¼) of Section 32, Township 51 North, Range 3, West Boise Meridian.

be, and the same hereby is decreed to the Plaintiff as his sole and separate property.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that all the personal property of the community, including a 1933 Plymouth automobile, and the household furniture, excepting that belonging to the Defendant by a previous marriage, be and the same hereby is decreed to the Plaintiff, as his sole and separate property.

This matter having come on regularly to be heard this 8th day of August 1949, before the undersigned District Judge, the plaintiff appearing in person and being represented by his attorney, E.L. Miller, and the defendant not appearing either in person or by counsel, the defendant having admitted and acknowledged service of a true and correct copy of the Complaint and Summons herein on July 26, 1949, and her acceptance of service being on file in the above entitled Court, and having filed herein her answer and waiver of notice of time and place of hearing said action on its merits, and the plaintiff and his witness having been duly and regularly sworn and examined, testified on behalf of himself in support of the allegations of his complaint and corroborative evidence having been submitted as to the residence of said plaintiff, the Court having heard and considered all of the evidence introduced and being fully advised in the premises and having made its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law herein, from which it appears that the plaintiff is entitled to an absolute decree of divorce upon the ground of Extreme Cruelty, dissolving the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and defendant.

NOW THEREFORE, on motion of E.L. Miller, attorney for the plaintiff,

IT IS BY THIS COURT ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff LELAND G. McCLELLAN, and the defendant JOY CARROL McCLELLAN, be and the same are hereby vacated, dissolved and set aside upon the ground of Extreme Cruelty.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the defendant be, and she hereby is awarded the absolute care, custody and control of the minor child WANDA JOY McCLELLAN subject to the right of reasonable visitation on the part of the plaintiff.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the defendant be, and she hereby is, awarded judgment against the plaintiff for the sum of $35.00 per month for the support, maintenance and education of said minor child to continue during it's minority or unless sooner married or deceased.

DECREE

This action having come regularly on for hearing this day the Plaintiff appearing in person and with her attorney, C. J. Hamilton, but the Defendant did not appear and was not represented.

The Court finds that due and legal service of the Summons in this cause has been made upon the Defendant by publication of the Summons, in accordance with the law and order of this Court. That after the expiration of the time allowed by law for the entry of an appearance by the Defendant herein, and the Defendant having failed to file or enter any appearance whatever, the default of the Defendant was duly and regularly entered by the Clerk of this Court.

The Court further finds that the Defendant is not in the Federal Service on active duty as a member of the Army, or Navy, or Marine Corps, or Coast Guard of the United States, or as an officer of the Public Health Service with either the Army or Navy of the United States, or in training or being educated under the supervision of the United States preliminary to induction into the Military Service thereof.

The Court further finds that the Plaintiff is entitled to a Decree herein, as prayed for in Plaintiff's Complaint, and that Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law have been expressly waived herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion of C. J. Hamilton, attorney for Plaintiff,

IT IS, BY THE COURT, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, HELEN HARTSOCK, and the defendant, IRA O. HARTSOCK, be, and the same hereby are vacated, dissolved and set aside on the ground of wilful neglect.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the care, custody and control of the minor children of these parties, to-wit: KRISTINA LEA and LORRETTA KAYE are hereby awarded to the plaintiff.

Done in open Court this 5th day of August, A.D., 1949.

JAS. A. FOSTER

This cause having regularly come on to be heard before the undersigned Judge of the above entitled Court in the courtroom of said Court at Coeur d'Alene, Kootenai County, Idaho, at 10:00 A.M. on the date hereof, plaintiff appearing in person and by J. Ward Arney, attorney therefor, and the defendant herein having signed, on or about October 22, 1948, and there being on file herein a receipt and admission of service of the alias summons and, additionally, a stipulation acknowledged by the defendant April 12, 1949; the defendant being in default and the default of the defendant having been duly entered; competent and corroborative, oral and documentary evidence having been offered and received, supporting all of the material allegations of the complaint and written findings of fact and conclusions of law being waived under I.C.A. §7-304 and correlated Idaho provisions; now, therefore,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED THAT:

(1). Plaintiff is granted divorce from defendant on the grounds of extreme mental cruelty on the part of defendant toward the plaintiff.

(2). Plaintiff is awarded the care, custody and control of the three minor children, Marlene and Charlene, aged 9 May 16, 1949, and Tamara Ve, aged 4 May 8, 1949; the defendant, however, to have the right to have the children with him for visitation for the periods of school vacation, beginning at the end of the school term of 1949-50 and to retain the two older children in his custody until the end of the 1948-49 school term; provided, however, that the defendant shall pay for the transportation of the children from the home of the plaintiff to the place of visitation with the defendant and to return them at his expense to the plaintiff and to properly supervise their transport; the defendant to be solely responsible for the support of the children during the period of his custody of them.

(3). The Umatilla, Oregon property is without the jurisdiction of the Court and, therefore, is not covered hereby, being left to another court of competent jurisdiction.

ENTERED, at Coeur d'Alene, Kootenai County, Idaho, this 16th day of ~~May~~ August, 1949.

DECREE

Sue Langford

This action having come regularly on for hearing this day, the Plaintiff appearing in person and with her attorney, E. T. KNUDSON, but the Defendant did not appear and was not represented.

The Court finds that due and legal service of the Summons in this cause has been made upon the Defendant by publication of the Summons in accordance with the law and order of this Court. That after the expiration of the time allowed by law for the entry of an appearance by the Defendant herein, and the Defendant having failed to file or enter any appearance whatever, the default of the Defendant was duly and regularly entered by the Clerk of this Court.

The Court further finds that the Defendant is not in the Federal Service on active duty as a member of the Army, or Navy, or Marine Corps, or Coast Guard of the United States, or as an officer of the Public Health Service with either the Army or Navy of the United States, or in training or being educated under the supervision of the United States preliminary to induction into the Military Service thereof.

The Court further finds that the Plaintiff is entitled to a Decree herein, as prayed for in Plaintiff's Complaint, and that Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law have been expressly waived herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion of E. T. KNUDSON, attorney for Plaintiff,

IT IS, BY THE COURT, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the Plaintiff, VIVIAN V. LEWIS, and the Defendant, FRANK N. LEWIS, be, and the same hereby are vacated, dissolved and set aside on the ground of wilful desertion.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This matter came on regularly for hearing on this 4th day of August, 1949, upon the Agreement and Stipulation of the parties acting by and through their respective counsel of record, the defendant appearing in person and with his counsel of record and the plaintiff appearing through her counsel of record, and the defendant and cross-complainant having introduced evidence in support of his Answer and Cross-Complaint, and the plaintiff, through her attorney declining to offer evidence or to plead further,

And it appearing that all matters pertaining to community property and custody of minor children and support money and alimony and attorney fees have been agreed upon between the parties in that certain "Property Settlement Agreement" made and executed by the parties on the 2nd day of August, 1949, subject to the approval of this Court,

And it having been stipulated and agreed by the respective parties through their counsel of record that Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law be waived in this cause,

And the Court being fully advised in the premises finds that Arthur William Fahrenwald, Jr., the defendant and cross-complainant, has established by sufficient evidence that he has a cause for divorce against the plaintiff, Eleanor I. Fahrenwald, on the grounds alleged in paragraph IV, sub-paragraph (3) of his Cross-Complaint;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and this does order, adjudge and decree that a Decree of Divorce absolute be, and it is hereby awarded to the defendant and cross-complainant upon the grounds of extreme cruelty, dissolving the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the Property Settlement Agreement made between the parties on the 2nd day of August, 1949, is hereby allowed and approved and distribution of community property and custody of minor children and payment of support money, alimony and attorney fees is hereby ordered made pursuant thereto, and said Property Settlement Agreement is hereby approved and made a part of this Decree and a copy is herewith attached.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

The above entitled matter came on regularly to be heard and tried before the Court this 23rd day of August, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by and through her Guardian ad litem, Anna Krogh, and with her attorney of record, J.M. O'Donnell, and the defendant appearing neither in person nor by attorney.

On said hearing it appeared to the satisfaction of the Court that service of Summons was duly and regularly made by personal service as appears by the Acceptance of Service of Summons and Complaint filed herein, and the defendant having failed to appear and answer said Complaint within the time allowed by law and his time for appearing having expired and the default of said defendant having been entered according to law, and the Court having heard the testimony adduced on behalf of said plaintiff and in support of her Complaint, and the cause having been finally submitted to the Court for decision, the Court finds that the allegations stated in plaintiff's Complaint on file herein are true and supported by the evidence.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED by this Court as follows:

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the above named plaintiff, Joyce Lester, and the above named de-

DECREE

This matter coming on regularly for hearing this 25th day of August, 1949, and the Court having made and filed its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law herein and being fully advised in the premises;

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion of Martin V. Huff, attorney for plaintiff, that a decree be entered;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the marriage heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Charles C. Cummings, and the defendant, Martha B. Cummings, be and the same is hereby dissolved, and the plaintiff, Charles C. Cummings, is hereby granted a decree of absolute divorce from the defendant, Martha B. Cummings, upon the grounds of extreme cruelty, and the parties hereto are, after the entry of this Decree, each restored to the status of single persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the permanent care and custody of the minor child, Charles C. Cummings, Jr., be and the same is hereby awarded to the defendant, Martha B. Cummings, however, with the right in the plaintiff of reasonable visitation of such minor child at all reasonable times.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that all community personal property of the parties, described in the findings of fact, with the exception of the defendant's personal effects and jewelry, and the personal effects of the minor child, be and the same are hereby awarded, set over and decreed to the plaintiff, Charles C. Cummings, subject to his duty to pay and assume all community debts, except any which may have been incurred by the defendant since the separation of the parties.

JUDGMENT AND DECREE

No. 3130

The above-entitled matter came on regularly for trial before the Honorable Preston Thatcher, District Judge, at chambers in Salmon, Lemhi County, State of Idaho, on the 24th day of June, 1949, and at that time the plaintiff appeared in person and with his counsel of record, C. V. Boyatt of Pocatello, Idaho, and the defendant did not appear in person, but appeared by and through her Guardian ad litem, Namely, C. Walker Lyon of Salmon, Idaho, and it appearing that the defendant has been duly and regularly served with process in said action, in accordance with the law, and it further appearing that a Guardian ad litem has been appointed to appear for the defendant, in accordance with the law, and it further appearing that a copy of Summons and Complaint have been served upon the said Guardian ad litem, and that a copy of the Summons and Complaint have been served upon the County Attorney, namely, Charles Herndon, of Lemhi County, State of Idaho, and it further appearing that the said Guardian ad litem and the County Attorney are present in open court and are fully advised concerning said cause, and the Court having found that the record is now complete and the cause is ready for trial, the plaintiff was duly sworn and offered evidence in support of all the material allegations of his complaint, and his testimony was corroborated by other evidence, and the said Guardian ad litem and the said County Attorney did not produce any evidence in the matter, and the Court being fully advised in the premises;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED as follows:

1. That plaintiff be and he is hereby awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant, and that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby dissolved.

2. That the plaintiff shall pay all of his own costs, attorney fees and expenses, indidental to the prosecution of this action.

vs.	DECREE OF DIVORCE
WAYLAND WARREN McQUEARY, Defendant.	No. 3288

THIS CAUSE, coming on to be heard the 20th day of August, 1949, before the Honorable Preston Thatcher, Judge of the Sixth Judicial District of the State of Idaho, sitting without a jury, at Salmon, Lemhi County, Idaho, Charles Herndon appearing as Attorney for the Plaintiff and no one appearing for the Defendant, and

IT FURTHER APPEARING that the Defendant herein, Wayland Warren McQueary, was regularly served with summons attached to a copy of the Complaint on file in this cause; and the said Defendant, having failed to appear and answer said Complaint, and the time for answering having expired, and no answer or demurrer having been filed; and

IT FURTHER APPEARING that an Affidavit in the above entitled cause, as required by the provisions of the Soldier's and Sailor's Act of 1940, as amended, has been filed showing that the Defendant is not in military service as defined by said Act; and the default of said Defendant, Wayland Warren McQueary, having been duly entered according to law;

AND IT FURTHER APPEARING that two children have been the issue of said marriage, to-wit: Warren McQueary born November 19, 1942 and Harley McQueary born December 27, 1943 and that there is an adopted child, Wanda McQueary, age 16 years the issue of plaintiff by her former husband; that all of the aforesaid children are now residing with the plaintiff.

AND IT FURTHER APPEARING that prior to the date of her marriage with the defendant the plaintiff owned as her sole and separate property certain real estate in the Finstur Addition to the City of Salmon which said property was sold and the proceeds thereof applied to the benefit of the community and that the community property of the plaintiff and the defendant, both real and personal, is as set forth in the Plaintiff's Complaint on file herein.

AND evidence having been introduced on behalf of the Plaintiff on the hearing of this cause, and the Court having heard the testimony of the Plaintiff and other witnesses, and it fuly and satisfactorily appearing to the Court, and the Court finding that all material allegations in the Complaint are true and are sustained by testimony, free from all legal exceptions, as to its competency, admissibility and sufficiency and that a divorce should be granted as prayed for in said Complaint; and written Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law having been waived.

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion of Charles Herndon, Attorney for Plaintiff, it is considered, ordered, adjudged and decreed as follows:

1. That the marriage between the Plaintiff, Dora E. McQueary and Wayland Warren McQueary be and the same is hereby dissolved, and the parties are, and each of them is, free and absolutely released from the bonds of matrimony and all obligations thereof.

2. That Plaintiff have the custody and control of the minor children, Wanda McQueary, Warren McQueary, and Harley McQueary, subject to the right of the Defendant to visit said children at all reasonable and proper times.

3. That Defendant be, and he is hereby awarded as his sole and separate property, all mechanic tools and a gun and his personal clothing and effects.

4. That the following described property be and the same is hereby awarded to the Plaintiff as her sole and separate property for her separate use and benefit:

REAL PROPERTY

Lots 8, 9, and 10, of and in Block 2, of and in Gilmore Addition to North Salmon, in the City of Salmon, County of Lemhi, State of Idaho

PERSONAL PROPERTY

The above entitled cause came on regularly to be heard this 20th day of August, 1949, in Salmon, Idaho, upon the complaint herein taken as confessed by the defendant on the proof taken herein, and upon said hearing it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court, that the defendant herein was duly served in person with Summons herein, attached to a copy of the Complaint on file in this action; and the defendant having failed to appear and answer said complaint of the plaintiff and time for answering having expired, and no answer or other pleading having been filed, the default of the defendant, Edward Lee Miller, was duly entered according to law, and on this day the plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, C. Walker Lyon, and introduced evidence in support of said complaint, by which it appears and the Court found:

That the plaintiff now is and has been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho for more than six weeks immediately preceeding the commencement of this action; that the parties hereto were legally married on the 8th day of April, 1948, and afterward resided together as husband and wife; that the defendant is not now a member of the Military or Naval Service of the United States of America;

That it satisfactorily appears to the Court that the material allegations of the Complaint are sustained by competent testimony, free and clear from all exceptions as to its competency, admissibility and sufficiency, and that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty and the matters so alleged and proved were sufficient in law to entitle the plaintiff to have a dissolution of her marriage;

That there is one child the issue of said marriage, Patrick Lee Miller, under one year of age; that the plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the care and custody of said minor child, Patrick Lee Miller;

That the defendant is an able bodied man capable of contributing the sum of at least TWENTY FIVE and NO/100 ($25.00) DOLLARS per month towards the care and support of such minor child.

WHEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony that exist between the parties hereto, be, and the same hereby are, dissolved, returning each to the status of a single person;

2. That the plaintiff, Eileen Nora Miller, be, and she hereby is, awarded the custody of the minor child, Patrick Lee Miller, with the right and privilege to the defendant, Edward Lee Miller, of visiting such child at any and all reasonable times so long as he shall have fully paid the child support payments as ordered by Court.

3. That the defendant, Edward Lee Miller, pay to the plaintiff, Eileen Nora Miller, the sum of TWENTY FIVE and NO/100 ($25.00) DOLLARS on the first day of the first month following the date hereof and the further sum of $25.00 on the first day of each and every month thereafter during the minority of said child.

JUDGMENT

The above matter came on regularly for trial before the above court sitting in regular session in Shoshone, Idaho, this 26th day of August, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorneys, James, Shaw & James, and the defendant appearing not at all. It appeared further and the court finds that the defendant had been duly and regularly served with process, and that he had failed to answer within the time fixed by law, and that the default of the defendant for his failure to appear has been duly entered by the Clerk of the Court.

WHEREUPON, evidence duly corroborated, was introduced on behalf of the plaintiff in support of her complaint from which it appears and the court finds that the allegations of the complaint are true and correct and that the defendant is guilty of extreme cruelty as charged in the complaint, and that the plaintiff is and for several years last past and immediately prior to the filing of the complaint herein has been an actual bona fide resident of the State of Idaho.

It is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff and defendant be and the same are hereby dissolved, and each of said parties is hereby restored to the status of a single person, and that the property settlement agreement entered into between the plaintiff and defendant on the 26 day of August, 1949, an original copy of which has been admitted as an exhibit herein, is in all respects hereby approved and confirmed; that the plaintiff is hereby awarded, among other things as provided for in said property settlement, the following described real estate, to-wit: Blocks 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, and 53, and the South Half (S½) of Lots 11, 12, 13 and 14 of Block 37 in the Village of Shoshone, Lincoln County, Idaho; together with her personal property described in the property settlement; that the defendant is hereby awarded as his sole and separate property, the following described real estate, to-wit: The South Half (S½) of Lots 11, 12, 13 and 14 in Block 46, Village of Shoshone, Lincoln County, Idaho, together with his personal property described in said property settlement; that the plaintiff is hereby awarded the custody and control of Elmer Taylor, the minor child of plaintiff and defendant, and the defendant shall have the right to visit said child at reasonable times and places.

Mae Russell Plaintiff,

vs

Gaden Russell, Defendant.

DECREE.

On this 15th day of July, 1949, this cause coming on regularly to be heard at Chambers, at Idaho Falls, Idaho. and application being made by the Plaintiff by and through her Attorney of record for final Decree herein; and it duly appearing to the Court, that the Defendant by Publication and service by Mail had been duly served with a copy of the said Summons and Complaint in this action, which was duly verified as appears of record herein; and the Defendant having failed to Demur, either in person, or by Attorney, or at all, and the time having expired wherein an appearance either by Demurrer or Answer could be filed as provided by law, and the default of defendant being of record and the Plaintiff appearing in court in person, and by Attorney, and the Defendant failing to appear, either in person, or by Attorney, or at all at said hearing, the court proceeded to hear said cause, whereupon the Plaintiff was duly sworn and examined in her own behalf and testified therein, and thereafter Madge N, Stone. was duly sworn and examined as a Witness in behalf of the Plaintiff and the case being submitted to the court for decision, It was made to appear to the satisfaction of the Court, that the Plaintiff is a Boni Fide resident of the State of Idaho, and has resided in Madison County, Idaho, and has resided there more than one year prior to the commencement of this action; That the Plaintiff and the Defendant intermarried at Pocatello Idaho, on the 16th of January, 1943, and ever since have been and now are, Husband and Wife; That during the time of said Marriage and Coverture no children were born to them as the issue of said Marriage;

It was further made to appear that prior to the Marriage of the said Plaintiff and the said Defendant, that the Plaintiff was seized of and in posession of certain real estate in her own name and right, inherited from her former Husband deceased, said property being more particularly described as that parcel or piece of land situated in the City of Rexburg, Idaho, and set forth as follows, to-wit;

Commencing at the North-east corner of Lot (5) of Block (I2) of the Parker Addition to the City of Rexburg,Idaho. as per the recorded plat thereof,and running thence South 99feet; thence West (40) rods; thence North (99) feet; thence East (40) rods to place of beginning.

Being her sole and seperate estate prior to her said marriage to the Defendant, and that she is entitled to a Decree of this court awarding said property to her as her seperate estate.

And it appears to The Court further that the name of the Plaintiff prior to her said Marriage to the Defendant was Mae Cook, and that here former name as aforesaid should be restored to her.

The Court further finds that on or about the the Month of October, 1947,and more than one year prior to the filing of this information, the Defendant disregarding the solemnity of his Marriage vows,wilfully and without cause,deserted and abandoned the Plaintiff and ever since has,and still to so wulfully and without cause desert and abandon this Plaintiff,and to live seperate and apart from her without any sufficient cause or reason and against her will,and without her consent.The court further finds that for more than one year last before the filing of this information, the Plaintiff has Wilfully neglected to provide for Plaintiff the common necessaries of Life,havin the ability so to do,compelling the Plaintiff to care for herself,or from such assistance furnished by friends,the Defendant being an able bodied man capable of earning good wages,but during more than the last year prior to the commencement of this action has only given to this Plaintiff the sum of $10,00,

And the court finding that the Equities are with the Plaintiff and that the allegations as set forth in her verified complaint are true, that she is entitled to a decree of Divorce totally dissolving the Bonds of Matrimony now existing between the Plaintiff and the Defendant,and for all and further proper relief as appears meet in the premises,and the court having fully considered the files and papers in said cause and being fully advised in the premises.

It is therefore Ordered, Adjudged and Decreed by the Court, That the Bonds of Matrimony heretofore and now existing between the Plaintiff and the Defendant, be, and they are hereby Totally Dissolved.

That the property fully described and set out as Located in Rexburg, Madison County, Idaho, and commencing at the North-east corner of Lot 5, of Block 12, of the Parker addition to the City of Rexburg, Idaho, as per the Recorded plat thereof, and running thence South 99 feet; thence West 40 rods; thence North 99 feet; thence East 40 rods to place of Beginning, is hereby Decreed and awarded to the Plaintiff as her sole and seperate estate.

That the Plaintiffs name which she bore at the time of said Marriage to the Defendant to-wit; Mae Cook is hereby restored to her.

And her costs taxed at $ 27,00

AVERY BARRASS, Plaintiff, vs. FRED BARRASS, Defendant.	DECREE OF DIVORCE

-o-

The above entitled cause came on regularly for hearing at the request of the plaintiff, at Rupert, Minidoka County, Idaho, on this 4th day of August, 1949, before the Honorable Kales E. Lowe, one of the Judges of said Court. The plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, Sherman J. Bellwood; and the defendant did not appear either in person or by counsel. It appeared to the Court that the defendant had, by an affidavit in writing, admitted the personal service upon him, in Rupert, Minidoka County, Idaho, of summons and copy of complaint and failed to appear, answer or otherwise plead to plaintiff's complaint within the time limit set by law, and that the default of said defendant was duly and regularly entered upon the affidavit of the plaintiff that the defendant was not in the military service of the United States.

Witnesses on behalf of the plaintiff were sworn and examined and documentary evidence was offered and admitted in evidence and the plaintiff rested and the cause was submitted to the Court for consideration and decision; and it appeared to the Court that the allegations contained in plaintiff's complaint are true and are sustained by evidence free from all objections as to competency, relevancy and admissibility and that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce from the defendant, and to Decree awarding to her the care, custody and control of the minor children of the parties hereto, hereinafter named.

WHEREFORE, By reason of the law and the premises aforesaid:

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff, Avery Barrass, and the defendant, Fred Barrass, be and the same hereby are dissolved and that each of said parties be and each of them hereby is restored to the status of a single person and that the plaintiff, Avery Barrass, be and she hereby is awarded the care, custody and control of Fred Barrass, aged 13 years, and Robert Barrass, aged 8 years, minor children of the said plaintiff and defendant, during their respective minority without any interference whatsoever on the part of the defendant, except, however, that the said defendant shall have the right to see and visit the said minor children at reasonable times of reasonable duration.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the Agreement made and entered into by and between the plaintiff and the defendant on or about the 12th day of July, 1949, for a complete disposition of all of the property of the plaintiff and defendant and the care and maintenance of the aforementioned minor children, a copy of which is attached to plaintiff's complaint on file herein, be and the same hereby is in all respects approved, ratified and adopted as a fair, equitable and reasonable settlement and division of the property of the said plaintiff and defendant, and by way of enforcing said Agreement and based thereupon:

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the defendant, Fred Barrass, pay to the plaintiff, Avery Barrass, for the support and maintenance of the said minor children, until the youngest reaches majority, or both are sooner married or divorced, the sum of $75.00 per month beginning on the date hereof and a like sum on the 1st day of each and every month thereafter; and further, to pay all hospital, doctor and medical expenses in connection with any injury or illness of the said minor children, or either of them.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the plaintiff, Avery Barrass, be and she hereby is decreed to be the owner of an undivided one-half interest, and that the defendant, Fred Barrass, be and he hereby is decreed to be the owner of an undivided one-half interest in and to the following described real property, situated in Minidoka County, Idaho, as his and her sole and separate property and estate, respectively:

> Beginning at a point whereas a line 15.2 feet South of the North line of the NE¼SW¼ of Section 29, Township 9 South of Range 24 E.B.M., in Minidoka County, Idaho, intersects the NW boundary line of Oregon Short Line Railroad Company right of way, and is approximately 29.4 feet W and 15.2 feet South of the NE corner of the said NE¼SW¼; thence West 764 feet to the point of beginning; thence West 173.6 feet, thence South 788.5 feet to North boundary line of Oregon Short Line Railroad Company right of way; thence North 67° 40' East 187.7 feet; thence North 717.2 feet to the place of beginning, all in Minidoka County, Idaho, together with all and singular the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in anywise appertaining; and that the plaintiff, Avery Barrass, be and she hereby is awarded the exclusive possession, with said minor children, of the above described real property until the same is sold by the plaintiff and defendant pursuant to the terms of their aforementioned Agreement, or until the further order of the Court.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the defendant, Fred Barrass, be and he hereby is decreed to be the owner of that certain Dodge automobile, heretofore owned by plaintiff and defendant, as his sole and separate property and estate, free and clear of all claims, interests or estate on the part of the plaintiff, Avery Barrass.

IMA JEAN FISHER, Plaintiff, -vs- JOHN W. FISHER, Defendant.	DECREE OF DIVORCE. COPY

Now on this 12th day of August, 1949, this matter came on for hearing before the Court at chambers at Twin Falls, in Twin Falls County, Idaho. Plaintiff appeared in person and by Earl E. Walker, Esq., her attorney. The defendant did not appear. Upon application of the plaintiff's attorney, the defendant's default was duly entered by the Court, lodged herein to be filed in this case at a later time. Witnesses were sworn and testified on behalf of the plaintiff after which the matter was submitted to the Court for its decision. Upon consideration of the files and of the evidence, the Court finds that the defendant, John W. Fisher, has entered his voluntary appearance herein; that he reserved 20 days from the date of the execution of said voluntary appearance on the 16th day of July, 1949, in which to appear or plead herein; that said defendant has wholly failed to appear or plead herein although the time for so doing has wholly expired and that the defendant is in default and that this Court has duly taken and entered the defendant's default against him. The Court further finds that the material allegations of the plaintiff's complaint are true; that the defendant is guilty of wilful desertion of the plaintiff which said wilful desertion has continued for more than one year prior to the time this action was filed herein by the plaintiff and that by reason thereof the plaintiff is entitled to a divorce from the defendant and is also entitled to the restoration of her former name, Ima Jean Roessler.

WHEREFORE, It is Decreed by the Court that the plaintiff be and she hereby is divorced from the defendant and that her former name, Ima Jean Roessler, is hereby restored to her.

Done at chambers in Twin Falls, Twin Falls County, Idaho, this 12th day of August, 1949.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This matter having come on regularly for hearing before the Hon. Leo McCarty, Judge of the above entitled court, on the 12th day of May, 1949, upon the issues joined by the plaintiff's Complaint, the defendant's Answer and Cross-Complaint, and the plaintiff's Answer to the Cross-Complaint, the plaintiff being present in person and represented by her attorney of record, Earle W. Morgan, and the defendant being present in person and represented by his attorneys of record, J. H. Felton and William J. Jones, and evidence both oral and documentary having been adduced and submitted by the respective parties, and the court having considered the same, and having considered the Briefs submitted by the respective parties, (referring herein to plaintiff and cross-defendant, Irene Eller, as "plaintiff", and referring to defendant and cross-plaintiff, Charles W. Eller, as "defendant",) and the court having made and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, NOW THEREFORE,

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED, that the plaintiff be and she hereby is granted an absolute divorce from the defendant on the ground of extreme cruelty, and that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be and the same hereby are in all respects and forever dissolved, and that the plaintiff and defendant be and they hereby are restored to the status of single, unmarried persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED, that the plaintiff owns, and has at all times owned, and holds, and at all times has held, as her sole and separate property, including the rents, issues and profits thereof and therefrom, the following described real property, situate in the County of Nez Perce, State of Idaho, to-wit:

> A part of Lot Five (5), Block Eighty-seven (87), Lewiston Orchards Tract Number Twelve (12), according to the recorded plat thereof, and more particularly described as follows:
> The North 207 feet of Lot Five (5), Block Eighty-seven (87), Lewiston Orchards Tract Number Twelve (12), according to the recorded plat thereof, on file in the office of the County Recorder, Nez Perce County, Idaho. Said 207 feet commencing at the center line of the alley on the North side of said Lot Five (5), and containing 1.57 acres. EXCEPTING THEREFROM, that portion of the above described real property heretofore conveyed to Charles O. Wolcott, by Deed filed for record with the County Recorder of Nez Perce County, Idaho, on the 27th day of March, 1947, in Book 176 of Deeds, at Page 536, Records of said County and State.

that the conveyance to said property has been recorded in Book 176 of Deeds, at Page 191, Records of the Recorder of Nez Perce County, Idaho, in the names of both plaintiff and defendant; that the defendant, however, does not have, own, or at any time has not had, owned, or held any right, title, interest, claim, equity, or demand therein or thereto, and that the plaintiff may in her own name, and without the defendant joining therein, sell, transfer, convey, dispose of, alienate, or encumber said property as fully and effectively as though she alone were named as Grantee in said Deed above identified.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED, that the plaintiff owns and holds as her sole and separate property, including the rents, issues and profits thereof and therefrom, all household furniture, furnishings, fixtures and equipment contained in the home on the real property described in the foregoing paragraph, and the 1941

Chevrolet coupe automobile, Certificate of Title to which has been issued in her name; that the defendant does not have any right, title, interest, claim, or demand therein or thereto.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED, that the defendant owns as his sole and separate property, including the rents, issues, and profits thereof and therefrom, an old davenport and chair, one occasional chair, and certain old dishes, pots, and pans, which property is now stored on the porch of the house on the real property hereinabove described; that plaintiff does not have any right, title, interest, claim, equity, or demand therein or thereto.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED, that any community interest that the defendant may have in or to any of the personal property acquired by plaintiff and defendant during their married life, and the whole of the interest in said property, is awarded to the plaintiff as her sole and separate property.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED, that plaintiff's former name of Irene Lyle be and the same hereby is restored to her, and that she, the plaintiff, may from and after the date hereof, use said name in all dealings with respect to the real property above described.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED, that no costs shall be awarded to either of the parties.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause having come on duly and regularly for hearing before the Honorable Leo McCarty, Judge of the above entitled Court, on the at chambers 1st day of August, 1949, plaintiff appearing in person and by and through her attorney of record, and the defendant having been personally served with summons and complaint in this action by the defendant accepting service of said summons and complaint on him on the 12th day of July, 1949, at Los Angeles, California, which Acceptance of Service by the defendant was duly acknowledged by him and is a part of the records and files in this action, and the defendant having certified in said Acceptance of Service that he is not in the military service of the United States in any capacity whatsoever and not entitled to the benefits of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, and the default of said defendant having been duly and regularly entered for the defendant's failure to appear, answer, or demur to plaintiff's complaint within the time allowed by law, or at all, and the plaintiff having introduced oral and documentary evidence, and the Court being fully advised in the premises, hereby FINDS:

Docketed Vol. 10 Page 15

That the defendant was personally served with summons and complaint in this action on July 12, 1949, by the defendant personally accepting service of a copy of said summons and complaint on July 12, 1949, at Los Angeles, California; that the defendant is not a member of the military service of the United States and is not entitled to the benefits of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended;

That the plaintiff and defendant intermarried at Las Vegas, Nevada, on August 19, 1946, and ever since have been and now are husband and wife;

That the plaintiff is now and was for more than six weeks immediately preceding the filing of the complaint in this action a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho;

That no children have been born as issue of said marriage;

That the plaintiff and the defendant have acquired no property and no property rights need be adjudicated in this action;

That the defendant did on or about November 17, 1946, three months after the marriage between the parties hereto, voluntarily leave this plaintiff with the intent to desert her; that the said defendant, without just cause or provocation, did wilfully desert this plaintiff on or about November 17, 1946, and has continued to live separate and apart from this plaintiff since said date;

From the foregoing Findings of Fact the Court concludes that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of wilful desertion;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be and they are hereby dissolved, and the plaintiff is granted an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that plaintiff's former name of "Evelyn Spencer" be restored to her.

DONE in Open Court this 1st day of August, 1949.

PROPERTY SETTLEMENT AND AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT, Made and entered into in quadruplicate this 28th day of June, 1949, by and between VELMA LYNN, first party, herein called "wife", and MEAD E. LYNN, second party, herein called "husband".

WHEREAS, the parties hereto are husband and wife, and they have a minor child, and are expecting another, and the parties hereto have heretofore ceased to live together as husband and wife, and irreconcilable differences have arisen between them, and wife has instituted an action against husband for a divorce, and the parties have reached an agreement concerning the division of the property and the custody of the child, and the child to be born, in the terms hereinafter found.

NOW THEREFORE, THIS AGREEMENT WITNESSETH:

FIRST: That except as hereinafter specified, each party hereto is hereby released and absolved from any and all obligations and liabilities for the future acts and duties of or to the other, and that each of said parties hereby releases the other from any and all liabilities, debts, or obligations of any kind or character incurred by the other from and after this date, and from any and all claims and demands, including all claims of either party upon the other for support and maintenance as wife or husband, or otherwise, it being understood that this instrument is intended to settle the rights of the parties hereto in all respects, except as hereinafter provided.

SECOND: That any and all property acquired by either of the parties hereto from and after the date hereof shall be the sole and separate property of the one so acquiring the same, and

LAWYER
BREIER BUILDING
LEWISTON, IDAHO

each of said parties hereby respectively grants to the other all such future acquisitions of property as the sole and separate property of the one so acquiring the same.

THIRD: That each of said parties shall have an immediate right to dispose of or bequeath by will, his or her respective interest in or to any and all property herein declared to belong to him or her, or hereafter acquired by him or her, and each hereby waives any and all right to the estate of the other left at his or her death, and forever quit-claims any and all right to share in the same of the other by the laws of succession.

FOURTH: Husband's parents, George L. Lynn and May Lynn, his wife, have asserted an interest in the property described in the Complaint filed by wife against husband in the District Court of the Tenth Judicial District of the State of Idaho, in and for the County of Nez Perce, being Case No. 10471. Wife denies any interest or ownership by husband's parents in or to any property described in wife's Complaint, or any part thereof.

FIFTH: As a compromise of the differences between wife and husband, and between wife and husband's parents, it is agreed that wife will settle her community interest in and to the property described in wife's Complaint, and all support money, in the following amounts:

A. Wife to be paid the sum of $10,000.00, as hereinafter provided.

B. Wife to be paid for the support and maintenance of the minor child, Eva Jane, and the child to be born to wife and husband, the sum of $50.00 per month, beginning

LAWYER
BREIER BUILDING
LEWISTON, IDAHO

October 1st, 1949, the same to continue until the youngest of said minor children reaches the age of majority, subject to the right of the court to modify these payments upward or downward.

C. Wife to have a red cow, the same to be selected by her from the milk cows at the home where wife now resides, and a division of the household goods between husband and wife, to wife's satisfaction.

D. The $10,000.00 above referred to shall be paid in the following manner, to-wit:

(1) $2,000.00 thereof forthwith.

(2) $8,000.00 thereof by Promissory Note signed by husband, and George L. Lynn and May Lynn, his wife, all as makers, said Note to bear interest at the rate of 4% per annum from date, said Note to be secured as hereinafter provided, and said Note to be paid as follows:

$2,666.00 plus accrued interest on or before the 1st day of November, 1950,

$2,667.00 plus accrued interest on or before the 1st day of November, 1951,

$2,667.00 plus accrued interest on or before the 1st day of November, 1952.

Said Note shall be secured by a Mortgage signed by husband, and the said George L. Lynn and May Lynn, his wife, which Mortgage shall be a first and prior Mortgage on all realty owned by said mortgagors, (whether husband or wife have an interest therein or not), except that it shall be a second mortgage on the realty known as the "Barnes place", and it shall also be a second mortgage on the property heretofore mortgaged to the Prudential Insurance Company. Said Note shall also be secured by a Chattel Mortgage on all personal property owned by the mortgagors, (whether husband and wife have any interest therein or not), which shall be a first Chattel Mortgage, and which Chattel Mortgage, without limiting the property to be mortgaged, shall include all farm equipment, trucks, cars, tools, and equipment, and all crops of each of the mortgagors which are to be harvested during the year 1950. PROVIDED, that there shall be excluded from said Chattel Mortgage all livestock owned by the mortgagors, and each of them. Said Real and Chattel Mortgages above provided for shall provide full protection to wife as mortgagee, and shall be prepared in the usual and customary form for such instruments, and which Note and Mortgages shall be executed and delivered to wife as mortgagee as soon as possible, and in no event later than the 18th day of July, 1949.

SIXTH: It is contemplated that in order to obtain the said sum of $2,000.00 to be paid to wife forthwith, as hereinabove provided, that a part of the livestock owned by husband and/or the mortgagors above identified, will have to be liquidated or mortgaged. Wife hereby consents thereto for said purposes. Wife further consents that upon the payment to her of the sum of $2,000.00 cash, and the execution and delivery to her of the Note and Mortgages above provided, husband may dispose of or mortgage such additional livestock he may desire for farming operations or other purposes.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW AND DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause having come on duly and regularly for hearing before the Honorable Leo McCarty, Judge of the above entitled Court, on ths 17th day of August, 1949, plaintiff appearing in person and by and through her attorney of record, and the defendant having been personally served with summons and complaint in this action by the defendant accepting service of said summons and complaint on him on the 25th day of July, 1949, at Lewiston, Nez Perce County, Idaho, which Acceptance of Service by the defendant was duly acknowledged by him and is a part of the records and files in this action, and the defendant having certified in said acceptance of service that he is not in the military service of the United States in any capacity whatsoever and not entitled to the benefits of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, and the default of said defendant having been duly and regularly entered for the defendant's failure to appear, answer, or demur to plaintiff's complaint within the time allowed by law, or at all, and the plaintiff having introduced oral and documentary evidence, and the Court being fully advised in the premises, hereby FINDS:

That the defendant was personally served with summons and complaint in this action by the defendant personally accepting service of a copy of said summons and complaint on July 25, 1949, at Lewiston, Nez Perce County, Idaho; that the defendant is not a member of the military service of the United States and is not entitled to the benefits of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended;

Entered Vol. [illegible] Page [illegible]

That the plaintiff and the defendant intermarried at Southwick, Idaho, on October 13, 1948, and ever since have been and now are, husband and wife.

That the plaintiff is now and has been for more than 20 years last past a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho;

That no children have been born as issue of said marriage;

That the plaintiff and defendant have acquired no property and no property rights need be adjudicated; that the 1948 Chevrolet automobile in the possession of the defendant was acquired by the defendant prior to the marriage of the plaintiff and the defendant and the same is the separate property of the defendant;

That the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty toward this plaintiff in the manner following, to-wit:

> That the plaintiff and defendant resided together as husband and wife for four days after the consummation of said marriage; that at the expiration of said four-day period the defendant left for Portland, Oregon, to take a course of study in diesel mechanics, at which time it was agreed that the defendant would return to Idaho and provide a home for the plaintiff and the defendant; that the said defendant completed the course in diesel mechanics and returned to Idaho in January, 1949, but refused to provide a home or to live with this plaintiff, and has since refused to live with or provide for this plaintiff.

From the foregoing Findings of Fact the Court concludes:

1. That the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of cruelty.

2. That the defendant should be awarded the 1948 Chevrolet automobile now in his possession, which is his sole and separate property.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be and they are hereby dissolved, and the plaintiff is granted an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant.

2. The defendant is hereby awarded the 1948 Chevrolet automobile now in his possession, which is his sole and separate property.

3. The plaintiff is hereby restored her former name of "Wilma Cuddy."

This action came on regularly to be heard and tried before the Court on this 17th day of September, 1949, the Plaintiff appearing in person and by his Attorney, E. L. Scott, and the Defendant not appearing, either in person or by Attorney.

It appears to the Court, and the Court finds, that the summons in this action and a copy of the complaint has been duly served upon the defendant, and that the defendant has failed to appear or plead to Plaintiff's said complaint, and that her default in that behalf has been duly and regularly entered herein.

Evidence was offered for and on behalf of the Plaintiff in support of the allegations of his said complaint and received by the Court, and from which it appears to the Court, and the Court finds, that all of the material allegations of the plaintiff's complaint are true.

And the matter being submitted to the Court for decision, and the Court being fully and sufficiently advised in the premises, and all and singular the law and the evidence being by the Court understood and fully considered:

It is therefore by the Court Ordered, Adjudged, and Decreed: That the bonds of matrimony existing between the Plaintiff, Bryan C. Gardner, and the Defendant, Joyce M. Gardner, be and the same are hereby, wholly dissolved, and each of said parties is hereby released from all of the obligations thereof, and each is restored to the status of a single person.

This cause came regularly on to be heard before the undersigned, Judge of the above entitled Court, sitting without a jury, at Wallace, Idaho, the 8th day of August, 1949. The plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, Alden Hull, and there were no other appearances.

It appeared to the satisfaction of the Court from the records and files herein that the defendant had been personally served with Summons and Complaint and that he had failed to appear, answer or plead within the time provided by law, or at all, and that his default has been duly and regularly entered in the premises.

It further appeared to the satisfaction of the Court from the affidavit of the plaintiff that the defendant is not in the military service of the United States as defined by the Soldier's and Sailor's Civil Relief Act of 1940 and acts amendatory thereof.

Thereupon the Court proceeded to the hearing of the cause. Sworn testimony was introduced by and on behalf of the plaintiff and in support of the allegations of her complaint, and the Court then being fully advised in the premises made and entered herein its Findings of Fact and conclusions of Law.

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the premises and in accordance with said Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and the Court DOES HEREBY ORDER, ADJUDGE AND DECREE:

1. That the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between the plaintiff, BERNICE SWOFFORD BERG, and the defendant, KARL R. BERG, be, and the same hereby are, dissolved, set aside and held for naught, and the plaintiff, BERNICE SWOFFORD BERG, is hereby awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant, KARL R. Myrtle Williams,
Plaintiff,
vs.
Joe Williams,
Defendant.

This cause came on regularly for hearing on the 26th day of August, 1949, before the Court at Chambers at Idaho Falls, Idaho, S. H. Atchley, of Driggs, Idaho, appearing as counsel for plaintiff and noone appearing for the defendant Joe Williams, and it appearing that the defendant was duly served with summons and a copy of the summons and complaint, as shown by his Admission of Due Service on file in said cause; and it further appearing that the default of the defendant has been duly entered as of August 25, 1949, and evidence having been produced on behalf of said plaintiff, both oral and documentary, including that certain Property Settlement Agreement made and entered into August 5, 1949, between said plaintiff and defendant, wherein and whereby a complete disposition of the community property belonging to said parties was made, and said cause having been submitted to the Court for its determination, the Court proceeded to consider the evidence adduced in support of the allegations contained in the complaint, which complaint was taken as confessed.

The Court finds from the testimony of the plaintiff and her witness that the allegations contained in her said complaint are true and are sustained by the evidence, free from all legal exceptions and objections as to its relevancy, competency and materiality that plaintiff is entitled to a divorce as prayed for in her complaint; that the Property Settlement Agreement is fair and has been considered by the Court and a copy of same is attached hereto and adopted as a part of this decree.

It is ordered, adjudged and decreed, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff Myrtle Williams and the defendant Joe Williams be, and the same are hereby, dissolved absolutely.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the defendant is not serving in the armed forces of the United States and is not entitled to a stay of proceedings under the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act, as appears from his Admission of Due Service.

This cause came on regularly for hearing in open court this 5th day of August 1949, before the undersigned one of the judges of the above entitled court, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney Edward Babcock, and the defendant having been duly and regularly served with summons and complaint, and the defendant having failed to appear and plead to said complaint within the time required by law, and the default of said defendant having been duly entered by the clerk of this court; whereupon witnesses were duly called, regularly sworn and examined in support of the allegations of said complaint and it satisfactorily appearing to the court from the evidence in the case, that the plaintiff and defendant are husband and wife; that the plaintiff is a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho, and has been for more than six weeks next preceding the commencement of this action and that the material averments of said complaint and proved on behalf of the plaintiff are sufficient in law to entitle plaintiff to a judgment and decree of divorce against the defendant. The court being fully advised in the premises both as to the law and the facts, and the making and rendering of findings of fact and conclusions of law having been expressly waived.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

(1) That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing by and between the plaintiff Dula Wolf and the defendant R. P. Wolf be and the same are hereby dissolved and the plaintiff Dula Wolf is granted an absolute divorce.

(2) That the plaintiff Dula Wolf, be and she is hereby awarded the custody of the minor son John B. Wolf, until he becomes of age.

(3) That the residence and real estate now occupied by the plaintiff and situated in Jerome County, State of Idaho, and described as follows to-wit:

Northeast Fifty Feet of the North Half of Block 40 in Lenz Addition in the Village of Hazelton, Idaho.

together with household furniture included therein be and the same is hereby decreed and awarded to the plaintiff as her sole and separate estate.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came on regularly for hearing on this 5 day of August, 1949 before the Honorable Hugh A Baker, one of the judges of the above entitled Court, sitting in open court, the plaintiff appearing in person and by and through his attorneys, Rayborn and Rayborn, and the defendant not appearing either in person or by counsel.

And it appearing to the Court that the defendant has heretofore been duly and regularly served with Summons and copy of complaint in the above entitled action and has filed herein her appearance, and has refused to plead to or answer plaintiff's complaint and has consented that her default may be entered herein, and that the default of said defendant for such failure to appear and answer plaintiff's complaint has been duly entered by the clerk of the above entitled court according to law;

Thereupon evidence was introduced and admitted from which it appears that each and all of the material allegations of plaintiff complaint have been established by competent evidence and the allegations of plaintiff's complaint as to his residence have been duly corroborated by competent testimony;

And it further appearing that a property settlement between the parties has been entered into, a copy of which is hereto attached and marked "Exhibit A" and the said property settlement agreement having been introduced in evidence and found by the court to be fair and equitable, and the same was by the court approved.

And the court, being fully advised in the premises, on motion of attorneys for the plaintiff;

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, as follows, to-wit:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be, and the same are hereby, wholly dissolved, and the parties hereto restored to the status of unmarried persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the property settlement is equitable, fair and just, and that the property settlement agreement, a copy of which is hereto annexed, marked "Exhibit A", be, and the same is hereby, approved and confirmed; and that said property settlement as contained in said agreement be, and the same is hereby, in all respects approved and confirmed

Done in open court this 5 day of August, 1949.

PROPERTY SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT, Made and entered into this 11th day of July, 1949, at Twin Falls, Idaho, by and between Joe B. Biehl, hereinafter referred to as the party of the first part, and Betty Biehl, hereinafter referred to as the party of the second part,

WITNESSETH, That the parties hereto are husband and wife one of the other, and that

WHEREAS, Unhappy and irreconcilable differences have arisen between the parties hereto which make it impossible for them to continue to live together as man and wife, and they will hereafter continue to live separate and apart.

That for and in consideration of the covenants and agreements herein contained the parties have agreed between themselves as follows: That they were married on April the 11th, 1949, and have been man and wife since said date.

It is further agreed and understood by and between the parties hereto that there is no community property belonging to the parties hereto except a small interest in growing crops and an interest in about 300 head of chickens; and it is understood that the party of the first part had certain separate property before their marriage consisting of an equity in 37 acres of farm land south and west of Kimberly, Idaho; and certain miscellaneous farm machinery; and six milk cows and four brood sows and four pigs and one boar; and misc. household and kitchen furniture; all of which property was the separate property of the party of the first part before the marriage of the parties hereto except an electric stove and an electric washing machine, which were bought on installment plan and are being paid for by the party of the first part.

And it is hereby agreed and understood by and between the parties hereto as to what the separate property of the party of the first part is, and what the reasonable value of the property is.

It is further agreed and understood by and between the parties hereto that for and in consideration of the party of the first part paying to the party of the second part the sum of $300.00 in cash, receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, that the party of the second part is to and hereby does release and waive any and all rights against the party of the first part for alimony, support money or rights in and to any and all property belonging to the party of the first part; and that in consideration of the payment as heretofore mentioned in the sum of $300.00 that the party of the second part waives any and all rights of every kind and description against the party of the first part by reason of their marriage contract.

And it is further agreed that hereafter the property and earnings of each of the parties hereto shall belong to the one so earning same, and that all the properties above mentioned and including the community property consisting of the interest in growing crops and the 300 head of chickens shall be the sole and separate property of the party of the first part.

It is further agreed by and between the parties hereto that each of the parties hereto will after the execution of this agreement live separate and apart from the other and that neither will molest, bother or disturb the other in any way.

It is further agreed and understood that in the event divorce proceedings are instituted for a decree of divorce that this agreement may be made a part of the decree of divorce if one should be entered.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, The parties hereto have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year first above written.

Deputy Clerk

The above entitled action came on regularly for hearing before the Court on this 5 day of August, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by and through his attorneys, Rayborn and Rayborn, and the defendant appearing not, either in person or by attorney; and it satisfactorily appearing to the Court that due service of Summons in said action has been made upon the defendant, by publication in the Times-News, for five publications, and that least 26 days intervened between the first and last publication; and that the defendant has failed and refused to appear and answer or otherwise plead to said complaint, and the time allowed by law to the defendant for answering or otherwise pleading to said complaint having expired and the default of said defendant having been heretofore duly entered.

Evidence having been adduced on behalf of the plaintiff in support of his complaint, and the matter having been submitted to the Court for decision, the Court having duly considered same and being fully advised in the premises; and it appearing to the Court that the material allegations in plaintiff's complaint are true and that said defendant has been guilty of cruel and inhuman treatment towards said plaintiff, and that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce from the defendant;

NOW THEREFORE, On Motion of Rayborn & Rayborn, attorneys for the plaintiff, it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows;

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be and the same are hereby wholly dissolved, and the parties forever freed from the obligations thereof.

vs

JOHN E. BURGESS, Defendant.

DECREE OF DIVORCE.

Entered AUG 5 - 1949

THIS MATTER came on to be heard before the above entitled Court on the 5th day of August, 1949. Plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, J. H. Barnes. Defendant did not appear, either in person or by attorney. The record shows that personal service of the summons and complaint in this action was had on the defendant in Twin Falls County on the 9th day of July, 1949; that the defendant failed to appear and answer the plaintiff's complaint, and that on the 1st day of August, 1949, the default of the defendant was entered by the Clerk of this Court. Now, on motion of plaintiff's attorney, IT IS ORDERED that said entry of default be and the same hereby is approved and confirmed.

The plaintiff was sworn and testified, and a witness was sworn and testified in corroboration of plaintiff's testimony as to residence. From the evidence thus adduced, the Court finds that the plaintiff has been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho for more than six full weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action; that plaintiff and defendant were married on the 24th day of August, 1924, and are now husband and wife; that there are no minor children involved; that the parties have entered into a property settlement agreement, admitted in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit A; that said settlement appears to the Court to be fair and reasonable; that the plaintiff entered into said agreement freely, and that it ought to be approved by the Court and made a part of this decree; that the defendant has inflicted upon plaintiff extreme mental cruelty as alleged in the complaint herein, and that plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from defendant upon the ground of extreme cruelty.

WHEREFORE IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and this does order, adjudge and decree, that the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant be and they hereby are dissolved, and that each of said parties be, and they hereby are restored to the status of a single, unmarried person; that the property settlement agreement entered into by plaintiff and defendant on the 6th day of July, 1949, and admitted in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit A, be and it hereby is approved and incorporated in and made a part of this decree.

THE ABOVE MATTER came on regularly for trial before the undersigned District Judge in open court on the 5th day of August, 1949; the plaintiff appeared in person and by Leonard H. Jacob, one of his attorneys, the defendant appeared by Parry, Keenan, Robertson & Daly, her attorneys. The parties announced in open court that they were ready for trial. The plaintiff then requested permission of the court to dismiss his complaint, the defendant made no objection to the dismissal of the plaintiff's complaint, provided, that trial could immediately be had on the cross-complaint of the defendant. Whereupon, the complaint of the plaintiff was dismissed and trial was had upon the defendant's cross-complaint and answer made by the plaintiff thereto. The defendant then offered evidence oral and documentary in support of her cross-complaint. The parties then rested, and the matter was submitted to the court for decision; and now, the court being fully advised in the premises and the filing of formal findings of fact and conclusions of law having been waived by the parties, the court finds that all of the allegations of the defendant's cross-complaint are true and correct and that she is entitled to the relief prayed for in her cross-complaint, except as to the question of alimony and support money which have been agreed upon by the parties.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff and defendant are hereby dissolved and set aside and the parties hereto are absolutely divorced one from the other, and each is restored to the status of an unmarried person.

AND IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the custody and control of the minor children of the parties to this action, to-wit: Bonnie Jean Staley of the age of 4½ years or thereabouts, and Janet Lee Staley of the age of 2½ years or thereabouts, be and the same is hereby awarded to the defendant.

AND IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the plaintiff Kenneth Saley pay to the defendant Grace Staley for the support, maintenance and care of each of said minor children, the sum of Fifty and no/100 Dollars ($50.00) per month, making a total of One Hundred and no/100 Dollars ($100.00) per month to be paid on such account, the first such payment to be made on or before the 1st day of September, 1949 and thereafter on the 1st day of each successive month.

AND IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the plaintiff Kenneth Staley pay to the defendant Grace Staley as alimony for her own support and maintenance, the sum of Ten and no/100 Dollars ($10.00) per month, payable on the 1st day of each and every calendar month commencing with the month of September, 1949.

And the parties having agreed that there is owing from the plaintiff to the defendant the sum of Six Hundred & Seventy ($ 670.00) for temporary alimony and support payments heretofore ordered to be made by the court in this action, and that said debt ought to be retired at the rate of Forty and no/100 Dollars ($40.00) per month;

IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the plaintiff Kenneth Staley pay to the defendant Grace Staley the sum of Forty and no/100 Dollars ($40.00) in addition to the sums hereinabove set forth, payable September 1, 1949, and continuously on the 1st day of each and every month thereafter until said total sum of Six Hundred + Seventy ($ 670 00) has been retired, without interest.

DECREE.

FILED AUG 10 1949

Entered AUG 10 1949

This cause came on regularly for trial before the undersigned, one of the Judges of the above entitled Court, at Chambers, in the County Court House, in the City of Burley, Cassia County, State of Idaho, upon this 8th day of August, 1949. The plaintiff appeared in person and by and through her attorney of record, Ray D. Agee. The defendant did not appear, and it appeared to said Judge, and he hereby finds, that the defendant, Christian Allen Parrott, has been duly and regularly served with summons in this action and, having appeared herein, and having thereafter withdrawn his appearance from this action and refused to plead further therein and consented that his default might be entered herein at any time thereafter, the default of the defendant, Christian Allen Parrott, in the premises, has been duly and regularly entered herein according to law.

Whereupon, witnesses on the part and behalf of the plaintiff were duly sworn and examined and evidence introduced and admitted, including a property settlement agreement, dated August 6, 1949, made and entered into between the parties hereto, wherein and whereby it is agreed that their property rights and interests have been settled and adjusted as hereinafter set forth and decreed, and the evidence, being closed, the cause was submitted to the said Judge for his consideration and decision and, after due deliberation thereon, the said Judge hereby finds and decides: That for a long time last past, the defendant has wilfully, wrongfully and intentionally treated the plaintiff with extreme cruelty and has inflicted grievous bodily injury and grievous mental suffering upon the plaintiff by his acts and conduct; that there is no child, who is the issue of said marriage; that there is a minor child, who has been duly, regularly, and legally adopted by the parties hereto; that said minor child is the child of the plaintiff by a former marriage; that it is of the age of eleven years and its name is Patricia May Bourne Parrott; that said minor child is now in the care and custody of the plaintiff, within Twin Falls County, State of Idaho; that the plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the care, custody and control of said minor child; that each and every allegation set forth or contained in plaintiff's complaint herein is true and correct; and that the plaintiff is entitled to all the relief prayed for in her said complaint now on file herein except as hereinafter modified; and, being now fully advised, both in the law and in the premises, the said Judge hereby makes and enters his judgment and decree as follows:

Wherefore, by virtue of the law and by reason of the premises, aforesaid, it is hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed that the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Anna S. Parrott, and the defendant, Christian Allen Parrott, be, and the same are hereby, wholly and absolutely dissolved, and that said parties be, and they are hereby, forever freed from the obligation thereof, and that a decree of absolute divorce be, and the same is hereby, rendered and entered herein in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant.

And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that said property settlement is equitable, fair and just, and that said property settlement agreement be, and the same is hereby, duly approved and confirmed, and that said property settlement, as contained in said agreement, be, and the same is hereby, in all respects, approved and confirmed.

And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the care, custody and control of said minor child, namely, Patricia May Bourne Parrott, be, and the same are hereby, awarded to the plaintiff, Anna S. Parrott, and it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the plaintiff shall support and maintain said minor child, and that the defendant shall not be required to contribute anything for the support and/or maintenance of said child.

And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the following described and/or mentioned property, and each and every part thereof, and each and every interest therein, be, and the same is hereby, set aside, transferred, awarded, set over, conveyed, assigned and decreed to the plaintiff, Anna S. Parrott, as her sole and separate property, free and clear of and from any and all claims of the defendant, Christian Allen Parrott, therein or thereto, to wit: That certain personal property, now situate and being in Twin Falls County, State of Idaho, particularly described as follows:

One electric range stove. One davenp. One piano. One 1939 Chevrolet sport sedan automobile, motor No. 2490338, serial No. 6JA0426320. And all other community property now in the possession of or under the control of the plaintiff.

And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the following described and/or mentioned property, and each and every part thereof, and each and every interest therein, be, and the same is hereby, set aside, transferred, awarded, set over, conveyed, assigned and decreed to the defendant, Christian Allen Parrott, as his sole and separate property, free and clear of and from any and all claims of the plaintiff, Anna S. Parrott, therein or thereto, to wit:

That certain real property, lying, situate and being in Twin Falls County, State of Idaho, particularly described as follows:

Beginning at a point two hundred thirty-three feet West of the Southeast corner of lot eighteen of Surtees Subdivision, and running thence North two hundred twenty-four feet; thence East fifty feet; thence South two hundred twenty-four feet; thence West fifty feet to the point of beginning; together with all and singular the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in any wise appertaining.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

The above entitled action came on regularly for hearing before the Court on the 5th day of August, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by and through her attorneys, Rayborn & Rayborn, and the defendant having heretofore filed a demurrer in answer to plaintiff's complaint, and later on the 5th day of August 1949 having withdrew said demurrer, and refused to plead further and consented that the default of the defendant should be entered and the default of the said defendant having been heretofore duly entered.

And evidence having been adduced on behalf of the plaintiff in support of her complaint, and the matter having been fully submitted to the Court for decision. The Court having duly considered same and being fully advised in the premises, and it appearing to the Court that the material allegations in plaintiff's complaint are true and that the said defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty, and that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce from the defendant.

NOW THEREFORE, on Motion of Rayborn & Rayborn, attorneys for the plaintiff, it is Hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows;

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff, Lucille Green and the defendant Lowell Green, be and the same are hereby dissolved, and the parties forever freed from the obligations thereof.

2. Plaintiff is hereby awarded the care, custody and control of Susan Green, nine years of age and Sally Green, five years of age minor children of the plaintiff and defendant; and plaintiff is hereby awarded the care, custody and control of an unborn child, which is expected to be born on or about the 15th day of August, 1949.

Defendant to have the right to visit said minor children at reasonable times, periods and intervals.

3. Plaintiff is hereby awarded as her sole and separate property, all household and kitchen furniture, which is now in her possession at Odgen, Utah.

4. Defendant is hereby ordered to pay to the plaintiff the sum of $25.00 per month as permanent alimony for her support and maintenance; said sum to be paid on the 15th day of August 1949 and a like sum of $25.00 on the 15th day of each and every month thereafter, as long as the plaintiff shall remain single and unmarried.

5. It is further Ordered, Adjudged and Decreed that the defendant pay to the plaintiff the sum of $100.00 per month for the support and maintenance of the minor children of the plaintiff and defendant, until the further order of this Court, said amount to be paid as follows; $50.00 on the 15th day and $50.00 on the 1st day of each and every month herein, first payment to be made on August 15, 1949.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

AND

APPROVAL OF PROPERTY SETTLEMENT

The above entitled matter coming on for hearing this, the 5th day of August, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, J. H. Sherfey, and the defendant not appearing or being represented by counsel, and it appearing to the Court that the default of the defendant has been entered by the Clerk of this Court herein;

It further appearing to the Court that the defendant has been duly and regularly served with summons and complaint, and has failed to answer said complaint within the time allowed by law; and that said defendant is by the Court adjudged to be in default herein;

Witnesses having been sworn and testified for and on behalf of the plaintiff, documentary evidence having been introduced, and it appearing from said testimony and exhibit introduced herein that all of the material allegations of plaintiff's complaint have been sustained by competent testimony; and that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in her complaint;

It further appearing to the Court that there are four minor children the issue of the marriage of plaintiff and defendant, namely:

Beverly Larson, age 10 years,
Mary Jo Larson, age 7 years,
Redge Larson, age 2 years,
Rodney Larson, age 7 months,

who are now in the care, custody and control of the plaintiff.

It further appearing to the Court that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty toward the plaintiff without fault on the part of the plaintiff and said extreme cruelty consists of the defendant leaving the plaintiff and said minor children alone at night a great portion of the time; and that said conduct on the part of the defendant has caused the plaintiff to worry and grieve; and that said acts have existed since November, 1948, and were willful on the part of the defendant and without cause or provocation or fault on the part of the plaintiff.

It further appearing to the Court that prior to the commencement of this action, the plaintiff and defendant entered into a property settlement dated the first day of July, 1949; and that said settlement appears to the Court to be a reasonable settlement of property rights existing between plaintiff and defendant.

In said settlement it is agreed that the plaintiff should have as her sole and separate property all household goods, kitchen furniture, beds and bedding and all property in the home of plaintiff and defendant, excepting the personal effects of the defendant; and that the plaintiff should have as her sole and separate property one certain 1948 Studebaker sedan, and that all of said property should be free and clear of encumbrances; and that the defendant should liquidate all indebtedness against said property; and that the defendant should pay to the plaintiff a reasonable sum of money for the support of the plaintiff and the minor children of plaintiff and defendant, beginning on the first day of July, 1949;

And it appearing to the Court that the sum of $75.00 per month is a reasonable sum to allow the plaintiff for her support; and that $125.00 per month is a reasonable sum to allow the plaintiff for the support of the minor children of plaintiff and defendant.

And that the plaintiff should have the sole and exclusive possession of the home now occupied by the plaintiff and defendant N ortheast of Buhl, Idaho.

That the defendant should have as his sole and separate property all farm machinery and farm equipment belonging to plaintiff and defendant, and all their interest in growing crops on 120 acres of land Northeast of Buhl, Idaho; and that the defendant should liquidate all indebtedness of the parties hereto.

IT IS NOW, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the plaintiff do have a decree of divorce dissolving the bonds of matrimony existing between plaintiff and defendant.

That the plaintiff have the care, custody and control of the minor children of plaintiff and defendant, namely:

Beverly Larson, age 10 years,
Mary Jo Larson, age 7 years,
Redge Larson, age 2 years,
Rodney Larson, age 7 months,

That the defendant have the right to visit said children of the plaintiff and defendant at reasonable times and under reasonable conditions.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the defendant be required to pay to the plaintiff as permanent alimony for her support the sum of $75.00 per month, due and payable on the first day of July, 1949 and on the first day of each and every month thereafter;

That the defendant pay to the plaintiff the sum of $125.00 per month for the support of the minor children of plaintiff and defendant, beginning on the first day of July, 1949 and due and payable on the first day of each and every month thereafter.

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the agreement and property settlement entered into between the plaintiff and defendant on the first day of July, 1949, be, and the same is hereby approved.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the plaintiff have as her sole and separate property all household goods, kitchen furniture, beds and bedding and all property in the home of plaintiff and defendant, and one certain 1948 Studebaker sedan; and that all of said property be free and clear of all indebtedness, excepting that the defendant have all clothing and personal effects of the defendant in the home of plaintiff and defendant.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the defendant have as his sole and separate property all farm machinery and farm equipment belonging to the plaintiff and defendant;

That the defendant have as his sole and separate property all of the interest of the plaintiff and defendant in and to that certain crop growing or harvested on the farm of plaintiff and defendant Northeast of Buhl, Idaho.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the defendant be required to liquidate all indebtedness against the said property hereby decreed to the plaintiff herein.

DECREE OF D[illegible]

DISTRICT COURT
Eleventh Judicial District
County of Twin Falls, State of Idaho
FILED AUG 26 1949

Entered AUG 26 1949

THIS MATTER came on to be heard before the above entitled Court on the day of August 1949. Plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, Guy L. Kinney; defendant did not appear, and it being shown to the Court that on the 11th day of August, 1949, there was filed herein defendant's affidavit admitting the receipt of a copy of the summons and complaint in this action; his refusal to plead to the complaint herein and consenting to his default for failure to plead being entered; and subjecting himself to the jurisdiction of this Court for all purposes connected with this action; it appearing further that on the 11th day of August, 1949, the default of the defendant for failure to plead was entered by the Clerk of this Court; now, on motion of plaintiff's attorney, it is ORDERED that said entry of default be and it is hereby approved and confirmed.

Plaintiff was sworn and testified, and a witness was sworn and testified in corroboration of plaintiff's testimony as to her residence. From the evidence thus adduced, the Court finds that the allegations of the complaint as regards the residence of the plaintiff, the marriage of the parties; that there are no minor children born of said marriage; that there is no community property involved in this action; That a settlement of the respective property rights of the parties having been adjusted prior to the filing of this suit; and that the defendant has treated the plaintiff with extreme cruelty by the infliction of grievous mental suffering upon her, are all true.

From the facts thus found, from the evidence introduced, by the Plaintiff, the Court concludes that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce from the defendant on the ground of extreme cruelty; further that she is entitled to be restored to her maiden name, Mabel East; and that the settlement of the property rights of the parties, hereto, made prior to the commencement of this action wherein the defendant transfered all his right, title and interest in a certain contract of purchase of certain equipment used by the plaintiff in operating a beauty parlor, and his interest in the lease of the building where the beauty parlor is located, as her sole and separate property; And the giving of all her interests to the defendant One (1) 1939 Model Mercury Sedan automobile., should be approved.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADUDGED AND DECREED, and this does order, adjudge and decree, that the marriage between the said plaintiff, Mabel Mathews, and the said defendant, Richard Matthews, be dissolved, and the same is hereby dissolved; that said parties be, and each of them is freed and absolutely released from the bonds of matrimony; that the plaintiff be restored to her maiden name of Mabel East; and that the settlement of the property rights of the parties herein, prior to the commencement of this action as above set forth is hereby approved.

Done in open Court this day of August, 1949.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

THIS MATTER came on to be heard before the above entitled Court on the 12th day of August, 1949. Plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, J. H. Barnes; defendant did not appear. It appears of record that personal service of the summons and complaint in this action was had on the defendant in Twin Falls County on the 19th day of July, 1949; it further appears that said defendant has not made any appearance herein since the date of said service, and that, on the 11th day of August, 1949, the Clerk of this Court entered the default of the defendant for failure to appear and plead within the time allowed by law; now, on motion of plaintiff's attorney, IT IS ORDERED that said entry of default be and the same hereby is approved and confirmed.

Plaintiff was sworn and examined, and a witness was sworn and testified in corroboration of plaintiff's testimony as to residence. From the evidence thus adduced, the Court finds that the plaintiff has been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho for a great many years, and was such resident for six full weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action; that plaintiff and defendant were married at Twin Falls on September 8, 1945, and are now wife and husband; that there are no children born of said marriage; that there is no property belonging to the community consisting of plaintiff and defendant; that the defendant has treated plaintiff with extreme cruelty, by the infliction upon her of grevious mental suffering; that the defendant is a man of property, and is will able to pay the moderate costs and attorney fee set out in the complaint herein.

From the facts thus found, the Court concludes that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from the defendant on the ground of extreme cruelty; that the defendant ought to be required to pay plaintiff's attorney fee and costs of suit herein.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant be and they hereby are dissolved, and that each of said parties be and they hereby are restored to the status of a single, unmarried person; that the defendant, Loyd C. Smith, be and he hereby is directed to pay to J.H. Barnes, attorney for the plaintiff, the sum of $91.40 for plaintiff's costs of suit and attorney fee.

Now on this 19th day of August, 1949, this matter came on for hearing to the Court. Plaintiff appeared in person and by Earl E. Walker, Esq., her attorney. The defendant did not appear. Witnesses were sworn and testified on behalf of the plaintiff, after which the matter was submitted to the Court for its decision. The Court being fully advised in the premises, and upon consideration of the files and of the evidence, finds that the defendant, George W. Wonacott, has been duly and regularly served with summons herein; that said defendant has failed to appear or answer the plaintiff's complaint on file herein although the time for so doing has wholly expired and is in default and that the defendant's default has been duly entered against him by the Clerk of this Court. The Court further finds that the material allegations of the plaintiff's complaint are true; that the parties hereto have entered into an agreement between them shich said agreement settles their property differences and that the terms of said agreement are fair and reasonable and that same should be approved by the Court.

The Court further finds that the defendant is guilty of extreme cruelty toward the plaintiff and that, by reason thereof, the plaintiff is entitled to a divorce from the defendant and to the restoration of her former name, Vera Middleton.

WHEREFORE, It is Decreed by the Court that the plaintiff be and she hereby is divorced from the defendant; that the agreement between the parties hereto settling their property rights be and the same is hereby approved, and that the plaintiff's former name, Vera Middleton, is hereby restored to her.

--:--

THIS ACTION coming on for hearing before Honorable Hugh A. Baker, one of the judges of this Court, at Twin Falls, Idaho, on August 19, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, J. H. Blandford, and it appearing to the Court that the Sheriff of Twin Falls County, Idaho, has made return that he is unable to find said defendant within the County of Twin Falls, State of Idaho, that defendant is not within the State of Idaho and service of process has been made by publication, the last publication of summons having been made on July 28, 1949, and twenty days having expired from and after said date; that an affidavit of mailing has been filed herein showing that a copy of the Another Summons attached to a copy of the complaint was mailed to defendant at his last-known address at Galion, Ohio; that the default of defendant has been entered herein for failure to appear and answer plaintiff's complaint; and it further appearing to the Court that the material allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true, namely, that plaintiff and defendant were married at Greenup, Kentucky, on March 29, 1946; that no children have been born to plaintiff and defendant; that plaintiff and defendant own no real or personal property whatsoever; that plaintiff is and has been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho for more than six full weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action; that defendant has treated plaintiff in a cruel and inhuman manner and that said acts of cruelty have caused plaintiff grievous mental suffering; that defendant during his marriage with plaintiff has been guilty of infidelity and failure to support plaintiff;

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion of J. H. Blandford, attorney for plaintiff, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

That the marriage relation existing between plaintiff and defendant be absolutely dissolved and said parties forever freed from the obligations thereof and that plaintiff and defendant, and each of them, be restored to the status of a single and unmarried person.

(COPY)

This cause came on for hearing before the Court in open court on this the 16 day of Aug, 1949. Plaintiff was present in person and by Ed. R. Coulter, her attorney of record; defendant was present neither in person nor by attorney and the following proceedings were had:

It appearing that service of process was had upon the defendant by the publication thereof pursuant to an order of the Court duly and regularly made, and that the time for answering said complaint has expired and that the defendant has neither answered or otherwise pleaded to said complaint;

On motion of Ed. R. Coulter, attorney for the plaintiff, the default of the defendant, Amos W. Durrell, is hereby entered.

Thereupon evidence is introduced on behalf of the plaintiff, the taking of testimony is closed and the cause is submitted to the Court for decision.

After due deliberation thereon by the Court, the Court finds that the plaintiff and defendant were married at Las Vegas, Nevada, June 30, 1946 and three days after said marriage the defendant abandoned the plaintiff without cause, since which time they have lived separate and apart.

The Court further finds that the defendant immediately left Las Vegas, Nevada, where they lived for said three days' time, and departed for parts unknown and since said time the plaintiff has not had any knowledge of the whereabouts of the defendant, and the defendant has, without cause, failed and refused to live and co-habit with the plaintiff, and that this abandonment of the plaintiff by the defendant has continued for more than one year prior to the commencement of said action. That during said time the defendant has refused to provide the plaintiff with the common necessities of life and these actions on the part of the defendant have been without cause on the part of the plaintiff.

WHEREFORE, it is hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed that the plaintiff, June Anetria Durrell, be and hereby she is granted an absolute divorce from the defendant, Amos. W. Durrell.

DECREE

THIS CAUSE came on regularly to be heard in open Court on this 2nd day of September 1949, the plaintiff being represented by her Attorney J. M. Lampert, and defendant not appearing.

The time for answer having expired, and no answer or other plea having been made to the complaint herein within the time fixed by law, or at all, and the records showing lawful service of process, and affidavit being on file showing the defendant is not now, and for more than six months last past, has not been in the military service of the United States of America as defined by section 101 (1) of the Soldier's and Sailor's Relief Act of 1940, or any amendment thereof, the default of the defendant was entered.

Evidence having been presented to the court for the plaintiff and there having been corroboration as to the residence of the plaintiff in the State of Idaho as required by the laws of Idaho; the Court finds that the defendant has been guilty of desertion, as charged in the complaint, and the allegations of the complaint are sustained by the evidence.

The Court also finds that the plaintiff has been a resident of the State of Idaho for the period of more than six full weeks immediately preceding the filing of this action.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and they are hereby dissolved, and the parties hereto are restored to the status of single persons, and it is further ORDERED ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the plaintiff be restored to her maiden name, that of "Marjorie Wescott".

MOTION AND ORDER

Comes now the plaintiff in the above entitled cause, by her attorney Merlin S. Young, and moves the court for its order to amend the final decree of divorce granted to the plaintiff on August 22, 1949 and entered in the Judgment Book No. 5, at Page 327 and to substitute the name of Garrett B. Lowell in the place of Dale T. Lowell in that portion of the decree which awards custody of said child to the plaintiff.

This motion is made on the ground that the name of Dale T. Lowell was inserted in said decree by mistake and in-advertence and that the actual intention of the plaintiff and the court was to award plaintiff the custody of Garrett B. Lowell instead of Dale T. Lowell.

Dated this 9 day of September, 1949.

#2235

The above-entitled cause came on for hearing before the Court in Open Court at Boise, County of Ada, State of Idaho, on the 9th day of September, 1949. The plaintiff appeared in person, and through her attorney, Benj. F. Harrison, and the defendant did not appear, either in person, or by attorney.

It appeared to the Court that the defendant had been served with process by personal service of a copy of the summons and complaint within the state as required by law and had failed to appear and answer the plaintiff's complaint filed in said cause, or otherwise plead thereto, and that no further time had been granted the defendant in which to appear and answer or plead to said cause; and it further appearing from plaintiff's affidavit and satisfactory evidence adduced that the defendant is not, and for more than sixty days prior to the commencement of this action has not been, in any branch of military service of the United States of America, or its allied nations, as contemplated by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, and the Court had ordered the Clerk to enter the default of said defendant according to law.

The plaintiff introduced evidence in behalf of her complaint, which was corroborated by the testimony of one witness as to her residence, and the cause was submitted to the Court for decision, and after considering the evidence and being fully advised, the Court finds the issues in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and that defendant is guilty of extreme cruelty as alleged in plaintiff's complaint, and plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and defendant dissolved, and to be divorced from the defendant.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby, dissolved, and the plaintiff divorced from the defendant.

MARGARET WINSTON COMBS,

Defendant.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

THIS CASE CAME ON REGULARLY for hearing before the court at Boise, Idaho, September 9, 1949, plaintiff appearing in person and with his attorney and witness; no person appearing for or on behalf of the defendant.

IT APPEARING to the satisfaction of the court that the defendant has been served for the time and in the manner provided by law, with summons and complaint, and has made no answer or appearance whatever herein, within the time limited by law; that the defendant is not in any military service whatever and that no cause of military service exists precluding entry of default herein, and that the default of the defendant has been duly and regularly entered according to law,

NOW ON MOTION, of the plaintiff the court proceeds to reception of testimony on plaintiff's behalf and being fully advised, express findings of fact and conclusions of law being waived, the court finds generally for the plaintiff and against the defendant and finds the plaintiff entitled to a decree of divorce,

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED BY THE COURT:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff John W. Combs and the defendant Margaret Winston Combs be and the same are absolutely dissolved and the said parties are finally divorced.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause coming on regularly to be heard this day in open Court, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, W. A. Johnston, and the defendant appearing not, either in person or by attorney; and it appearing to the Court that summons in the above-entitled action was heretofore duly and regularly served upon the defendant outside the state of Idaho pursuant to the authorization of an order duly made and entered herein for personal service of summons on the said defendant outside the state of Idaho, which order is on file herein, and the time for pleading having expired, and it appearing to the Court that the defendant is not in military service of the United States, and the Court having made an order authorizing the default of the defendant to be entered herein, and the default of the defendant having been entered herein as provided by law; and the Court having duly heard and considered the evidence and proof submitted in support of the plaintiff's complaint, and being fully advised in the premises, the Court finds:

That the plaintiff herein, Juanita Hardy, is now and has been a bona fide resident of the state of Idaho for a period of more than six full weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action; and that all and singular the allegations of the complaint are true, and that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief sought in her complaint.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and this does order, adjudge and decree, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff and defendant is dissolved and the obligations thereof released and held for naught.

The above entitled cause came on regularly to be heard and tried before the court at Boise, Ada County, Idaho, on the 23rd day of September, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorneys, Anderson and Thomas, and the defendant not appearing either in person or by attorney;

And upon said hearing, it satisfactorily appearing to the court that the defendant herein, Carl Anschutz, was personally and duly served with summons herein attached to a copy of the complaint referred to in the said summons and on file in this cause, and the defendant having failed to answer, demur or otherwise plead to said complaint and the time for answering, demurring or otherwise pleading to said complaint having expired, and the default of the defendant, Carl Anschutz, having been duly entered according to law, and the court having heard the testimony introduced in behalf of the said plaintiff and in support of her complaint; and upon consideration of the said testimony the court finds upon the first cause of action of the plaintiff the issues in favor of the said plaintiff and against the said defendant and finds that the said defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty of and towards the plaintiff as set forth in said complaint and the court finds upon the second cause of action of the plaintiff the issues in favor of said plaintiff and against the said defendant and finds that the said defendant has been guilty of habitual intemperance which has reasonably inflicted a course of great mental anguish upon said plaintiff as set forth in said complaint and that by reason thereof said plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between plaintiff and defendant dissolved and to be divorced from the said defendant;

The court further finds that there are no children born to the plaintiff and defendant as issue of said marriage, but that there is an adopted daughter, namely, Betty Darlene Anschutz, now of the age of 17½ years, which said daughter was formally adopted by plaintiff and defendant in Dallas Center, Dallas County, Iowa, on the 18th day of November, 1933, and that said minor daughter is now in the care and custody of the plaintiff;

The court further finds that the plaintiff's name, prior to the said marriage between plaintiff and defendant, was Laura Malla Light;

The court further finds that the said plaintiff has been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho for more than six weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff, Laura Halla Anschutz, and the defendant, Carl Anschutz, be, and the same hereby are, dissolved and set aside, and the said plaintiff be, and she hereby is, forever divorced from the defendant, and each the said plaintiff and the said defendant is hereby restored to the status of a single person.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the plaintiff be, and she is hereby, restored the name by which she was known prior to said marriage between plaintiff and defendant, to wit: Laura Halla Light.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUBGED AND DECREED That the plaintiff be, and she hereby is, awarded the sole and exclusive custody and control of the adopted minor child of said marriage of the plaintiff and defendant, to wit: Betty Darlene Anschutz, a daughter, with the right of said defendant to visit said minor child at all reasonable times and to have the said minor child visit him at reasonable times.

JUDGMENT AND DECREE

The above-entitled cause came on regularly to be heard before the court, without jury, on the 30th day of September, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and represented by her attorney, Paul B. Ennis, and the defendant not appearing, either in person or by attorney, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the court that summons had regularly issued and due service of process was had upon said defendant, Sam T. Sasai, and the time for answering, demurring or appearing having expired, and the default of said defendant, Sam T. Sasai, for failing to appear, answer or demur, within the time prescribed by law, having been duly entered on the 30th day of September, 1949;

WHEREUPON Evidence duly corroborated as required by law was introduced by the plaintiff from which it appears to the court that all of the allegations of plaintiff's complaint on file herein are sustained by testimony free from all objections as to competency, admissibility, and sufficiency, and from which the court finds that the said matters so alleged and proved are sufficient to entitle the plaintiff to the relief prayed for in said complaint, and the case being closed and the law in the premises being understood by the Court, the Court at this time makes and renders this final judgment and decree;

WHEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED And this does order, adjudge and decree:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby, forever dissolved and set aside;

2. That the plaintiff be awarded the exclusive care, custody and control of said minor child, Lili Marleine Sasai.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

In this action the defendant, Andrew H. Ceglinski, having been regularly served with process and having failed to appear or answer to plaintiff's complaint herein, and the legal time for answering having expired, and the default of said defendant in the premises having been duly entered according to law; it having appeared by affidavit filed herein that defendant is not in Military Service.

The plaintiff appearing in person and by her counsel, Harry S. Kessler, and having submitted proofs in support of the allegations of her complaint, and it appearing therefrom that the facts as alleged in said complaint are true, and plaintiff is and has been a resident of Ada County, State of Idaho, for more than six full weeks prior to the commencement of this action; and that since and during the marriage of plaintiff and defendant, the defendant has inflicted upon plaintiff grievous bodily injury and grievous mental suffering in particulars as set forth in said complaint, and that the matters so alleged and proved in behalf of plaintiff are sufficient in law to entitle the plaintiff to a decree of divorce and that plaintiff is a proper person to have the custody of the minor children.

Now on motion of Harry S. Kessler, counsel for plaintiff, it is ordered, adjudged, and decreed that the Court, by viture of the power and authority therein vested and in performance of the statute in such case made and provided, does order adjudge, and decree:

FIRST: that the marriage between the plaintiff, Victoria D. Ceglinski, and the defendant, Andrew H. Ceglinski, be dissolved; and that the same is dissolved accordingly, and that said parties are and each of them is free and absolutely released from the bonds of matrimony and all the obligation thereof.

SECOND: and that the plaintiff be and is awarded the care and custody of the minor children to-wit: Dolores Betty Ceglinski and Andrew Billy Ceglinski.

This case came on duly and regularly for hearing before the court on September 30, 1949, and it duly appearing that the defendant has been duly and regularly served with summons within the state of Idaho by personal service, as required by law, and that the time allowed for pleading to the plaintiff's complaint has expired, and that no answer, pleading or other appearance has been filed or made by the defendant, and the plaintiff having appeared in person and by her counsel, Elam & Burke and Clarence L. Hillman, and the defendant having failed to appear herein, either in person or by counsel, or at all, and that the defendant is now residing at Boise, Ada county, Idaho, and that he is not now, and during the pendency of this action has not been, engaged in the Military Service of the United States of America in any capacity whatever, and that he is not now and during the pendency of this action has not been engaged in Military Service as defined in Section 101(1) of the Act of Congress approved October 17, 1940, cited as the Soldiers' and Sailors' Relief Act of 1940, or in any other Act of Congress, and the default of the defendant having been duly entered according to law, the court proceeded to hear such cause; the plaintiff, together with witnesses, having been duly sworn and examined and evidence submitted on the part of plaintiff, and no evidence having been offered on the part of the defendant, and the court being fully advised in the premises, and it appearing to the court that each and every of the allegations contained in the plaintiff's complaint are true, and that the defendant has committed acts of extreme cruelty as alleged in said complaint; and it further duly appearing that since the commencement of this action, subsequent to service of summons on defendant as aforesaid, a property settlement has been duly made between plaintiff and defendant and plaintiff has waived demand for support money, alimony, costs and attorney's fees herein against defendant. All of which the court duly so finds:

It is ordered, adjudged and decreed as follows:

That the bonds of matrimony existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same hereby are, forever dissolved, set aside and held for naught, and that the plaintiff be, and she hereby is freed from all demands or claims of defendant, past, present and future, and that the property settlement made between plaintiff and defendant hereinbefore referred to be, and the same hereby is confirmed; and that plaintiff be and she hereby is restored to her maiden name of Idella Mae Kirby.

MARIETTA VEZINA,) Plaintiff,)
vs.) JUDGMENT AND DECREE RAYMOND VEZINA,)
Defendant.)

The above-entitled action having come on for trial before the Honorable Isaac McDougal, District Judge, this 1st day of September, 1949. Plaintiff appeared in person and with her attorneys, Black & Black of Pocatello, Idaho; defendant did not appear either in person or by attorney.

It appearing from the records and files that the defendant has been duly and regularly served with Summons and Complaint, and has failed to appear, answer or plead thereto, and the time for defendant to appear or plead thereto has not expired, and the Clerk has duly entered the default of defendant for such failure.

Plaintiff and her witness were duly sworn and testified in support of the allegations of the Complaint, and the Court finds from the evidence that all of the allegations of plaintiff's Complaint have been proven by evidence free and clear of all legal objections, that defendant is not engaged in the Military or Armed Services of the United States Government, or in any Department of Public Health, and that plaintiff is entitled to a divorce on the ground of extreme cruelty and to the relief prayed for in the Complaint. The making and entering of formal Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law were waived by defendant's failure to appear and plead herein, and the Court being fully advised in the premises and good cause appearing therefor:

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby dissolved, and plaintiff be, and she is hereby awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant.

2. That the care, custody and control of the minor child of the parties, namely, Toni Marie Vezina, be, and it is, hereby awarded to the plaintiff.

3. That the defendant be, and he is hereby required to pay to plaintiff the sum of $25.00 per month for the support and maintenace of the said minor child, until said child shall reach the age of majority, and unless paid defendant shall not have the right to visit said child.

4. That the defendant be, and he is hereby required to pay the hospital bill at the St. Anthony Hospital of $74.20, and the bill of Doctor Hegsted of $25.00, and the grocery bill to the O. C. Market of approximately $25.00, and all other small community bills existing at this time.

5. That the defendant be, and he is hereby required to pay to plaintiff or to her attorneys, Black & Black of Pocatello, Idaho, the sum of $100.00 for attorney fees for the prosecution of this action, and the further sum of $16.40 for costs laid out and expended herein.

This cause came regularly on to be heard this the First day of September, 1949; the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Robert M. Terrell, and the defendant appearing through his attorneys, Zener & Peterson, and it appearing to the Court that the defendant has heretofore filed his Demurrer to the Complaint of the plaintiff and that such Demurrer has been withdrawn and said defendant declined to plead further in such cause and that the default of the defendant has heretofore been duly and regularly entered for failure to answer or otherwise plead after the withdrawal of the said Demurrer and declining to plead, as aforesaid;

WHEREUPON, the court proceeded to hear the evidence of the plaintiff in support of her complaint; the plaintiff and Robert M. Terrell were sworn and testified for and on behalf of the plaintiff and rested. No one testified for or on behalf of the defendant and the case was closed; and all the evidence being in and having been fully considered by the Court from which it appears that all of the allegations of plaintiff's Complaint have been proven and that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief sought in the Complaint;

WHEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff and defendant be dissolved and that the plaintiff and defendant and each of them be freed from all the obligations thereof and that they and each of them be restored to the status of single persons respectively. That of the community property of the parties hereto a radio phonograph now in the home formerly occupied by the plaintiff and defendant be and the same is awarded to the defendant as his sole and separate property and that all the rest of the community property of the plaintiff and defendant, consisting of household furniture and effects, be and the same is awarded to the plaintiff as her sole and separate property for her sole and separate use.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the plaintiff's maiden name, to-wit: Beverly B. Bistline, is restored to her as her true and legal name.

The above entitled cause came regularly on to be tried upon the 2nd day of September, 1949, before the undersigned, one of the District Judges of the above entitled court, sitting as Judge thereof, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorneys, Jones, Pomeroy & Jones, the defendant appearing in person and by his attorney, Hugh C. Maguire, Jr., and the parties announced that they were ready for trial. Whereupon, the court proceeded to take evidence. The plaintiff in the action testified concerning the allegations of the complaint, and her witness, Ralph H. Jones, was duly sworn and testified in support of the allegations of the complaint. The defendant refused to offer evidence in support of his answer, and the court after hearing the testimony so offered and received and being fully advised in the premises finds that the plaintiff is entitled to a divorce as prayed for in said complaint.

WHEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and upon the evidence heard in this case, and the court being fully advised in the premises.

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the marriage heretofore and now existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same is hereby dissolved, and that each of the parties herein be, and they are, restored to their status of unmarried persons.

This cause came regularly on for trial on the 2nd day of September, 1949, before Honorable L. E. Glennon, District Judge. Louis F. Racine, Jr., attorney at law, appeared for and on behalf of the Plaintiff and Cross-defendant. Phillips & Haight, attorneys at law, appeared for and on behalf of the Defendant and Cross-complainant. The evidence was introduced on the issue by the complaint of the Plaintiff and the Answer of the Defendant thereto, and the Cross-complaint of the Defendant and the Answer of the Plaintiff thereto. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law were expressly waived by the parties, and said cause was submitted to the Court for decision.

The Court, now being fully advised on the laws and the premises,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED, that the Plaintiff take nothing by reason of his complaint, and that a Divorce be and is hereby granted the Cross-complainant against the Cross-defendant upon her complaint, and that the marriage existing between the said parties be and the same is hereby dissolved and the said Neil K. Chase and Helen F. Chase and each of them be and they are hereby restored to the status of single persons.

That the care, custody, and control of the minor child Steven Michael is hereby awarded to Neil K. Chase, but that said Helen F. Chase shall have the custody of said child for a period of three (3) months during each calendar year, and that the three month's period during which she shall have custody of said child shall be mutually agreed between the parties.

That the care, custody, and control of the minor children Nancy Karen and William Paul is hereby awarded to Helen F. Chase, and the said Neil K. Chase shall have the right to the custody of said children for a period of three (3) months of each calendar year, said three month's period to be during the summer of the year and to be determined in such a way as to not interfere with education of said children.

That the Plaintiff, Neil K. Chase, shall pay to the Defendant, Helen F. Chase, the sum of $35.00 per month for each of the two minor children whose custody have been herein awarded to said Helen F. Chase, said payments to commence on September 15, 1949, and to be paid on the Fifteenth day of each succeeding month; however, said payments are not to be made to Helen F. Chase when said children are in the custody for the three month's period aforesaid of the said Neil K. Chase.

That the Plaintiff, Neil K. Chase, shall pay to Helen F. Chase the sum of $100.00 per month as alimony for the remainder of her liftime, or until her remarriage, first payment to be made September 15, 1949, and each successive payment thereafter to be made on the Fifteenth day of every month thereafter.

That that certain Agreement entered into by and between the parties hereto, dated the 25th day of August, 1949, which Agreement divided between the parties all the community property which had been acquired during the existence of said marriage of said parties be, and the same is hereby ratified, adopted, and made a part of this Decree.

DECREE.

This cause came on regularly to be heard before the Honorable Isaac McDougall, Judge of the above entitled court, sitting at chambers at Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho, this 8th day of September, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and by and thrru his attorneys, Bistline & Bistline, and the defendant not appearing either in person or by counsel; and it further appearing that the defendant has been duly and regularly served with Summons, and the defendant having failed to appear and answer said Complaint within the time allowed by law, or at all, and her default in the premises having been duly entered; and it further appearing to the court that the defendant is not in any of the military services of the United States of America;

WHEREUPON, said plaintiff and his witness were duly sworn and examined, and evidence introduced from which it appears that all of the material allegations of the complaint are sustained by testimony free from all legal objections to its competency, admissibility or sufficiency; that said matters so alleged and proven in behalf of plaintiff by the evidence so adduced are sufficient to entitle plaintiff to the relief prayed for in said complaint;

And it further appearing to that there is no issue of said marriage, and that the parties have no community property, and the court being fully advised in the premises:

NOW, On Motion of Bistline & Bistline, attorneys for the plaintiff:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff E. T. The above-entitled action having come on for trial before the Honorable Isaac McDougall, District Judge, this 9 day of September, 1949. Plaintiff appeared in person and with her attorneys, Black & Black of Pocatello, Idaho; defendant did not appear, either in person or by attorney.

It appearing from the records and files that the defendant has been duly and regularly served with Summons and Complaint, and has failed to appear, answer or plead thereto, and the time for defendant to appear or plead thereto has now expired, and the Clerk has duly entered the default of defendant for such failure.

Plaintiff and her witness were duly sworn and testified in support of the allegations of the Complaint, and the Court finds from the evidence that all of the allegations of plaintiff's Complaint have been proven by evidence free and clear of all legal objections; that defendant is not engaged in the Military or Armed Services of the United States Government, or in any Department of Public Health, and that plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in the Complaint. The making and entering of formal Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law were waived by defendant's failure to appear and plead herein, and the Court being fully advised in the premises and good cause appearing therefor:

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby dissolved, and plaintiff be, and she is hereby awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant.

2. That the plaintiff's former name of Ellen Kingsford be, and the same is hereby restored to her use.

Plaintiff,)
vs.) JUDGMENT AND DECREE STANLEY ARTHUR POTTER,)
Defendant.)

This cause came on for trial before the Honorable Isaac McDougall, District Judge, this 10th day of September, 1949. Plaintiff was present in person and with her counsel, Black and Black of Pocatello, Idaho; defendant was not present, either in person or by counsel. It appeared from the records and files that the defendant has been duly and regularly served with process and has failed to appear or plead thereto, and the time for defendant to appear or plead has now expired and the Clerk has duly entered the default of the defendant.

Plaintiff and her witness were duly sworn and testified in support of the allegations of the Complaint, and a written Stipulation between the parties with regard to property, suit money, and custody and support of the minor children was offered in evidence by plaintiff and admitted by the Court. After hearing the evidence, the Court finds that the allegations of plaintiff's Complaint have been proven by evidence free and clear of all legal objections, and plaintiff is entitled to a divorce from the defendant on the ground of extreme cruelty; that the making and entering of formal Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law have been waived by defendant's failure to appear herein; that defendant is not a member of the Armed Services of the United States; that said Stipulation is fair in its terms, and its provisions incorporated in this Decree, and that plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in the Complaint.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Court being fully advised in the premises,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby dissolved, and that plaintiff be, and she is, hereby awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant, and that said parties are, and each of them is, hereby restored to the status of a single person.

2. That the custody of the minor children of the parties, namely, Ida Kathleen Potter, daughter aged 5 years, Jerry Michael, son aged 4 years, Ginger Renee, daughter aged 3 years, Stanley William, son aged 1 year, and Nicky Valeen, daughter aged 7 months, is hereby awarded to the plaintiff with the right on the part of defendant to visit said children at reasonable times when defendant is not in default of the payments required to be made by the Court of defendant for their support and maintenance.

3. That the defendant is hereby required to pay to the plaintiff the sum of $100.00, payable per month, for the support and maintenance of said minor children, until they arrive at the age of 18 years, and as each child arrives at the age of 18 years the said amount shall be reduced one-fifth for each child arriving at said age.

That said payments shall be made on the 20th day of each month hereafter beginning September 20th, 1949, or said sum of $100.00 may be paid semi-monthly by paying one-half on the 20th day of each month and the other one-half on the 5th day of each month; all payments are to be paid directly to plaintiff.

4. That defendant is hereby required to pay to Black and Black, attorneys for plaintiff, the sum of $75.00 for representing plaintiff in this action, and said sum shall be paid within 60 days after date of this Decree.

5. That plaintiff is hereby awarded as her sole and separate property the radio, bedding, linens, cooking utensils, and dishes which are now in her possession.

Dated this 10th day of September, 1949.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This matter came duly on for hearing before the undersigned District Judge of the above entitled court, in his Chambers in Pocatello, Idaho, on the 13th day of September, 1949.

The plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, F. E. Tydeman.

The defendant failed to appear, either in person or by his attorney.

It appearing that a duly verified complaint was filed in the above entitled matter, and that thereupon a summons was issued; and

It further appearing that the said summons was duly served upon the defendant, and the summons with due proof of service thereof has been filed in the above entitled court, and is now on file herein, and that the defendant has failed to appear and plead to the said complaint within the time specified in said summons and is in default therefor; and

It further appearing that the clerk of the above entitled court has duly entered the defendant's default, and the plaintff being entitled to proceed with proof of the allegations of her complaint, testimony was heard by the court in support of said complaint, and from said testimony it appears that the allegations thereof are true:

The court finds that the plaintiff has been an actual bona fide resident of the State of Idaho for more than six weeks prior to the filing of the complaint; that the plaintiff and defendant were married at Pocatello, Idaho, December 16, 1947; that no children have been born of said marriage; that the parties own no community property; and that during the married life of the parties hereto the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty; and that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in said complaint.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the parties hereto be, and they are hereby dissolved and set aside, and the parties are restored to the status of single persons. The former name of Dorothy Marie Fuger is restored to the palaintifj.

It is also ordered that the plaintiff have judgment against the defendant for the sum of $ 75.00 as attorney's fees herein, and for her costs and disbursements in the sum of $16.40.

Dated this 13th day of September, 1949.

This cause came on regularly to be heard before the undersigned District-Judge in his Chambers at Pocatello, Idaho, on the 13th day of September, 1949.

The plaintiff appearing in person and by his attorneys, Jones, Pomeroy & Jones, and no one appearing for or in behalf of the above named defendant, and it appearing to the Court that the defendant was duly served with a summons and complaint in said action and failed to appear, plead or answer to the complaint within the time provided by law or at all.

UPON MOTION of the attorneys for the plaintiff, default was entered against the defendant.

It appearing to the court that no evidence was offered for and on behalf of defendant and evidence being offered and received for and in support of the complaint of plaintiff. Evidence being closed, the case was submitted to the court for consideration and decision and after due deliberation thereon the court ordered that judgment be entered in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant in accordance with the prayer of the said complaint, and that all the allegations in said complaint of the plaintiff are true and such are found to be the fact.

NOW THEREFORE, the law and the evidence being by this court fully understood and considered;

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED (1) that the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant be and they hereby are absolutely dissolved and held for naught and each of the parties restored to the status of a single person; (2) That the 1949 Frazier sedan automobile be and it hereby is awarded to the plaintiff as his sole and separate property.

This cause came on for trial before the Honorable Isaac McDougall, District Judge, this 19 day of September, 1949. Plaintiff was present in person and with her counsel, Black & Black of Pocatello, Idaho; defendant was not present, either in person or by counsel. It appeared from the records and files that the defendant has been duly and regularly served with process and has failed to appear or plead thereto, and the time for defendant to appear or plead has now expired and the Clerk has duly entered the default of the defendant.

Plaintiff and her witness were duly sworn and testified in support of the allegations of the Complaint, and a written Stipulation between the parties with regard to property, suit money, and custody and support of the minor children was offered in evidence by plaintiff and admitted by the Court. After hearing the evidence, the Court finds that the allegations of plaintiff's Complaint have been proven by evidence free and clear of all legal objections, and plaintiff is entitled to a divorce from the defendant on the ground of extreme cruelty; that the making and entering of formal Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law have been waived by defendant's failure to appear herein; that defendant is not a member of the Armed Services of the United States; that said Stipulation is fair in its terms, and its provisions incorporated in this Decree, and that plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in the Complaint.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Court being fully advised in the premises:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby dissolved, and that plaintiff be, and she is, hereby awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant, and that said parties are, and each of them is, hereby restored to the status of a single person.

2. That the care, custody and control of the three minor children, namely, Ronald Allen now aged 15 years, Richard Allen now aged 13 years, and Diana Allen now aged 6½ years, is hereby awarded to the plaintiff with the right on the part of defendant to visit said children at all reasonable times and places.

3. That the defendant is hereby required to pay to plaintiff for the support, maintenance, and education of the three minor children of the parties the sum of $75.00 per month beginning September 15th, 1949, and the same to be payable one-half on the 15th and one-half on the 1st day of each month thereafter until said children arrive at the age of 18 years, and when each child arrives at the age of 18 years, the monthly payments shall be reduced by $25.00.

4. That the defendant is hereby required to pay to plaintiff for her use in paying her attorneys, Black & Black of Pocatello, Idaho, the sum of $75.00 as attorneys fees for the prosecution of this action, said sum to be paid on or before October 22nd, 1949.

5. That the real property consisting of:

Lot 15 and the westerly one-half of Lot 16, Block 172, Pocatello Townsite, Bannock County, State of Idaho, and all improvements thereon is hereby awarded to the plaintiff.

That the defendant hereby has the right to use the garage building now used by him as a machine shop or garage and is located on the easterly end of said real property for a period of three years from date hereof without paying rent therefore; said defendant to keep up said garage in repair, and pay the electric bill for said garage and one-half the water on the property therefor at has expense.

That the defendant is hereby required to pay the taxes that are delinquent on said property for the years 1947 and 1948, and shall pay the same with interest and penelties thereon, on or before June 1st, 1950.

That the plaintiff is hereby required to pay the 1949 taxes on said property, and taxes for the succeeding years.

That the defendant is hereby required to pay the remaining payments for the bricksite siding contract in the amount of $14.38 per month as the payments come due until the remaining payments are paid on said contract.

6. That the plaintiff is hereby awarded the 1938 DeSoto Sedan automobile, and that the plaintiff is hereby required to pay the balance now unpaid and owing on said car.

7. That the defendant is hereby awarded as his sole and separate property the Dodge, 1939 Pickup Truck.

8. That the defendant is further awarded as his sole and separate property all mechanic tools and stock of merchandise and equipment owned by the parties and now located in the garage or owned by the parties.

8. That the plaintiff is hereby awarded as her sole and separate property all furniture in the home on said above-described lots consisting of:

Electric refrigerator, vacuum cleaner, 2 oil heaters, chrome breakfast set, coal range, phonograph and radio, davano set, bedroom set, bed and bedding, linens, dishes, cooking utensils, electric washing machine, and other miscellaneous items all in said house above described.

JUDGMENT AND DECREE

This cause came on regularly for hearing before the Honorable Isaac McDougall, District Judge of the above Court, at Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho, on the 24th day of September, 1949. Plaintiff appeared in person and with her counsel, Black & Black of Pocatello, Idaho; defendant did not appear, either in person or by counsel.

It appeared to the Court that Summons and Complaint in this cause were duly and regularly served by personal service thereof upon the defendant, but that said defendant failed within the time allowed by law, or at all, to appear and plead to or answer the Complaint of the plaintiff herein; and it further appeared that defendant is not in the Armed Forces of the United States and that the default of the defendant for failing to appear and plead was duly and regularly entered. Evidence both oral and documentary was thereupon introduced for and on behalf of plaintiff by plaintiff and her witness, and from the evidence the court finds that all of the material allegations of plaintiff's Complaint are true and correct and such are found to be the facts, and that plaintiff is entitled to a divorce on the ground of extreme cruelty, and is entitled to the relief prayed for in the Complaint.

It further appeared that subsequent to the filing of the Complaint herein, the parties to this action entered into a written Stipulation, by the terms of which they agreed upon the division of the community property, suit money, alimony, and attorneys fees, which Stipulation has been presented to the Court, and the Court further orders that said Stipulation is approved by the Court, and the terms thereof are hereinafter incorporated in this Decree; and the making and entering of formal Findings of Fact and Conclusions of law were waived by default of the defendant.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Court being fully advised in the premises,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby dissolved, and the plaintiff be, and she is, hereby awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant, and that said parties are, and each of them is, hereby restored to the status of a single person.

2. That the plaintiff is hereby awarded as her sole and separate property the following described real property:

> The south half of Lot 9 in SW Quarter of SE Quarter, Section 15, Township 6, South Range 34 E. B. M. of Brennan and Cahoon Acres according to the plat thereof on file in the office of the County Recorder of Bannock County, Idaho, subject to the remaining indebtedness thereon which plaintiff shall assume and pay.

That the plaintiff is further awarded as her sole and separate property the following described real property:

> The undivided half interest in Lots 13 and 14 of Block 475, Pocatello Townsite, Bannock County, Idaho, according to the official plat thereof on file.

3. That the plaintiff is hereby awarded as her sole and separate property the following described personal property:

> All of the household goods and furniture located in the home of plaintiff on said Brennan and Cahoon Acres in Bannock County, Idaho.

4. That the plaintiff is further awarded as her sole and separate property one 1942 Pontiac, two door sedan, motor number 505176, title number A501302, which automobile was purchased by plaintiff and paid for entirely from her separate funds and property.

The defendant has no right, title, or interest in and to any of the above described real and personal property.

5. That the defendant is hereby awarded as his sole and separate property all monies which he has in the bank, all stocks or bonds or any other personal property he might have.

DECREE

This cause came on this day to be heard on the complaint of the plaintiff, Don J. McClenahan appearing as attorney for the plaintiff, and John A. Carver, Jr. appearing as attorney for the defendant, and thereupon the parties announced themselves ready for trial and the said cause was tried upon the complaint of the plaintiff and the answer of the defendant thereto.

WHEREUPON the Court proceeded to hear the testimony and examined the evidence offered, and upon the testimony of the plaintiff, duly corroborated as to the residence of said plaintiff, it appearing to the Court that the allegations of the complaint are sustained by the testimony and are sufficient in law to entitle the plaintiff to the relief prayed for, and particularly that the plaintiff is, and was, for a period of six full weeks prior to the filing of his complaint, a resident of the state of Idaho; it further appearing that the plaintiff and the defendant have entered into a property settlement agreement; and it further appearing to the Court that the property settlement agreement made and entered into between the plaintiff and said defendant on the 18th day of July, 1949, is fair and equitable and ought to be confirmed; and it further appearing to the court that the defendant is a fit and proper person to have the custody of the minor child;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

(1) That the marriage heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same is hereby dissolved, and that the parties are and each of them is free from the bonds of matrimony and all obligations thereof;

(2) That the custody of the minor child of the plaintiff and the defendant be, and the same is hereby awarded to the defendant, subject to reasonable rights of visitation by the plaintiff.

(3) That the plaintiff shall pay the sum of $75.00 per month for the support and maintenance of said minor child until said minor child shall attain the age of 21 years, and said payments by the plaintiff to be for the sole use and benefit of the child.

(4) That the property settlement agreement made and entered into between plaintiff and said defendant on the 18th day of July, 1949, be, and the same is hereby confirmed.

GLADYS LEE ROMRIELL, Plaintiff,	)
vs.	)	DECREE OF DIVORCE
CALVIN C. ROMRIELL, Defendant.	)

This cause came regularly on to be heard before the Court sitting without a jury at chambers in Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho, on the 24th day of September, 1949. Merrill and Merrill, attorneys at law, appeared for and on behalf of the plaintiff, and no one appeared for and on behalf of the defendant; and

It appearing to the Court that the defendant was duly and regularly served with Summons; that the said defendant failed to appear and plead to plaintiff's complaint within the time allowed by law or at all, and his default for failing to plead to plaintiff's complaint on file herein has been duly and regularly entered according to law; and

It further appearing to the Court and the Court finds from the evidence offered and received for and on behalf of the plaintiff that both the plaintiff and the defendant are now and have been for more than six weeks last past bonafide residents of the State of Idaho, living at McCammon, Bannock County, Idaho, and that all of the material allegations of the plaintiff's complaint are true and correct and that a Decree of Divorce should be entered in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant for the fault of the defendant; and

It further appearing to the Court from the evidence introduced that the parties have agreed that the equity of said parties in the real estate located in Bannock County, Idaho, and described as follows, to-wit:

> Lots two and three, Block three, South McCammon Townsite in Bannock County, Idaho;

together with the furniture and fixtures located therein and one 1938 Chevrolet 2-door sedan should be awarded to the defendant and that there should be awarded to said plaintiff all of her personal belongings; and

It further appearing to the Court that there has been born of said marriage two children, to-wit: Gordon Lee Romriell, age 7 years and Ida Colleene Romriell, age 3½ years, and that the care,custody and control of the said Gordon Lee Romriell should be awarded to the defendant and that the care, custody and control of Ida Colleene Romriell should be awarded to the plaintiff, and that the said defendant, Calvin C. Romriell, should pay to the said plaintiff, Gladys Lee Romriell, the sum of $20.00 per month for the care, maintenance and education of the said minor child, Ida Colleene Romriell, and should further pay to the said plaintiff the sum of $146.50 for court costs and attorneys fees; and

The Court being fully advised on the premises,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff, Gladys Lee Romriell, and the defendant, Calvin C. Romriell, be and the same are hereby dissolved and the parties are freed from the obligations thereof and each of them is restored to the status of single persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the following described property, to-wit:

> Lots two and three, Block three, South McCammon Townsite, in Bannock County, Idaho;

together with the furniture and fixtures located therein on the property above described and one 1938 Chevrolet 2-door sedan, be and the same are hereby awarded to the defendant, Calvin C. Romriell, as his sole and separate property, free and clear of any claim or right of the plaintiff, Gladys Lee Romriell, therein except as hereinafter set forth.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That all of the personal clothing and effects of the plaintiff, Gladys Lee Romriell, be and the same are hereby awarded to her.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the custody and control of Gordon Lee Romriell, age seven years, minor child of said parties, be and he is hereby awarded to the defendant, Calvin C. Romriell, with the right of the plaintiff, Gladys Lee Romriell, to visit said child at any reasonable time and with the right of the child to visit the said Gladys Lee Romriell at any reasonable time so long as said visitations do not in any way interfere with the care and control of the defendant over said minor child.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the custody and control of Ida Colleene Romriell, age three and one-half years, minor child of said parties, be and she is hereby awarded to the plaintiff, Gladys Lee Romriell, with the right of the defendant, Calvin C. Romriell, to visit said child at any reasonable time and with the right of the child to visit the said Calvin C. Romriell at any reasonable time so long as said visitations do not in any way interfere with the care and control of the plaintiff over said minor child.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the defendant, Calvin C. Romriell, pay to the plaintiff, Gladys Lee Romriell, for the care, maintenance and education of Ida Colleene Romriell, minor child of said parties, the sum of $20.00 per month, the same to be paid on the first day of October, 1949 and on the first day of each and every month thereafter until said minor child comes of age or until further ordered by this Court.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the defendant, Calvin C. Romriell, pay to the plaintiff, Gladys Lee Romriell, the sum of $146.50, the same being court costs and attorneys fees in this action, and that the said plaintiff, Gladys Lee Romriell, have judgment against the said defendant, Calvin C. Romriell, for said amount of $146.50, the same to constitute a lien against the real estate above described until the same is fully paid.

SEP 28 10 14 AM

This cause came on regularly to be heard before the undersigned District Judge in his Chambers at Pocatello, Idaho, on the 28th day of September, 1949.

The plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorneys, Jones, Pomeroy, & Jones, and no one appearing for or in behalf of the above named defendant, and it appearing to the Court that the defendant was duly served with a summons and complaint in said action and failed to appear, plead or answer to the complaint within the time provided by law or at all.

UPON MOTION of the attorneys for the plaintiff, default was entered against the defendant.

It appearing to the court that no evidence was offered for and on behalf of defendant and evidence being offered and received for and in support of the complaint of plaintiff. Evidence being closed, the case was submitted to the court for consideration and decision and after due deliberation thereon the court ordered that judgment be entered in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant in accordance with the prayer of the said complaint, and that all the allegations in said complaint of the plaintiff are true and such are found to be the fact.

NOW THEREFORE, the law and the evidence being by this court fully understood and considered;

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED (1) that the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant be and they hereby are absolutely dissolved and held for naught and each of the parties restored to the status of a single person; (2) that the care, custody and control of the minor child of the parties hereto, namely, Paul Lee Schreiner, of the age of eleven years, be and he is hereby awarded to the plaintiff herein.

JAMES H. NELSON, Plaintiff, vs. JOYE L. NELSON, Defendant.	DECREE OF DIVORCE

In this action the defendant, Joye L. Nelson, having been duly and regularly served with Summons and Complaint in the manner provided by law, and the said defendant having failed to appear and plead or answer to the plaintiff's complaint on file herein, and the time allowed by law for pleading and answering herein having expired, and it appearing from the acknowledgment of the defendant on file herein that she is not engaged in the military or naval service of the United States of America, the default of the said defendant, in the premises, having been duly entered herein according to law, this cause came on regularly to be heard before the Judge of the above entitled Court at Chambers in the City of Blackfoot, Bingham County, Idaho, upon the complaint of the plaintiff and the default of the defendant; L. Ivan Jensen, Esq., appearing on behalf of the plaintiff, and the defendant not appearing either in person or by counsel, the Court proceeded to hear the testimony adduced on behalf of the plaintiff, from which it appears that all the material allegations of the plaintiff's complaint are true and are proved true by competent evidence, free from objection or exception as to its sufficiency, relevancy and materiality, and that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in said complaint.

NOW THEREFORE, the Court being fully advised in the law and the premises, and upon motion of L. Ivan Jensen, Attorney for the Plaintiff,-

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff, James H. Nelson, and the defendant, Joye L. Nelson, be, and the same are hereby absolutely dissolved, and the said parties are, and each of them is, hereby restored to the status of single persons.

BONNIE JEANNE MILLIGAN, Plaintiff, vs. KLDON J. MILLIGAN, Defendant.	JUDGMENT AND DECREE

This cause came on regularly to be heard before Honorable Preston Thatcher, Judge of the above entitled Court, sitting without a jury, at Blackfoot, Bingham County, Idaho, during the May Term, 1949, thereof on this 7th day of September, 1949, upon the complaint of the plaintiff herein taken as confessed for failure of the defendant to either appear, plead or answer herein, Karl M. Cory, attorney at law, appearing on behalf of the plaintiff and the plaintiff appearing in person, and the defendant not appearing either in person or by counsel, and it satisfactorily appearing to the Court that due service of process was had upon the defendant herein, that the defendant has not pleaded, answered or appeared herein, and that the time for answering to said complaint has expired and that the default of the said defendant has been duly and regularly entered according to law, the Court proceeded to hear the testimony adduced on behalf of the plaintiff from which it satisfactorily appears to the Court that all of the material allegations of the plaintiff's complaint are proved by competent evidence free from any exception or objection as to its sufficiency, competency and relevancy, and that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in the complaint, and the Court being fully advised in the premises, WHEREUPON IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff, Bonnie Jeanne Milligan, and the defendant, Kldon J. Milligan, be and the same are hereby absolutely dissolved and said parties are, and each of them is, hereby restored to the status of single persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the plaintiff, Bonnie Jeanne Milligan, be and she is hereby restored to her maiden name, to-wit: Bonnie Jeanne Hall.

BETTY FARRIS SIMMONS, Plaintiff, -vs- ROBERT H. SIMMONS, Defendant.	COPY FINAL JUDGMENT AND DECREE OF DIVORCE

The above entitled action having been brought on regularly to be heard and tried before the Honorable Preston Thatcher, Judge of the above entitled Court, sitting without a jury, on the 14th day of September, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person and with her counsel of record, Donald R. Good, Esq., and the defendant failing to appear herein in person, or by counsel, and having failed to file any pleading in this action, and the default of the said defendant, Robert H. Simmons, having been heretofore duly and regularly entered herein according to law, and it appearing that the defendant is not in the military service or the naval service of the United States within the purview of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, and the Court finds that all material allegations and averments of plaintiff's Complaint are sustained by testimony free from all legal exceptions as to competency, admissibility or sufficiency, and that said matters so alleged and proved by the testimony of two competent witnesses in behalf of said plaintiff are sufficient in law to entitle the plaintiff to the relief prayed for in her said Complaint;

The Court finds that the plaintiff is a resident of the State of Idaho, and was such a resident of said State at the time of the commencement of this action, and for a period of more than six weeks immediately prior thereto, and that due and legal service of the Summons and Complaint in said action has been made upon the said defendant, Robert H. Simmons, by the Sheriff of Bingham County, State of Idaho, and that the time allowed by law has expired and that the said defendant has failed to appear herein or plead in person or by counsel, or otherwise, or at all, and the default of the said defendant has been duly and regularly entered herein, and the Court being fully advised in the premises;

NOW, THEREFORE, upon Motion of Donald R. Good, Esq., attorney of record for plaintiff, It Is Ordered, Adjudged and Decreed by this Court, by virtue of the power and authority therein vested, and in pursuance of the statutes in such cases made and provided, the said Court does hereby Order, Adjudge and Decree that the marriage between the plaintiff, Betty Farris Simmons, and the said defendant, Robert H. Simmons, be dissolved, and the same is hereby dissolved accordingly, and the said parties are, and each of them is freed absolutely and released from said bonds of matrimony, and all of the obligations thereof, and restored to the status of single persons;

IT IS FURTHER SO ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the following described separate and community personal property, to-wit:

> One sectional living set consisting of three pieces; one platform rocker; one dinette set, consisting of six chairs and table; one 8 x 12 rug and one drum table;
> One bedroom suite consisting of bed, springs and mattress; chest of drawers, dressing table, bench and night stand; one cedar chest; and miscellaneous dishes, bedding and linens;

be, and the same are awarded to the plaintiff as her sole and separate property, free from all right, title, claim or interest of the defendant in or to the same, or any part or portion thereof;

IT IS FURTHER SO ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the following described personal property of the parties, to-wit:

One 1937 model Ford Coupe; be, and the same is awarded to the defendant as his sole and separate property, free from all right, title, claim or interest of the plaintiff in or to the same, or any part or portion thereof; subject to all existing liens and encumbrances thereon;

IT IS FURTHER SO ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the care, custody and control of the minor child, Robert Farris

Simmons, be, and the same is hereby awarded to the plaintiff, Betty Farris Simmons, provided, however, that the defendant shall have the right to see and visit said child at all reasonable, proper and convenient times and places so long as he shall comply with the provisions of this Decree with respect to the payment of the amount required for the support, maintenance and education of said minor child;

IT IS FURTHER SO ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the defendant be required to pay to plaintiff the sum of $50.00 on the 1st day of October, 1949, and a like amount each and every thirty days thereafter, pending the further Order of the Court herein, for the support, maintenance and education of the minor child, Robert Farris Simmons.

FINAL JUDGMENT AND DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came on regularly for trial upon the Complaint of the plaintiff and the Answer of the defendant thereto this 14th day of September, 1949, the plaintiff appearing in person, by her Guardian Ad Litem, Lavon Rider and by her attorney of record, Donald R. Good, Esq., and the defendant failing to appear in person or by his attorney of record, Carl C. Christensen; whereupon the Court proceeded to hear the evidence and testimony adduced on behalf of the plaintiff and thereupon admitted in evidence the Stipulation of the attorneys of record for the respective parties hereto, which said Stipulation the Court approves and adopts, and the parties having waived the making of Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff, Margie Joyleen Gibbs, and the defendant, George Eugene Gibbs, be, and the same are hereby dissolved absolutely, and that said parties be, and they are hereby restored to the status of single persons;

IT IS FURTHER SO ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the defendant be, and he is hereby directed to pay all doctor and hospital bills, medicants and supplies incidental to or occasioned by the plaintiff's present condition of pregnancy in a total sum not to exceed $125.00;

IT IS FURTHER SO ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That in the event a living child is born to plaintiff by reason of her present state and condition of pregnancy, that the defendant shall be required to pay to plaintiff thirty days from and after date of the birth of said child and each and every thirty days thereafter, pending the further order of this Court herein, the sum of $25.00 for the support and maintenance of said minor child;

IT IS FURTHER SO ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the care, custody and control of any minor child born as a result of the present pregnancy of the plaintiff be, and the same is hereby awarded to the plaintiff, Margie Joyleen Gibbs, pending the further order of the Court herein, provided, however, that the defendant shall have the right and privilege to see and visit said minor child at all reasonable, proper and convenient times and places so long as he shall have fully complied with the provisions of this Decree with respect to the payments to be made for the support and maintenance of said child;

IT IS FURTHER SO ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the 1947 model four-door Dodge Sedan mentioned and described in said Complaint be, and the same is hereby awarded to the defendant as his sole and separate property, free from all right, title, claim or interest of the plaintiff in or to the same, or any part or portion thereof;

IT IS FURTHER SO ORDERED ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the remaining personal property mentioned and described in said Complaint, to-wit;

Two table lamps, one dinner set, miscellaneous silverware, dishes, linens, bedding and cooking utensils; be, and the same are hereby awarded to the plaintiff as her sole and separate property, free from allright, title, claim or interest of the defendant in or to the same, or any part or portion thereof;

vs.

Richard K. Paxton,
Defendant

In this action the defendant having been duly and regularly personally served with summons and having acknowledged service of summons and complaint and having entered his appearance in writing in said action and subjected himself to the jurisdiction of this Court and having failed to answer within the time allowed and agreed upon as provided in said appearance, and the default of the said defendant having been duly and regularly entered according to law for his failure to appear and plead further, or answer herein within the time allowed therefor, this cause came on for trial before Hon. Preston Thatcher, Judge of the above entitled Court at Blackfoot, Bingham County, Idaho, on the 28th day of September, 1949, upon the complaint of the plaintiff and the default of the defendant as aforesaid, J. H. Andersen, Esq., appearing on behalf of the plaintiff and the defendant not appearing, either in person or by Counsel, the Court proceeded to hear the evidence adduced on behalf of the plaintiff from which it satisfactorily appears to the Court that all of the material allegations of plaintiff's complaint are proved by competent evidence, free from exception or objection as to its sufficiency, relevancy and admissibility, and that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in the complaint.

Now, Therefore, the Court being fully advised in the law and the premises,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff Rita Alice Paxton, and the Defendant, Richard K. Paxton, be, and the same are hereby absolutely dissolved, and said parties are, and each of them is hereby released from the obligations of matrimony and are hereby restored to the status of single persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that until further order of the Court herein, that plaintiff be, and she is hereby awarded the custody of the minor children of said parties, namely, Richard Paxton, age eight years, and Janet Faee Paxton, age six years. Provided: that the defendant may see and visit said children at reasonable times and places so long as he is not in default in compliance with the terms of this decree.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, that until further order of the Court herein, the defendant be, and he is hereby required to pay to the plaintiff, monthly, between the 1st and the 15th day of each and every month hereafter, the sum of $ 150 00, to assist the plaintiff in the care, support, maintenance and education of said minor children, and that said payments shall continue until said children shall have attained their respective majorities.

This cause having come on regularly for trial this 26th. day of August, 1949, the plaintiff appearing by John Forebauer, attorney, and the defendant appearing by John M. Sharp, attorney, and the court having heard the testimony and having examined the proofs offered by the respective parties, and the court being fully advised in the premises, finds the facts as follows:

1. That plaintiff and defendant are, and for more than six weeks preceding the commencement of this action, have been, bona fide residents of the County of Bonneville, State of Idaho.

2. That defendant was duly and regularly served with a true copy of the summons issued out of the above entitled court, in the within cause, attached to which was a true copy of the complaint filed herein.

3. That defendant appeared and filed his answer to plaintiff's complaint filed herein.

4. That this court has jurisdiction of the subject matter of this suit and of the person of the plaintiff and of the person of the defendant.

5. That plaintiff and defendant intermarried in the City of Idaho Falls, State of Idaho, on November 10, 1938, and ever since have been, and now are, wife and husband.

6. That there are three minor children, namely, Patricia Marie, age 8 years, Kenneth Walter, age 6 years, and Jimmy Wayne, age 4 years. That the minor child Patricia Marie is the daughter of plaintiff and defendant by adoption; and that the minor children Kenneth Walter and Jimmy Wayne are issue of said marriage.

7. That the community property of plaintiff and defendant consists of the following:

PERSONAL PROPERTY:

Household furniture, goods and fixtures, of the approximate value of $300.00; one Model 1936 Ford Truck, of the approximate value of $300.00.

REAL PROPERTY:

Lots Forty-six (46), Forty-seven (47) and Forty-eight (48), inclusive, in Block Forty-eight (48) of Highland Park Addition to the Original Town of Eagle Rock, now the City of Idaho Falls, Bonneville County, Idaho, according to the recorded plat thereof, known as 1100 Cassia Avenue in the City of Idaho Falls, Idaho, of the value of approximately $1500.00.

8. That the plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the custody of the minor children of plaintiff and defendant.

9. That the defendant is an able-bodied man, capable of earning in excess of $250.00 per month.

10. That $100.00 attorney's fees and $16.40 costs are reasonable amounts to be allowed plaintiff to enable her to compensate her attorney, John Forebauer, for services rendered in this action.

11. That defendant has treated plaintiff in a cruel and inhuman manner.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

As Conclusions of Law, from the foregoing facts, the Court finds that the plaintiff is entitled to a judgment and decree of divorce on the ground of extreme cruelty, dissolving the bonds of matrimony between plaintiff and defendant; that plaintiff is entitled to the care, custody and control of the minor children, subject to the right of defendant to visit said children at reasonable times and places and in a reasonable manner, and to take said children on short vacations not exceeding one day's duration; that plaintiff be allowed support money for the said minor children as hereinafter set out in the decree; that the community property of plaintiff and defendant be divided as hereinafter set forth in the decree; and that the plaintiff be allowed a reasonable sum from defendant to defray the expenses of this action and for her attorney's fees.

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion of John Ferebauer, attorney for plaintiff, it is hereby considered, adjudged, ordered and decreed, that the marriage heretofore and now existing between the above named plaintiff, Dorothy Dursteler, and the above named defendant, Walter Dursteler, be, and the same hereby is, forever dissolved, set aside and held for naught, and that the plaintiff and defendant, and each of them, be, and they hereby are, restored to the status of single persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the plaintiff have, and she is hereby awarded, the care, custody and control of the minor children, to-wit: Patricia Marie, Kenneth Walter and Jimmy Wayne, subject to the right of defendant to visit with said children at reasonable times and places and in a reasonable manner, and to take the children on short vacations not exceeding one day's duration, and plaintiff will not interfere unduly with the visits of defendant.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that defendant pay to plaintiff the sum of $22.50 support money for each child, each month, until said children respectively reach the age of majority, or until the further order of the Court, the first payment to be due and payable on September 15, 1949.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that plaintiff have, and she is hereby awarded, as her sole and separate property, for her sole and separate use and benefit, all of the household goods, furniture and effects, now located at the residence known as 1100 Cassia Avenue, Idaho Falls, Idaho.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that defendant have, and he is hereby awarded, as his sole and separate property, for his sole and separate use and benefit, the 1936 Model Ford truck.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the following described real property, to-wit:

> Lots Forty-six (46), Forty-seven (47) and Forty-eight (48), in Block Forty-eight (48) of Highland Park Addition to the Original Town of Eagle Rock, now the City of Idaho Falls, Idaho, according to the recorded plat thereof, together with all improvements and hereditaments, be, and the same is hereby awarded one-half to the plaintiff and one-half to the defendant, to be retained, unincumbered, as a residence for the plaintiff herein and the said minor children of the parties hereto, until the youngest of said minor children reaches the age of majority, or until the further order of this court.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that John Ferebauer, have and recover of and from the defendant the sum of $100.00, as a reasonable attorney's fee for services rendered herein, by the said John Ferebauer, to the plaintiff herein, and that execution shall issue therefor.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that plaintiff have and recover of and from defendant her costs and disbursements herein expended, taxed and allowed in the sum of $16.40.

Anderson, appearing in person and by one of his attorneys, Errol H. Hillman, and the plaintiff and cross-defendant, Iva Anderson, appearing not, either in person or by attorney, and it appearing that the above-named plaintiff has moved the Court for an order dismissing her Complaint on file herein, and it appearing that the above-named cross-defendant, Iva Anderson, has been duly and regularly served with cross-complainant's cross-complaint on file herein, and that she has filed herein an appearance submitting herself to the jurisdiction of this Court in respect to the cause of action set forth in said cross-complaint, and has refused to demur, answer, or plead further in said cause, and has consented to an immediate hearing of this case without further notice to her, either in term time or vacation, in open Court or in Chambers, and has waived the making of findings of fact and conclusions of law herein, and has consented that default be entered against her on said cross-complaint, and the default of the said cross-defendant having been duly and regularly entered herein, and the parties hereto having entered into a stipulation with respect to the division of their property and the custody of their minor children, and it appearing to the Judge that said stipulation is in all respects fair, just, and equitable, and the Judge having heard the evidence, and the matter having been submitted, and it appearing that all of the allegations contained in the cross-complainant's cross-complaint are true, and that the cross-complainant is entitled to a divorce on the ground of extreme cruelty, and the Judge being fully advised in the premises;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED as follows:

1. That the plaintiff's Complaint on file herein be, and the same hereby is dismissed.

2. That the bonds of matrimony existing between the cross-complainant, Lewis L. Anderson, and the cross-defendant, Iva Anderson, be, and they are hereby dissolved and each restored to the status of a single person.

3. That the cross-complainant, Lewis L. Anderson, shall have, and he is hereby granted the sole care, custody, and control of the minor child, Max Anderson, provided, however, that the said cross-defendant shall have the right to visit said minor child at all reasonable times and places.

4. That the cross-defendant, Iva Anderson, shall have, and she is hereby granted the sole care, custody, and control of the minor child, Marlene Anderson, provided, however, that the said cross-complainant shall have the right to visit said minor child at all reasonable times and places.

5. That one 1940 Pontiac automobile, one refrigerator, one washing machine, and all other household goods and furniture, excepting one bedroom set and one cedar chest, be, and the same are hereby awarded and decreed to the cross-complainant, Lewis L. Anderson, as his sole and separate property and for his sole and separate use and benefit.

6. That one bedroom set and one cedar chest be awarded and decreed to the cross-defendant, Iva Anderson, as her sole and separate property and for her sole and separate use and benefit.

7. That the cross-defendant, Iva Anderson, has waived all and every claim of every nature and description against the cross-complainant, Lewis L. Anderson, for alimony or support, or for the support of the minor child, Marlene Anderson, or for costs of suit or attorney fees.

NELITA DECKER, Defendant.	)

The above-entitled cause came on for hearing this 2nd day of September, 1949, the plaintiff appearing with counsel, John M. Sharp, and his witness. The defendant did not appear, either in person or by counsel; and it appearing to the court that the defendant was duly and regularly served with process as prescribed by law in such cases made and provided; that the time for answering having expired and defendant has failed to plead thereto; that the default of the defendant has been duly entered, and the Affidavit of Non-military Service duly filed; the plaintiff having submitted proofs touching the allegations of the Complaint, and the court being fully advised in the premises; and it further appearing that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce on the grounds of extreme cruelty,

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

I.

That the marriage heretofore and now existing between the above-named plaintiff, Kenneth L. Decker, and the above-named defendant, Nelita Decker, be, and the same hereby is, forever dissolved, set aside and held for naught.

II.

That the following property, to-wit: The interest which plaintiff and defendant now own in a Westinghouse Refrigerator and in a gas range and water heater, together with all personal items and clothings, be awarded to the plaintiff as his sole and separate property.

III.

That the defendant shall have as her sole and separate property, the interest which plaintiff and defendant now hold in a certain 1940 Pontiac Sedan, together with all her personal belongings and clothing and miscellaneous household items, including kitchen equipment, bedding and linens.

IV.

That the care, custody and control of Katherine LeClaire Decker, the minor child of plaintiff and defendant, be awarded to the defendant, subject to the right of plaintiff to visit said child at all reasonable times and places; that the plaintiff shall pay to the defendant, for the support, maintenance and education of said minor child, the sum of $35.00 each and every month, on or before the 5th day of the month, commencing with August, 1949, for the support, education and well-being of said child until she reaches the age of majority.
